At a Meeting of the Delegates of every Town and Diffrict in the County of Suffolk, on Tuefday the 6th of September, at the Houfe of Mr. Richard Woodward, of Dedham, and by Adjournment at the Houfe of Mr. ——— Vofe, of Milton, on Friday the 9th Inftant, Jofeph Palmer, Efq; being chofen Moderator, and William Thompfon, Efq; Clerk, a Committee was chofen to bring in a Report to the Convention, and the following being feveral Times read, and put Paragraph by Paragraph, was unanimoufly voted, viz.

WHEREAS the Power but not the Juffice, the Vengeance but not the Wildom of Great-Britain, which of old perfecuted, fcourged, and exiled our fugitive Parents from their native Shores, now purfues us their guiltless Children with unrelenting Severity: And whereas this, then favage and uncultivated Defart, was purchased by the Toil and Treasure, or acquired by the Blood and Valour of those our venerable Progenitors; to us they bequeathed the dear bought Inheritance, to our care and protection they configned it, and the most facred Obligations are upon us to transmit the glorious purchase, unfettered by Power, unclogged with Shackles, to our innocent and beloved Offspring. On the Fortitude, on the Wildom and on the Exertions of this important Day, is fuspended the Fate of this new World, and of unborn Millions. If a boundlefs Extent of Continent, fwarming with Millions, will tamely fubmit to live, move and have their Being at the arbitrary Will of a licentious Minister, they bafely yield yield to voluntary Slavery, and future Generations shall load their Memories with inceffant Execrations .- On the other Hand, if we arreft the Hand which would ranfack our Pockets, if we difarm the Parricide which points the Dagger to our Bofoms, if we nobly defeat that fatal Edict which proclaims a power to frame Laws for us in all Cafes whatfoever, thereby entailing the endlefs and numberless Curfes of Slavery upon us, our Heirs and their Heirs forever; if we fuccefsfully refift that unparalleled Ufurpation of unconflitutional power whereby our Capital is robbed of the Means of Life; whereby the Streets of Boston are thronged with military Executioners; whereby our Coasts are lined and Harbours crouded with Ships of War; whereby the Charter of the Colony, that facred Barrier against the Encroachments of Tyranny, is mutilated and in Effect annihilated ; whereby a murderous Law is framed to shelter Villains from the Hands of Justice ; whereby the unalienable and ineftimable Inheritance, which we derived from Nature, the Conftitution of Britain, and the Privileges warranted to us in the Charter of the Province, is totally wrecked, annulled, and vacated, Pofterity will acknowledge that Virtue which preferved them free and happy; and while we enjoy the Rewards and Bleffings of the Faithful, the Torrent of Panegyrifts will roll our Reputations to that lateft Period, when the Streams of Time shall be abforbed in the Abyfs of Eternity.----Therefore we have refolved, and do RESOLVE,

1. That whereas his Majefty George the Third is the rightful Succeffor to the Throne of Great-Britain, and juftly entitled to the Allegiance of the British Realm, and agreeable to Compact, of the English Colonies in America—therefore, we the Heirs and Succeffors of the first Planters of this Colony do chearfully acknowledge the faid George the Third to be our rightful Sovereign, and that faid Covenant is the Tenure and Claim on which are founded our Allegiance and Submiffion.

2. That it is an indifpenfible Duty which we owe to God, our Country, ourfelves and Posterity, by all lawful Ways and Means in our Power to maintain, defend and preferve those civil and religious Rights and Liberties, for which many of our Fathers fought, bled and died, and to hand them down entire to future Generations.

3. That the late Acts of the Britifh Parliament for blocking up the Harbour of Bofton, for altering the eftablished Form of Government in this Colony, and for fcreening the most flagitious Violators of the Laws of the Province from a legal Trial, are gross Infractions of those Rights to which we are justly entitled by the Laws of Nature, the Britifh Constitution, and the Charter of the Province.

4. That

4. That no Obedience is due from this Province to either or any Part of the Acts above-mentioned, but that they be rejected as the Attempts of a wicked Administration to enflave America.

5. That fo long as the Juffices of our Superior Court of Judicature, Court of Affize, &c. and Inferior Court of Common Pleas in this County are appointed, or hold their Places, by any other Tenure than that which the Charter and the Laws of the Province direct, they must be confidered as under undue Influence, and are therefore unconflictuional Officers, and as fuch no Regard ought to be paid to them by the People of this County.

6. That if the Juffices of the Superior Court of Judicature, Affize, &c. Juffices of the Court of Common Pleas, or of the General Seffions of the Peace, shall fit and act during their prefent difqualified State, this County will support and bear harmles all Sheriffs and their Deputies, Conftables, Jurors and other Officers, who shall refuse to carry into Execution the Orders of faid Courts; and as far as poffible to prevent the many Inconveniencies which must be occasioned by a Suspension of the Courts of Justice, we do most earnestly recommend it to all Creditors that they shew all reasonable and even generous Forbearance to their Debtors; and to all Debtors, to pay their just Debts with all possible Speed, and if any Difputes relative to Debts or Trefpaffes shall arife, which cannot be fettled by the Parties, we recommend it to them to fubmit all fuch Caufes to Arbitration ; and it is our Opinion that the contending Parties or either of them, who shall refuse fo to do, ought to be confidered as co-operating with the Enemies of this Country.

7. That it be recommended to the Collectors of Taxes, Conftables and all other Officers, who have public Monies in their Hands, to retain the fame and not to make any Payment thereof to the Provincial County Treafurer until the civil Government of the Province is placed upon a conftitutional Foundation, or until it fhall otherwife be ordered by the propofed Provincial Congrefs.

8. That the Perfons who have accepted Seats at the Council Board, by Virtue of a Mandamus from the King, in Conformity to the late Act of the Britifb Parliament, entitled an Act for the regulating the Government of the Maffachufetts-Bay, have acted in direct Violation of the Duty they owe to their Country, and have thereby given great and juft Offence to this People; therefore refolved, that this County do recommend it to all Perfons, who have fo highly offended by accepting faid Departments, and have not already publicly refigned their Seats at the Council Board, to make public Refignations of their Places at faid Board, on or before the 20th Day of this inftant September ; and that all Perfons refufing fo to do thall, from and after faid Day, be confidered by this County as obflinate and incorrigible Enemics to this Country. 9. That 9. That the Fortifications begun and now carrying on upon Bofton Neck, are juftly alarming to this County, and gives us Reafon to apprehend fome hoftile Intention against that Town, more effectially as the Commander in Chief has in a very extraordinary Manner removed the Powder from the Magazine at *Charlef*town, and has alfo forbidden the Keeper of the Magazine at Bofton, to deliver out to the Owners the Powder, which they had lodged in faid Magazine.

10. That the late Act of Parliament for establishing the Roman Catholic Religion and the French Laws in that extensive Country now called Quebec, is dangerous in an extreme Degree to the Protestant Religion and to the civil Rights and Liberties of all America ; and therefore as Men and protestant Christians, we are indifpenfably obliged to take all proper Meafures for our Security. 11. That whereas our Enemies have flattered themfelves that they shall make an eafy Prey of this numerous, brave and hardy People, from an Apprehension that they are unacquainted with military Discipline; we therefore for the Honour, Defence and Security of this County and Province advise, as it has been recommended to take away all Commissions from the Officers of the Militia, that those who now hold Commissions, or fuch other Perfons be elected in each Town as Officers in the Militia, as shall be judged of fufficient Capacity for that Purpofe, and who have evidenced themfelves the inflexible Friends to the Rights of the People; and that the Inhabitants of those Towns and Districts, who are qualified, do use their utmost Diligence to acquaint themfelves with the Art of War as foon as possible, and do for that Purpofe appear under Arms at leaft once every Week.

12. That during the prefent hoftile Appearances on the Part of Great-Britain, notwithstanding the many Infults and Oppreffions which we most fensibly refent, yet, nevertheless from our Affection to his Majesty, which we have at all Times evidenced, we are determined to act merely upon the Defensive, so long as such Conduct may be vindicated by Reason and the Principles of Self-prefervation, but no longer.

13. That as we understand it has been in Contemplation to apprehend fundry Perfons of this County, who have rendered themfelves confpicuous in contending for the violated Rights and Liberties of their Countrymen; we do recommend, should fuch an audacious Measure be put in Practice, to feize and keep in fafe Custody, every Servant of the prefent tyrannical and unconstitutional Government throughout the County and Province, until the Perfons fo apprehended be liberated from the Hands of our Adversaries, and reftored fafe and uninjured to their respective Friends and Families.

14. That until our Rights are fully reftored to us, we will, to the utmost of our Power, and we recommend the fame to the other other Counties, to withhold all Commercial intercourse with Great Britain, Ireland, and the West Indies, and abstain from the Confumption of British Merchandize and Manufactures, and especially of East India Teas and Piece Goods, with such additions, alterations, and exceptions only, as the General Congress of the Colonies may agree to.

15. That under our present Circumstances, it is incumbent on us to encourage Arts and Manufactures among us by all means in our Power, and that be and are hereby appointed a Committee to confider of the beft Ways and Means to promote and establish the fame, and to report to this Convention as foon as may be.

16. That the exigencies of our public Affairs, demand that a Provincial Congress be called to confult fuch Measures as may be adopted, and vigoroufly executed by the whole People; and we do recommend it to the feveral Towns in this County, to chufe Members for fuch a Provincial Congress, to be holden at Concord, on the fecond Tuesday of October, next enfuing.

17. That this County, confiding in the Wifdom and Integrity of the Continental Congress, now fitting at Philadelphia, pay all due Respect and Submission to such Measures as may be recommended by them to the Colonies, for the reftoration and establishment of their just Rights, Civil and Religious, and for renewing that Harmony and Union between Great Britain and the Colonies fo earneftly wifhed for by all good Men.

18. That whereas the univerfal uneafinefs which prevails among all orders of Men, arifing from the wicked and oppreffive Meafures of the prefent Administration, may influence fome unthinking Perfons to commit outrage upon private Property; we would heartily recommend to all Perfons of this Community, not to engage in any routs, riots, or licentious attacks upon the Properties of any Perfon whatfoever, as being fubverfive of all Order and Government; but by a fleady, manly, uniform, and perfevering Opposition, to convince our Enemies, that in a Contest fo important, in a caufe fo folemn, our conduct shall be fuch as to merit the Approbation of the wife, and the Admiration of the Brave and Free of every age and of every Country.

19. That should our Enemies, by any fudden manœuvres, render it neceffary to afk the Aid and Affishance of our Brethren in the Country, fome one of the Committee of Correspondence, or a Select Man of fuch Town, or the Town adjoining, where fuch Hoftilities shall commence, or shall be expected to commence, shall difpatch Couriers with written Meffages to the Select Men, or Committees of Correspondence, of the several Towns in the Vicinity, with a written Account of fuch Matter, who shall difpatch others to Committees more remote, until proper and fufficient Affistance be obtained, and that the Expence of faid Couriers, Couriers be defrayed by the County, until it shall be otherwise ordered by the Provincial Congress.

At a Meeting of Delegates from the feveral Towns and Districts in the County of Suffolk, held at Milton, on Friday, the 9th Day of September, 1774.—VOTED,

That Dr. Joseph Warren, of Boston, &c. be a Committee to wait on his Excellency the Governor, to inform him, that this County are alarmed at the Fortifications making on Boston Neck, and to remonstrate against the fame, and the repeated Insults offered by the Soldiery, to Persons passing and repassing into that Town, and to confer with him upon those Subjects.

Atteft, WILLIAM THOMSON, Clerk.

"To his Excellency THOMAS GAGE, ESQUIRE, Captain-General, and Commander in Chief of his Majefly's Province of Maffachufett's Bay.

May it please your Excellency,

" THE County of Suffolk being greatly, and in their opinion juftly, alarmed at the formidable appearances of Hoftility, now threatening his Majefty's good Subjects of this County, and more particularly of the Town of Boston, the loyal and faithful Capital of this Province, beg leave to addrefs your Excellency, and represent that the apprehensions of the People, are more particularly increafed by the dangerous Defign now carrying into execution of repairing and manning the Fortification at the South entrance of the Town of Boston, which when completed, may at any Time be improved to aggravate the Miferies of that already impoverished and distressed City, by intercepting the wonted and neceffary intercourfe between the Town and Country, and compel the wretched Inhabitants to the most ignominious state of humiliation and vaffalage, by depriving them of the neceffary Supplies of Provision, for which they are chiefly dependant on that Communication : We have been informed, that your Excellency in confequence of the Application of the Select Men of Bofton, has indeed difavowed any Intention to injure the Town in your prefent manœuvres, and expreffed your Purpofe to be for the Security of the Troops and his Majefty's Subjects in the Town, we are therefore at a lofs to guefs, may it pleafe your Excellency, from whence your want of Confidence in the loyal and orderly People of this Vicinity could originate; a Meafure fo formidable carried into execution, from a pre-conceived though caufelefs Jealoufy of the infecurity of his Majefty's Troops and Subjects in the Town, deeply wounds the loyalty, and is an additional Injury to the faithful Subjects of this County, and affords them a ftrong Motive for this Application: We therefore intreat your Excellency to defift from your Defign, affuring your Excellency, that the People of this County, are by no Means disposed to injure his Majesty's Troops ;

Troops; they think themfelves aggrieved and opprefied by the late Acts of Parliament, and are refolved by Divine Affiftance, never to fubmit to them, but have no Inclination to commence a War with his Majefty's Troops, and beg leave to obferve to your Excellency, that the ferment now excited in the Minds of the People is occafioned by fome late Tranfactions, by feizing the Powder in the Arfenal at Charleform; by withholding the Powder lodged in the Magazine of the Town of Bofton, from the legal Proprietors; infulting, beating, and abufing Paffengers to and from the Town by the Soldiery, in which they have been encouraged by fome of their Officers; putting the People in fear, and menacing them in their nightly Patrole into the neighbouring Towns, and more particularly by the fortifying the fole Avenue by Land to the Town of Bofton.

In duty therefore to his Majefty and to your Excellency, and for the Reftoration of Order and Security to this County, we the Delegates from the feveral Towns in this County, being commiffioned for this Purpofe, beg your Excellency's attention to this our humble and faithful Addrefs; affuring you, that nothing lefs than an immediate Removal of the Ordnance, and reftoring the Entrance into the Town to its former State, and an effectual ftop of all Infults and Abufes in future, can place the Inhabitants of this County in that flate of Peace and Tranquillity, in which every free Subject ought to be."

His Excellency was waited on to know if he would receive the Committee with the above written Addrefs, but defiring he might have a Copy of it in a private way, that fo when he received it from the Committee, he might have an Anfwer prepared for them, he was accordingly furnished with a Copy, his Excellency then declared, that he would receive the Committee on Monday, at 12 o'clock.

In this the Committee of Correspondence inform the Congress, that they " expected fome Regard would have been paid to the Petitions prefented to their Governor, against fortifying their Town in fuch a Manner as can be accounted for only upon the Supposition, that the Town and Country are to be treated by the Soldiery as declared Enemies-that the Entrenchments upon the Neck are nearly compleated-that Cannon are mounted at the Entrance of the Town-that it is currently reported, that Fortifications are to be erected on Corpfe-Hill, Bacon-Hill, Fort-Hill, c. fo that the Fortifications, with the Ships in the Harbour may abfolutely command every Avenue to the Town both by Sea and Land-that a Number of Cannon, the Property of a private Gentleman, were a few Days ago feized and taken from his Wharf by Order of the General-that from feveral Circumflances mentioned in the Letter, there is Reafon to apprehend, that Boston is to be made and kept a garrifoned Town ;---that from all they can hear from Britain, Administration is resolved to do all in their Power to force them to a Submiffion-that when the Town is inclofed, it is apprehended the Inhabitants will be held as Hoftages for the Submiffion of the Country, they apply therefore to the Congress for Advice how to act-that, if the Congress advise to quit the Town, they obey-if it is judged that by maintaining their Ground they can better ferve the public Caufe, they will not firink from Hardship and Danger-finally, that as the late Acts of Parliament have made it impossible that there should be a due Administration of Justice, and all Law therefore must be fufpended-that as the Governor has by Proclamation prevented the Meeting of the General Court, they therefore request the Advice of the Congress."

MONDAY, October 10, 1774.

The Congress refuming the Confideration of the Letter from Bofton ;

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY, That it is the Opinion of this Body, that the Removal of the People of Boston into the Country, would be, not only extremely difficult in the Execution, but fo important in its Confequences, as to require the utmost deliberation before it is adopted; but in cafe the Provincial Meeting of that Colony should judge it abfolutely necessary, it is the Opinion of the Congress, that all America ought to contribute towards recompencing them for the Injury they may thereby fuftain; and it will be recommended accordingly.

Philadelphia, October 10, 1774.

SIR, " THE Inhabitants of the Town of Bofton have informed us, the Reprefentatives of his Majefty's faithful Subjects in all the Colonies from Nova Scotia to Georgia, that the Fortifications erecting within that Town, the frequent invalions of Private Pro-D perty,

perty, and the repeated Infults they receive from the Soldiery, have given them great Reafon to fufpect a Plan is formed very deftructive to them, and tending to overthrow the Liberties of America.

"Your Excellency cannot be a Stranger to the Sentiments of America, with refpect to the Acts of Parliament, under the Execution of which, those unhappy People are opprefied, the Approbation universally expressed of their Conduct, and the determined Resolution of the Colonies, for the Prefervation of their common Rights, to unite in their Opposition to those acts.... In confequence of these Sentiments, they have appointed us the Guardians of their Rights and Liberties, and we are under the deepest Concern, that whils we are purfuing dutiful and peaceable Measures to procure a cordial and effectual Reconciliation between Great Britain and the Colonies, your Excellency should proceed in a Manner that bears so holdile an Appearance, and which even those opprefive Acts do not warrant.

"We entreat your Excellency to confider what a Tendency this Conduct must have to irritate and force a free People, hitherto well difpofed to peaceable Meafures, into Hoftilities, which may prevent the Endeavours of this Congress to reftore a good Understanding with our Parent State, and may involve us in the Horrors of a Civil War.

" In order therefore to quiet the Minds and remove the reafonable Jealoufies of the People, that they may not be driven to a State of Defperation, being fully perfuaded of their pacific Difpofition towards the King's Troops, could they be affured of their own Safety, we hope, Sir, you will difcontinue the Fortifications in and about Bofton, prevent any further invafions of Private Property, reftrain the irregularities of the Soldiers, and give Orders that the Communication between the Town and Country may be open, unmolefted and free.

Signed by Order and in Behalf of the General Congress,

PEYTON RANDOLPH, Prefident.

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY, That they be advifed fiill to conduct themfelves peaceably towards his Excellency General Gage, and his Majefty's Troops now flationed in the Town of Boston, as far as can possibly be consistent with their immediate Safety, and the Security of the Town; avoiding and discountenancing every violation of his Majefty's Property, or any infult to his Troops, and that they peaceably and firmly perfevere in the Line they are now conducting themfelves, on the Defensive.

ORDERED, That a Copy of the foregoing Refolve, and of that paffed on Saturday and the Three paffed Yesterday be made out, and

FRIDAY, October 14, 1774.

The Congress met according to Adjournment, and refuming the Confideration of the Subject under Debate—made the following DECLARATION and RESOLVES.

WHEREAS, fince the clofe of the laft War, the Britiffs Parliament, claiming a power, of Right, to bind the People of America by Statutes in all Cafes whatfoever, hath in fome Acts expressly imposed Taxes on them, and in others, under various Pretences, but in fact for the Purpose of raising a Revenue, hath imposed Rates and Duties payable in these Colonies, established a Board of Commissioners, with unconstitutional Powers, and extended the Jurifdiction of Courts of Admiralty, not only for collecting the faid Duties, but for the Trial of Causes merely arising within the body of a County.

And whereas, in confequence of other Statutes, Judges, who before held only Eftates at will in their Offices, have been made dependant on the Crown alone for their Salaries, and flanding Armies kept in times of Peace: And whereas it has lately been refolved in Parliament, that by force of a Statute, made in the Thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, Colonies lonifts may be transported to England, and tried there upon acculations for Treafons and Mifprifions, or concealments of Treafons committed in the Colonies, and by a late Statute, fuch Trials have been directed in cafes therein mentioned :

And whereas, in the laft Seffion of Parliament, Three Statutes were made ; one entitled, " An Act to difcontinue in fuch Manner " and for such Time as are therein mentioned, the Landing and " Difcharging, Lading, or Shipping of Goods, Wares, and " Merchandize, at the Town, and within the Harbour of Boston, " in the Province of Maffachufetts Bay in North America ;" Another entitled, " An Act for the better regulating the Government " of the Province of Maffachufetts Bay in New England;" And another entitled, " An Act for the impartial Administration of " Juffice, in the cafes of Perfons queftioned for any Act done by " them in the Execution of the Law, or for the Suppression of " Riots and Tumults, in the Province of the Maffachufetts Bay " in New England :" And another Statute was then made, " for making more effectual Provision for the Government of the " Province of Quebec, &c." All which Statutes are impolitic, unjust, and cruel, as well as unconstitutional, and most dangerous and deftructive of American Rights :

And whereas, Affemblies have been frequently diffolved, contrary to the Rights of the People, when they attempted to deliberate on Grievances; and their dutiful, humble, loyal, and reafonable Petitions to the Crown for Redrefs, have been repeatedly treated with Contempt, by his Majefty's Minifters of State:

The good People of the feveral Colonies of New Hampfhire, Maffachufetts Bay, Rhode-Ifland and Providence Plantations, Connetticut, New-York, New-Jerfey, Pennfylvania, Newcaftle, Kent, and Suffex on Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina, juftly alarmed at thefe arbitrary proceedings of Parliament and Administration, have feverally elected, conflituted, and appointed Deputies to meet and fit in General Congrefs, in the City of Philadelphia, in order to obtain fuch Eftablishment, as that their Religion, Laws, and Liberties, may not be fubverted: Whereupon the Deputies fo appointed being now affembled, in a full and free Reprefentation of thefe Colonies, taking into their most ferious Confideration, the best Means of attaining the Ends aforefaid, do in the first place, as Englishmen their anceftors in like Cafes have ufually done, for afferting and vindicating their Rights and Liberties, D E C L A R E,

That the Inhabitants of the English Colonies in North America, by the immutable Laws of Nature, the Principles of the English Conflictution, and the feveral Charters or Compacts, have the following RIGHTS.

RESOLVED, N. C. D. 1. That they are entitled to Life, Liberty, and Property: and they have never ceded to any Sovereign reign Power whatever, a Right to difpose of either without their Confent.

RESOLVED, N. C. D. 2. That our Anceftors, who first fettled these Colonies, were at the Time of their Emigration from the mother Country, entitled to all the Rights, Liberties, and Immunities of free and natural born Subjects, within the Realm of England.

RESOLVED, N. C. D. 3. That by fuch Emigration they by no Means forfeited, furrendered, or loft any of those Rights, but that they were, and their Defcendants now are, entitled to the Exercise and Enjoyment of all such of them, as their local and other Circumstances enable them to exercise and enjoy.

RESOLVED, 4. That the Foundation of English Liberty and of all free Government, is, a Right in the People to participate in their legislative Council: and as the English Colonists are not reprefented, and from their local and other Circumstances cannot properly be reprefented in the British Parliament, they are entitled to a free and exclusive Power of Legislation in their feveral provincial Legislatures, where their Right of Representation can alone be preferved, in all Cafes of Taxation and internal Polity, fubject only to the Negative of their Sovereign, in fuch Manner as has been heretofore used and accustomed : But from the Necessity of the Cafe, and a Regard to the mutual Interefts of both Countries, we cheerfully confent to the Operation of fuch Acts of the British Parliament, as are bona fide, restrained to the Regulation of our external Commerce, for the Purpole of fecuring the commercial Advantages of the whole Empire to the mother Country, and the commercial Benefits of its respective Members; excluding every Idea of Taxation internal or external, for raifing a Revenue on the Subjects in America without their Confent.

RESOLVED, N. C. D. 5. That the refpective Colonies are entitled to the common Law of England, and more efpecially to the great and ineftimable Privilege of being tried by their Peers of the Vicinage, according to the Courfe of that Law.

RESOLVED, 6. That they are entitled to the Benefit of fuch of the English Statutes, as existed at the Time of their Colonization; and which they have, by Experience, respectively found to be applicable to their feveral local and other Circumstances.

RESOLVED, N. C. D. 7. That thefe, his Majefty's Colonies. are likewife entitled to all the Immunities and Privileges granted and confirmed to them by royal Charters, or fecured by their feveral Codes of provincial Laws.

RESOLVED, N. C. D. 8. That they have a Right peaceably to affemble, confider of their Grievances, and petition the King; and that all Profecutions, prohibitory Proclamations, and Commitments for the fame, are illegal.

RESOLVED,

RESOLVED, N. C. D. 9. That the keeping a flanding Army in these Colonies, in Times of Peace, without the Consent of the Legislature of that Colony in which such Army is kept, is against Law.

RESOLVED, N. C. D. 10. It is indifpenfibly neceffary to good Government, and rendered effential by the Englifb Conftitution, that the conftituent Branches of the Legislature be independent of each other; that, therefore, the Exercise of legislative Power in feveral Colonies, by a Council appointed, during Pleafure, by the Crown, is unconftitutional, dangerous, and deftructive to the Freedom of American Legislation.

All and each of which, the aforefaid Deputies in behalf of themfelves, and their Conftituents, do claim, demand, and infift on, as their indubitable Rights and Liberties; which cannot be legally taken from them, altered or abridged by any Power whatever, without their own Confent, by their Reprefentatives in their feveral provincial Legislatures.

In the Courfe of our Inquiry, we find many Infringements and Violations of the foregoing Rights, which, from an ardent Defire that Harmony and mutual Intercourfe of Affection and Intereft may be reftored, we pass over for the Present, and proceed to state such Acts and Measures as have been adopted fince the last War, which demonstrate a System formed to enslave America.

RESOLVED, N. C. D. That the following Acts of Parliament are Infringements and Violations of the Rights of the Colonists; and that the Repeal of them is effentially necessary, in Order to reftore Harmony between Great-Britain and the American Colonics, viz.

The feveral Acts of 4 Geo. III. ch. 15. and ch. 34.—5 Geo. III. ch. 25.—6 Geo. III. ch. 52.—7 Geo. III. ch. 41. and ch. 46.—8 Geo. III. ch. 22. which impose Duties for the Purpose of raising a Revenue in America, extend the Power of the Admiralty Courts beyond their ancient Limits, deprive the American Subject of Trial by Jury, authorise the Judges Certificate to indemnify the Profecutor from Damages, that he might otherwise be liable to, requiring oppressive Security from a Claimant of Ships and Goods feized, before he shall be allowed to defend his Property, and are subversive of American Rights.

Alfo 12 Geo. III. ch. 24. intituled, "An Act for the bet-"ter fecuring his Majefty's Dock-yards, Magazines, Ships, "Ammunition, and Stores," which declares a new Offence in America, and deprives the American Subject of a conflictutional Trial by Jury of the Vicinage, by authorifing the Trial of any Perfon charged with the Committing any Offence deferibed in the faid Act out of the Realm, to be indicted and tried for the fame in any Shire or County within the Realm. Alfo Alfo the three Acts paffed in the last Session of Parliament, for stopping the Port and blocking up the Harbour of Baston, for altering the Charter and Government of Massachusetts-Bay, and that which is initialed, "An Act for the better Administration " of Justice, &c."

Also the Act passed in the same Session for establishing the Roman Catholic Religion in the Province of Quebec, abolishing the equitable System of English Laws, and erecting a Tyranny there, to the great Danger, (from so total a Diffimularity of Religion, Law, and Government) of the neighbouring British Colonies, by the Aflistance of whose Blood and Treasure the said Country was conquered from France.

Alfo the Act passed in the fame Session for the better providing suitable Quarters for Officers and Soldiers in his Majesty's Service in North-America.

Alfo, that the keeping a flanding Army in feveral of these Colonies, in Time of Peace, without the Confent of the Legislature of that Colony in which fuch Army is kept, is against Law.

To thefe grievous Acts and Meafures Americans cannot fubmit, but in hopes their Fellow Subjects in Great-Britain will, on a Revision of them, reflere us to that State, in which both Countries found Happinels and Profperity, we have for the Prefent only refolved to purfue the following peaceable Meafures; 1. To enter into a Non-importation, Non-confumption, and Non-exportation Agreement or Affociation. 2. To prepare an Addrefs to the People of Great-Britain, and a Memorial to the Inhabitants of Britiff America: And 3. To prepare a loyal Addrefs to his Majefty, agreeable to Refolutions already entered into.

A Letter being received from feveral Gentlemen in Georgia was read.--

The Committee appointed to prepare a Memorial to the Inhabitants of these Colonies reported a Draught, which was read and ordered to lie on the Table.

ORDERED, That this Memorial be taken into Confideration tomorrow.

THURSDAY, October 20, 1774.

The Affociation being copied, was read and figned at the Table. And is as follows :-----

WE, his Majefty's most loyal Subjects, the Delegates of the feveral Colonies of New-Hampshire, Massachusetts-Bay, Rhode-Island, Connecticut, New-York, New-Jersey, Pennsylvania, the three lower Counties of Newcafile, Kent, and Suffex on Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North-Carolina, and South-Carolina, deputed to reprefent them in a Continental Congress held in the City of Philadelphia, ou the fifth Day of September, 1774, avowing our Allegiance to his Majefty, our Affection and Regard for our Fellow-Subjects in Great-Britain and elfewhere, affected with the deepest Anxiety, and most alarming Apprehensions at those Grievances and Diftreffes, with which his Majefty's American Subjects are opprefied, and having taken under our most ferious Deliberation, the State of the whole Continent; find, that the prefent unhappy Situation of our Affairs is occafioned by a ruinous Syftem of Colony Administration adopted by the British Ministry about the Year 1763, evidently calculated for inflaving these Colonies, and, with them, the British Empire. In profecution of which System, various various Acts of parliament have been paffed for raifing a Revenue in America, for depriving the American Subjects, in many Inftances, of the conftitutional Trial by Jury, exposing their Lives to Danger, by directing a new and illegal Trial beyond the Seas, for Crimes alledged to have been committed in America : And in profecution of the fame Syftem, feveral late, cruel, and oppreffive Acts have been paffed respecting the Town of Boston and the Massachusetts-Bay, and also an Act for extending the province of Quebec, fo as to border on the Western Frontiers of these Colonies, establishing an arbitrary Government therein, and discouraging the Settlement of British Subjects in that wide extended Country; thus by the Influence of civil principles and ancient prejudices to difpose the Inhabitants to act with Hostility against the free protestant Colonies, whenever a wicked Miaistry shall chuse fo to direct them.

To obtain Redrefs of these Grievances, which threaten Deftruction to the Lives, Liberty, and Property of his Majefty's Subjects in North America, we are of Opinion, that a Non-importation, Non-confumption, and Non-exportation agreement, faithfully adhered to, will prove the most speedy, effectual, and peaceable Measure: And therefore we do, for ourfelves, and the inhabitants of the feveral Colonies whom we reprefent, firmly agree and affociate under the facred ties of Virtue, Honour and love of our Country, as follows:

First, That from and after the First Day of December next, we will not import into British America, from Great Britain or Ireland, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize whatfoever, or from any other Place, any fuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, as shall have been exported from Great Britain or Ireland; nor will we, after that Day, import any East India Tea from any Part of the World; nor any Molaffes, Syrups, paneles, Coffee, or Piemento, from the British Plantations or from Dominica; nor Wines from Madeira, or the Western Islands; nor Foreign Indigo.

Second, We will neither import, nor purchase any Slave imported after the First Day of December next; after which Time, we will wholly difcontinue the Slave Trade, and will neither be concerned in it ourfelves, nor will we hire our Veffels, nor fell our Commodities or Manufactures to those who are concerned in it.

Third, As a Non-confumption Agreement, ftrictly adhered to, will be an effectual Security for the observation of the Non-importation, we as above, folemnly agree and affociate, that from this Day, we will not purchase or use any Tea imported on ac-count of the East India Company, or any on which a Duty hath been or shall be paid ; and from and after the first Day of March next, we will not purchase or use any East India Tea whatever; F nor nor will we, nor shall any Person for or under us, purchase or use any of those Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, we have agreed not to import, which we shall know, or have cause to suspect, were imported after the First Day of December, except such as come under the Rules and Directions of the Tenth Article hereafter mentioned.

Fourth, The earneft Defire we have not to injure our Fellowfubjects in Great Britain, Ireland, or the Weft Indies, induces us to fufpend a Non-exportation, until the Tenth Day of September, 1775; at which Time, if the faid Acts and parts of Acts of the British parliament herein after mentioned, are not repealed, we will not, directly or indirectly, export any Merchandize or Commodity whatfoever to Great-Britain, Ireland, or the West-Indies, except Rice to Europe.

Fifth. Such as are Merchants, and use the British and Irish Trade, will give Orders, as foon as possible, to their Factors, Agents and Correspondents, in Great-Britain and Ireland, not to ship any Goods to them, on any pretence whetfoever, as they cannot be received in America; and if any Merchant, residing in Great-Britain or Ireland, shall directly or indirectly ship any Goods, Wares or Merchandize, for America, in Order to break the faid Non-Importation Agreement, or in any Manner contravene the same, on such unworthy conduct being well attested, it ought to be made public; and, on the same being so done, we will not from thenceforth have any commercial Connexion with such Merchant.

Sixth. That fuch as are Owners of Veffels will give positive Orders to their Captains, or Masters, not to receive on Board their Veffels any Goods prohibited by the faid Non-importatiou Agreement, on pain of immediate Difmission from their Service.

Seventh. We will use our utmost Endeavours to improve the Breed of Sheep and increase their Number to the greatest Extent; and to that End, we will kill them as feldom as may be, especially those of the most profitable kind; nor will we export any to the West-Indies or elsewhere; and those of us, who are or may become overstocked with, or can conveniently spare any Sheep, will dispose of them to our Neighbours, especially to the poorer Sort, on moderate Terms.

Eighth. We will in our feveral Stations encourage Frugality, Oeconomy, and Induftry, and promote Agriculture, Arts and the Manufactures of this Country, efpecially that of Wool; and will difcountenance and difcourage every Species of Extravagance and Diffipation, efpecially all Horfe Racing, and all Kinds of Gaming, Cock Fighting, Exhibitions of Shews, Plays, and other expensive Diversions and Entertainments; and on the Death of any Relation or Friend, none of us, or any of our Families will go into any further Mourning Drefs than a black Crape or Ribbon on the the Arm or Hat for Gentlemen, and a black Ribbon and Necklace for Ladies, and we will discontinue the giving of Gloves and Scarves at Funerals.

Ninth. Such as are Venders of Goods or Merchandize will not take Advantage of the Scarcity of Goods that may be occafioned by this Affociation, but will fell the fame at the Rates we have been refpectively accuftomed to do, for twelve Months laft paft.—And if any Vender of Goods or Merchandize fhall fell any fuch Goods on higher Terms, or fhall in any Manner, or by any Device whatfoever, violate or depart from this Agreement, no Perfon ought, nor will any of us deal with any fuch Perfon, or his, or her Factor or Agent, at any Time thereafter, for any Commodity whatever.

Tenth. In cafe any Merchant, Trader, or other Perfons shall import any Goods or Merchandize after the first Day of December, and before the first Day of February next, the fame ought forthwith, at the Election of the Owner, to be either re-fhipped or delivered up to the Committee of the County, or Town wherein they shall be imported, to be stored at the Risque of the Importer, until the Non-importation Agreement shall cease, or be fold under the Direction of the Committee aforefaid; and in the laft mentioned Cafe, the Owner or Owners of fuch Goods shall be reimburfed (out of the Sales, the first Cost and Charges, the Profit, if any, to be applied towards relieving and employing fuch poor Inhabitants of the Town of Boston, as are immediate Sufferers by the Boston Port-Bill; and a particular Account of all Goods fo returned ftored, or fold, to be inferted in the public Papers; and if any Goods or Merchandizes shall be imported after the faid first Day of February, the fame ought forthwith to be fent back again, without breaking any of the Packages thereof.

Eleventh. That a Committee be chofen in every County, City, aud Town, by thofe who are qualified to vote for Reprefentatives in the Legiflature, whofe Bufinefs it fhall be attentively to obferve the Conduct of all perfons touching this Affociation; and when it fhall be made to appear to the Satisfaction of a Majority of any fuch Committee, that any Perfon within the Limits of their Appointment has violated this Affociation, that fuch Majority do forthwith caufe the Truth of the Cafe to be publified in the Gazette; to the End, that all fuch Foes to the Kights of Britifb America may be publicly known, and univerfally contemned as the Enemies of American Liberty; and thenceforth we refpectively will break off all Dealings with him or her.

Twelfth. That the Committee of Correspondence in the refpective Colonies do frequently infpect the Entries of their Custom-Houses, and inform each other from Time to Time of the true State thereof, and of every other material Circumstance that may occur relative to this Affociation.

Thirteenth.

Thirteenth. That all Manufactures of this Country be fold at reafonable Prices, fo that no undue Advantage be taken of a future Scarcity of Goods.

Fourteenth. And we do further agree and refolve, that we will have no Trade, Commerce, Dealings or Intercourfe whatfoever, with any Colony or Province, in North-America, which fhall not accede to, or which fhall hereafter violate this Affociation, but will hold them as unworthy of the Rights of Freemen, and as inimical to the Liberties of their Country.

And we do folemnly bind ourfelves and our Conftituents, under the Ties aforefaid, to adhere to this Affociation until fuch parts of the feveral Acts of parliament paffed fince the Clofe of the laft War, as impose or continue Dutics on Tea, Wine, Molasses, Syrups, Paneles, Coffee, Sugar, Piemento, Indigo, foreign Paper, Glais, and painters Colours, imported into America, and extend the Powers of the Admiralty Courts beyond their ancient Limits, deprive the American Subject of Trial by Jury, authorife the Judge's Certificate to indemnify the Profecutor from Damages, that he might otherwife be liable to from a Trial by his Peers, require oppreffive Security from a Claimant of Ships or Goods feized, before he shall be allowed to defend his property, are repealed .- And until that part of the Act of the 12. G. 3. ch. 24. entitled, " An Act for the better fecuring his Majefty's Dock-Yards, Magazines, Ships, Ammunition, and Stores," by which any perfons charged with committing any of the Offences therein defcribed, in America, may be tried in any Shire or County within the Realm, is repealed.—And until the four Acts paffed the laft Seffion of parliament, viz. that for flopping the port and blocking up the Harbour of Boston .- That for altering the Charter and Government of the Maffachufetts-Bay .- And that which is entitled, " An Act for the better Administration of Justice, &c."-And that " For extending the Limits of Quebec, &c." are repealed. And we recommend it to the provincial Conventions, and to the Committees in the refpective Colonies, to establish fuch farther Regulations as they may think proper, for carrying into Execution this Affociation.

The foregoing Affociation being determined upon by the Congrefs, was ordered to be fubfcribed by the feveral Members thereof; and thereupon we have hereunto fet our refpective Names accordingly.

In Congress, Philadelphia, October 24.

The Congreis then refumed the Confideration of the Addrefs to the Inhabitants of thefe Colonies, and after Debate thereon, adjourned till to-morrow.—

FRIDAY, October 21, 1774,

The Addrefs to the people of Great-Britain being brought in, and the Amendments directed being made, the fame was approved and is as follows:

To the PEOPLE of GREAT-BRITAIN, from the DELEGATES, appointed by the feveral English Colonies of New-Hampshire, Massachusetts-Bay, Rhode-Island and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, New-York, New-Jersey, Pennsylvania, The Lower Counties on Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North-Carolina and South-Carolina, to consider of their Grievances in General Congress, at Philadelphia, September 5th, 1774.

Friends and Fellow Subjetts,

WHEN a Nation led to Greatnefs by the Hand of Liberty, and poffeffed of all the Glory that Heroifm, Munificence, and Humanity can beftow, defcends to the ungrateful Tafk of forging Chains for her Friends and Children, and inflead of giving Support to Freedom, turns Advocate for Slavery and Oppreffion, there is Reafon to fufpect fhe has either ceafed to be virtuous, or been extremely negligent in the Appointment of her Rulers.

In almost every Age, in repeated Conflicts, in long and bloody Wars, as well civil as foreign, against many and powerful Nations, against the open Affaults of Enemies and the more dangerous Treachery of Friends, have the Inhabitants of your Island, your great and glorious Ancestors, maintained their Independence and transmitted the Rights of Men and the Bleffings of Liberty to you their Posterity.

Be not furprized therefore, that we, who are defcended from the fame common Anceftors; that we, whofe Forefathers participated in all the Rights, the Liberties, and the Conflitution, you fo juftly boaft of, and who have carefully conveyed the fame fair Inheritance to us, guarantied by the plighted Faith of Government and the moft folemn Compacts with Britifh Sovereigns, fhould refufe to furrender them to Men, who found their Claims on no Principles of Reafon, and who profecute them with a Defign, that by having our Lives and Property in their Power, they may with the greater Facility onflave you.

The

The caufe of America is now the Object of univerfal Attention: it has at length become very ferious. This unhappy Country has not only been oppreffed, but abufed and mifreprefented; and the Duty we owe to ourfelves and Pofterity, to your Interest, and the general Welfare of the Britifn Empire, leads us to addrefs you on this very important Subject.

Know then, That we confider ourfelves, and do infift, that we are and ought to be, as free as our Fellow Subjects in Britain, and that no Power on Earth has a Right to take our Property from us without our Confent.

That we claim all the Benefits fecured to the Subject by the English Couffictution, and particularly that ineffimable one of Trial by Jury.

That we hold it effential to English Liberty, that no Man be condemned unheard, or punished for supposed Offences, without having an Opportunity of making his Defence.

That we think the Legislature of Great-Britain is not authorized by the Conflictution to establish a Religion fraught with fanguinary and impious Tenets, or, to erect an arbitrary Form of Government in any quarter of the Globe. These Rights we, as well as you, deem facred. And yet facred as they are, they have, with many others, been repeatedly and flagrantly violated.

Are not the Proprietors of the Soil of Great-Britain Lords of their own Property? can it be taken from them without their Confent? will they yield it to the arbitrary Difpofal of any Man, or Number of Men whatever?—You know they will not.

Why then are the Proprietors of the Soil of America lefs Lords of their Property than you are of yours; or why fhould they fubmit it to the Difpofal of your Parliament, or any other Parliament, or Council in the World, not of their Election? Can the Intervention of the Sea that divides us, caufe Difparity in Rights, or can any Reafon be given, why Englifh Subjects, who live three thousand Miles from the royal Palace, fhould enjoy lefs Liberty than those who are three hundred Miles distant from it?

Reafon looks with Indignation on fuch Diffinctions, and Freemen can never perceive their propriety. And yet, however chimerical and unjuft fuch Difcriminations are, the parliament affert, that they have a Right to bind us in all Cafes without Exception, whether we confent or not; that they may take and ufe our property when and in what Manner they pleafe; that we are penfioners on their Bounty for all that we poffers, and can hold it no longer than they vouchafe to permit. Such Declarations we confider as Herefies in Englift politics, and which can no more operate to deprive us of our Property, than the Interdicts of the Pope can diveft Kings of Sceptres, which the Laws of the Land and the Voice of the People have placed in their Hands. At the Conclusion of the late War—a War rendered glorious by the Abilities and Integrity of a Minister, to whose Efforts the Britifh Empire owes its Safety and its Fame: At the Conclusion of this War, which was succeeded by an inglorious Peace, formed under the Auspices of a Minister, of Principles, and of a Family unfriendly to the Protestant Cause, and inimical to Liberty.— We fay at this Period, and under the Influence of that Man, a Plan for enflaving your Fellow Subjects in America was concerted, and has ever fince been pertinaciously carrying into Execution.

Prior to this Æra you were content with drawing from us the Wealth produced by our Commerce. You reftrained our Trade in every Way that could conduce to your Emolument. You exercifed unbounded Sovereignty over the Sea. You named the Ports and Nations to which alone our Merchandize fhould be carried, and with whom alone we fhould trade; and though fome of thefe Reftrictions were grievous, we neverthelefs did not complain; we looked up to you as to our parent State to which we were bound by the ftrongeft Ties: And were happy in being inftrumental to your Profperity and your Grandeur.

We call upon you yourfelves, to witnefs our Loyalty and Attachment to the common Intereft of the whole Empire : Did we not, in the laft War, add all the Strength of this vaft Continent to the Force which repelled our common Enemy? Did we not leave our native Shores, and meet Difeafe and Death, to promote the Succefs of Britifb Arms in foreign Climates? Did you not thank us for our Zeal, and even reimburfe us large Sums of Money, which, you confeffed, we had advanced beyond our Proportion, and far beyond our Abilities? You did.

To what Caufes, then, are we to attribute the fudden Change of Treatment, and that Syftem of Slavery which was prepared for us at the Reftoration of Peace.

Before we had recovered from the Diftreffes which ever attend War, an Attempt was made to drain this Country of all its Money, by the oppreffive Stamp-Act. Paint, Glafs, and other Commodities, which you would not permit us to purchase of other Nations, were taxed; nay, although no Wine is made in any Country, fubject to the British State, you prohibited our procuring it of Foreigners, without paying a Tax, imposed by your Parliament, on all we imported. These and many other Impositions were laid upon us most unjustly and unconstitutionally, for the exprefs Purpofe of raifing a Revenue .- In order to filence Complaint, it was, indeed, provided, that this Revenue fhould be expended in America for its Protection and Defence .- Thefe Exactions, however, can receive no Justification from a pretended Neceffity of protecting and defending us. They are lavishly fquandered on Court Favourites and Ministerial Dependents, generally avowed Enemies to America and employing themfelves, by partial Reprefentations, Representations, to traduce and embroil the Colonies. For the neceffary Support of Government here, we ever were and ever shall be ready to provide. And whenever the Exigencies of the State may require it, we shall, as we have heretofore done, chearfully contribute our full Proportion of Men and Money. To enforce this unconflitutional and unjust Scheme of Taxation, every Fence that the Wifdom of our British Anceftors had carefully erected against arbitrary Power, has been violently thrown down in America, and the ineftimable Right of Trial by Jury taken away in Cafes that touch both Life and Property .- It was ordained that whenever Offences should be committed in the Colonies against particular Acts imposing various Duties and Reftrictions upon Trade, the Profecutor might bring his Action for the Penalties in the Courts of Admiralty; by which Means the Subject loft the Advantage of being tried by an honeft uninfluenced Jury of the Vicinage, and was subjected to the fad Necessity of being judged by a fingle Man, a Creature of the Crown, and according to the Courfe of a Law which exempts the profecutor from the Trouble of proving his Acculation, and obliges the Defendant either to evince his Innocence, or to fuffer. To give this new Judicatory the greater Importance, and as, if with Defign to protect falfe Accufers, it is further provided, that the Judge's Certificate of there having been probable Caufes of Seizure and Profecution, shall protect the Profecutor from Actions at Common Law for Recovery of Damages.

By the Courfe of our Law, Offences committed in fach of the Britifh Dominions in which Courts are established and Justice duly and regularly administred, shall be there tried by a Jury of the Vicinage. There the Offenders and the Witnesse are known, and the Degree of Credibility to be given to their Testimony, can be afcertained.

In all these Colonies, Justice is regularly and impartially administered, and yet by the Construction of fome, and the Direction of other Acts of Parliament, Offenders are to be taken by Force, together with all such Persons as may be pointed out as Witness, and carried to England, there to be tried in a distant Land, by a Jury of Strangers, and subject to all the Disadvantages that result from want of Friends, want of Witness, and want of Money.

When the defign of raifing a Revenue from the duties impofed on the importation of Tea into America, had in great Meafure been rendered abortive by our ceafing to import that Commodity, a Scheme was concerted by the Miniftry with the Eaft-India Company, and an Act paffed enabling and encouraging them to transport and vend it in the Colonies. Aware of the danger of giving fuccefs to this infidious Manœuvre, and of permitting a precedent of Taxation thus to be eftablished among us, various Methods were adopted to elude the Stroke. The People of Boffon, F then ruled by a Governor, whom, as well as his Predeceffor Sir Francis Bernard, all America confiders as her Enemy, were exceedingly embarraffed. The Ships, which had arrived with the Tea, were by his management prevented from returning .- The Duties would have been paid; the Cargoes landed and exposed to Sale; a Governor's influence would have procured and protected many While the Town was fuspended by deliberations on Purchafers. this important Subject, the Tea was deftroyed. Even fuppofing a Trefpais was thereby committed, and the Proprietors of the Tea entitled to Damages, the Courts of Law were open, and Judges appointed by the Crown prefided in them .- The East-India Company however did not think proper to commence any Suits, nor did they even demand Satisfaction either from Individuals, or from the Community in general. The Ministry, it feems officioufly made the Cafe their own, aud the Great Council of the Nation descended to intermeddle with a Dispute about Private Property. Divers Papers, Letters, and other unauthenticated ex parte Evidence were laid before them; neither the Perfons who deftroyed the Tea, nor the People of Bofton were called upon to answer the Complaint. The Ministry, incenfed by being difappointed in a favourite Scheme, were determined to recur from the little Arts of Finesse, to open Force and unmanly Violence. The Port of Boston was blocked up by a Fleet, and an Army placed in the Town. Their Trade was to be fuspended, and thousands reduced to the Neceffity of gaining Subfiftence from Charity, till they should fubmit to pass under the Yoke, and confent to become Slaves, by confeffing the omnipotence of Parliament, and acquiefing in whatever difposition they might think proper to make of their Lives and Property.

Let Juffice and Humanity ceafe to be the boaft of your Nation ! confult your Hiftory, examine your records of former Transactions, nay turn to the Annals of the many Arbitrary States and Kingdoms that furround you, and fhew us a fingle Inftance of Men being condemned to fuffer for imputed Crimes, unheard, unqueffioned, and without even the fpecious formality of a Trial; and that too by Laws made expresly for the Purpose, and which had no existence at the Time of the Fact committed. If it be difficult to reconcile thefe proceedings to the Genius and Temper of your Laws and Conflitution, the Tafk will become more Arduous, when we call upon our Ministerial Enemies to justify, not only condemning Men untried and by hearfay, but involving the Innocent in one common Punishment with the Guilty, and for the Act of thirty or forty, to bring Poverty, Diftrefs, and Calamity on thirty thousand Souls, and those not your Enemies, but your Friends, Brethren, and Fellow-Subjects.

It would be fome Confolation to us, if the Catalogue of American opprefiions ended here. It gives us Pain to be reduced to the Neceffity Necefity of reminding you, that under the Confidence repoled in the Faith of Government, pledged in a Royal Charter from a Britill Sovereign, the Fore-Fathers of the prefent Inhabitants of the Malfachufetts-Bay left their former Habitations, and eftablished that great, flourishing, and loyal Colony. Without incurring or being charged with a forfeiture of their Rights, without being heard, without being tried, without Law, and without Juftice, by an Act of Parliament, their Charter is deftroyed, their Liberties violated, their Conftitution and Form of Government changed : And all this upon no better Pretence, than because in one of their Towns a Trespals was committed on form Merchandize, faid to belong to one of the Companies, and because the Ministry were of opinion, that fuch high political Regulations were necessary to compel due subordination and obedience to their Mandates.

Nor are thefe the only capital Grievances under which we labour. We might tell of diffolute, weak, and wicked Governore having been fet over us; of Legiflatures being fufpended for afferting the rights of Britifh Subjects; of needy and ignorant dependents on great Men advanced to the Seats of Juffice, and to other Places of Truft and Importance; of hard Reftrictions on Commerce, and a great Variety of leffer Evils, the recollection of which is almost loft under the Weight and Preffure of greater and more poignant Calamities.

Now mark the Progreffion of the Ministerial Plan for enflaving us.

Well aware that fuch hardy Attempts to take our Property. from us, to deprive us of that valuable Right of Trial by Jury, to feize our Perfons, and carry us for Trial to Great-Britain, to blockade our Ports, to deftroy our Charters, and change our Forms of Government, would occafion, and had already occafioned great difcontent in the Colonies, which might produce opposition to these Measures; An Act was passed to protect, indemnify, and fcreen from Punishment, fuch as might be guilty even of Murder, in endeavouring to carry their oppreffive Edicts into Execution; and by another Act the dominion of Canada is to be fo extended, modelled, and governed, as that by being difunited from us, detached from our Interefts, by civil as well as religious Prejudices, that by their Numbers daily fwelling with Catholic Emigrants from Europe, and by their devotion to Administration, fo friendly to their Religion, they might become Formidable to us, and on occasion, be fit Instruments in the Hands of Power, to reduce the ancient, free Protestant Colonies to the fame state of Slavery with themfelves.

This was evidently the Object of the Act: And in this view, being extremely dangerous to our Liberty and Quiet, we cannot forbear complaining of it, as hoftile to British America. Superadded to these confiderations, we cannot help deploring the unhappy condition condition to which it has reduced the many Engli/h Settlers, who; encouraged by the Royal Proclamation, promiting the enjoyment of all their Rights, have purchafed Effates in that Country.—They are now the Subjects of an arbitrary Government, deprived of Trial by Jury, and when imprifoned cannot claim the Benefit of the Haheus Corpus Act, that great Bulwark and Palladium of En^2 gli/h Eiberty:—Nor can we fupprefs our Aftonifhment, that a Briti/h Parliament fhould ever confent to effablifh in that Country; a Religion that has deluged your Ifland in Blood, and difperfed Impiety, Bigotry, Perfecution, Murder, and Rebellion through every part of the World.

This being a true flate of Facts, let us befeech you to confider to what end they lead.

Admit that the Ministry, by the Powers of Britain, and the aid of our Roman Catholic Neighbours, should be able to carry the point of Taxation, and reduce us to a flate of perfect Humiliation and Slavery: Such an Enterprize would doubtlefs make fome addition to your National Debt, which already prefiles down your Liberties, and fills you with Penfioners and Placemen. We prefume, alfo, that your Commerce will fomewhat be dimisfied. However, fuppofe you should prove Victorious, in what condition will you then be? What advantages or what laurels will you reap from fuch a conqueft ?

May not a Ministry with the fame Armies inflave you,—it may be faid, you will ceafe to pay them,—but remember the Taxes from America, the Wealth, and we may add the Men, and particularly the Roman Catholics of this vast Continent, will then be in the Power of your Enemies; nor will you have any reason to expect, that after making Slaves of us, many among us should refuse to affish in reducing you to the fame abject State.

Do not treat this as Chimerical.—Know that in lefs than half a Century, the quit-rents referved to the Crown, from the numberlefs grants of this valt Continent, will pour large ftreams of Wealth into the royal Coffers, and if to this be added the Power of taxing America at Pleafure, the Crown will be rendered Independant of you for Supplies, and will poffefs more Treafure than may be neceffary to purchafe the remains of Liberty in your Island.—In a word, take care that you do not fall into the Pit that is preparing for us.

We believe there is yet much Virtue, much Juftice, and much public Spirit in the Englift Nation.—To that Juftice we now Appeal. You have been told that we are Seditions, impatient of Government, and defirous of Independency. Be affured that thefe are not Facts, but Calumnies.—Permit us to be as free as yourfelves, and we fhall ever efteem a Union with you to be our greateft Glory and our greateft Happinefs, we fhall ever be ready to contribute all in our Power to the Welfare of the Empire,—we fhall confider confider your Enemies as our Enemies, and your Interest as our own.

But if you are determined that your Miniflers shall wantonly Sport with the rights of Mankind — If neither the Voice of Juftice, the Dictates of the Law, the Principles of the Constitution, or the Suggestions of Humanity can restrain your Hands from schedding human Blood in such an impious Cause, we must then tell you, that we will never submit to be Hewers of Wood or Drawers of Water for any Ministry or Nation in the World.

Place us in the fame Situation that we were at the Clofe of the laft War, and our former Harmony will be reftored.

But left the fame Supinenefs and the fame Inattention to our common Intereft, which you have for feveral Years flewn, floud continue, we think it prudent to anticipate the Confequences.

By the deftruction of the Trade of Bofton, the Miniftry have endeavoured to induce fubmiffion to their Meafures. The like fate may befal us all. We will endeavour therefore to live without Trade, and recur for Subfiftence to the Fertility and Bounty of our native Soil, which will afford us all the Neceffaries and fome of the Conveniences of Life. We have fufpended our Importation from Great-Britain and Ireland; and in lefs than a Year's Time, unlefs our Grievances fhould be redreffed, fhall difcontinue our Exports to those Kingdoms and the Weft-Indies.

It is with the utmost regret, however, that we find ourfelves compelled by the over-ruling principles of Self-prefervation, to adopt Measures detrimental in their Confequences to Numbers of our Fellow-Subjects in Great-Britain and Ireland. But we hope, that the Magnanimity and Justice of the British Nation will furnish a Parliament of fuch Wildom, Independance, and Public Spirit, as may fave the violated Rights of the whole Empire from the Devices of wicked Ministers and evil Counfellors whether in or out of Office; and thereby reflore that Harmony, Friendship, and fraternal Affection between all the Inhabitants of his Majesty's Kingdoms and Territories, fo ardently wished for by every true and honeft American.—

The Congress then refumed the confideration of the Memorial to the Inhabitants of the British Colonies, and the fame being debated by Paragraphs and amended, was approved, and is as follows:

To the INHABITANTS of the COLONIES of New Hampfoire, Maffachufetts Bay, Rhode Ifland and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, New-York, New-Jerfey, Pennfylvania, the Counties of Newcafile Kent and Suffex on Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina.

FRIENDS and COUNTRYMEN,

We, the DELEGATES appointed by the good People of these Colonies to meet at Philadelphia in September last, for the the Purpofes mentioned by our refpective Conflituents, have, in purfuance of the Truft repofed in us, affembled, and taken into our moft ferious Confideration, the important Matters recommended to the Congrefs. Our Refolutions thereupon will be herewith communicated to you. But as the Situation of public Affairs grows daily more and more alarming; and as it may be more Satisfactory to you to be informed by us in a Collective Body, than in any other Manner, of thofe Sentiments that have been approved, upon a full and free Difcuffion, by the Reprefentatives of fo great a part of America, we effecem ourfelves obliged to add this Addrefs to thefe Refolutions.

In every Cafe of Oppofition by a People to their Rulers, or of one State to another, duty to Almighty God, the Creator of all, requires that a true and impartial Judgment be formed of the Meafures leading to fuch Oppofition; and of the Caufes by which it has been provoked, or can in any Degree be juffified, that neither Affection on the one hand, nor Refentment on the other, being permitted to give a wrong bials to Reafon, it may be enabled to take a difpaffionate view of all Circumftances, and to fettle the public Conduct on the folid Foundations of Wifdom and Juffice.

From Councils thus tempered arife the fureft Hopes of the Divine Favour, the firmeft Encouragement to the Parties engaged, and the ftrongeft Recommendation of their Caufe to the reft of Mankind.

With Minds deeply imprefied by a Senfe of thefe Truths, we have diligently, deliberately, and calmly enquired into, and confidered thofe Exertions, both of the legiflative and executive Power of Great Britain, which have excited fo much uneafinefs in America, and have, with equal Fidelity and Attention, confidered the Conduct of the Colonies. Upon the whole, we find ourfelves reduced to the difagreeable Alternative of being filent and betraying the innocent, or of fpeaking out and cenfuring thofe we wifh to revere. In making our choice of thefe diftreffing difficulties, we prefer the Courfe dictated by Honefty, andand a Regard for the Welfare of our Country.

Soon after the conclusion of the late War, there commenced a memorable change in the Treatment of thefe Colonies. By a Statute made in the Fourth Year of the prefent Reign, a Time of profound Peace, alledging, "the Expediency of new Provisions "and Regulations for extending the Commerce between Great "Britain and his Majefty's Dominions in America, and the Ne-"ceffity of raifing a Revenue in the faid Dominions for defray-"ing the Expences of defending protecting and fecuring the "fame," the Commons of Great Britain undertook to give and grant to his Majefty many Rates and Duties, to be paid in thefe Colonies. To enforce the obfervance of this Act, it preferibes Icribes a great Number of fevere Penalties and Forfeitures; and in Two Sections makes a remarkable Diffinction between the Subjects in Great Britain, and thofe in America. By the one, the Penalties and Forfeitures incurred there, are to be recovered in any of the King's Courts of Record at Wefiminfler, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; and by the other, the Penalties and Forfeitures incurred here, are to be recovered in any Court of Record, or in any Court of Admiralty, or Vice Admiralty, at the Election of the Informer-or Profecutor.

The Inhabitants of thefe Colonies, confiding in the juffice of Great-Britain, were fcarcely allowed fufficient time to receive and confider this Act, before another, well known by the Name of the Stamp Act, and paffed in the Fifth Year of this Reign, engroffed their whole Attention. By this Statute the Britifb Parliament exercifed in the moft explicit Manner a Power of Taxing us, and extending the Jurifdiction of Courts of Admiralty and Vice Admiralty in the Colonies, to Matters arifing within the Body of a County, and directed the numerous Penalties and Forfeitures thereby inflicted, to be recovered in the faid Courts.

In the fame Year a Tax was imposed upon us, by an Act eftablifting feveral new Fees in the Cuftoms. In the next Year the Stamp Act was repealed; not because it was founded in an erroneous Principle, but, as the repealing Act recites, because "the Continuance thereof would be attended with many incon-"veniencies, and might be productive of Confequences greatly "detrimental to the Commercial Interest of Great Britain."

In the fame Year, and by a fubfequent Act it was declared, " that his Majefty in Parliament, of right, had power to bind " the People of these Colonies by Statutes in all Cafes whatfoever.

In the fame Year, another Act was paffed, for imposing Rates and Duties payable in these Colonies. In this Statute the Commons avoiding the Terms of giving and granting "humbly be-"fought his Majesty that it might be enacted, Gr. But from a Declaration in the Preamble, that the Rates and Duties were "in lieu of" feveral others granted by the Statute first before mentioned for raising a Revenue and from fome other Expreffions it appears, that these Duties were intended for that Purpose. In the next Year, [1767] an Act was made "to enable his

In the next Year, [1767] an Act was made " to enable his " Majefty to put the Cuftoms and other duties in America under " the Management of Commiffioners, &c." and the King thereupon erected the prefent expensive Board of Commiffioners, for the express Purpose of carrying into Execution the several Acts relating to the Revenue and Trade in America.

After the Repeal of the Stamp Act, having again refigned ourfelves to our ancient unfufpicious Affections for the Parent State, and anxious to avoid any Controverfy with her, in hopes of a favourable alteration in Sentiments and Meafures towards us, we did did not prefs our Objections against the above mentioned Statutes made subsequent to that Repeal.

Administration, attributing to triffling Caufes, a Conduct that really proceeded from generous motives, were encouraged in the fame Year, [1767] to make a bolder Experiment on the Patience of America.

By at Statute commonly called the Glafs, Paper, and Tea Act, made Fifteen Months after the Repeal of the Stamp Act, the Commons of Great Britain refumed their former Language, and again undertook to "give and grant Rates and Duties to "be paid in these Colonies," for the express Purpose of "raising "a Revenue, to defray the Charges of the Administration of "Juffice, the support of Civil Government, and defending the "King's Dominions," on this Continent. The Penalties and Forfeitures, incurred under this Statute, are to be recovered in the same Manner, with those mentioned in the foregoing Acts.

To this Statute fo naturally tending to diffurb the Tranquillity then universal throughout the Colonies, Parliament in the fame Seffion, added another no lefs extraordinary.

Ever fince the making the prefent Peace, a flanding Army has been kept in thefe Colonies. From Refpect for the Mother Country, the Innovation was not only tolerated, but the Provincial Legiflatures generally made Provision for fupplying the Troops.

The Affembly of the Province of New-York, having paffed an Act of this kind, but differing in fome Articles, from the Directions of the Act of Parliament made in the Fifth Year of this Reign, the Houfe of Reprefentatives in that Colony was prohibited by a Statute made in the laft Seffion mentioned, from making any Bill, Order, Refolution, or Vote, except for adjourning or chufing a Speaker, until Provision fhould be made by the faid Affembly for furnifhing the Troops within that Province, not only with all fuch Neceffaries as were required by the Statute which they were charged with difobeying, but alfo with those required by Two other fubfequent Statutes, which were declared to be in Force, until the Twenty-fourth Day of March, 1769, Thefe Statutes of the Year 1767, revived the Apprehensions and Discontents, that had entirely subsided on the Repeal of the Stamp Act; and amidst the just Fears and Jealousses thereby occasioned, a Statute was made in the next Year [1768] to establish Courts of Admiralty and Vice Admiralty on a new Model, expressly for the End of more effectually recovering of the Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted by Acts of Parliament, framed for the Purpose of raising a Revenue in America., &c.

The immediate Tendency of these Statutes is, to fubvert the Right of having a Share in Legislation, by rendering Affemblies ufclefs; the Right of Property, by taking the Money of the Colonifts Colonifts without their Confent; the Right of Trial by Jury, by fubfituting in their Place Trials in Admiralty and Vice Admiralty Courts, where fingle Judges prefide, holding their Commiffions during Pleafure; and unduly to influence the Courts of Common Law, by rendering the Judges thereof totally dependant on the Crown for their Salaries.

Thefe Statutes, not to mention many others exceedingly exceptionable, compared one with another, will be found, not only to form a regular Syftem, in which every Part has great force, but alfo a pertinacious adherence to that Syftem, for fubjugating thefe Colonies, that are not, and from local Circumfances, cannot be reprefented in the Houfe of Commons, to the uncontroulable and unlimited Power of Parliament, in violation of their undoubted Rights and Liberties, in Contempt of their humble and repeated Supplications.

This Conduct muft appear equally aftonifhing and unjuftifiable, when it is confidered how unprovoked it has been by any Behaviour of thefe Colonies. From their firft Settlement, their bittereft Enemies-never fixed on any of them a Charge of Difloyalty to their Sovereign or Difaffection to their Mother-Country. In the Wars fhe has carried on, they have exerted themfelves whenever required, in giving her Affiftance; and have rendered her Services, which fhe has publickly acknowledged to be extremely important. Their Fidelity, Duty and Ufefulnefs during the laft War, were frequently and affectionately confeffed by his late Majefty and the prefent King.

The Reproaches of thofe, who are most univiendly to the Freedom of America, are principally levelled against the Province of Maffachufetts-Bay; but with what little Reason, will appear by the following Declarations of a Person, the Truth of whose Evidence, in their Favour, will not be questioned.—Governor Bernard thus addreffes the two Houses of Affembly—in his Speech on the 24th of April 1762,—" The Unanimity and Dispatch, with which you have complied with the Requisitions of his Majefty, require my particular Acknowledgement. And it gives me additional Pleasure to observe, that you have therein acted under no other Influence than a due Sense of your Duty, both as Members of a general Empire, and as the Body of a particular Province."

in another Speech on the 27th of May, in the fame Year, he fays,—" Whatever shall be the Event of the War, it must be no small Satisfaction to us, that this Province hath contributed its full Share to the Support of it. Every Thing that hath been required of it bath been complied with; and the Execution of the powers committed to me, for raising the provincial Troops hath been as full and complete as the Grant of them. Never before were Regiments fo easily levied, fo well composed, and fo early in the Field as they have been this Year: the common people feemed to be animated with the Spirit of the General Court, and to vie with them in their Readiness to ferve the King."

Such was the Conduct of the People of the Maffachufetts-Bay during the laft War. As to their Behaviour before that Period, it ought not to have been forgot in Great-Britain, that not only on every Occasion they had constantly and chearfully complied with the frequent royal Requisitions—but that chiefly by their vigorous Efforts, Nova Scotia was fubdued in 1710, and Louifbourg in 1745.

Foreign Quarrels being ended, and the Domestic Diffurbances, that quickly fucceeded on Account of the Stamp-Act, being quieted by its Repeal, the Affembly of Maffachufetts-Bay transmitted an humble Addrefs of Thanks to the King and divers Noblemen, and foon after passed a Bill for granting Compensation to the Sufferers in the Diforder occasioned by that Act.

These Circumstances and the following Extracts from Governor Bernard's Letters in 1768, to the Earl of Shelburne, Secretary of State, clearly fhew, with what grateful Tenderness they ftrove to bury in Oblivion the unhappy Occasion of the late Difcords, and with what respectful Deference they endeavoured to escape other " The Houfe, (fays the Gover-Subjects of future Controversy. " nor) from the Time of opening the Seffion to this Day, has " fhewn a Difpofition to avoid all Difpute with me; every Thing " having paffed with as much good Humour as I could defire, " except only their continuing to act in addressing the King, re-" monstrating to the Secretary of State, and employing a separate, " Agent. It is the Importance of this Innovation, without any " Wilfulnefs of my own, which induces me to make this Remon-" ftrance at a Time when I have a fair Prospect of having, in all " other Business, nothing but good to fay of the Proceedings of " the Houfe."*

" They have acted in all Things, even in their Remonstrance, " with Temper and Moderation; they have avoided fome Subjects " of Difpute, and have laid a Foundation for removing fome " Caufes of former Altercation."

" I shall make such a prudent and proper Use of this Letter as, I hope, will perfectly reftore the Peace and Tranquillity of this Province, for which Purpose confiderable Steps have been made by the House of Representatives."

The Vindication of the Province of Maffachufetts-Bay contained in thefe Letters, will have greater Force, if it be confidered, that they were written feveral Months after the fresh Alarm given to the Colonies by the Statutes passed in the preceding Year.

In

In this Place it feems proper to take Notice of the Infinuation of one of those Statutes, that the Interference of Parliament was neceffary to provide for "defraying the Charge of the Admini-"ftration of Justice, the fupport of Civil Government, and de-"fending the King's Dominions in America.

As to the Two first Articles of Expence, every Colony had made fuch Provision, as by their respective Affemblies, the best Judges on fuch Occasions, was thought expedient, and fuitable to their feveral Circumstances: respecting the last, it is well known to all men, the least acquainted with American Affairs, that the Colonies were established, and generally defended themfelves, without the least Affistance from Great Britain; and that, at the Time of her Taxing them by the Statutes before mentioned, most of them were labouring under very heavy Debts contracted in the last War. So far were they from fparing their Money, when their Sovereign, conflictutionally, asked their Aids, that during the Courfe of that War, Parliament repeatedly made them Compensations for the Expences of those florength, they had chearfully incurred.

Severe as the Acts of Parliament before mentioned are, yet the Conduct of Administration hath been equally injurious, and irritating, to this devoted Country.

Under Pretence of governing them, fo many new Inflitutions, uniformly rigid and dangerous, have been introduced, as could only be expected from incenfed Mafters, for collecting the Tribute or rather the Plunder of conquered Provinces.

By an Order of the King, the Authority of the Commander in Chief, and under him, of the Brigadier-Generals, in Time of Peace, is rendered Supreme in all the Civil Governments in America; and thus, an uncontroulable Military Power is vefted in Officers, not known to the Conftitution of these Colonies.

A large body of Troops, and a confiderable armament of Ships of War, have been fent to affift in taking their Money without their Confent.

Expensive and oppreffive Offices have been multiplied, and the Acts of Corruption industriously practifed to divide and dethroy.

The Judges of the Admiralty and Vice Admiralty Courts are impowered to receive their Salaries and Fees from the Effects to be condemned by themfelves.

The Commiffioners of the Cuftoms are impowered to break open and enter Houfes without the Authority of any Civil Magistrate founded on legal Information.

Judges of Courts of Common Law, have been made entirely dependant on the Crown for their Commiffions and Salaries.

A Court

A Court has been established at Rhode Island, for the Purpofe of taking Colonists to England to be tried.

Humble and reafonable Petitions from the Reprefentatives of the People, have been frequently treated with Contempt: and Affemblies have been repeatedly and arbitrarily diffolved.

From fome few Inftances, it will fufficiently appear, on what Pretences of Juffice those diffolutions have been founded.

The tranquillity of the Colonies having been again diffurbed, as has been mentioned, by the Statutes of the Year 1767, the Earl of Hill/borough, Secretary of State, in a Letter to Governor Bernard, dated April 22, 1768, cenfures the " prefumption" of the Houfe of Reprefentatives for " refolving upon a Meafure " of fo inflammatory a Nature, as that of writing to the other Co-" lonies, on the Subject of their intended Representations against " fome late Acts of Parliament," then declares that " his Majefty " confiders this Step as evidently tending to create unwarrant-" able Combinations to excite an unjuftifiable Oppofition to the conflictutional Authority of Parliament:"-and afterwards adds, " It is the King's Pleafure, that as foon as the General Court " is again affembled, at the Time preferibed by the Charter, " you fhould require of the Houfe of Reprefentatives, in his " Majefty's Name, to rescind the Refolution which gave Birth to " the circular Letter from the Speaker, and to declare their Dif-" approbation of, and diffent to that rafh and hafty Proceeding." " If the New Affembly fhould refuse to comply with his Ma-" jefty's reafonable Expectation, it is the King's Pleafure, that " you fhould immediately diffolve them."

This Letter being laid before the Houfe, and the Refolution not being refeinded according to Order, the Affembly was diffolved. A Letter of a fimilar Nature was fent to other Governors to procure Refolutions approving the Conduct of the Reprefentatives of Maffachufett's Bay to be refeinded also; and the Houfes of Reprefentatives in other Colonies refufing to comply, Affemblies were diffolved.

Thefe Mandates fpoke a Language, to which the ears of Englifh Subjects had for feveral Generations been Strangers. The Nature of Affemblies implies a Power and Right of Deliberation; but thefe Commands, proferibing the Exercise of Judgment on the Propriety of the Requisitions made, left to the Affemblies only the election between dictated Submission, and threatened punishment: A Punishment too, founded on no other Act, than sis deemed innocent even in Slaves—of agreeing in Petitions for Redrefs of Grievances, that equally affect all.

The hoftile and unjuftifiable Invafion of the Town of Bofton, foon followed thefe Events in the fame Year; though that Town, the Province in which it is fituated, and all the Colonies, from abhorrence of a Conteft with their Parent State, permitted the Execution Execution even of those Statutes, against which they fo unanimoufly were complaining, remonstrating, and supplicating.

Administration, determined to fubdue a Spirit of Freedom, which English Ministers should have rejoiced to cherish, entered into a monopolizing Combination with the East India Company, to fend to this Continent vast quantities of Tea, an Article, on which a Duty was laid by a Statute, that, in a particular Manner, attacked the Liberties of America, and which therefore the Inhabitants of these Colonies had refolved not to import. The Cargo fent to South Garolina was stored, and not allowed to be fold. Those fent to Philadelphia and New-York, were not permitted to be landed. That fent to Boston was destroyed, because Governor Hutchinson, would not fuffer it to be returned.

On the Intelligence of these Transactions arriving in Great Britain, the public spirited Town last mentioned, was singled out for Destruction, and it was determined the Province it belongs to, should partake of its fate. In the last Session of Parliament therefore were passed the Acts for shutting up the Port of Boston, indemnifying the Murderers of the Inhabitants of Massachusetts-Bay, and changing their Chartered Constitution of Government. To enforce these Acts, that Province is again invaded by a Fleet and Army.

To mention these outrageous Proceedings, is sufficient to explain them. For though it is pretended, that the Province of Massachusetts-Bay has been particularly difrespectful to Great-Britain, yet in truth the Behaviour of the People, in other Colonies, has been an equal " Opposition to the Power assumed " by Parliament." No ftep however has been taken against any of the reft. This artful Conduct conceals feveral Defigns. It is expected that the Province of Maffachufettss-Bay will be irritated into fome violent Action, that may difpleafe the reft of the Continent, or that may induce the People of Great-Britain to approve the meditated Vengeance of an imprudent and exafperated Ministry. If the unexampled pacific Temper of that Province shall difappoint this part of the Plan, it is hoped the other Colonies will be fo far intimidated as to defert their Brethren, fuffering in a common Caufe, and that thus difunited, all may be fubdued.

To promote thefe Defigns, another Meafure has been purfued. In the Seffion of Parliament laft mentioned, an Act was paffed for changing the Government of Quebec, by which Act the Roman Catholic Religion, inftead of being tolerated, as flipulated by the Treaty of Peace, is eftablished; and the People there are deprived of a Right to an Affembly, Trials by Jury, and the English Laws in Civil Cafes are abolished, and inftead thereof, the French Laws are eftablished, in direct violation of his Majeffty's Promife by his Royal Proclamation, under the Faith of which many English Subjects Subjects fettled in that Province and the Limits of that Province are extended fo as to comprehend those valt Regions, that he adjoining to the Northerly and Westerly Boundaries of these Colonies.

The Authors of this arbitrary Arrangement flatter themfelves, that the Inhabitants, deprived of Liberty, and artfully provoked against those of another Religion, will be proper Instruments for affisting in the oppression of such, as differ from them in Modes of Government and Faith.

From the Detail of Facts herein before recited, as well as from authentic Intelligence received, it is clear beyond a doubt, that a Refolution is formed and now carrying into Execution, to extinguish the Freedom of these Colonies, by subjecting them to a defpotic Government.

At this unhappy Period, we have been authorized and directed to meet and confult together for the Welfare of our common Country. We accepted the important Truft with Diffidence, but have endeavoured to discharge it with Integrity. Though the State of these Colonies would certainly justify other Measures than we have advifed, yet weighty Reafons determined us to prefer those which we have adopted. In the first Place, it appeared to us a Conduct becoming the Character, these Colonies have ever fustained, to perform, even in the midst of the unnatural Distreffes and imminent Dangers that furround them, every act of Loyalty, and therefore, we were induced once more to offer to his Majefty, the Petitions of his faithful and oppressed Subjects in America. Secondly, regarding with the tender affection, which we knew to be fo univerfal among our Countrymen, the People of the Kingdom, from which we derive our Origin, we could not forbear to regulate our Steps by an expectation of receiving full Conviction, that the Colonifts are equally dear to them. Between these Provinces and that Body fublists the Social Band, which we ardently with may never be diffolved, and which cannot be diffolved, until their Minds shall become indisputably hostile, or their inattention shall permit those who are thus hostile to perfift in profecuting with the Powers of the Realm, the Deftructive Meafures already operating against the Colonists, and in either cafe, shall reduce the latter to fuch a Situation, that they shall be compelled to renounce every Regard, but that of Self-prefervation. Notwithstanding the violence with which Affairs have been impelled, they have not yet reached that fatal Point. We do not incline to accelerate their Motion, already alarmingly rapid; we have chosen a Method of opposition, that does not preclude a hearty Reconciliation with our Fellow-Citizens, on the other fide of the Atlantic. We deeply deplore the urgent Neceffity, that preffes us to an immediate interruption of Commerce, that may prove injurious to them. We truft they will acquit us of of any unkind Intentions towards them, by reflecting, that we are driven by the Hands of Violence, into unexperienced and unexpected public Convultions, and that we are contending for Freedom, fo often contended for by our Anceftors.

The People of England will foon have an Opportunity of declaring their Sentiments concerning our Caufe. In their Piety, Generofity, and good Senfe, we repofe high Confidence; and cannot, upon a Review of paft Events, be perfuaded, that they, the Defenders of true Religion, and the Afferters of the Rights of Mankind, will take part against their affectionate Protestant Brethren in the Colonies, in favour of our open and their own fecret Enemies, whofe Intrigues, for feveral Years pass, have been wholly exercised in fapping the Foundations of Civil and Religious Liberty.

Another Reason, that engaged us to prefer the Commercial Mode of Opposition, arole from an affurance, that the Mode will prove efficacious, if it be perfifted in with Fidelity and Virtue; and that your Conduct will be influenced by thefe laudable Principles, cannot be queftioned. Your own Salvation, and that of your Posterity, now depends upon yourfelves. You have already fhewn that you entertain a proper Senfe of the Bleffings you are ftriving to retain. Against the temporary Inconveniencies you may fuffer from a Stoppage of Trade, you will weigh in the oppolite Balance, the endless Miferies you and your Descendants must endure, from an established arbitrary Power. You will not forget the Honour of your Country that must, from your Behaviour, take its Title in the Effimation of the World, to Glory, or to Shame; and you will, with the deepest Attention, reflect. that if the peaceable Mode of Oppofition recommended by us be broken and rendered ineffectual, as your cruel and haughty Ministerial Enemies, from a contemptuous Opinion of your Firmnefs, infolently predict will be the Cafe, you must inevitably be reduced to chufe, either a more dangerous Contest, or a final, ruinous, and infamous fubmiffion.

Motives thus cogeut, arifing from the emergency of your unhappy Condition, muft excite your utmost Diligence and Zeal, to give all possible Strength and Energy to the pacific Measures calculated for your Relief: But we think ourfelves bound in Duty to observe to you, that the Schemes agitated against these Colonies, have been so conducted, as to render it prudent, that you should extend your Views to mournful Events, and be in all Respects prepared for every Contingency. Above all Things, we earnestly intreat you, with Devotion of Spirit, penitence of Heart, and amendment of Life, to humble yourfelves and implore the Favour of Almighty Gop: and we fervently befeech his Divine Goodness, to take you into his gracious Protection.

The Committee appointed to prepare a Letter to the Colonies of St. John's, &c. reported a Draught, which was read, and being amended, the fame was approved, and is as follows.

Philadelphia, October 22, 1774.

" GENTLEMEN,

"THE prefent critical and truly alarming State of American affairs, having been confidered in a General Congress of Deputies from the Colonies of New-Hampshire, Maffachuletts-Bay, Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, New-York, New-Jerfey, Pennfylvania, Newcassle Kent and Suffex on Delaware, Marylaud, Virginia, North-Carolina, and South-Carolina, with that Attention and mature Deliberation, which the important Nature of the Gafe demands, they have determined, for themfelves and the Golonies they reprefent, on the Meafures contained in the enclosed Papers; which Meafures they recommend to your Colony to be adopted with all the Earness, that a well-directed zeal for American Liberty can prompt.

" So rapidly violent and unjust has been the late Conduct of the British Administration against the Colonies, that either a base and slavish Submission, under the Loss of their ancient, just, and constitutional Liberty, must quickly take Place, or an adequate Opposition be formed.

"We pray God to take you under his Protection, and to preferve the Freedom and Happinefs of the whole British Empire.

> By Order of the Congress. HENRY MIDDLETON, Prefident."

Monday, October 24, 1774.

The Addrefs to the People of Quebec, being brought in, was read, and after fome Debate, was re-committed.

The Committee, to whom the Addrefs to the King was recommitted, reported a Draught, which was read, and ordered to be taken into Confideration to-morrow.

RESOLVED, That this Congress in their own Names, and in Behalf of all those whom they represent, do present their most grateful Acknowledgements to those truly noble, honourable, and patriotic Advocates of Civil and Religious Liberty, who have so generously and powerfully, though unfuccessfully, espoused, and defended the Cause of America, both in and out of Parliament.

WEDNESDAY, October 26, 1774.

The Letter to the Agents being brought in by the Committee, was read and approved as follows :---

Philadelphia;

Η

Philadelphia, October 26, 1774.

" GENTLEMEN,

"We give you the strongest Proof of our Reliance on your Zeal and Attachment to the Happiness of America, and the Cause of Liberty, when we commit the enclosed Paper to your care.

"We defire you will deliver the Petition into the Hands of his Majefly, and after it has been prefented, we wish it may be made public through the Prefs, together with the List of Grievances. And as we hope for great Assistance from the Spirit, Virtue, and Justice of the Nation, it is our earnest Defire, that the most effectual Care be taken, as early as possible, to furnish the trading Cities, and Manusacturing Towns throughout the United Kingdom, with our Memorial to the People of Great Britain.

"We doubt not but your good Senfe and Differnment will lead you to avail yourfelves of every Affiftance, that may be derived from the Advice and Friendship of all great and good Men, who may incline to aid the Caufe of Liberty and Mankind.

" The Gratitude of America, expressed in the enclosed Vote of Thanks, we defire may be conveyed to the deferving Objects of it, in the Manner you think will be most acceptable to them.

" It is proposed, that another Congress be held on the Tenth of May next, at this place, but in the mean Time, we beg the Favour of you, Gentlemen, to transmit to the Speakers of the several Assemblies, the earliest Information of the most authentic Accounts you can collect, of all such Conduct and Designs of Ministry or Parliament, as it may concern America to know.

We are with unfeigned Esteem and Regard, Gentlemen, &c.

By Order and in Behalf of the Congress.

HENRY MIDDLETON, Prefident." Wentworth, Efo:

To Paul Wentworth, Efq; Doctr. Benj. Franklin, William Bollen, Efq; Doctr. Arthur Lee, Thomas Life, Efq;
Edmund Burke, Efq; Charles Garth, Efq;

The Committee, to whom the Addrefs to the Inhabitants of Quebec was re-committed; reported a Draught, which was read, and being debated by Paragraphs and amended, was approved, and is as follows:

To the INHABITANTS of the Province of QUEBEC. "Friends and Fellow-Subjects,

"WE, the DELEGATES of the Colonies of New-Hampfhire, Maffachufetts-Bay, Rhode-Ifland and Providence Plantations, tations, Connecticut, New-York, New-Jerfey, Pennfylvania, the Counties of Newcafile Kent and Suffex on Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, and South-Carolina, deputed by the Inhabitants of the faid Colonies, to reprefent them in a General Congrefs at Philadelphia, in the Province of Pennfylvania, to confult together, concerning the beft Methods to obtain Redrefs of our afflicting Grievances; having accordingly affembled, and taken into our most ferious Confideration, the state of public Affairs on this Continent, have thought proper to addrefs your Province, as a Member therein deeply interested.

When the fortune of War, after a gallant and glorious Kefiftance, had incorporated you with the Body of Englifb Subjects, we rejoiced in the truly valuable Addition, both on our own and your Account; expecting, as Courage and Generofity are naturally united, our brave Enemies would become our hearty Friends, and that the Divine Being would blefs to you the Difpenfations of his over-ruling Providence, by fecuring to you and your lateft Pofterity, the ineffimable Advantages of a free Englifb Confitution of Government, which it is the Privilege of all Englifb Subjects to enjoy.

Thefe hopes were confirmed by the King's Proclamation, iffued in the Year 1763, plighting the public Faith for your full enjoyment of those Advantages.

Little did we imagine that any fucceeding Minifters would fo audacioufly and cruelly abufe the Royal Authority, as to withhold from you the fruition of the irrevocable Rights, to which you were thus juftly entitled.

But fince we have lived to fee the unexpected Time, when Minifters of this flagitious Temper, have dared to violate the molt facred Compacts and Obligations, and as you, educated under another form of Government, have artfully been kept from difcovering the unfpeakable worth of that Form, you are now, undoubtedly entitled to, we efteem it our Duty, for the weighty Reafons herein-after mentioned, to explain to you fome of its molt important Branches.

" In every human Society," fays the celebrated Marquis Beccaria, " there is an Effort continually tending to confer on one part the heighth of Power and Happinels, and to reduce the other to the extreme of Weaknels and Mifery. The Intent of good Laws is to oppofe this Effort, and to diffufe their Influence univerfally and equally."

Rulers fimulated by this pernicious " Effort," and Subjects, animated by the juft " intent of oppofing good Laws against it," have occasioned that vast variety of Events, that fill the Histories of fo many Nations. All these Histories demonstrate the Truth of this fimple Position, that to live by the Will of one Man, or set of Men, is the production of Misery to all Men.

Qn

On the folid Foundation of this Principle, Englifhmen reared up the Fabrick of their Conflitution with fuch a Strength, as for Ages to defy Time, Tyranny, Treachery, internal and foreign Wars: And, as an illustrious Author * of your Nation, hereafter mentioned, obferves,—" They gave the People of their Colonies, the form of their own Government, and this Government carrying Prosperity along with it, they have grown great Nations in the Forefts they were fent to inhabit."

In this form, the firft grand Right is that of the People having a Share in their own Government by their Reprefentatives chofe by themfelves, and in confequence, of being ruled by Laws, which they themfelves approve, not by Edicts of Men, over whom they have no Controul. This is a Bulwark furrounding and defending their Property, which by their honeft Cares and Labours they have acquired, fo that no Portions of it can legally be taken from them, but with their own full and free Confent, when they in their Judgment deem it juft and neceffary to give them for public Services, and precifely direct the eafieft, cheapeft, and moft equal Methods, in which they fhall be collected.

The influence of this Right extends ftill farther. If Money is wanted by Rulers, who have in any Manner opprefied the People, they may retain it, until their Grievances are redreffed; and thus peaceably procure Relief, without trufting to defpifed Petitions, or diffurbing the public Tranquillity.

The next great Right is that of Trial by Jury. This provides, that neither Life, Liberty, nor Property, can be taken from the Poffeffor, until twelve of his unexceptionable Countrymen and Peers, of his Vicinage, who from that neighbourhood, may reafonably be fuppofed to be acquainted with his Character, and the Characters of the Witneffes, upon a fair Trial, and full enquiry Face to Face, in open Court, before as many of the People, as chufe to attend, fhall pafs their Sentence upon Oath againth him; a Sentence that cannot injure him, without injuring their own Reputation, and probably their Intereft alfo; as the Queftion may turn on Points, that, in fome Degree, concern the General Welfare; and if it does not, their Verdićt may form a Precedent, that, on a fimilar Trial of their own, may militate againft themfelves.

Another Right relates merely to the Liberty of the Perfon. If a Subject is feized and imprifoned, though by Order of Government, he may, by virtue of this Right, immediately obtain a Writ, termed a Habeas Corpus, from a Judge, whofe fworn Duty it is to grant it, and thereupon procure any illegal Restraint to be quickly enquired into, and redreffed.

A fourth Right, is that of holding Lands by the Tenure of eafy Rents, and not by rigorous and opprefive Services, frequently forcing the Poffeffors from their Families and their Bufinefs

nefs, to perform what ought to be done, in all well regulated States, by Men hired for the Purpofe.

The laft Right we fhall mention regards the Freedom of the Prefs. The importance of this confifts, befides the Advancement of Truth, Science, Morality, and Arts in general, in its diffution of liberal Sentiments on the Administration of Government, its ready communication of Thoughts between Subjects, and its confequential promotion of Union among them, whereby oppreffive Officers are fhamed or intimidated, into more honourable and juft Modes of conducting Affairs.

Thefe are the invaluable Rights, that form a confiderable Part of our mild Syftem of Government; that, fending its equitable Energy through all Ranks and Claffes of Men, defends the Poor from the Rich, the Weak from the Powerful, the Industrious from the Rapacious, the Peaceable from the Violent, the Tenants from the Lords, and all from their Superiors.

Thefe are the Rights, without which a People cannot be free and happy, and under the protecting and encouraging influence of which, thefe Colonies have hitherto fo amazingly flourifhed and increased. Thefe are the Rights, a profligate Ministry are now striving, by force of Arms, to ravish from us, and which we are, with one Mind, refolved never to refign, but with our Lives.

These are the Rights, you are entitled to, and ought at this Moment in perfection to exercise. And what is offered to you by the late Act of Parliament in their Place? Liberty of Confcience in your Religion? No. God gave it to you; and and the Temporal Powers with which you have been and are connected, firmly flipulated for your enjoyment of it. If Laws, divine, and human, could fecure it against the despotic Caprices of wicked Men, it was fecured before. Are the French Laws in Civil Cafes reftored? It feems fo. But observe the cautious Kindnefs of the Ministers, who pretend to be your Benefactors. The Words of the Statute are-that those " Laws shall be the Rule, " until they shall be varied or altered by any Ordinances of the " Governor and Council." Is the " Certainty and Lenity of the " Criminal Law of England and its Benefits and Advantages," commended in the faid Statute, and faid to " have been fenfibly felt " by you," fecured to you and your Defcendants? No. They too are fubjected to arbitrary " Alterations" by the Governor and Council; and a Power is expressly referved of appointing " fuch Courts of Criminal, Civil, and Ecclefiaftical Jurifdiction, as fhall be thought proper." Such is the precarious Tenure of mere Will, by which you hold your Lives and Religion. The Crown and its Ministers, are impowered as far as they could be by Parliament, to establish even the Inquisition itself among you. Have you an Affembly composed of worthy Men, elected by yourfelves, yourfelves, and in whom you can confide, to make Laws for you, to watch over your Welfare, and to direct in what Quantity, and in what Manner, your Money shall be taken from you? No. The Power of making Laws for you is lodged in the Governor and Council, all of them dependant upon, and removeable at the pleafure of a Minister. Besides, another late Statute, made without your Confent, has subjected you to the Impositions of Excife; the Horror of all free States; thus wrefting your property from you by the most odious of Taxes, and laying open to infolent Tax-gatherers, Houfes, the Scenes of domeftic Peace and Comfort, and called the Caftles of English Subjects in the Books of their Law. And in the very Act for altering your Government, and intended to flatter you, you are not authorifed to " affefs, levy or apply any Rates and Taxes, but for the inferior purpofes of making Roads, and erecting and repairing public Buildings, or for other local Conveniences, within your refpective Towns and Diftricts." Why this degrading Diffinction ? Ought not the property honefly acquired by Canadians to be held as facred as that of Englishmen? Have not Canadians Sense enough to attend to any other public Affairs, than gathering Stones from one place and piling them up in another ? Unhappy people ! who are not only injured, but infulted. Nay more !- With fuch a fuperlative Contempt of your Understanding and Spirit has an infolent Miniftry prefumed to think of you, our respectable Fellow-Subjects, according to the Information we have received, as firmly to perfuade themfelves that your Gratitude, for the Injuries and Infults they have recently offered to you, will engage you to take up Arms, and render yourfelves the Ridicule and Deteftation of the World, by becoming Tools, in their Hands, to affift them in taking that Freedom from us, which they have treacheroufly denied to you; the unavoidable Confequence of which Attempt, if fuccefsful, would be the Extinction of all Hopes of you or your Pofterity being ever reftored to Freedom : For Idiocy itfelf cannot believe, that, when their Drudgery is performed, they will treat you with lefs Cruelty than they have us, who are of the fame Blood with themfelves.

What would your Countryman, the immortal Montefqieu, have faid to fuch a Plan of Domination, as has been framed for you? Hear his Words, with an Intenfenefs of Thought fuited to the Importance of the Subject.—" In a free State, every Man, who is fuppofed a free Agent, sught to be concerned in his own Government: Therefore the Legiflative fhould refide in the whole Body of the People, or their Reprefentatives."—" The political Liberty of the Subject is a Tranquillity of Mind, arifing from the Opinion each Perfon has of his Safety. In Order to have this Liberty, it is requifite the Government be fo conflituted, as that one Man need not be afraid of another. When the Power of making Laws and and the power of executing them, are united in the fame perfon, or in the fame Body of Magistrates, there can be no Liberty; becaufe Apprehensions may arife, left the fame Monarch or Senate should enact tyrannical Laws, to execute them in a tyrannical Manner."

"The power of judging fhould be exercifed by perfons taken from the Body of the People, at certain Times of the Year, and purfuant to a Form and Manner preferibed by Law. There is no Liberty, if the power of judging be not feparated from the legiflative and executive Powers."

"Military Men belong to a profeffion, which may be ufeful, but is often dangerous."—" The Enjoyment of Liberty, and even its Support and Prefervation, confifts in every Man's being allowed to fpeak his Thoughts, and lay open his Sentiments.

Apply thefe decifive Maxims, fanctified by the Authority of a Name which all Europe reveres, to your own State. You have a Governor, it may be urged, vefted with the executive powers, or the powers of Adminifiration: In him, and in your Council, is lodged the power of making Laws. You have Judges, who are to decide every Caufe affecting your Lives, Liberty or Property. Here is, indeed, an Appearance of the feveral powers being feparated and diffributed into different Hands, for Checks one upon another; the only effectual Mode ever invented by the Wit of Men, to promote their Freedom and Profperity. But fcorning to be illuded by a tinfeled Outfide, and exerting the natural Sagacity of Frenchmen, examine the fpecious Device, and you will find it, to ufe an Exprefion of Holy Writ, " a whited Sepulchre," for burying your Lives, Liberty, and Property.

Your Judges, and your Legislative Council, as it is called, are dependant on your Governor, and he is dependant on the Servant of the Crown in Great-Britain. The legiflative, executive, and judg-ing powers are all moved by the Nods of a Minister. Privileges and Immunities laft no longer than his Smiles. When he frowns, their feeble Forms diffolve. Such a treacherous Ingenuity has been exerted in drawing up the Code lately offered you, that every Sentence, beginning with a benevolent Pretension, concludes with a destructive Power; and the Substance of the Whole, divested of its fmooth Words, is-that the Crown and its Minifters shall be as abfolute throughout your extended Province, as the Defpots of Afia or Africa. What can protect your Property from taxing Edicts, and the Rapacity of neceffitous and cruel Mafters? your Perfons from Letters de Catchet, Goals, Dungeons, and oppreffive Services ? your Lives and general Liberty from arbitrary and unfeeling Rulers? We defy you, casting your View upon every Side, to difcover a fingle Circumstance, promising from any Quarter the faintest Hope of Liberty to you or your Posterity, but from an entire Adoption into the Union of these Colonies. What

What Advice would the truly great Man before mentioned, that Advocate of Freedom and Humanity, give you, was he now living, and knew that we, your numerous and powerful Neighbours, animated by a juft Love of our invaded Rights, and united by the indiffoluble Bands of Affection and Intereft, called upon you, by every Obligation of Regard for yourfelves and your Children, as we now do, to join us in our righteous Conteft, to make common Caufe with us therein, and take a noble Chance for emerging from a humiliating Subjection under Governors, Intendants, and Military Tyrants, into the firm Rank and Condition of Englift Freemen, whofe Cuftom it is, derived from their Anceftors, to make thofe tremble, who dare to think of making them miferable?

Would not this be the Purport of his Address? " Seize the Opportunity prefented to you by Providence itself. You have been conquered into liberty, if you act as you ought. This work is not of Man. You are a fmall People, compared to those who with open Arms invite you into a Fellowship. A Moment's Reflection should convince you which will be most for your Interest and Happinefs, to have all the Reft of North-America your unalterable Friends, or your inveterate Enemies. The Injuries of Boston have roufed and affociated every Colony, from Nova-Scotia to Georgia. Your Province is the only Link wanting to compleat the bright and ftrong Chain of Union. Nature has joined your Country to theirs. Do you join your political Interefts. For their own Sakes, they never will defert or betray you. Be affured, that the Happiness of a People inevitably depends on their Liberty, and their Spirit to affert it. The Value and Extent of the Advantages tendered to you are immense. Heaven grant you may not difcover them to be Bleffings after they have bid you an eternal Adieu."

We are too well acquainted with the Liberality of Sentiment diffinguishing your Nation, to imagine, that Difference of Religion will prejudice you against a hearty Amity with us. You know, that the transferndant Nature of Freedom elevates those who unite in her Cause, above all fuch low minded Infirmities. The Swifs Cantons furnish a memorable Proof of this Truth. Their Union is composed of Roman Catholic and Protestant States, living in the utmost Concord and Peace with one another, and thereby enabled, ever fince they bravely vindicated their Freedom, to defy and defeat every Tyrant that has invaded them.

Should there be any among you, as there generally are in all Societies, who prefer the Favours of Ministers, and their own private Interests, to the Welfare of their Country, the Temper of fuch felfish Perfons will render them incredibly active in opposing all public-spirited Measures, from an Expectation of being well rewarded for their fordid Industry, by their Superiors; but we doubt doubt not you will be upon your Guard against fuch Men, and not facrifice the Liberty and Happiness of the whole Canadian People and their Posterity, to gratify the Avarice and Ambition of Individuals.

We do not afk you, by this Addrefs, to commence Acts of Hoftility againft the Government of our common Sovereign. We only invite you to confult your own Glory and Welfare, and not to fuffer yourfelves to be inveigled or intimidated by infamous Minifters, fo far, as to become the Inftruments of their Cruelty and Defpotifm; but to unite with us in one focial Compact, formed on the generous Principles of equal Liberty, and cemented by fuch an Exchange of beneficial and endearing Offices as to render it perpetual. In Order to complete this highly defirable Union, we fubmit it to your Confideration, whether it may not be expedient for you to meet together in your feveral Towns and Diftricts, and elect Deputies, who afterwards meeting in a Provincial Congrefs, may chufe Delegates, to reprefent your Province in the Continental Congrefs to be held at Philadelphia on the tenth Day of May, 1775:

In this prefent Congress, beginning on the fifth of the laft Month, and continued to this Day, it has been, with universal Pleafure and an unanimous Vote, refolved, That we should confider the Violation of your Rights, by the Act for altering the Government of your Province, as a Violation of our own, and that you fhould be invited to accede to our Confederation, which has no other Objects than the perfect Security of the natural and civil Rights of all the conftituent Members, according to their refpective Circumstances, and the Prefervation of a happy and lasting Connection with Great-Britain, on the falutary and conflictutional Principles herein before mentioned. For effecting thefe Purpofes, we have addreffed an humble and loyal Petition to his Majefty, praying Relief of our and your Grievances; and have affociated to ftop all Importations from Great-Britain and Ireland, after the first Day of December, and all Exportations to those Kingdoms and the West-Indies after the tenth Day of next September; unles the faid Grievances are redreffed.

That Almighty God may incline your Minds to approve our equitable and neceffary Meafures, to add yourfelves to us, to put your Fate, whenever you fuffer Injuries which you are determined to oppofe, not on the fmall Influence of your fingle Province, but on the confolidated Powers of North-America; and may grant to our joint Exertions an Event as happy as our Caufe is juft, is the fervent Prayer of us, your fincere and affectionate Friends and Fellow-Subjects.

> By Order of the Congress, HENRY MIDDLETON, Prefident.

> > RESOLVED;

RESOLVED, That the Addrefs of the Congrefs to the People of Quebec be figned by the Prefident, and that the Delegates of the province of Pennfylvania fuperintend the Translating, Printing, Publishing, and Difperfing it: And it is recommended by the Congrefs to the Delegates of New-Hampfhire, Maffachufetts-Bay, and New-York, to affist in and forward the Difperfion of the faid Addrefs.

Two Copies of the Address to the King being engroffed and compared were figned at the Table by all the Members.

RESOLVED, That the Thanks of this Congress be given to the Honourable House of Representatives of the Colony of Pennfylvania, for their politeness to this Congress; and that the Delegates for this Colony be a Committee to communicate this Resolution to the faid Honourable House.

A true Copy,

CHARLES THOMSON, Secretary.

The Congress then diffolved itself.

ALETTER from GENERAL GAGE. To Peyton Randolph, Efq;

Sir,

Boston, October 20, 1774.

REPRESENTATIONS should be made with Candour, and Matters stated exactly as they stand. People would be led to believe, from your Letter to me of the 10th Instant, that Works were raised against the Town of Boston, private Property invaded, the Soldiers suffered to insult the Inhabitants, and the Communication between the Town and Country shut up, and molested.

Nothing can be farther from the true Situation of this Place than the above State. There is not a fingle Gun pointed against the Town, no Man's Property has been feized or hurt, except the King's, by the People's deftroying Straw, Bricks, &c. bought for his Service. No Troops have given lefs Caufe for Complaint, and greater Care was never taken to prevent it; and fuch Care and Attention was never more neceffary from the Infults and Provocations daily given to both Officers and Soldiers. The Communication between the Town and Country has been always free and unmolefted, and is fo ftill.

Two Works of Earth have been raifed at fome Diftance from the Town, wide off the Road, and Guns put in them. The Remainder of old Works, going out of the Town, have been ftrengthened, and Guns placed there likewife. People will think differently, whether the hoftile preparation throughout the Country, and the Menaces of Blood and Slaughter, made this necefiary; but I am to do my Duty.

It

It gives me pleafure that you are endeavouring at a cordial Reconciliation with the Mother Country, which, from what has transpired, I have defpaired of. Nobody wishes better Success to fuch Measures than myself. I have endeavoured to be a Mediator, if I could establish a Foundation to work upon, and have strongly urged it to People here to pay for the Tea, and fend a proper Memorial to the King, which would be a good Beginning on their Side, and give their Friends the Opportunity they feek to move in their Support.

I do not believe that Menaces, and unfriendly Proceedings, will have the Effect which too many conceive. The Spirit of the Britifh Nation was high when I left England, and fuch Meafures will not abate it. But I fhould hope that Decency and Moderation here would create the fame Difpolition at home; and I ardently wifh that the common Enemics to both Countries may fee, to their Difappointment, that thefe Difputes between the Mother Country and the Colonies have terminated like the Quarrels of Lovers, and increafed the Affection which they ought to bear to each other. I am, Sir, Your moft obedient humble Servant,

THOMAS GAGE.

The PETITION of CONGRESS.

To the KING's most excellent MAJESTY.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majefty's faithful Subjects of the Colonies of New-Hampfhire, Maffachufetts-Bay, Rhode-Island and Providence Plantations, Connetticut, New-York, New-Jersey, Pennsylvania, the Counties of Newcastle, Kent, and Susfex on Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North-Carolina, and South-Carolina, in Behalf of ourfelves and the Inhabitants of these Colonies, who have deputed us to represent them in General Congress, by this our humble Petition beg Leave to lay our Grievances before the Throne.

A ftanding Army has been kept in these Colonies, ever fince the Conclusion of the late War, without the Confent of our Affemblies; and this Army, with a confiderable naval Armament has been employed to enforce the Collection of Taxes.

The Authority of the Commander in Chief, and under him of the Brigadiers-General has, in Time of Peace, been rendered fupreme in all the civil Governments in America.

The Commander in Chief of all your Majefty's Forces in North America has, in Time of Peace, been appointed Governor of a Colony.

The Charges of usual Offices have been greatly increased; and, new, expensive, and oppreflive Offices have been multiplied.

The

The Judges of Admiralty and Vice-Admiralty Courts are empowered to receive their Salaries and Fees from the Effects condemned by themfelves.

The Officers of the Cuftoms are empowered to break open and enter -Houfes without the Authority of any civil Magiftrate founded on legal Information.

The Judges of Courts of Common Law have been made entirely dependant on one part of the Legislature for their Salaries, as well as for the Duration of their Commissions.

Councellors holding their Commiffions during pleafure exercife legiflative Authority.

Humble and reasonable Petitions from the Representatives of the people have been fruitles.

The Agents of the People have been difcountenanced, and Governors have been inftructed to prevent the payment of their Salaries.

Affemblies have been repeatedly and injurioufly diffolved.

Commerce has been burthened with many useless and oppreffive Reftrictions.

By feveral Acts of Parliament made in the fourth, fifth, fixth, feventh, and eighth Years of your Majefty's Reign, Duties are impofed on us, for the Purpofe of raifing a Revenue; and the Powers of Admiralty and Vice-Admiralty Courts are extended beyond their ancient Limits, whereby our Property is taken from us without our Confent, the Trial by Jury in many civil Cafes is abolifhed, enormous Forfeitures are incurred for flight Offences, vexatious Informers, are exempted from paying Damages, to which they are juftly liable, and opprefive Security is required from Owners before they are allowed to defend their Right.

Both Houfes of Parliament have refolved, that Colonifts may be tried in England for Offences alledged to have been committed in America by Virtue of a Statute paffed in the thirty-fifth Year of Henry the eighth; and in Confequence thereof Attempts have been made to enforce that Statute.

A Statute was paffed in the twelfth Year of your Majefty's Reign, directing, that Perfons charged with committing any Offence therein deferibed, in any place out of the Realm, may be indicted and tried for the fame, in any Shire or County within the Realm, whereby Inhabitants of thefe Colonies may, in fundry Cafes by that Statute made Capital, be deprived of a Trial by their Peers of the Vicinage.

In the laft Seffion of Parliament, an Act was paffed for blocking up the Harbour of Boflon; another empowering the Governor of the Maffachufetts-Bay to fend Perfons indicted for Murder in that Province to another Colony, or even to Great-Britain for Trial, whereby fuch Offenders may efcape legal punifhment; a Third for altering the chartered Conflictution of Government in that that Province; and a Fourth for extending the Limits of Quebec, abolifhing the English and reftoring the French Laws, whereby great Numbers of British Freemen are fubjected to the latter, and eftablishing an abfolute Government and the Roman Catholic Religion throughout those vast Regions, that border on the westerly and northerly Boundaries of the free, protestant, English Settlements; and a Fifth for the better providing fuitable Quarters for Officers and Soldiers in his Majesty's Service in North-America.

To a Sovereign, who glories in the Name of Briton; the bare Recital of thefe Acts mult, we prefume, juftify the loyal Subjects, who fly to the Foot of his Throne, and implore his Clemency for protection against them.

From this deftructive Syftem of Colony Administration, adopted fince the Conclusion of the laft War, have flowed those Distreffes, Dangers, Fears, and Jealousies, that overwhelm your Majefty's dutiful Colonists with Affliction : and we defy our most fubtle and inveterate Enemies to trace the unhappy Differences between Great-Britain and these Colonies, from an earlier Period, or from other Causes, than we have affigned. Had they proceeded on our part from a reftles Levity of Temper, unjust Impulses of Ambition, or artful Suggestions of feditious Persons, we should merit the opprobrious Terms frequently beftowed upon us by those we revere. But so far from promoting Innovations, we have only opposed them; and can be charged with no Offence, unless it be one to receive Injuries, and be fensible of them.

Had our Creator been pleafed to give us Exiftence in a Land of Slavery, the Senfe of our Condition might have been mitigated by Ignorance and Habit. But, Thanks be to his adorable Goodnefs, we were born the Heirs of Freedom, and ever enjoyed our Right under the Aufpices of your royal Anceftors, whofe Family was feated on the Briti/h Throne, to refcue and fecure a pious and gallant Nation from the Popery and Defpotifm of a fuperfitious and inexorable Tyrant. Your Majefty, we are confident, juftly rejoices, that your Title to the Crown is thus founded on the Title of your people to Liberty; and therefore we doubt not but your royal Wifdom muft approve the Senfibility, that teaches your Subjects anxioully to guard the Bleffing, they received from divine Providence, and thereby to prove the performance of that Compact, which elevated the illuftrious Houfe of Brunfwick to the imperial Dignity it now poffeffes.

The Apprehension of being degraded into a State of Servitude, from the pre-eminent Rank of English Freemen, while our Minds retain the ftrongest Love of Liberty and clearly fore-fee the Miferies preparing for us and our Posterity, excites Emotions in our Breasts, which though we cannot describe, we should not wish to conceal. Feeling as Men, and thinking as Subjects in the Manner we do, Silence would be Disloyalty. By giving this faithful Information, Information, we do all in our Power to promote the great Objects of your royal Cares, the Tranquillity of your Government and the Welfare of your People.

Duty to your Majefty, and Regard for the Prefervation of ourfelves and our Pofterity, the primary Obligations of Nature and Society, command us to entreat your royal Attention; and as your Majefty enjoys the fignal Diffinction of reigning over Freemen, we apprehend the Language of Freemen cannot be difpleafing. Your royal Indignation, we hope, will rather fall on thofe defigning and dangerous Men, who daringly interpoling themfelves between your royal Perfon and your faithful Subjects, and for feveral Years paft inceffantly employed to diffolve the Bonds of Society, by abufing your Majefty's Authority, mifreprefenting your American Subjects and profecating the moft defperate and irritating Projects of Opprefilon, have at length compelled us, by the Force of accumulated Injuries, too fevere to be any longer tolerable, to difturb your Majefty's Repofe by our Complaints.

These Sentiments are extorted from Hearts, that much more willingly would bleed in your Majefty's Service. Yet fo greatly have we been mifreprefented, that a Neceffity has been alledged of taking our Property from us without our Confent, " to defray the Charge of the Administration of Juffice, the Support of civil Government, and the Defence, Protection, and Security of the Colonies." But we beg Leave to affure your Majefty, that fuch Provision has been, and will be made for defraying the two first Articles, as has been and shall be judged, by the Legislatures of the feveral Colonies, just and fuitable to their respective Circumstances : And for the Defence, Protection, and Security of the Colonies, their Militias, if properly regulated, as they earneftly defire may immediately be done, would be fully fufficient, at leaft in Times of Peace; and in Cafe of War, your faithful Colonifts will be ready and willing, as they ever have been, when conftitutionally required, to demonstrate their Loyalty to your Majefty, by exerting their most strenuous Efforts in granting Supplies and raising Forces. Yielding to no British Subjects in affectionate Attachment to your Majefty's Perfon, Family, and Government; we too dearly prize the Privilege of expressing that Attachment by those proofs, that are honourable to the Prince who receives them, and to the People who give them, ever to refign it to any body of Men upon Earth.

Had we been permitted to enjoy, in quiet, the Inheritance left us by our fore-fathers, we fhould, at this Time, have been peaceably, cheerfully, and ufefully employed in recommending ourfelves, by every Teftimony of Devotion, to your Majefty, and of Veneration to the State, from which we derive our Origin. But though now exposed to unexpected and unnatural Scenes of Diftrefs by a Contention with that Nation, in whofe parental Guidance ance on all important Affairs we have hitherto, with filial Reverence, conftantly trufted, and therefore can derive no Inftruction in our prefent unhappy and perplexing Circumstances from any former Experience; yet, we doubt not, the purity of our Intention and the Integrity of our Conduct will justify us at that grand Tribunal, before which all Mankind must fubmit to Judgment.

We ask but for Peace, Liberty, and Safety. We wish not a Diminution of the Prerogative, nor do we folicit the Grant of any new Right in our Favour. Your royal Authority over us and our Connexion with Great-Britain, we shall always carefully and zealoufly endeavour to support and maintain.

Filled with Sentiments of Duty to your Majefty and of Affection to our parent State, deeply impreffed by our Education, and ftrongly confirmed by our Reafon, and anxious to evince the Sincerity of these Difpositions, we present this Petition only to obtain Redrefs of Grievances, and Relief from Fears and Jealoufies, occafioned by the Syftem of Statutes and Regulations adopted fince the Clofe of the late War, for raifing a Revenue in America-extending the Powers of Courts of Admiralty and Vice-Admiralty-trying Perfons in Great-Britain for Offences alledged to be committed in America-affecting the Province of Maffachufetts-Bay-and altering the Government and extending the Limits of Quebec ; by the Abolition of which System, the Harmony between Great-Britain and these Colonies, fo necessary to the Happinefs of both, and fo ardently defired by the latter, and the ufual Intercourfes will be immediately reftored. In the Magnanimity and Juffice of your Majefty and Parliament we confide for a Redrefs of our other Grievances, trufting, that when the Caufes of our Apprehenfions are removed, our future Conduct will prove us not unworthy of the Regard, we have been accuftomed, in our happier Days, to enjoy. For appealing to that Being, who fearches thoroughly the Hearts of his Creatures, we folemnly profefs, that our Councils have been influenced by no other Motive, than a Dread of impending Deftruction.

Permit us then, moft gracious Sovereign, in the Name of all your faithful People in America, with the utmoft Humility to implore you, for the Honour of Almighty God, whofe pure Religion, our Enemies are undermining; for your Glory, which can be advanced only by rendering your Subjects happy, and keeping them united; for the Interefts of your Family depending on an Adherence to the Principles that enthroned it; for the Safety and Welfare of your Kingdoms and Dominions, threatened with almoft unavoidable Dangers and Diftreffes, that your Majefty, as the loving Father of your whole People, connected by the fame Bonds of Law, Loyalty, Faith, and Blood, though dwelling in various Countries, will not fuffer the tranfcendant Relation formed by thefe Ties to be farther violated, in uncertain · Expectation of of Effects, that if attained, never can compensate for the Calamities, through which they muft be gained.

We therefore most earneftly befeech your Majefty, that your royal Authority and Interposition may be used for our Relief, and that a gracious Answer may be given to this Petition.

That your Majefty may enjoy every Felicity through a long and glorious Reign over loyal and happy Subjects, and that your Defcendants may inherit your Profperity and Dominions till Time shall be no more, is, and always will be our fincere and fervent Prayer.

A circular Letter from the Agents William Bollan, Benjamin Franklin, and Arthur Lee, Efquires, directed to the Speakers of feveral Affemblies, and fundry Papers therein referred to, were laid before the Congrefs and read; the Letter is as follows:

London, February 5, 1775,

SIR,

" Our laft Letter informed you, that the King had declared his Intentions of laying the Petition before his two Houfes of Parliament. It has accordingly been laid before each Houfe, but but undiffinguished among a variety of Letters and other Papers from America.

" A Motion made by Lord Chatham, to withdraw the Troops from Bofton, as the first Step towards a conciliating Plan, was rejected; and the Ministry have declared in both Houses the Determination to inforce Obedience to all the late Laws. For this Purpose we understand, that three Regiments of Foot, one of Dragoons, feven hundred Marines, fix Sloops of War, and two Frigates, are now under Orders for America.

"We think it proper to inform you, that your Caufe was well defended by a confiderable Number of good and wife Men in both Houfes of Parliament, though far from being a Majority: and that many of the Commercial and Manufacturing Parts of the Nation, concerned in the American Trade have prefented, or as we underftand, are preparing to prefent Petitions to to Parliament, declaring their great Concern, for the prefent unhappy Controverfies with America, and praying expressly, or in effect, for healing Measures, as the proper Means of preferving their Commerce, now greatly fuffering or endangered. But the Treatment the Petitions already prefented have hitherto received is fuch, as in our Opinion, can afford you no Reliance on the prefent Relief through their Means.

" As foon as we learnt that the Petition of the Congress was before the House of Commons, we thought it our Duty to support it, if we might be permitted to to do, as there was no other Opportunity for the numerous Inhabitants of the Colonies to be heard in Defence of their Rights: Accordingly we joined in a Petition for that Purpofe. Sir George Saville kindly undertook to prefent it. But on previously opening the Purport of it, as the Order is, a Debate arole on the Propriety of receiving it, and on a Division, it was rejected by a great Majority.

"The following Extract of a Letter from General Gage to Lord Dartmouth, as laid before Parliament, we think it our Duty to transmit, viz.

" Dec. 15, 1774. Your Lordships Idea of difarming certain Provinces, would doubtless be confistent with Prudence and Safety, but it neither is, nor has been practicable, without having recourse to Force, and being Masters of the Country."

" It was thrown out in Debate by a principal Member of Administration, that it would be proper to alter the Charters of Connecticut and Rhode Island.

" Inclosed we fend you a Copy of the Resolutions passed in a Committee of the whole House, on Thursday last, which are to be reported on Monday. It is faid that these Resolutions are to be the Foundation of several Bills to be brought in, but the Purport of those Bills we have not yet learnt with sufficient Certainty.

" We

MAY, 1775.

"We fend you likewife a Copy of Lord Chatham's first Motion in the Houfe of Lords, and of his Plan of a Bill for fettling the Troubles between Great Britain and the Colonies; both which were rejected on the first reading.

With great Refpect we are, S I R,

Your most obedient humble Servants, Signed, William Bollan,

Benjamin Franklin, Arthur Lee."

The Papers referred to in the foregoing Letter being published in the News-papers, it is not necessary to infert them.

Mr. Hancock laid before the Congress a Letter from the Provincial Congress of Maffachufetts-Bay, together with certain Refolutions formed by faid Congress, and a Copy of a Letter fent by faid Congress to their Agent in England, and an Address to the Inhabitants of Great Britain, on the late engagement between the Troops under General Gage, and the Inhabitants of Maffachusetts Bay; also a Number of Depositions duly attested, relative to the Commencement of faid Hoftilities, all which were read and are as follows :

In Provincial Congress, Watertown, May 3, 1775. To the Honourable American Continental Congress, to be convened at Philadelphia, on the Tenth of May instant.

May it pleafe your Honours,

The Congress of this Colony, impressed with the deepest Concern for their Country, under the prefent critical and alarming State of its public Affairs, beg leave with the utmost Submission, whilft acting in Support of the Caufe of America, to requeft the Direction and Affiftance of your refpectable Affembly.

The inclofed Packet, containing Copies of the Depolitions, which we have difpatched for London, alfo an Addrefs to the Inhabitants of Great Britain, and a Letter to our Colony Agent, Benjarvin Franklin, Efq; are humbly fubmitted to your Confideration.

The fanguinary Zeal of the Ministerial Army, to ruin and deftroy the Inhabitants of this Colony, in the Opinion of this Congrefs, hath rendered the eftablishment of an Army indifpenfibly neceffary ; we have accordingly paffed an unanimous Refolve for Thirteen thousand fix hundred Men, to be forthwith raifed by this Colony, and Propofals are made by us to the Congress of New Hampshire, and Governments of Rhode Island and Connecticut Colonies, for furnishing Men in the fame Proportion.

The fudden Exigency of our public Affairs, precluded the poffibility of waiting for your Direction in these important Mea-L fures,

fures, more efpecially, as a confiderable Reinforcement from Great Britain is daily expected in this Colony, and we are now reduced to the fad Alternative of defending ourfelves by Arms, or fubmitting to be flaughtered.

With the greateft Deference, we beg Leave to fuggeft, that a powerful Army on the Side of America, hath been confidered by this Congrefs, as the only Means left to ftem the rapid Progrefs of a Tyrannical Ministry. Without a Force superior to our Enemies, we must reasonably expect to become the Victims of their relentles Fury. With such a Force, we may ftill have Hopes of seeing an immediate End put to the inhuman ravages of mercenary Troops in America, and the wicked Authors of our Miseries, brought to condign Punishment, by the just Indignation of our Brethren in Great Britain.

We hope that this Colony will, at all Times, be ready to fpend and be fpent in the Caufe of America. It is, neverthelefs, a Misfortune greatly operating to its Difadvantage, that it has a great Number of Sea-port Towns, expofed to the approach of the Enemy by Sea; from many of which, the Inhabitants have removed, and are removing their Families and Effects, to avoid Deftruction from Ships of War. Thefe, we apprehend, will be generally diftreffed from want of Subfiftence, and difabled from contributing Aid for fupporting the Forces of the Colony; but we have the greateft Confidence in the Wifdom and Ability of the Continent to fupport us, fo far as it fhall appear neceflary for fupporting the common Caufe of the American Colonies.

We also inclose feveral Resolves for impowering and directing our Receiver-General to borrow the Sum of One hundred thoufand Pounds, Lawful Money, aud to iffue his Notes for the fame; it being the only Measures which we could have recours to for fupporting our Forces; and we request your Affistance in rendering our Measures effectual, by giving our Notes a Currency through the Continent.

Joseph WARREN, President, P. T.

The Papers inclosed and referred to in the above, are as follows:-----

In Provincial Congress, Watertown, April 26, 1775. " S I R,

"From the entire Confidence we repofe in your Faithfulnefs and Abilities, we confider it the Happinefs of this Colony, that the important Truft of Agency for it, in this Day of unequalled Diffrefs is devolved on your Hands, and we doubt not your Attachment to the Caufe and Liberties of Mankind will make every poffible exertion in our Behalf, a Pleafure to you; although our Circumftances will compel us often to interrupt your Repofe, by Matters that will furely give you pain. But that whatever Price our Brethren in the one, may be pleased to put on their Constitutional Liberties, we are authorised to affure you, that the Inhabitants of the other, with the greatest unanimity, are inflexibly refolved to fell theirs only at the Price of their Lives,

They detained us until Two o'clock the next Morning, in which Time they fearched and greatly abufed us, having first enquired about the Magazine at Concord, whether any Guards were posted there, and whether the Bridges were up, and faid four or five Regiments of Regulars would be in Poffeffion of the the Stores foon. They then brought us back to Lexington, cut the Horfes bridles and girths, turned them loofe, and then left us.

From thence we marched to Concord, on a Hill near the Entrance of the Town, we faw another Body of Provincials affembled, the light Infantry Companies were ordered up the Hill to disperfe them; on our Approach they retreated towards Concord ; the Grenadiers continued the Road under the Hill towards the Town. Six Companies of light Infantry were ordered down to take Poffeffion of the the Bridge which the Provincials retreated over; the Company I commanded was one, three Companies of the above Detachment went forwards about two Miles; in the mean Time the provincial Troops returned, to the Number of about three or four hundred : We drew up on the Concord Side of the Bridge, the Provincials came down upon us, upon which we engaged and gave the first Fire ; this was the first Engagement after the one at Lexington ; a continued Firing from both Parties lasted through the whole Day; I myfelf was wounded at the Attack of the Bridge, and am now treated with the greateft Humanity, and taken all poffible Care of by the Provincials at Medford.

" HOSTILITIES are at length commenced in this Colony by the Troops under the Command of General Gage, and it being of the greatest Importance, that an early, true, and authentic Account of this inhuman Proceeding fould be known to you, the Congress of this Colony have transmitted the same, and from want of a Seffion of the Hon. " By the clearest Depositions relative to this Transaction, it will appear that on the Night preceding the ninetcenth of April inftant, a Body of the King's Troops, under the Command of Col. Smith, were fecretly landed at Cambridge, with an apparent Defign to take or deftroy the Military and other Stores provided for the Defence of this Colony, and deposited at Concord. That some Inhabitants of the Colony, on the Night aforefaid, whilft travelling peaceably on the Road between Bofton and Concord, were feized and greatly abufed by armed Men, who appeared to be Officers of General Gage's Army, that the Town of Lexington by thefe Means was alarmed, and a Company of the Inhabitants muftered on the Occasion.-That the regular Troops, on their Way to Con-cord, marched into the faid Town of Lexington, and the faid Company on their Approach began to difperfe .- That notwithftanding this, the Regulars rushed on with great Violence and first began Hostilities, by firing on faid Lexington Company, whereby they killed eight and wounded feveral others .--- That the Regulars continued their Fire until those of faid Company, who were neither killed nor wounded, had made their Escape .- That Col. Smith with the Detachment then marched to Concord, where a Number of Provincials were again fired on by the Troops, two of them killed and feveral wounded, before the Provincials fired on them, and that these hostile Measures of the Troops produced an Engagement that lafted through the Day, in which many of the Provincials, and more of the regular Troops were killed and wounded.

"To give a particular Account of the Ravages of the Troops, as they retreated from Concord to Charleftown, would be very difficult, if not impracticable; let it fuffice to fay, that a great Number of the Houfes on the Road were plundered and rendered unfit for Ufe; feveral were burnt; Women in Child-bed were driven, by the Soldiery, naked into the Streets; old Men peaceably in their Houfes were fhot dead; and fuch Scenes exhibited as would difgrace the Annals of the molt uncivilized Nations.

"Thele, Brethren, are Marks of minifterial Vengeance againft this Colony, for refufing, with her Sifter Colonies, a Submiffion to Slavery; but they have not yet detached us from our Royal Sovereign. We profefs to be his loyal and dutiful Subjects, and fo hardly dealt with as we have been are ftill ready, with our Lives and Fortunes, to defend his Perfon, Family, Crown, and Dignity. Neverthelefs, to the Perfecution and Tyranny of his cruel Miniftry we will not tamely fubmit—appealing to Heaven for the Juffice of our Caufe, we determine to die or be free.

"We cannot think that the Honour, Wildom, and Valour of Britons will fuffer them to be long inactive Spectators of Measures, in which they themfelves are fo deeply interested.—Measures purfued in Opposition to the folemn Protests of many noble Lords, and and expressed Sense of confpicuous Commoners, whose Knowlege and Virtue have long characterized them as some of the greatest Men in the Nation.—Measures executing contrary to the Interest, Petitions and Resolves of many large, respectable and opulent Counties, Citics, and Boroughs in Great-Britain.—Measures highly incompatible with Justice, but still pursued with a specious Pretence of easing the Nation of its Burthens.—Measures, which if successful, mult end in the Ruin and Slavery of Britain, as well as the perfecuted American Colonies.

"We fincerely hope, that the Great Sovereign of the Univerfe, who hath fo often appeared for the Englifth Nation, will fupport you in every rational and manly Exertion with thefe Colonies, for faving it from Ruin; and that in a conflictutional Connection with the Mother Country, we fhall foon be altogether a free and happy People.

SATURDAY, May 13, 1775.

The Congress met according to Adjournment.

The Congress being informed that Doctor Lyman Hall attended at the Door as a Delegate from the Parish of St. John's, in the Colony of Georgia, and defired to know whether, as such, he may be admitted to this Congress.

AGREED UNANIMOUSLY, That he be admitted as a Delegate from the Parish of St. John's, in the Colony of Georgia, subject to such Regulations as the Congress shall determine, relative to his Voting.

Mr. Lyman Hall being accordingly admitted, produced his Credentials, which were read and approved, and are as follows:

" To the honourable GENTLEMEN of the Congress, defigned to be held at Philadelphia on May, A. D. 1775.

" The Address of the Inhabitants of the Parish of St. John's, in the Province of Georgia.

" GENTLEMEN,

"To give a particular Detail of our many Struggles in the Caufe of Liberty, the many Meetings thereby occafioned and N held held in this Parifh, the Endeavours we have ufed to induce the Reft of this Province to concur with us, the Attendance of our Committee on the provincial Conventions held at Savannah in this Province, and particularly that of the 18th of January laft, with their Proceedings, and the Reafons of our Diffent from them, we think would be tedious to you, and therefore fend a fummary Abftract, which, with the Account, that may be given by Lyman Hall, Efq; appointed a Delegate to reprefent and act for this Parifh in the General Continental Congrefs, to be held in May next, and the Teftimonies of the Honourable Delegates from South-Carolina, we hope will be fatisfactory.

"Immediately upon our being honoured with an Anfwer to the Reprefentation of our Cafe transmitted to the Honourable Congress, which fat at Philadelphia last Year, with a Copy of the Affociation there entered into, we had a Meeting, and our Proceedings then and fince that Time, will in brief appear from the following Abstracts of an Address from this Parish to the Committee of Correspondence in Charles-Town, South-Carolina, which is as follows:

· Gentlemen,

· HEREWITH will be communicated to you, the feveral Steps taken by this Parish in their Endeavours to conform, as near as poffible, to the Refolutions entered into by the other Colonies: and the particular Measures now adopted, for carrying into Execution the Continental Affociation, which we embraced the earlieft Opportunity of acceding to, by fubfcribing it; on Condition that Trade and Commerce with the other Colonies be continued to us the Subfcribers; and thereupon fhould have immediately fent to you for your Approbation and Indulgence, but were delayed by a Summons to attend a Provincial Congress in Savannah, on the 18th of January last, for the Purpose, as we understood, of a general Affociation with the other Colonies, and chufing Delegates: At which Time and Place we attended, and acquainted the other Parishes affembled on that Occasion, that we had already acceeded to the general Affociation, on Condition, as abovementioned, and earneftly requefted them to do the fame. Had they acceeded fully to the general Affociation, we should have had no Occasion to trouble you with this Address; but as they did not, we now apply to you, to admit us the Subferibers to an Alliance with you, requefting that you will allow Trade and Commerce to be continued to us, the fame to be conducted under fuch Regulations and Reftrictions, as shall be confistent with the Continental Affociation, and which on our Part we engage with all poffible Care to keep inviolate. St. John's, 9th February, 1775.

To which we received the following Anfwer.

· Gentlemen.

• Your Letter, accompanying fundry Papers, having been laid before a very full Committee of this Colony, and undergone the moft mature Deliberation: I am by their Defire to acquaint you, that they have the higheft Senfe of your arduous Struggles in favour of the common Caufe of America; and moft fincerely lament your prefent unhappy Situation: But would recommend a Continuance of your laudable Exertions, and the laying a State of your Cafe before the enfuing Continental Congrefs, as the only Means of obtaining Relief, and to put you in the Situation you wifh, which this Committee apprehend to be entirely out of their Power to do; as it is their Opinion, that the Parifh of St. John, being a Part of the Colony of Georgia (which, by not acceeding to, has violated the Continental Affociation) falls under the 14th Article of the faid Affociation, no Part of which any Committee can prefume to do away, &c.'

" Upon the Receipt of this Answer, it was ferioufly confidered in what Manner to conduct in the prefent Situation; and proposed whether we should immediately break off all Connexion and Commerce with Savannab and all other Inhabitants of this Province, who have not fully acceeded to the Continental Affociation.

" It was confidered, that as we were denied Commerce with any other Colony, and but one Merchant among us confiderable for dry Goods had figned our Affociation, and he infufficient for a prefent Supply, and we utterly unable at prefent to procure Materials or Manufactures for Cloathing among ourfelves, we muft, by fuch a Refolution become extremely miferable; it was therefore concluded, that till we could obtain Trade and Commerce with fome other Colony, it is abfolutely neceffary to continue it in fome Refpects with our own, and determined that it be carried on under the following Regulations.

" 1. That none of us shall directly or indirectly purchase any Slave imported at Savannah, (large Numbers of which we understand ftand are there expected,) till the Senfe of the Congress shall be made known to us.

"2. That we will not trade at all with any Merchant at Savannah or elfewhere, that will not join in our affociating Agreement, otherwife than under the Infpection of a Committee for that Purpofe appointed, and for fuch things only as they fhall judge neceffary, and when they fhall think there are neceffary Reafons for fo doing.

" A Committee was then nominated, and appointed to fit weekly on Thur/days, for the Purpofes aforefaid.

" It was then refolved that a Delegate be fent from this Parish to the Congress, to be held at Philadelphia in May next, and that Tuefday the 21st of March be appointed for chusing one.

"On the faid 21ft of March, at a full Meeting, Lyman Hall, Efq; was unanimoufly chofen to reprefent and act for the Inhabitants of this Parifh, as a Delegate, at the general Congrefs to be held in Philadelphia in May next, who are determined faithfully to adhere to, and abide by, the determination of him and the other honourable Members of the fame.

During their deliberations, it became neceffary to take the opinion of the Congress by Colonies, upon which a Question arole, whether the Delegate from the Parish of St. John's, in the Colony of Georgia, could be be admitted to Vote. After fome debate on this Queffion, the Delegate from that Parifh arofe, and after obferving, that the prefent diftrefsful Situation of American Affairs had induced a neceffity of this Congrefs, which was composed of Delegates reprefenting whole Colonies; that as he did not reprefent a Colony, but only a part, he did not infift on giving a Vote as a Colony, but was contented to hear and affift in the Debates, and to give his Vote in all Cafes, except when the Sentiments of the Congrefs were taken by Colonies.

The Congress then refumed the confideration of the Matter referred to them; during the Debate Samuel Ward, Esq. one of the Delegates from Rhode-Island, appeared and produced his Credentials, which being read, were approved, and are as follows:

D. 1775, and in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his most facred Majefty George the Third, by the Grace of God, King of Great-Britain, &c.

(Signed)

HENRY WARD.

The Matter under Confideration being refumed, the Congress RESOLVED, That it be recommended, for the Prefent, to the Inhabitants of New York, that if the Troops, which are expected, fhould arrive, the faid Colony act on the Defensive, fo long as may be confistent with their Safety and Security; that the Troops be permitted to remain in the Barracks, fo long as they behave peaceably and quietly, but that they be not fuffered to erect Fortifications, or take any fleps for cutting off the Communication between the Town and Country, and that if they commit Hostilities or invade private Property, the Inhabitants fhould defend fend themfelves and their Property, and repel Force by Force; that the warlike Stores be removed from the Town; that Places of Retreat, in Cafe of Neceflity, be provided for the Women and Children of New-York; and that a fufficient Number of Men be embodied, and kept in conftant Readinefs for protecting the Inhabitants from Infult and Injury.

gence he received last Night by Express, relative to the surprizing and taking of Ticonderoga, by a Detachment from Maffachufetts-Bay and Connecticut, which was read.

Upon Motion, AGREED, That Mr. Brown who brought the Express be called in : After he withdrew, the Congress taking into confideration the Letters and Intelligence communicated to them;

RESOLVED, Whereas there is indubitable Evidence, that a defign is formed by the British Ministry, of making a cruel Invafion from the Province of Quebec upon these Colonies, for the Purpole of deftroying our Lives and Liberties, and fome fteps have actually been taken to carry the faid Defign into Execution; and whereas feveral Inhabitants of the northern Colonies, reliding in the Vicinity of Ticonderoga, and immediately exposed to Incursions, impelled by a just Regard for the defence and prefervation of themfelves and their Countrymen from fuch imminent Dangers and Calamities, have taken poffeffion of that Poft, in which was lodged a Quantity of Cannon and Military Stores, that would certainly have been used in the intended Invasion of these Colonies; this Congress earnestly recommend it to the Committees of the Cities and Counties of New-York and Albany, immediately to caufe the faid Cannon and Stores to be removed from Ticonderoga to the fouth end of Lake George; and, if neceffary, to apply to the Colonies of New-Hampshire, Massachusetts-Bay, aud Connecticut, for fuch an additional Body of Forces as will be fufficient to establish a ftrong Post at that Place, and effectually to fecure faid Cannon and Stores, or fo many of them as it may be judged proper to keep there.-And that an exact Inventory be taken of all fuch Cannon and Stores, in order that they may be fafely returned, when the reftoration of the former Harmony between Great-Britain and these Colonies, so ardently wished for by the latter, shall render it prudent and confistent with the over-ruling Law of Self-prefervation.

The Congress then refolved themselves into a Committee of the whole, to take into confideration the flate of America, and repeated the fame on the Day following.

FRIDAY, May 26, 1775.

The Congress being met according to adjournment, one of the Delegates from New-Jerfey laid before them a Minute from the Journals of the Affembly of that Colony, together with a refolution of the Commons of Great-Britain, which were read as follows:

New-JERSEY, Houfe of Affembly, May 20, 1775.

"His Excellency having laid before the Houfe a Copy of the Refolution of the honourable Houfe of Commons of Great-Britain, of the 20th of February, 1775, containing a Plan formed for the accommodation of the unhappy Differences between our Parent State and the Colonies; which Plan, under the prefent Circumftances, this Houfe could not comply with and adopt, and yet this Houfe being defirous of making ufe of all proper Means to effect a Reconciliation, do recommend it to their Delegates to lay the fame Plan before the Continental "Congrefs for their confideration."

A true Copy from the Journals,

RICHARD SMITH, Clerk of Affembly.

Copy of a Refolution of the Houfe of Commons, February 20, 1775.

" RESOLVED, That when the Governor, Council, and Affembly,

" or General Court of any of his Majefly's Provinces or Colonies in " America, Shall propose to make Provision according to the conditi-

" on, circumflances, and fituations of fuch Province or Colony, for " contributing their Proportion for the common Defence, (fuch pro" portion to be raifed under the authority of the General Court or " General Affembly of fuch Province or Colony, and difpofable by Par-" liament,) and shall engage to make Provision also for the Support " of the Civil Government, and the administration of Justice in such " Province or Colony, it will be proper, if fuch Propofal shall be ap-" proved by his Majesty and the two Houses of Parliament, and for " fo long as fuch Provision shall be made accordingly, to forbear, in " respect of such Province or Colony, to levy any Duty, Tax, or Af-" feffment, except only fuch Duties as it may be expedient to continue " to levy or to impose for the Regulation of Commerce, the neat Pro-" duce of the Duties last mentioned, to be carried to the Account of " fuch Province or Colony respectively."

ORDERED, That the above be referred to the Committee for taking into confideration the flate of America.

The Congress then resolved itself into a Committee of the whole, to take into confideration the flate of America; after fome time spent therein the Prefident refumed the Chair, and Mr. Ward reported from the Committee that they had come to fome Refolutimes which he was defired to report, but not having finished the Bufinefs, defired him to move for leave to fit again.

The report from the Committee being read, the Congress came into the following Refolutions.

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY, That his Majefty's most faithful Subjects in these Colonies are reduced to a dangerous and critical Situation, by the attempts of the British Ministry to carry into Execution, by force of Arms, feveral unconflictutional and oppreffive Acts of the British Parliament for laying Taxes in America; to enforce the collection of those Taxes, and for altering and changing the Conftitution and internal Police of fome of thefe Colonies, in violation of the natural and civil Rights of the Colonifts.

Hoftilities being actually commenced in the Massachusetts-Bay, by the British Troops under the command of General Gage, and the lives of a Number of the Inhabitants of that Colony deftroyed, the Town of Bofton having not only been long occupied as a garrifoned Town in an Enemy's Country, but the Inhabitants thereof treated with a feverity and cruelty not to be juffified even towards declared Enemies; large re-inforcements too being ordered and foon expected, for the declared Purpofe of compelling thefe Colonies to fubmit to the operation of the faid Acts; that therefore, for the express Purpose of securing and defending these Colonies, and preferving them in Safety against all Attempts to carry the faid Acts into Execution by force of Arms, thefe Colonies be immediately put into a state of Defence.

But, as we most ardently wish for a restoration of the Harmony formerly fublifting between our Mother Country and these Colonies, the interruption of which muft, at all events, be exceedingly injurious

Injurious to both Countries, that with a fincere Defign of contributing by all the Means in our Power, not incompatible with a juft Regard for the undoubted Rights and true Interefts of thefe Colonies, to the promotion of this most defireable Reconciliation, an humble and dutiful Petition be prefented to his Majefty.

RESOLVED, That Meafures be entered into for opening a Negociation, in order to accommodate the unhappy Difputes fublifiing between Great-Britain and thefe Colonies, and that this be made a Part of the Petition to the King.

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY, That the Militia of New-York be armed and trained, and in conftant readinels to act at a Moment's warning; and that a Number of Men be immediately embodied and kept in that City, and fo difpoled of as to give Protection to the Inhabitants, in cafe any Infult fhould be offered by the Troops, that may land there, and to prevent any Attempts that may be made to gain Poffeffion of the City, and interrupt its intercourfe with the Country.

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY, That it be recommended to the Provincial Convention at New-York, to perfevere the more vigourfly in preparing for their Defence, as it is very uncertain whether the earneft Endeavours of the Congrefs, to accomodate the unhappy Differences between Great-Britain and the Colonies, by conciliatory Meafures, will be fuccefsful.

Upon Motion, AGREED, That Mr. Jay, Mr. S. Adams, and Mr. Deane, be a Committee to prepare and bring in a Letter to the People of Canada.

RESOLVED, That this Congrefs will to-morrow again refolve itfelf into a Committee of the whole, to take into farther confideration the flate of America.

Upon Motion, AGREED, That Mr. Washington, Mr. Schuyler, Mr. Miflin, Mr. Deane, Mr. Morris, and Mr. S. Adams, be a Committee, to confider on ways and means to fupply these Colonies with Ammunition and Military Stores.

Upon Motion, The Memorial of Robert Murray and John Murray, " defiring to be reftored to their former fituation with refpect to their Commercial Privileges," was taken into confideration, and after fome time fpent thereon.

RESOLVED, That where any Perfon hath been or shall be adjudged by a Committee, to have violated the Continental Affociation, and fuch offender shall fatisfy the Convention of the Colony, where the Offence was or shall be committed, or the Committee of the Parish of St. John's in the Colony of Georgia, if the Offence be committed there, of his Contrition for his Offence, and fincere Refolution to conform to the Affociation for the future, the faid Convention, or Committee of the Parish of St. John's aforefaid, may fettle the Terms upon which he may be reftored to the favour and forgiveness of the Public, and that the Terms be published.

RESOLVED, That the Order of the Day be polyponed till Monday. Adjourned till Monday at nine o'clock.

MONDAY, May 29, 1775.

The Congress met according to adjournment.

The Committee to whom the Letter to the Inhabitants of Canada was re-committed, brought in the fame, which was read and approved, and is as follows:

To the oppressed Inhabitants of Canada.

Friends and Countrymen,

Alarmed by the defigns of an arbitrary Ministry to extirpate the Rights and Liberties of all America, a fense of common Danger confpired with the Dictates of Humanity, in urging us to call your Attention, by our late Address, to this very important Object.

Since the conclusion of the late War, we have been happy in confidering you as Fellow Subjects, and from the Commencement of the prefent Plan for fubjugating the Continent, we have viewed you as Fellow-Sufferers with us. As we were both entitled by the Bounty of an indulgent Creator to Freedom, and being both devoted by the cruel Edicts of a defpotic Administration, to common Ruin, we perceived the fate of the Protestant and Catholic Colonies to be strongly linked together, and therefore invited you to join with us in refolving to be Free, and in rejecting, with Difdain, the Fetters of Slavery, however artfully polifhed.

We moft fincerely condole with you on the arrival of that Day, in the courfe of which, the Sun could not fhine on a fingle Freeman in all your extensive Dominion. Be affured that your unmerited Degradation has engaged the moft unfeigned Pity of your fifter Colonies; and we flatter ourfelves you will not, by tamely bearing the Yoke, fuffer that Pity to be fupplanted by Contempt.

When hardy Attempts are made to deprive Men of Rights beflowed by the Almighty, when Avenues are cut through the moft folema folemn Compacts for the admiffion of Defpotifm, when the plighted Faith of Government ceafes to give Security to dutiful Subjects, and when the infidious Stratagems and Manœuvres of Peace become more terrible than the fanguinary Operations of War, it is high time for them to affert those Rights, and, with houeft Indignation, oppose the Torrent of Oppression rushing in upon them.

By the Introduction of your prefent Form of Government, or rather prefent Form of Tyranny, you and your Wives and your Children are made Slaves. You have nothing that you can call your own, and all the Fruits of your Labour and Industry may be taken from you, whenever an avaricious Governor and a rapacious Council may incline to demand them. You are liable by their Edicts to be transported into foreign Countries to fight Battles in which you have no Intereft, and to fpill your Blood in Conflicts from which neither Honour nor Emolument can be derived: Nay, the enjoyment of your very Religion, on the prefent System, depends on a Legiflature in which you have no Share, and over which you have no Controul, and your Priefts are exposed to Expulfion, Banishment, and Kuin, whenever their Wealth and Poffeffions furnish sufficient Temptation. They cannot be fure that a virtuous Prince will always fill the Throne, and should a wicked or a carelefs King concur with a wicked Ministry in extracting the Treasure and Strength of your Country, it is impossible to conceive to what variety and to what extremes of wretchedness you may, under the prefent Eftablishment, be reduced.

We are informed you have already been called upon to wafte your Lives in a Conteft with us. Should you, by complying in this Inftance, affent to your new Eftablishment, and a War break out with France, your Wealth and your Sons may be fent to perish in expeditions against their Islands in the West-Indies.

It cannot be prefumed that thefe confiderations will have no weight with you, or that you are fo loft to all fenfe of Honour. We can never believe that the prefent Race of Canadians are fo degenerated as to poffefs neither the Spirit, the Gallantry, nor the Courage of their Anceftors. You certainly will not permit the infamy and difgrace of fuch Pufillanimity to reft on your own Heads, and the confequences of it on your Children forever.

We for our Parts are determined to live free or not at all, and are refolved that Pofterity shall never reproach us with having brought Slaves into the World.

Permit us again to repeat that we are your Friends, not your Enemies, and be not imposed upon by those who may endeavour to create Animolities. The taking of the Fort and Military Stores at Ticonderoga and Crown-Point, and the armed Veffels on the Lake, was dictated by the great Law of Self-prefervation. They were intended to annoy us, and to cut off that friendly Intercourfe and

and Communication, which has hitherto fublifted between you and us. We hope it has given you no uneafinefs, and you may rely on our Affurances, that these Colonies will purfue no Measures whatever, but such as Friendship and a regard for our mutual Safety and Interest may Suggest.

As our concern for your Welfare entitles us to your Friendship, we prefume you will not, by doing us Injury, reduce us to the difagreeable Necessity of treating you as Encmies.

We yet entertain Hopes of your uniting with us in the Defence of our common Liberty, and there is yet reason to believe, that should we join in imploring the attention of our Sovereign, to the unmerited and unparalelled Oppressions of his American Subjects, he will at length be undeceived, and forbid a licentious Ministry any longer to riot in the Ruins of the Rights of Mankind.

ORDERED, That the above Letter be figned by the Prefident.

ORDERED, That Mr. Dickinfon and Mr. Mifflin be a Committee to get the Letter translated into the French Language, and to have one thousand Copies of it, fo translated, printed, in order to be fent to Canada, and difperfed among the Inhabitants there.

Upon Motion, RESOLVED, That no Provisions or Neceffaries of any kind be exported to the Island of Nantucket, except from the Colony of Maffachufetts-Bay, the Convention of which Colony is defined to take Measures for effectually providing the faid Island, upon their application to purchase the fame, with as much Provifion, as shall be neceffary for its internal Use and no more.

The Congress deeming it of great Importance to North America, that the Britiff Fishery should not be furnished with Provisions from the Continent through Nantuckut, earnessly recommend a vigilant Execution of this Resolve to all Committees.

ORDERED, That the above Refolve be immediately published.

As the prefent critical Situation of the Colonies renders it highly neceffary that Ways and Means fhould be devifed for the fpeedy and fecure conveyance of Intelligence from one end of the Continent to the other.

RESOLVED, That Mr. Franklin, Mr. Lynch, Mr. Lee, Mr. Willing, Mr. S. Adams, and Mr. P. Livingfion, be a Committee to confider the beft Means of eftablishing Posts for conveying Letters and Intelligence through this Continent.

RESOLVED, That the order of the Day be postponed till tomorrow.

" That thefe Terms are honorable for Great-Britain and fafe for the Colonies.

" That if the Colonies are not blinded by Faction, these Terms will remove every Grievance relative to Taxation, and be the Basis of a Compact between the Colonies and the Mother-Country.

" That the People in America ought, on every Confideration, to be fatisfied with them.

" That no further Relaxation can be admitted.

" The Temper and Spirit of the Nation are fo much against Conceffions, that if it were the Intention of Administration, they could not carry the Question.

" But Administration have no fuch Intention, as they are fully and firmly perfuaded, that further Conceffions would be injurious to the Colonies as well as to Great-Britain.

" That there is not the least Probability of a Change of Administration.

"That they are perfectly united in Opinion, and determined to purfue the most effectual Measures, and to use the whole Force of the Kingdom, if it be found neceffary, to reduce the rebellious and refractory Provinces and Colonies.

" There is fo great a Spirit in the Nation against the Congress, that the People will bear the temporary Distresses of a Stoppage of the American Trade.

" They may depend on this to be true."

The

142

JULY, 1775.

The Committee to whom the Declaration was re-committed brought in the fame, which being again read and debated by Paragraphs, was agreed to as follows:

A DECLARATION by the REPRESENTATIVES of the United Colonies of North-America, now met in Congress at Philadelphia, setting forth the Causes and Necessity of their taking up Arms.

IF it was poffible for Men, who exercise their Reafon to believe, that the Divine Author of our Existence intended a Part of the human Race to hold an abfolute Property in, and an unbounded Power over others, marked out by his infinite Goodnefs and Wildom, as the Objects of a legal Domination never rightfully refiftible, however fevere and oppreffive, the Inhabitants of thefe Colonies might at least require from the Parliament of Great-Britain fome Evidence, that this dreadful Authority over them has been granted to that Body. But a Reverence for our great Creator, Principles of Humanity, and the Dictates of Common Senfe, muft convince all those who reflect upon the Subject, that Government was inftituted to promote the Welfare of Mankind, and ought to be administered for the Attainment of that End. The Legislature of Great-Britain, however, ftimulated by an inordinate Paffion for a Power not only unjustifiable, but which they know to be peculiarly reprobated by the very Conflictution of that Kingdom, and desperate of Success in any Mode of Coutest, where Regard fhould be had to Truth, Law, or Right, have at Length, deferting those, attempted to effect their cruel and impolitic Purpose of enflaving these Colonies by Violence, and have thereby rendered it neceffary for us to close with their last Appeal from Reafon to Arms .- Yet, however blinded that Affembly may be, by their intemperate Rage for unlimited Domination, fo to flight Juffice and the Opinion of Mankind, we efteem ourfelves bound by Obligations of Respect to the Rest of the World, to make known the Justice of our Caufe.

Our Forefathers, Inhabitants of the Island of Great-Britain, left their Native Land, to feek on thefe Shores a Refidence for civil and religious Freedom. At the Expence of their Blood, at the Hazard of their Fortunes, without the least Charge to the Country from which they removed, by unceasing Labour and an unconquerable Spirit, they effected Settlements in the distant and inhofpitable Wilds of America, then filled with numerous and warlike Nations of Barbarians.—Societies or Governments, vefted with perfect Legislatures, were formed under Charters from the Crown, and an harmonious Intercourfe was established between the Colonies and the Kingdom from which they derived their Origin. The mutual Benefits of this Union became in a short Time to extraordinary, as to excite Astonishment. It is universally confessed, that the amazing Increase of the Wealth, Strength, and and Navigation of the Realm, arole from this Source; and the Minifter, who fo wifely and fuccefsfully directed the Meafures of Great-Britain in the late War, publicly declared, that thefe Colonies enabled her to triumph over her Enemies.—Towards the Conclution of that War, it pleafed our Sovereign to make a Change in his Counfels.—From that fatal Moment, the Affairs of the Britifh Empire began to fall into Confufion, and gradually fliding from the Summit of glorious Profperity to which they had been advanced by the Virtues and Abilities of one Man, are at length diftracted by the Convultions, that now fhake it to its deepeft Foundations.—The new Miniftry finding the brave Foes of Britain, though frequently defeated, yet fill contending, took up the unfortunate Idea of granting them a hafty Peace, and of then fubduing her faithful Friends.

These devoted Colonies were judged to be in fuch a State, as to prefent Victories without Bloodshed, and all the easy Emoluments of flatuteable Plunder .- The uninterrupted Tenor of their peaceable and refpectful Behaviour from the Beginning of Colonization, their dutiful, zealous, and ufeful Services during the War, though fo recently and amply acknowledged in the most honourable Manner by his Majefty, by the late King, and by Parliament, could not fave them from the meditated Innovations .- Parliament was influenced to adopt the pernicious Project, and affuming a new Power over them, have in the Courfe of eleven Years given fuch decifive Specimens of the Spirit and Confequences attending this Power, as to leave no Doubt concerning the Effects of Acquiefcence under it. They have undertaken to give and grant our Money without our Confent, though we have ever exercifed an exclusive Right to dispose of our own Property; Statutes have been paffed for extending the Jurifdiction of Courts of Admiralty and Vice-Admiralty beyond their ancient Limits; for depriving us of the accustomed and ineftimable Privilege of Trial by Jury in Cafes affecting both Life and Property; for fufpending the Legislature of one of the Colonies; for interdicting all Commerce to the Capital of another; and for altering fundamentally the Form of Government established by Charter, and secured by Acts of its own Legislature folemnly confirmed by the Crown; for exempting the " Murderers" of Colonifts from legal Trial, and in Effect, from Punifhment; for crecting in a neighbouring Province, acquired by the joint Arms of Great-Britain and America, a Despotism dangerous to our very Existence ; and for quartering Soldiers upon the Colonifts in Time of profound Pcace. It has also been refolved in Parliament, that Colonifts charged with committing certain Offences, shall be transported to England to be tried.

But why fhould we enumerate our Injuries in detail? By one Statute it is declared, that Parliament can " of right make Laws to bind us in all Cafes whatfoever." What is to defend us againft fo fo enormous, fo unlimited a Power? Not a fingle Man of thofe who affume it, is chofen by us; or is fubject to our Controul or Influence; but on the Contrary, they are all of them exempt from the Operation of fuch Laws, and an American Revenue, if not diverted from the oftenfible Purpofes for which it is raifed, would actually lighten their own Burdens in Proportion, as they increase ours. We faw the Mifery to which fuch Defpotifm would reduce us. We for ten Years inceffantly and ineffectually befieged the Throne as Supplicants; we reasoned, we remonstrated with Parliament in the most mild and decent Language.

Administration sensible that we should regard these oppressive Measures as Freemen ought to do, fent over Fleets and Armies to enforce them. The Indignation of the Americans was roufed, it is true; but it was the Indignation of a virtuous, loyal, and affectionate People. A Congress of Delegates from the United Colonies was affembled at Philadelphia, on the fifth Day of last September. We refolved again to offer an humble and dutiful Petition to the King, and also addreffed our Fellow Subjects of Great-Britain. We have purfued every temperate, every refpectful Meafure; we have even proceeded to break off our commercial Intercourfe with our Fellow Subjects, as the last peaceable Admonition, that our Attachment to no Nation upon Earth should fupplant our Attachment to Liberty .- This, we flattered ourfelves, was the ultimate Step of the Controverfy : But fubfequent Events have shewn, how vain was this Hope of finding Moderation in our Enemies.

Several threatening Expressions against the Colonies were inferted in his Majefty's Speech ; our Petition, tho' we were told it was a Decent one, and that his Majefty had been pleafed to receive it gracioufly, and to promife laying it before his Parliament, was huddled into both Houses among a Bundle of American Papers, and there neglected. The Lords and Commons in their Addrefs, in the Month of February, faid, that " a Rebellion at that Time actually existed within the Province of Maffachufetts-Bay; and that those concerned in it, had been countenanced and encouraged by unlawful Combinations and Engagements, entered into by his Majefty's Subjects in feveral of the other Colonies ; and therefore they befought his Majefty, that he would take the most effectual Measures to inforce due Obedience to the Laws and Authority of the Supreme Legiflature."-Soon after, the commercial Intercourfe of whole Colonies, with foreign Countries, and with each other, was cut off by an Act of Parliament; by another, feveral of them were intirely prohibited from the Fisheries in the Seas near their Coafts, on which they always depended for their Suflenance; and large Re-inforcements of Ships and Troops were immediately fent over to General Gage.

Fruitles

Т

Fruitlefs were all the entreaties, arguments, and eloquence of an Illustrious Band of the most diftinguished Peers, and Commoners, who nobly and ftrenuoufly afferted the Juffice of our Caufe, to ftay, or even to mitigate the heedlefs fury with which thefe accumulated and unexampled Outrages were hurried on .- Equally fruitless was the interference of the City of London, of Briftol, and many other respectable Towns in our Favour. Parliament adopted an infidious Manœuvre calculated to divide us, to establish a perpetual Auction of Taxations where Colony fhould bid against Colony, all of them uninformed what Ranfom would redeem their Lives; and thus to extort from us, at the Point of the Bayonet, the unknown fums that fhould be fufficient to gratify, if poffible to gratify, ministerial Rapacity, with the miserable indulgence left to us of raifing, in our own Mode, the prefcribed Tribute. What Terms more rigid and humiliating could have been dictated by remorfelefs Victors to conquered Enemies ? In our circumftances to accept them, would be to deferve them.

Soon after the Intelligence of these proceedings arrived on this Continent, General Gage, who in the courfe of the laft Year had taken Possession of the Town of Boston, in the Province of Massachufetts-Bay, and still occupied it as a Garrison, on the 19th day of April, fent out from that Place a large detachment of his Army, who made an unprovoked Affault on the Inhabitants of the faid Province, at the Town of Lexington, as appears by the Affidavits of a great Number of Perfons, fome of whom were Officers and Soldiers of that detachment, murdered eight of the Inhabitants, and wounded many others. From thence the Troops proceeded in warlike Array to the Town of Concord, where they fet upon another Party of the Inhabitants of the fame Province, killing feveral and wounding more, until compelled to retreat by the country People fuddenly affembled to repel this cruel Aggreffion. Hoftilities, thus commenced by the British Troops, have been fince profecuted by them without regard to Faith or Reputation. -The Inhabitants of Bofton being confined within that Town by the General their Governor, and having, in order to procure their difmiffion, entered into a Treaty with him, it was flipulated that the faid Inhabitants having deposited their Arms with their own Magistrates, should have liberty to depart, taking with them their other Effects. They accordingly delivered up their Arms, but in open violation of Honour, in defiance of the obligation of Treaties, which even favage Nations efteemed facred, the Governor ordered the Arms deposited as aforefaid, that they might be preferved for their owners, to be feized by a Body of Soldiers; detained the greateft part of the Inhabitants in the Town, and compelled the few who were permitted to retire, to leave their most valuable Effects behind.

dren from their Parents, the aged and the fick from their Relations and Friends, who wifh to attend and comfort them; and those who have been used to live in Plenty and even Elegance, are reduced to deplorable Diftrefs.

The General, further emulating his miniferial Mafters, by a Proclamation bearing date on the 12th day of June, after venting the groffeft Falfehoods and Calumnies againft the good People of thefe Colonies, proceeds to "declare them all, either by Name or "Defeription, to be Rebels and Traitors, to fuperfede the courfe "of the Common Law, and inftead thereof to publish and order "the ufe and exercise of the Law Martial."—His Troops have butchered our Countrymen, have wantonly burnt Charlestown, befides a confiderable number of Houfes in other Places; our Ships and Veffels are feized; the neceffary fupplies of Provisions are intercepted, and he is exerting his utmost Power to fpread deftruction and devastation around him.

We have received certain Intelligence, that General Garelton, the Governor of Canada, is infligating the People of that Province and the Indians to fall upon us; and we have but too much reafon to apprehend, that Schemes have been formed to excite domestic Enemies against us. In brief, a part of these Colonies now feel, and all of them are fure of feeling, as far as the Vengeance of Administration can inflict them, the complicated Calamitics of Fire, Sword, and Famine. We are reduced to the alternative of chufing an unconditional Submiffion to the tyranny of irritated Minifters, or refiftance by Force .- The latter is our choice .- We have counted the coft of this conteft, and find nothing fo dreadful as voluntary Slavery .- Honour, Juffice, and Humanity, forbid us tamely to furrender that Freedom which we received from our gallant Anceftors, and which our innocent Pofterity have a right to receive from us. We cannot endure the infamy and guilt of refigning fucceeding Generations to that wretchedness which inevitably awaits them, if we bafely entail hereditary Bondage upon them.

Our caule is juft. Our union is perfect. Our internal Refources are great, and, if neceffary, foreign Affiftance is undoubtedly attainable.—We gratefully acknowledge, as fignal Inflances of the Divine Favour towards us, that his Providence would not permit us to be called into this fevere Controverfy, until we were grown up to our prefent firength, had been previonfly exercifed in warlike Operation, and poffeffed of the means of defending ourfelves. With hearts fortified with thefe animating Reflections, we moff folemnly, before God and the World, DECLARE, that, exerting the utmoft Energy of thofe Powers, which our beneficent Creator hath gracioufly befowed upon us, the Arms we have been compelled by our Enemies to affume, we will, in defiance of every Hazard, with unabating Firmnels and Perfeverence, employ for for the prefervation of our Liberties; being with one Mind refolved to die Freemen rather than to live Slaves.

Left this Declaration fhould difquiet the Minds of our Friends and Fellow-Subjects in any part of the Empire, we affure them that we mean not to diffolve that Union which has fo long and fo happily fubfifted between us, and which we fincerely wifh to fee reftored.—Neceflity has not yet driven us into that defperate Meafure, or induced us to excite any other Nation to War againft them.—We have not raifed Armies with ambitious Defigns of feparating from Great-Britain, and eftablifhing Independent States. We fight not for Glory or for Conqueft. We exhibit to Mankind the remarkable Spectacle of a People attacked by unprovoked Enemies, without any imputation or even fufficion of Offence. They boaft of their Privileges and Civilization, and yet proffer no milder Conditions than Servitude or Death.

In our own native Land, in defence of the Freedom that is our Birth-right, and which we ever enjoyed till the late Violation of it—for the protection of our Property, acquired folely by the honeft Industry of our fore-fathers and ourfelves, against Violence actually offered, we have taken up Arms. We shall lay them down when Hostilities shall cease on the part of the Aggressions, and all danger of their being renewed shall be removed, and not before.

With an humble Confidence in the Mercies of the fupreme and impartial Judge and Ruler of the Univerfe, we most devoutly implore his Divine Goodness to protect us happily through this great Conflict, to dispose our Adversaries to reconciliation on reasonable Terms, and thereby to relieve the Empire from the Calamities of civil War.

On a Motion made, RESOLVED, That a Letter be prepared to the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery of the City of London, expreffing the thanks of this Congress, for their virtuous and fpirited Opposition to the oppreffive and ruinous System of Colony Administration adopted by the Briti/h Ministry.

ORDERED, That the Committee appointed to draught an Addrefs to the People of Great-Britain, do prepare this.

Adjourned till to-morrow at nine o'clock .

FRIDAY, July 7, 1775.

Met according to adjournment.

The Committee to whom the Addrefs to the People of Great-Britain, was re-committed, brought in the fame, which being again read and debated, the farther confideration thereof was deferred till to-morrow.

Adjourned till to-morrow at nine o'clock.

The

The Petition to the King being engroffed, was compared at the Table, and figned by the Members prefent.

To the KING's most excellent MAJESTY.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majefty's faithful Subjects of the Colonies of New-Hampfhire, Maffachufetts-Bay, Rhode-Ifland, and Providence Plantations, Connetticut, New-York, New-Jerfey, Pennfslvania, the Counties of Newcafile, Kent, and Suffex on Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North-Garolina, and South-Garolina, in behalf of ourfelves, and the Inhabitants of these Colonies, who have deputed us to represent them in General Congress, entreat your Majefty's gracious Attention to this onr humble Petition.

The union between our Mother Country and thefe Colonies, and the energy of mild and juft Government, produced benefits fo remarkably important, and afforded fuch an Affurance of their permanency and encreafe, that the Wonder and Envy of other Nations were excited, while they beheld Great-Britain rifing to a Power the most extraordinary the World had ever known.

Her Rivals, observing that there was no probability of this happy connexion being broken by civil Diffentions, and apprehending its future Effects, if left any longer undiflurbed, refolved to prevent her receiving fuch continual and formidable Acceffions of Wealth and Strength, by checking the growth of those Settlements from which they were to be derived.

In the profecution of this Attempt, events fo unfavourable to the Defign took place, that every Friend to the interest of Great-Britain and these Colonies, entertained pleasing and reasonable Expectations of feeing an additional Force and Exertion immediately given to the Operations of the Union hitherto experienced, by an enlargement of the dominions of the Crown, and the removal of ancient and warlike Enemies to a greater distance.

At the Conclusion therefore of the late War, the most glorious and advantageous that ever had been carried on by Britifb Arms, your loyal Colonifts having contributed to its Succefs, by fuch repeated and ftrenuous Exertions, as frequently procured them the diftinguished approbation of your Majefty, of the late King, and of Parliament, doubted not but that they should be permitted, with the reft of the Empire, to share in the bleffings of Peace, and the emoluments of Victory and Conquest.

While thefe recent and honourable acknowledgements of their Merits remained on record in the Journals and Acts of that august Legislature, the Parliament, undefaced by the imputation or even the fufpicion of any Offence, they were alarmed by a new System of Statutes and Regulations adopted for the administration of the Colonies, that filled their Minds with the most painful Fears and Jealouses, Jealoufies; and, to their inexpreffible aftonifhment, perceived the danger of a foreign Quarrel quickly fucceeded by domeftic Danger, in their judgment of a more dreadful kind.

Nor were thefe Anxieties alleviated by any tendency in this System to promote the welfare of their Mother Country. For though its Effects were more immediately felt by them, yet its Influence appeared to be injurious to the Commerce and Prosperity of Great Britain.

We shall decline the ungrateful Task of deforibing the irkfome Variety of Artifices, practifed by many of your Majesty's Ministers, the delusive Pretences, fruitless Terrors, and unavailing Severities, that have from time to time been dealt out by them, in their Attempts to execute this impolitic Plan, or of tracing thro' a Series of Years past, the Progress of the unhappy Differences between Great-Britain and these Colonies, that have flowed from this fatal Source.

Your Majefty's Minifters, perfevering in their Meafures, and proceeding to open Hoftilities for enforcing them, have compelled us to arm in our own Defence, and have engaged us in a Controverfy fo peculiarly abhorrent to the Affections of your fill faithful Colonifts, that when we confider whom we mult oppofe in this Conteft, and if it continues, what may be the confequences, our own particular Misfortunes are accounted by us only as parts of our Diftrefs.

Knowing to what violent Refertments, and incurable Animofities, civil Difcords are apt to exafperate and inflame the contending Parties, we think ourfelves required by indifpenfible Obligations to Almighty God, to your Majefly, to our Fellow-Subjects, and to ourfelves, immediately to use all the Means in our Power, not incompatible with our Safety, for flopping the further Effusion of Blood, and for averting the impending Calamities that threaten the Britilh Empire.

Thus called upon to Addrefs your Majefty on Affairs of fuch Moment to America, and probably to all your Dominions, we are earneftly defirous of performing this Office, with the utmoft Deference for your Majefty; and we therefore pray, that your Majefty's royal Magnanimity and Benevolence may make the moft favourable conftructions of our Exprefilions on fo uncommon an occafion. Could we reprefent in their full Force, the Sentiments that agitate the Minds of us your dutiful Subjects, we are perfuaded your Majefty would afcribe any feeming deviation from reverence in our Language, and even in our Conduct, not to any reprehenfible Intention, but to the impofibility of reconciling the ufual appearances of Refpect with a juft Attention to our own Prefervation againft thofe artful and cruel Enemies, who abufe your royal Confidence and Authority, for the Purpofe of effecting our Deftruction.

Attached to your Majefty's Perfon, Family, and Government with all Devotion that Principle and Affection can infpire, connected with Great-Britain by the ftrongeft Ties that can unite Societies, and deploring every Event that tends in any degree to weaken them, we folemnly affure your Majefty, that we not only most ardently defire the former Harmony between her and these Colonies may be reftored, but that a Concord may be established between them upon fo firm a Bass as to perpetuate its Bleffings uninterrupted by any future Diffensions to fucceeding Generations in both Countries, and to transmit your Majefty's Name to Posterity, adorned with that fignal and lafting Glory, that has attended the Memory of those illustrious Perfonages, whose Virtues and Abilities have extricated States from dangerous Convultions, and, by fecuring Happiness to others, have erected the most noble and durable Monuments to their own Fame.

We beg leave farther to affure your Majefty, that notwithftanding the fufferings of your loyal Colonifts, during the Courfe of this prefent Controverfy, our Breafts retain too tender a Regard for the Kingdom from which we derive our Origin, to requeit fuch a reconciliation as might in any Manner be inconfiftent with her Dignity or her Welfare. Thefe, related as we are to her, Honour and Duty as well as Inclination, induce us to fupport and advance; and the apprehenfions that now opprefs our Hearts with unfpeakable Grief, being once removed, your Majefty will find your faithful Subjects on this Continent ready and willing at all Times, as they have ever been, with their Lives and Fortunes, to affert and maintain the Rights and Interefts of your Majefty, and of our Mother Country.

We therefore befeech your Majefty, that your Royal Authority and Influence may be gracioufly interpofed to procure us relief from our afflicting Fears and Jealoufies, occafioned by the Syftem before mentioned, and to fettle Peace through every part of your Dominions, with all Humility fubmitting to your Majefty's wife confideration, whether it may not be expedient for facilitating thofe important Purpofes, that your Majefty be pleafed to direct fome Mode, by which the united applications of your faithful Colonifts to the Throne, in purfuance of their common Councils, may be improved into a happy and permanent Reconciliation; and that, in the mean time, Meafures may be taken for preventing the further Deftruction of the Lives of your Majefty's Subjects; and that fuch Statutes as more immediately Diftrefs any of your Majefty's Colonies may be repealed.

For by fuch arrangements as your Majefty's Wifdom can form for collecting the united Senfe of your American People, we are convinced your Majefty would receive fuch fatisfactory Proofs of the Difpolition of the Colonifts towards their Sovereign and Parent State, that the wifhed for Opportunity would foon be reflored to them, of evincing the fincerity of their Profeffions, by every Teftimony timony of Devotion becoming the most dutiful Subjects and the most affectionate Colonists.

That your Majefty may enjoy a long and profperous Reign, and that your defeendants may govern your Dominions with Honour to themfelves and Happiness to their Subjects, is our sincere Prayer.

The Committee appointed to prepare a Letter to the Lord Mayor, &c. reported the fame, which was read.

On Motion, RESOLVED, That the fame Committee prepare a Letter to Richard Penn, Efq. and the Colony Agents by name in England.

The Congress then refumed the confideration of the Address to the Inhabitants of Great-Britain, which being debated by Paragraphs, was agreed to as follows:

The Twelve United Colonies, by their Delegates in Congress, to the Inhabitants of Great-Britain.

Friends, Countrymen, and Brethren!

By thefe, and by every other Apellation that may defignate the 'Ties, which bind us to each other, we entreat your ferious Attention to this our fecond Attempt to prevent their Diffolution. Rememberance of former Friendfhips, Pride in the glorious Atchievements of our common Anceftors, and Affection for the Heirs of their Virtues, have hitherto preferved our mutual Connection; but when that Friendfhip is violated by the groffeft Injuries; when the Pride of Anceftry becomes our Reproach, and we are no otherwife allied than as Tyrants and Slaves; when reduced to the melancholy Alternative of renouncing your Favour of our Freedom; can we hefitate about the choice ? Let the Spirit of Britons determine.

In a former Addrefs we afferted our Rights, and flated the Injuries we had then received. We hoped, that the mention of our Wrongs would have roufed that honeft Indignation which has flept too long for your Honour, or the Welfare of the Empire. But we have not been permitted to entertain this pleafing Expectation. Every Day brought an accumulation of Injuries, and the Invention of the Miniftry has been conftantly exercifed, in adding to the Calamities of your American Brethren.

After the most valuable Right of Legislation was infringed; when the Powers affumed by your Parliament, in which we are not reprefented, and from our local and other circumstances cannot properly be reprefented, rendered our Property precarious; after being denied that mode of Trial, to which we have long been indebted for the fafety of our Perfons, and the prefervation of our Liberties; after being in many inflances divested of those Laws, which which were transmitted to us by our common Ancestors, and subjected to an arbitrary Code, compiled under the aufpices of Roman Tyrants; after those Charters, which encouraged our Predeceffors to brave Death and Danger in every Shape, on unknown Seas, in Defarts unexplored, amidft barbarous and inhofpitable Nations, were annulled; when, without the form of Trial, without a public Accufation, whole Colonies were condemned, their Trade deftroyed, their Inhabitants impoverished; when Soldiers were encouraged to embrue their Hands in the Blood of Americans, by offers of Impunity; when new modes of Trial were inftituted for the ruin of the accufed, where the charge carried with it the horrors of conviction ; when a despotic Government was established in a neighbouring Province, and its Limits extended to every of our Frontiers; we little imagined that any thing could be added to this black Catalogue of unprovoked Injuries : but we have unhappily been deceived, and the late Measures of the British Ministry fully convince us, that their object is the reduction of thefe Colonies to Slavery and Ruin.

To confirm this Affertion, let us recal your attention to the Affairs of America, fince our last Address. Let us combat the Calumnies of our Enemies; and let us warn you of the dangers that threaten you in our destruction. Many of your Fellow-Subjects, whofe fituation deprived them of other Support, drew their Maintenance from the Sea; but the deprivation of our Liberty being infufficient to fatisfy the refentment of our Enemies, the horrors of Famine were fuperadded, and a British Parliament, who, in better times, were the Protectors of Innocence and the Patrons of Humanity, have, without diffinction of Age or Sex, robbed thoufands of the Food which they were accustomed to draw from that inexhauftible Source, placed in their neighbourhood by the benevolent Creator.

Another Act of your Legislature shuts our Ports, and prohibits our Trade with any but those States from whom the great Law of felf-prefervation renders it abfolutely neceffary we should at prefent withhold our Commerce. But this Act (whatever may have been its defign) we confider rather as injurious to your Opulence than our Intereft. All our Commerce terminates with you; and the Wealth we procure from other Nations, is foon exchanged for your Superfluities. Our remittances must then cease with our Trade; and our refinements with our Affluence. We truft, however, that Laws which deprive us of every Bleffing but a Soil that teems with the necessaries of Life, and that Liberty which renders the enjoyment of them fecure, will not relax our Vigour in their Defence.

We might here observe on the Cruelty and Inconlistency of thofe, who, while they publicly Brand us with reproachful and unworthy Epithets, endeavour to deprive us of the means of defence fence, by their Interpolition with foreign Powers, and to deliver us to the lawlefs Ravages of a mercilefs Soldiery. But happily we are not without Refources; and though the timid and humiliating Applications of a Britifb Ministry should prevail with foreign Nations, yet Industry, prompted by Necessfity, will not leave us without the necessfary Supplies.

We could wifh to go no further, and, not to wound the Ear of Humanity, leave untold those rigorous Acts of Oppression, which are daily exercised in the Town of Boston, did we not hope, that by disclaiming their Deeds and punishing the Perpetrators, you would shortly vindicate the Honour of the British Name and reestablish the violated Laws of Justice.

That once populous, flourishing and commercial Town is now garrifoned by an Army fent not to protect, but to enflave its Inhabitants.—The civil Government is overturned, and a military Defpotifm erected upon its Ruins. Without Law, without Right, Powers are affumed unknown to the Conflictution. Private Property is unjuftly invaded. The Inhabitants, daily fubjected to the Licentiousfield of the Soldiery, are forbid to remove in Defiance of their natural Rights, in Violation of the most folemn Compacts. Or if, after long and wearifome Solicitation, a Pafs is procured, their Effects are detained, and even those who are most favoured, have no Alternative but Poverty or Slavery. The Diftrefs of many thousand People, wantonly deprived of the Neceffaries of Life, is a Subject, on which we would not wish to enlarge.

Yet we cannot but obferve, that a Britifb Fleet (unjuftified even by Acts of your Legiflature) are daily employed in ruining our Commerce, feizing our Ships, and depriving whole Communities of their daily Bread. Nor will a Regard for your Honour permit us to be filent, while Britifb Troops fully your Glory, by Actions, which the moft inveterate Enmity will not palliate among civilized Nations, the wanton and unneceffary Deftruction of Charleforwn, a large, ancient, and once populous Town, juft before deferted by its Inhabitants, who had fled to avoid the Fury of your Soldiery.

If you fill retain those Sentiments of Compaffion, by which Britons have ever been diffinguished; if the Humanity, which tempered the Valour of our common Ancestors, has not degenerated into Cruelty, you will lament the Miseries of their Descendants.

To what are we to attribute this Treatment? If to any fecret Principle of the Confliction, let it be mentioned; let us learn, that the Government, we have long revered, is not without its Defects, and that while it gives Freedom to a Part, it neceffarily enflaves the Remainder of the Empire. If fuch a Principle exifts; why for Ages has it ceafed to operate? Why at this Time is it called called into Action ? Can no Reafon be affigned for this Conduct ? Or muft it be refolved into the wanton Exercife of arbitrary Power ? And fhall the Defcendants of Britons tamely fitbmit to this. —No Sirs ! We never will, while we revere the Memory of our gallant and virtuous Anceftors, we never can furrender thofe glotious Privileges, for which they fought, bled and conquered. Admit that your Fleets could deftroy our Towns, and ravage our Sea-Coafts; thefe are inconfiderable Objects, Things of no Moment to Men, whofe Bofoms glow with the Ardor of Liberty. We can retire beyond the Reach of your Navy, and, without any fentible Diminution of the Neceffaries of Life, enjoy a Luxury, which from that Period you will want; the Luxury of being Free.

We know the Force of your Arms, and was it called forth in the Caufe of Juffice and your Country, we might dread the Exertion; but will Britons fight under the Banners of Tyranny? Will they counteract the Labours, and difgrace the Victories of their Anceftors? Will they forge Chains for their Pofterity? If they defcend to this unworthy Tafk, will their Swords retain their Edge, their Arms their accuftomed Vigour? Britons can never become the Inftruments of Oppreffion, till they lofe the Spirit of Freedom, by which alone they are invincible.

Our Enemies charge us with Sedition. In what does it confift? In our Refufal to fubmit to unwarrantable Acts of Injuffice and Cruelty? If fo, fhew us a Period in your Hiftory, in which you have not been equally Seditious.

We are accufed of aiming at Independence; but how is this Accufation fupported ? By the Allegations of your Minifters, not by our Actions. Abufed, infulted, and contemned, what Steps have we purfued to obtain Redrefs? We have carried our dutiful Petitions to the Throne.—We have applied to your Juffice for Relief. We have retrenched our Luxury, and withheld our Trade.

The Advantages of our Commerce were defigned as a Compenfation for your Protection : When you ceafed to protect, for what were we to compenfate?

What has been the Succefs of our Endeavours? The Clemency of our Sovereign is unhappily diverted; our Petitions are treated with Indignity; our Prayers anfwered by Infults. Our Application to you remains unnoticed, and leaves us the melancholy Apprehension of your wanting either the Will, or the Power, to affift us.

Even under thefe Circumflances, what Meafures have we taken that betray a Defire of Independence ? Have we called in the Aid of those foreign Powers, who are the Rivals of your Grandeur ? When your Troops where few and defencelefs, did we take Advantage of their Diffres and expel them our Towns ? Or have we permitted them to fortify, to receive new Aid and to acquire additional Strength ? Let Let not your Enemies and ours perfuade you, that in this we were influenced by Fear or any other unworthy Motive. The Lives of Br. tons are fill dear to us. They are the Children of our Parents, and an uninterrupted Intercourfe of mutual Benefits had knit the Bonds of Friendship. When Hostilities were commenced, when on a late Occasion we were wantonly attacked by your Troops, though we repelled their Affaults and retuined their Blows, yet we lamented the Wounds they obliged us to give; nor have we yet learned to rejoice at a Victory over Englishmen.

As we wifh not to colour our Actions, or difguife our Thoughts; we fhall, in the fimple Language of Truth, avow the Measures we have purfued, the Motives, upon which we have acted, and our future Defigns.

When our late Petition to the Throne produced no other Effect than fresh Injuries, and Votes of your Legislature, calculated to juftify every Severity; when your Fleets and your Armies were prepared to wreft from us our Property, to rob us of our Liberties or our Lives; when the hoftile Attempts of General Gage evinced his Defigns, we levied Armies for our Security and Defence. When the Powers vefted in the Governor of Canada, gave us Reafon to apprehend Danger from that Quarter; and we had frequent Intimations, that a cruel and favage Enemy was to be let loofe upon the defenceless Inhabitants of our Frontiers; we took fuch Measures as Prudence dictated, as Necessity will juftify. We poffeffed ourfelves of Grown-Point and Ticonderoga. Yet give us leave most folemnly to affure you, that we have not yet lost Sight of the Object we have ever had in View, a Reconciliation with you on conflitutional Principles, and a Reftoration of that friendly Intercourfe, which, to the Advantage of both, we till lately maintained.

The Inhabitants of this Country apply themfelves chiefly to Agriculture and Commerce. As their Fashions and Manners are fimilar to yours, your Markets must afford them the Conveniencies and Luxuries, for which they exchange the Produce of their Labours. The Wealth of this extended Continent centres with you; and our Trade is fo regulated as to be fubservient only to your Interest. You are too reasonable to expect, that by Taxes (in Addition to this) we should contribute to your Expence; to believe after diverting the Fountain, that the Streams can flow with unabated Force.

It has been faid, that we refufe to fubmit to the, Reftrictions on our Commerce. From whence is this Inference drawn? Not from our Words, we having repeatedly declared the Contrary; and we again profefs our Submiffion to the feveral Acts of Trade and Navigation paffed before the Year 1763, truffing neverthelefs in the Equity and Juffice of Parliament, that fuch of them as, upon cool and impartial Confideration, fhall appear to have impofed poled unneceffary or grievous Refrictions, will, at fome happier Period, be repealed or altered. And we cheerfully confent to the Operation of fuch Acts of the Britifh Parliament as shall be refirained to the Regulation of our external Commerce, for the Purpole of fecuring the commercial Advantages of the whole Empireto the Mother-Country, and the commercial Benefits of its respective Members; excluding every Idea of Taxation internal or external, for raifing a Revenue on the Subjects in America without their Confent.

It is alledged that we contribute nothing to the common Defence. To this we answer, that the Advantages which Great-Britain receives from the Monopoly of our Trade, far exceed our Proportion of the Expence neceffary for that Purpofe. But should these Advantages be inadequate thereto, let the Refirictions on our Trade be removed, and we will cheerfully contribute such Proportion when constitutionally required.

It is a fundamental Principle of the British Conflictution, that every Man should have at least a Representative Share in the Formation of those Laws, by which he is bound. Were it otherwise, the Regulation of our internal Police by a British Parliament, who are and ever will be unacquainted with our local Circumflances, must be always inconvenient, and frequently oppressive, working our wrong, without yielding any possible Advantage to you.

A Plan of Accommodation (as it has been abfurdly called) has been proposed by your Ministers to our respective Assemblies. Were this Proposal free from every other Objection, but that which arises from the Time of the Offer, it would not be unexceptionable. Can Men deliberate with the Bayonet at their Breast? Can they treat with Freedom, while their Towns are facked; when daily Inflances of Injustice and Oppression disturb the flower Operations of Reason?

If this Propofal is really fuch as you would offer and we accept, why was it delayed till the Nation was put to ufelefs Expence, and we were reduced to our prefent melancholy Situation ? If it holds forth nothing, why was it proposed? Unless indeed to deceive you into a Belief, that we were unwilling to liften to any Terms of Accommodation? But what is fubmitted to our Confideration? We contend for the Dispofal of our Property. We are told that our Demand is unreasonable, that our Assemblies may indeed collect our Money, but that they must at the fame Time offer, not what your Exigences or ours may require, but fo much as shall be deemed fufficient to fatisfy the Defires of a Minister and enable him to provide for Favourites and Dependants. A Recurrence to your own Treafury will convince you how little of the Money already extorted from us has been applied to the Relief of your. Burthens. To suppose that we would thus grasp the Shadow and and give up the Subfrance, is adding Infult to Injuries, We have neverthelefs again prefented an humble and dutiful Petition to our Sovereign; and to remove every imputation of Obflinacy, have requefted his Majefty to direct fome Mode, by which the united Applications of his faithful Colonifts may be improved into a happy and permanent Reconciliation. We are willing to treat on fuch Terms as can alone render an accommodation lafting, and we flatter ourfelves that our pacific Endeavours will be attended with a removal of minifterial Troops, and a repeal of those Laws, of the Operation of which we complain, on the one part, and a difbanding of our Army, and a diffolution of our commercial Affociations, on the other.

Yet conclude not from this that we propose to furrender our Property into the Hands of your Ministry, or vest your Parliament with a Power which may terminate in our Destruction. The great Bulwarks of our Constitution we have defired to maintain by every temperate, by every peaceable Means; but your Minifters (equal Foes to Britisch and American freedom) have added to their former Oppressions an Attempt to reduce us by the Sword to a base and abject Submission. On the Sword, therefore, we are compelled to rely for Protection. Should Victory declare in your Favour, yet Men trained to Arms from their infancy, and animated by the love of Liberty, will afford neither a cheap or easy Conquest. Of this at least we are affured, that our Struggle will be glorious, our Success certain; fince even in Death we shall find that Freedom which in Life you forbid us to enjoy.

Let us now alk what Advantages are to attend our Reduction? The Trade of a ruined and defolate Country is always inconfiderable, its Revenue trifling; the Expence of fubjecting and retaining it in fubjection certain and inevitable. What then remains but the gratification of an ill-judged Pride, or the hope of rendering us fubfervient to defigns on your Liberty.

Soldiers who have fheathed their Swords in the Bowels of their American Brethren, will not draw them with more reluctance against you. When too late you may lament the loss of that freedom, which we exhort you, while still in your Power, to preferve.

On the other hand, fhould you prove unfuccefsful; fhould that Connexion, which we most ardently wifh to maintain, be diffolved; fhould your Ministers exhaust your Treasures and waste the Blood of your Countrymen in vain Attempts on our Liberty; do they not deliver you, weak and defenceles, to your natural Enemies.

Since then your Liberty must be the price of your Victories; your Ruin, of your Defeat :---What blind Fatality can urge you to a purfuit destructive of all that Britons hold dear?

If you have no regard to the Connexion that has for Ages fubfifted between us; if you have forgot the Wounds we have received ed fighting by your Side for the extention of the Empire; if our Commerce is not an object below your confideration; if Juffice and Humanity have loft their influence on your Hearts; ftill Motives are not wanting to excite your Indignation at the Meafures now purfued: Your Wealth, your Honour, your Liberty are at Stake.

Notwithftanding the Diffrefs to which we are reduced, we fometimes forget our own Afflictions, to anticipate and fympathize in yours. We grieve that rafh and inconfiderate Councils fhould precipitate the deftruction of an Empire, which has been the envy and admiration of Ages, and call God to witnefs! that we would part with our Property, endanger our Lives, and facrifice every thing but Liberty, to redeem you from ruin.

but Liberty, to redeem you from ruin. A Cloud hangs over your Heads and ours; e'er this reaches you, it may probably burlt upon us; let us then (before the remembrance of former Kindnefs is obliterated) once more repeat those Appellations which are ever grateful in our Ears; let us entreat Heaven to avert our Ruin, and the Destruction that threatens our Friends, Brethren, and Countrymen, on the other fide of the Atlantic.

ORDERED, That the above Addrefs be immediately printed, and fent by Mr. Penn to England.

The Letter to the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery of London, being again read and debated, was agreed to as follows :

My Lord,

PERMIT the Delegates of the People of twelve ancient Colnies; to pay your Lordship, and the very respectable Body of which you are Head, the just Tribute of Gratitude and Thanks, for the virtuous and unfolicited Resentment you have shewn to the violated Rights of a free People. The City of London, my Lord, having in all Ages, approved itself the Patron of Liberty, and the Support of just Government, against lawless Tyranny and Oppression, cannot fait to make us deeply Sensible of the powerful Aid, our Gause must receive from such Advocates. A Cause, my Lord, worthy the support of the first City in the World, as it involves the fate of a great Continent, and threatens to Shake the Foundations of a flourishing, and, until lately, a bappy Empire.

North-America, my Lord, wishes most ardently for a lasting Connection with Great-Britain on Terms of just and equal Liberty; less than which generous Minds will not offer, nor brave and free ones be willing to receive.

A cruel War has at length been opened against us, and whilst we prepare to defend ourfelves like the descendants of Britons, we still bope hope that the Mediation of wife and good Citizens, will at length prevail over Despotiss, and restore Harmony and Peace, on permanent Principles, to an oppressed and divided Empire.

We have the Honour to be, My Lord, With great Efteem, Your Lordship's Faithful Friends and Fellow-Subjects.

ORDERED, That the above Letter be transcribed, then figned by the Prefident.

The Committee appointed to prepare a Letter to Mr. Penn and the Colony Agents, reported a Draught, which was read and approved as follows:

GENTLEMEN,

The Perfeverance of the British Ministry in their unjust and cruel System of Colony Administration, has occasioned the Meeting of another Congress.

We have again appealed to the Juflice of our Sovereign for protection against the Destruction which his Ministers meditate for his American Subjects. This Petition to his Majesty you will please, Gentlemen, to present to the King with all convenient Expedition, after which we desire it may be given to the Public. We likewise fend you our second Application to the Equity and Interest of our Fellow-Subjects in Great-Britain, and also a Declaration setting forth the Gauses of our taking up Arms: Both which we wish may be immediately put to Press, and communicated as universally as possible.

The Congress entertain the highest Sense of the wife and worthy Interposition of the Lord Mayor and Livery of London, in favour of injured America. They have expressed this their Sense in a Letter to his Lordship and the Livery, which we desire may be presented in the Manner most agreeable to that respectable Body.

You will oblige us, Gentlemen, by giving the most early Information to the Congress, and to the Speakers of our respective Assemblies of your proceeding in this Business, and such surther Intelligence as you may judge to be of importance to America in this great Contest. We are, with great regard, Gentlemen, &c.

That the fecuring and preferving the Friendship of the Indian Nations appears to be a subject of the utmost Moment to these Colonies.

That there is too much reafon to apprehend that Administration will fpare no Pains to excite the feveral Nations of Indians to take up Arms against these Colonies; and that it becomes us to be very active and vigilant in exerting every prudent Means to strengthen and confirm the friendly disposition towards these Colonies, which has long prevailed among the northern Tribes, and which has been lately manifested by some of those to the fouthward.

As the Indians depend on the Colonifts for Arms, Ammunition, and Cloathing, which are become neceffary to their Sublikance, that Commiffioners be appointed by this Congress to fuperintend Indian Affairs in behalf of those Colonies,

That

That there be three Departments of Indians, the Northern, Middle, and Southern, The Northern to extend fo far South as to include the whole of the Indians known by the Name of the Six Nations, and all the Indians Northward of those Nations. The Southern Department to extend fo far North as to include the Cherokees, and all the Indians that may be to the Southward of them. That That as there is a Seminary for the Inftruction of Indian Youth, which has been eftablished under the Care of Doctor Wheelock, on Connetlicut River; and as there are nine or ten Indian Youths at that School, chiefly from the Tribes residing in Quebec; And as for want of a proper Fund, there is Danger that these Youths may be fent back to their Friends, which will probably excite Jealoufy and Distrust, and be attended with bad Confequences, the Commissioners for Indian Affairs in the Northern Department be authorised to receive, out of the Continental Treasury, a Sum not exceeding five hundred Dollars, to be applied by them for the Support of faid Indian Youths.

ON MOTION MADE, RESOLVED, That a Committee of five be appointed to devife Ways and Means to protect the Trade of thefe Colonics.

The Committee appointed to prepare proper Talks to the *In*dians, reported the fame, which was agreed to as follows :

A SPEECH to the Six Confederate Nations, MOHAWKS, O-NEIDAS, TUSCARORAS, ONONDAGAS, CAYUGAS, SENEKAS, from the Twelve United Colonies, convened in Council at Philadelphia.

Brothers, Sachems, and Warriors,

WE, the Delegates from the Twelve United Provinces, viz. New-Hampfhire, Malfachufetts-Bay, Rhode-Island, Connecticut, New-York, New-Jerfey, Pennfylvania, the three Lower Counties of Newcaftle, Kent, and Suffex, on Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North-Carolina, and South-Carolina, now fitting in General Congrefs at Philadelphia, fend this Talk to you our Brothers. We are fixty-five in Number, chofen and appointed by the People throughout all thefe Provinces and Colonies, to meet and fit together in one great Council, to confult together for the common Good of the Land, and fpeak and act for them.

Brothers, in our Confultation we have judged it proper and neceffary to fend you this Talk, as we are upon the fame Ifland, that you may be informed of the Reafons of this great Council, the Situation of our civil Conflictution, and our Difposition towards you our Indian Brothers of the fix Nations and their Allies.

(Three Strings, or a fmall Belt.)

Brothers and Friends, now attend,

When our Fathers croffed the great Water and came over to this Land, the King of England gave them a Talk; affuring them that that they and their Children should be his Children, and that if they would leave their Native Country and make Settlements, and live here, and buy, and fell, and trade with their Brethren beyond the Water, they should still keep hold of the fame covenant Chain and enjoy Peace -And it was covenanted, that the Fields, Houfes, Goods, and Poffeffions which our Fathers should acquire, fhould remain to them as their own, and be their Children's forever, and at their fole Difpofal.

Trufting that this Covenant should never be broken, our Fathers came a great Diftance beyond the great Water, laid out their Money here, built Houfes, cleared Fields, raifed Crops, and through their own Labour and Industry grew tall and strong.

They have bought, fold and traded with England according to Agreement, fending to them fuch Things as they wanted, and taking in Exchange fuch Things as were wanted here.

The King of England and his People kept the Way open for. more than one hundred Years, and by our Trade became richer, and by a Union with us, greater and ftronger than the other Kings and People who live beyond the Water.

All this Time they lived in great Friendship with us, and we with them; for we are Brothers-one Blood. Whenever they were ftruck, we inflantly felt as though the Blow had been given to us- their Enemies were our Enemies.

Whenever they went to War, we fent our Men to ftand by their Side and fight for them, and our Money to help them and make them ftrong.

They thanked us for our Love and fent us good Talks, and renewed their Promise to be one People forever.

Brothers and Friends, open a kind Ear!

We will now tell you of the Quarrel betwixt the Counfellors of King George and the Inhabitants and Colonies of America.

Many of his Counfellors are proud and wicked men .- They perfuade the King to break the covenant Chain, and not to fend us any more good Talks. A confiderable Number have prevailed upon him to enter into a new Covenant against us, and have torn afunder and caft behind their Backs the good old Covenant which their Anceftors and ours entered into and took ftrong hold of.

They now tell us they will flip their Hand into our Pocket without afking, as though it were their own; and at their Pleafure they will take from us our Charters or written civil Constitution, which we love as our Lives-alfo our Plantations, our Houfes and Goods whenever they pleafe, without afking our leave .- That our Veffels may go to this Island in the Sea, but to this or that parti-cular Island we shall not trade any more.—And in Case of our Non-compliance with thefe new Orders, thy flut up our Harbours.

Brothers,

Brothers, this is our prefent Situation—thus have many of the King's Counfellors and Servants dealt with us.—If we fubmit, or comply with their Demands, you can eafily perceive to what State we will be reduced.—If our People labour on the Field, they will not know who fhall enjoy the Crop.—If they hunt in the Woods, it will be uncertain who fhall tafte of the Meat or have the Skins.— If they build Houfesthey will not know whether they may fit round the Fire, with their Wives and Children.—They cannot be fure whether they fhall be permitted to eat, drink, and wear the Fruits of their own Labour and Induftry.

Brothers and Friends of the Six Nations, attend,

We upon this Island have often fpoke and intreated the King and his Servants the Counfellors, that Peace and Harmony might fill continue between us—that we cannot part with or loofe our hold of the old covenant Chain which united our Fathers and theirs—that we want to brighten this Chain—and keep the Way open as our Fathers did; that we want to live with them as Brothers, labour, trade, travel abroad, eat and drink in Peace. We have often asked them to love us and live in fuch Friendship with us as their Fathers did with ours.

We told them again that we judged we were exceedingly injured, that they might as well kill us, as take away our Property and the Neceffaries of Life.—We have afked why they treat us thus? —What has become of our repeated Addreffes and Supplications to them? Who hath fhut the Ears of the King to the Cries of his Children in America? No foft Anfwer—no pleafant Voice from beyond the Water has yet founded in our Ears.

Brothers, thus flands the Matter betwixt Old England and A_{τ} merica. You Indians know how Things are proportioned in a Family—between the Father and the Son—the Child carries a little Pack—England we regard as the Father—this Island may be compared to the Son.

The Father has a numerous Family—both at home and upon this Ifland.—He appoints a great Number of Servants to affift him in the Government of his Family. In Procefs of Time, fome of his Servants grow proud and ill-natured—they were difpleafed to fee the Boy fo alert and walk on fo nimbly with his pack.—They tell the Father and advife him to enlarge the Child's Pack—they prevail—the Pack is increafed—the Child takes it up again—as he thought it might be the Father's Pleafure—fpeaks but few Words—thofe very fmall—for he was loth to offend the Father. Thofe proud and wicked Servants finding they had prevailed, laughed to fee the Boy fweat and ftagger under his increafed Load. By and by, they apply to the Father to double the Boy's Pack, becaufe they heard him complain—and without any Reafon faid they—he is a crofs Child—correct him if he complains any more.—The Boy intreats the Father—addreffes the great great Servants in a decent Manner, that the Pack might be lightened—he could not go any farther—humbly afks, if the old Fathers, in any of their Records, had defcribed fuch a Pack for the Child—After all the Tears and Intreaties of the Child, the Pack is redoubled—the Child ftands a little, while ftaggering under the Weight—ready to fall every Moment.—However, he entreats the Father once more, though fo faint he could only lifp out his laft humble Supplication—waits a while—no Voice returns.—The Child concludes the Father could not hear—thofe proud Servants had intercepted his Supplications, or ftopped the Ears of the Father.—He therefore gives one Struggle and throws off the Pack, and fays he cannot take it up again—fuch a weight would crufh him down and kill him—and he can but die if he refufes.

Upon this, those Servants are very wroth—and tell the Father many false Stories respecting the Child—they bring a great Cudgel to the Father, asking him to take it in his Hand and strike the Child.

This may ferve to illustrate the prefent condition of the King's American Subjects or Children.

Amidft thefe Oppreffions we now and then hear a mollifying and reviving Voice from fome of the King's wife Councellors, who are our Friends and feel for our diftreffes, when they heard our Complaints and our Cries, they applied to the King, alfo told thofe wicked Servants, that this child in America was not a crofs Boy, it had fufficient reafon for crying, and if the caufe of its Complaint was neglected, it would foon affume the Voice of a Man, plead for Juitice like a Man, and defend its rights and fupport the old Covenant Chain of the Fathers.

Brothers, listen!

Notwithstanding all our Intreaties we have but little hope the King will fend us any more good Talks, by reafon of his evil Councellors; they have perfuaded him to fend an Army of Soldiers and many Ships of War, to rob and deftroy us. They have fhut up many of our Harbours, feized and taken into poffeffion many of our Veffels: The Soldiers have ftruck the Blow, killed fome of our People, the blood now runs of the American Children: They have alfo burned our Houfes and Towns, and taken much of our Goods.

Brothers ! we are now neceffitated to rife, and forced to fight, or give up our civil Conftitution, run away and leave our Farms and Houfes behind us. This muft not be. Since the King's wicked Councellors will not open their Ears, and confider our juft Complaints, and the Caufe of our Weeping, and hath given the Blow, we are determined to drive away the King's Soldiers, and to kill and deftroy all thofe wicked Men we find in Arms againft the Peace of the Twelve United Colonies upon this Island. We think our caufe is juft; therefore hope God will be on our Side. We do not not take up the Hatchet and ftruggle for Honour and Conqueft; but to maintain our civil Conftitution and religious Privileges, the very fame for which our forefathers left their native Land and came to this Country.

Brothers and Friends!

We defire you will hear and receive what we have now told you, and that you will open a good Ear and liften to what we are now going to fay. This is a family Quarrel between us and Old England. You Indians are not concerned in it. We don't wifh you to take up the Hatchet againft the King's Troops. We defire you to remain at home, and not join on either Side, but keep the Hatchet buried deep. In the Name and behalf of all our People we afk and defire you to love Peace and maintain it, and to love and fympathize with us in our Troubles; that the Path may be kept open with all our People and yours, to pafs and repafs, without Moleftation.

Brothers! we live upon the fame ground with you. The fame Ifland is our common Birth-place. We defire to fit down under the fame Tree of Peace with you: Let us water its roots and cherifh its growth, till the large Leaves and flourifhing Branches fhall extend to the fetting Sun, and reach the Skies.

Brothers, obferve well !

What is it we have afked of you ?-Nothing but Peace, notwithftanding our prefent diffurbed Situation-and if application should be made to you by any of the King's unwife and wicked Ministers to join on their Side-We only advife you to deliberate with great Caution, and in your Wisdom look forward to the Confequences of a compliance. For if the King's Troops take away our Property, and destroy us who are of the fame Blood with themselves-What can you, who are Indians, expect from them afterwards ?

Therefore we fay, Brothers, take care—hold faft to your Covenant Chain.—You now know our Difpofition towards you, the Six Nations of Indians, and your Allies.—Let this our good Talk remain at Onondaga, your central Council Houfe. We depend upon you to fend and acquaint your Allies to the northward, the feven Tribes on the River St. Lawrence, that you have this Talk of ours at the great Council Fire of the Six Nations. And when they return, we invite your great Men to come and converfe farther with us at Albany, where we intend to rekindle the Council Fire, which your and our Anceftors fat round in great Friendfhip.

Brothers and Friends! We greet you all,

(The large Belt of Intelligence and Declaration.) Brothers !

We have faid we wish you Indians may continue in Peace with one one another, and with us the White People. Let us both be cautious in our Behaviour towards each other at this critical flate of Affairs. This Ifland now trembles, the Wind whiftles from almost every Quarter—let us fortify our Minds and flut our Ears against false Rumours—let us be cautious what we receive for Truth, unless fpoken by wife and good Men. If any Thing difagreeable should ever fall out between us, the Twelve United Colonies, and you the Six Nations to wound our Peace, let us immediately feek Measures for healing the Breach. From the prefent Situation of our Affairs, we judge it wife and expedient to kindle up a small Council-Fire at Albany, where we may hear each others Voice, and disclose our Minds more fully to each other.

The Congress then refumed the confideration of the Address to the Assembly of Jamaica, and the fame being debated by Paragraphs, was agreed to as follows:

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Affembly of Jamaica.

We would think ourfelves deficient in our Duty, if we fuffered this Congress to pais over without expressing our efteem for the Affembly of Jamaica.

Whoever attends to the conduct of those who have been entrusted with the administration of British Affairs, during these last twelve Years, will discover in it a deliberate Plan to destroy, in every part of the Empire, the free Constitution for which Britain has been so long and so justly famed. With a Dexterity, artful and wicked, they have varied the Modes of Attack according to the different Characters and Circumstances of those whom they meant to reduce. In the East-Indies, where the effeminacy of the Inhabitants promifed an easily Conquest, they thought it unnecessfary to veil their tyrannic Principles under the thinnett Disguise. Without deigning even to pretend a justification of their Conduct, they facrificed the Lives of Millions to the gratification of their infatiable Avarice and lust of Power. In Britain, where the Maxims of of Freedom were still known, but where Luxury and Diffipation had diminished the wonted reverence for them, the Attack has been carried on in a more fecret and indirect Manner: Corruption has been employed to undermine them. The Americans are not enervated by Effeminacy, like the Inhabitants of India; nor debauched by Luxury, like those of Great-Britain : It was therefore judged improper to affail them by Bribery, or by undifguifed Force. Plaulible Syftems were formed; fpecious Pretences were made : All the Arts of Sophiftry were tried to fhew that the Britifh Ministry had by Law a right to Enflave us. The first and best Maxims of the Conflictution, venerable to Britons and to Americans, were perverted and prophaned. The Power of Parliament, derived from the People to bind the People, was extended over those from whom it was never derived. It is afferted that a ftanding Army may be conftitutionally kept among us, without our confent. Those Principles, dishonourable to those who adopted them, and deftructive to those to whom they were applied, were neverthelefs carried into Execution by the Foes of Liberty and of Mankind. Acts of Parhament, ruinous to America, and unferviceable to Britain, were made to bind us; Armies, maintained by the Parliament, were fent over to fecure their Operation. The Power, however, and the Cunning of our Adverfaries, were alike unfuccefsful. We refused to their Parliaments an Obedience, which our Judgments difapproved of : We refufed to their Armies a Submiffion, which Spirits, unnaccustomed to Slavery, could not Brook.

But while we fpurned a difgraceful Subjection, we were far from running into rafh or feditious Meafures of Oppofition. Filled with fentiments of loyalty to our Sovereign, and of affection and refpect for our Fellow-Subjects in Britain; we petitioned, we fupplicated, we expoftulated :---Our Prayers were rejected;---our Remonfirances were difregarded;---our Grievances were accumulated. All this did not provoke us to Violence.

An Appeal to the Juffice and Humanity of those who had injured us, and were bound to redrefs our Injuries, was ineffectual; we next refolved to make an Appeal to their Interest, though by doing fo we knew we must facrifice our own, and (which gave us cqual uneafinefs) that of our Friends who had never offended us, and who were connected with us by a fympathy of feelings, under Oppreffions fimilar to our own. We refelved to give up our Commerce that we might preferve our Liberty. We flattered ourfelves, that, when by withdrawing our commercial Intercourfe with Britain, which we had an undoubted Right either to withdraw or continue, her Trade should be diminished, her Revenues impaired, and her Manufacturers unemployed, our ministerial Foes would be induced by Intereft, or compelled by Neceffity, to depart from the Plan of Tyranny which they had fo long purfued, and to fubftitute in its Place, a Syftem more compatible with the freedom of America

America, and juffice of Britain. That this Scheme of non-importation and non-exportation might be productive of the defired Effects, we were obliged to include the Islands in it. From this Necessity, and from this Necessity alone, has our Conduct towards them proceeded. By converting your Sugar Plantations into fields of Grain, you can supply yourfelves with the necessaries of Life: While the prefent unhappy Struggle shall continue, we cannot do more.

But why fhould we make any Apology to the Patriotic Affembly of Jamaica, who know fo well the value of Liberty; who are fo fenfible of the extreme Danger to which ours is exposed; and who forefee how certainly the deflruction of ours muft be followed by the deflruction of their own ?

We receive uncommon Pleafure from obferving the Principles of our righteous Oppofition diftinguished by your Approbation: We feel the warmeft Gratitude for your pathetic Mediation in our Behalf with the Crown. It was indeed unavailing—but are you to blame? Mournful Experience tells us, that Petitions are often rejected, while the Sentiments and Conduct of the Petitioners entitle what they offer to a happier Fate.

That our Petitions have been treated with Difdain is now become the fmalleft Part of our Complaint : Ministerial Infolence is loft in ministerial Barbarity. It has, by an exertion peculiarly ingenious, procured those very Measures, which it laid us under the hard Neceffity of purfuing, to be fligmatized in Parliament as rebellious : It has employed additional Fleets and Armies for the infamous Purpose of compelling us to abandon them: It has plunged us in all the horrors and calamities of civil War: It has caufed the Treasure and Blood of Britons (formerly field and expended for far other Ends) to be fpilt and wasted in the execrable Design of fpreading flavery over Britifh America: It will not, however, accomplish its Aim: In the worft of Contingencies, a Choice will still be left, which it never can prevent us from making.

The peculiar Situation of your Island forbids your Affistance. But we have your good wishes.—From the good wishes of the Friends of Liberty and Mankind, we shall always derive Confolation.

ORDERED, That a fair Copy be made out, to be figned by the Prefident, and transmitted by the first Opportunity.

The Congress then refuming the report of the Committee of the whole, came to he following Resolutions.

RESOLVED, That a Body of Forces, not exceeding five thoufand, be kept up in the New-York Department, for the Purpole of defending that part of America, and for fecuring the Lakes, and protecting the Frontiers from Incursions or Invasions.

That

That a farther Sum, amounting to the Value of one Million of Spanish Milled Dollars be struck in Bills of Thirty Dollars each.

The Address to the People of Ireland being again read by Par ragraphs, was agreed to as follows :

To

To the People of Ireland. From the Delegates appointed by the United Colonies of New-Hamp/bire, Malfachufetts-Bay, Rhode-Island and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, New-York, New-Jerfey, Pennfylvania, the Lower Counties on Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North-Carolina, and South-Carolina, in General Congress at Philadelphia, the 10th of May, 1775.

Friends and Fellow Subjects !

As the important Conteft, into which we have been driven, is now become interesting to every European State, and particularly affects the Members of the Britifh Empire, we think it our Duty to addrefs you on the Subject. We are defirous, as is natural to injured Innocence, of possessing the good Opinion of the Virtuous and Humane.—We are peculiarly defirous of furnishing you with a true State of our Motives and Objects; the better to enable you to judge of our Conduct with Accuracy, and determine the Merits of the Controvers with Impartiality and Precision.

However incredible it may appear, that, at this enlightned Period, the Leaders of a Nation, which in every Age has facrificed Hecatombs of her braveft Patriots on the Altar of Liberty, fhould prefume gravely to affert, and, by Force of Arms, attempt to eftablifh an arbitrary Sway over the Lives, Liberties, and Property of their Fellow Subjects in America; it is neverthelefs a most deplorable and indisputable Truth.

These Colonies have, from the Time of their first Settlement, for near two Centuries, peaceably enjoyed those very Rights, of which the Ministry have, for ten Years past, endeavoured, by Fraud and by Violence to deprive them. At the Conclusion of the last War the Genius of England and the Spirit of Wildom, as if offended at the ungrateful Treatment of their Sons, withdrew from the British Counsels and left that Nation a Prey to a Kace of Ministers, with whom aucient English Honesty and Benevolence difdained to dwell. From that Period, Jealousty, Discontent, Oppression and Discord have raged among all his Majesty's Subjects; and filled every Part of his Dominions with Distress and Complaint.

Not content with our purchafug of Britain at her own Price, cloathing and a thoufand other Articles ufed by near three Millions of People on this vaft Continent; not fatisfied with the amazing Profits arifing from the Monopoly of our Trade, without giving us either Time to breathe after a long though glorious War, or the leaft Credit for the Blood and Treafure we have expended in it;—Notwithftanding the Zeal we had manifefted for the Service of our Sovereign, and the warmeft Attachment to the Conflitution of Britain and the People of England, a black and horrid Defign was formed, to convert us from Freemen into Slaves, from Subjects into Vaffals, and from Friends into Enemies. Taxes, Taxes, for the first Time fince we landed on the American Shores, were, without our Confent, impofed upon us; an unconflitutional Edict to compel us to furnish Necessaries for a standing Army, that we wished to see disbanded, was issued; and the Legiflature of New-York fulpended for refuling to comply with it. Our antient and ineftimable Right of Trial by Jury was, in many Inftances, abolifhed; and the common Law of the Land made to give place to Admiralty Jurifdictions. Judges were rendered, by the Tenure of their Commissions, entirely dependent on the Will of a Minister. New Crimes were arbitrarily created; and new Courts, unknown to the Conflitution, inflituted. Wicked and infidious Governors have been fet over us; and dutiful Petitions for the Removal of even the notorioufly infamous Governor Hutchinson, were branded with the opprobious Appellation of scandalous and defamatory. Hardy Attempts have been made under Colour of Parliamentary Authority to feize Americans, and carry them to Great-Britain to be tried for Offences committed in the Colonies. Ancient Charters have no longer remained facred. that of the Massachusetts-Bay was violated; and their Form of Government effentially mutilated and transformed. On Pretence of punishing a Violation of fome private Property, committed by a few difguifed Individuals, the populous and flourishing Town of Bofton was furrounded by Fleets and Armies; its Trade deftroyed; its Port blocked up; and thirty thousand Citizens fubjected to all the Miferies attending fo fudden a Convulfion in their commercial Metropolis; and to remove every Obstacle to the rigorous Execution of this Syftem of Oppreffion, an Act of Parliament was paffed evidently calculated to indemnify those, who might, in the Profecution of it, even embrue their Hands in the Blood of the Inhabitants.

Though preffed by fuch an Accumulation of undeferved Injuries America still remembered her Duty to her Sovereign. A Congress, confisting of Deputies from Twelve United Colonies affembled. They in the most respectful Terms laid their Grievances at the Foot of the Throne; and implored his Majefty's Interposition in their Behalf. They also agreed to fuspend all Trade with Great-Britain, Ireland, and the West-Indies; hoping, by this peaceable Mode of Opposition, to obtain that Juffice from the British Ministry which had been fo long folicited in vain .---And here permit us to affure you, that it was with the utmost Reluctance we could prevail upon ourfelves, to ceafe our commercial Connection with your Ifland .- Your Parliament had done us no wrong .- You had ever been friendly to the Rights of Mankind; and we acknowledge, with Pleafure and Gratitude, that your Nation has produced Patriots, who have nobly diffinguished themfelves in the Caufe of Humanity and America. On the other Hand, hand, we were not ignorant that the Labour and Manufactures of Ireland, like those of the Silk-Worm, were of little Moment to herfelf; but ferved only to give Luxury to those who neither Toil nor Spin .- We perceived that if we continued our Commerce with you, our agreement not to import from Britain would be fruitles and were therefore compelled to adopt a Meafure, to which no thing but abfolute Neceffity would have reconciled us. It gave us, however, fome confolation to reflect, that should it occasion much Diftres, the fertile Regions of America would afford you a fafe Afylum from Poverty, and in time from Oppreffion alfo; an Afylum, in which many thousands of your Countrymen have found Holpitality, Peace, and Affluence, and become united to us by all the Ties of Confanguinity, mutual Intereft, and Affecton. Nor did Congress ftop here :- Flattered by a pleasing Expectation, that the Juffice and Humanity which had fo long characterized the English Nation, would, on proper Application, afford us relief; they represented their Grievances in an affectionate Addrefs to their Brethren in Britain, and intreated their Aid and Interpolition in behalf of these Colonies.

The more fully to evince their refpect for their Sovereign, the unhappy Pcople of Bofton were requefted by the Congress to fubmit with Patience to their Fate; and all America united in a Refolution to abstain from every Species of Violence.—During this Period that devoted Town fuffered unfpeakably. Its Inhabitants were infulted and their Property violated. Still relying on the Clemency and Justice of his Majelty and the Nation, they permitted a few Regiments to take posseful of their Town, to furround it with fortifications; and to cut off all intercourse between them and their Friends in the Country.

With anxious Expectation did all America wait the Event of their Petition-All America laments its Fate.-Their Prince was deaf to their Complaints: And vain were all Attempts to imprefs him with a fense of the fufferings of his American Subjects, of the cruelty of their Talk-Masters, and of the many Plagues which impended over his Dominions. Inftead of directions for a candid Enquiry into our Grievances, infult was added to Oppreffion; and our long forbearance rewarded with the imputation of Cowardice. Our Trade with foreign States was prohibited; and an Act of Parliament paffed to prevent our even fishing on our own Coafts. Our peaceable Affemblies, for the purpole of confulting the common Safety, were declared Seditious; and our afferting the very Rights which placed the Crown of Great-Britain on the Heads of the three fucceffive Princes of the Houfe of Hanover, stiled Rebellion .- Orders were given to reinforce the Troops in America. The wild and barbarous Savages of the Wildernefs have been folicited by gifts to take up the Hatchet against us; and instigated to deluge our Settlements with the Blood of innocent and defencelels Women

Women and Children.—The whole Country was moreover alarmed with the horrors of domeftic Infurrections.—Refinements in Parental Cruelty, at which the Genius of Britain must blush ! Refinements which admit not of being even recited without Horror, or practifed without infamy ! We should be happy, were these dark Machinations the mere fuggestions of Suspicion.—We are forry to declare, that we are pollessed of the most authentic and indubitable Evidence of their reality.

The Ministry, bent on pulling down the Pillars of the Confitution, endeavoured to erect the Standard of Defpotifm in America; and if fuccessful, Britain and Ireland may shudder at the Confefequences !

Three of their most experienced Generals are fent to wage War with their Fellow-Subjects; and America is amazed to find the Name of Howe in the Catalogue of her Enemies:—She loved his Brother.

Defpairing of driving the Colonifts to refiftance by any other Means than actual Hostility, a Detachment of the Army at Boston marched into the Country in all the Array of War; and, unprovoked, fired upon, and killed feveral of the Inhabitants .- The neighbouring Farmers fuddenly affembled, and repelled the Attack. From this, all communication between the Town and Country was intercepted .- The Citizens petitioned the General for permiffion to leave the Town, and he promifed on furrendering their Arms, to permit them to depart with their other Effects. They accordingly furrendered their Arms, and the General violated his Faith .- Under various Pretences, Paffports were delayed and denyed; and many thousands of the Inhabitants are at this Day confined in the Town, in the utmost Wretchedness and Want. The Lame, the Blind, and the Sick, have indeed been turned out into the neighbouring Fields; and fome, eluding the Vigilance of the Sentries, have escaped from the Town, by fwiming to the adjacent Shores.

The War having thus began on the part of General Gage's Troops, the Country armed and embodied. The reinforcements from Ireland foon after arrived; a vigorous Attack was then made upon the Provincials.—In their March, the Troops furrounded the Town of Charlefforum, confifting of about four hundred Houfes then recently abandoned to efcape the Fury of a relentlefs Soldiery, Having plundered the Houfes, they fet fire to the Town, and reduced it to Afhes.—To this wanton Wafte of Property, unknown to civilized Nations, they were prompted the better to conceal their approach under cover of the Smoke. A fhocking Mixture of Cowardice and Cruelty, which then firft tarnifhed the luftre of the Britiflo Arms, when aimed at a Brother's Breaft !—But bleffed be God they were reftrained from committing farther Ravages, by the lofs of a very confiderable part of their Army, including many of of their most experienced Officers .- The loss of the Inhabitants was inconfiderable.

Compelled therefore to behold thoufands of our Countrymen imprifoned, and Men, Women, and Children involved in promifenous and unmerited Mifery.—When we find all Faith at an end, and facred Treaties turned into Tricks of State; when we perceive our Friends and Kinfmen maffacred, our Habitations plundered, our Houfes in flames, and their once happy Inhabitants fed only by the Hand of Charity;—who can blame us for endeavouring to reftrain the Progrefs of Defolation? who can cenfure our repelling the Attacks of fuch a barbarous Band? who, in fuch Circumftances, would not obey the great, the univerfal, the divine Law of Self-prefervation?

Though vilified as wanting Spirit, we are determined to behave like men—Though infulted and abufed, we wifh for reconciliation.—Though defamed as Seditious, we are ready to obey the Laws—And though charged with Rebellion, will cheerfully bleed in defence of our Sovereign in a rightcous Caufe.—What more can we fay?—What more can we offer ?

But we forbear to trouble you with a tedious Detail of the various and fruitlefs Offers and Applications we have repeatedly made, not for Penfions, for Wealth, or for Honours, but for the humble Boon of being permitted to poffers the fruits of honeft Induftry, and to enjoy that degree of Liberty, to which God and the Conflictution have given us an undoubted right.

Bleffed with an indiffoluble Union, with a variety of internal Refources, and with a firm reliance on the Juffice of the fupreme Difpofer of all human Events, we have no doubt of rifing fuperior to all the Machinations of evil and abandoned Minifters. We already anticipate the golden Period, when liberty, with all the gentle Arts of Peace and Humanity, fhall eftablifh her mild Dominion in this weftern World, and erect eternal Monuments to the Memory of those virtuous Patriots and Martyrs, who shall have fought and bled and fuffered in her Caufe.

Accept our most grateful Acknowledgments for the friendly difposition you have always shewn towards us.—We know that you are not without your Grievances.—We fympathize with you in your Distress, and are pleased to find that the Design of subjugating us, has perfuaded Administration to dispense to Ireland, fome vagrant Rays of ministerial Sunshine.—Even the tender Mercies of Government have long been cruel towards you.—In the rich Pastures of Ireland, many hungry Parricides have fed, and grown strong to labour in its Destruction. We hope the patient abiding of the Meek may not always be forgotten; and God grant that the iniquitous Schemes of extirpating Liberty from the British Empire may be foon defeated. But we should be wanting to ourfelves; we should be perfidious to Posterity; we should be unworthy unworthy that Anceftry from which we derive our defcent, fhould we fubmit with folded Arms to military Butchery and Depredation, to gratify the lordly Ambition, or fate the Avarice of a British Ministry. In defence of our Perfons and Properties, under actual Violation, we have taken up Arms; when that Violence shall be removed, and Hostilities cease on the part of the Aggreffors, they shall cease on our Part also. For the Atchievement of this happy Event, we confide in the good Offices of our Fellow-Subjects beyond the Atlantic. Of their friendly Difpofition we do not yet defpond; aware as they muft be, that they have nothing more to expect from the fame common Enemy, than the humble Favour of being laft devoured.

Adjourned till to-morrow at eight o'clock.

The Congress took into Confideration the Report of the Committee on the Resolve of the House of Commons, and the same being debated by Paragraphs, was agreed to as follows:

The feveral Affemblies of New-Jerfey, Pennfylvania, and Virginia, having referred to the Congress a Resolution of the House of Commons of Great-Britain, which Resolution is in these Words:

" Luna, 20° Die Feb. 1775.

" The Houfe in a Committee on the American Papers. Motion made, and Queftion proposed.

" That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that when the General Council and Affembly, or General Court of any of his Majefty's Provinces, or Colonies in America, shall propose to make Provision, according to the Condition, Circumstance, or Situation of fuch Province or Colony, for contributing their Proportion to the common Defence (fuch Proportion to be raifed under the Authority of the General Court, or General Affembly of fuch Province or Colony, and difpofable by Parliament) and shall engage to make Provision alfo, for the Support of the civil Government, and the Administration of Justice in fuch Province or Colony, it will be proper if fuch Propofal shall be approved by his Majefty and the two Houfes of Parliament, and for fo long as fuch Provifion shall be made accordingly, to forbear in Respect of fuch Province or Colony to lay any Duty, Tax, or Affeffment, or to impole any farther Duty, Tax, or Affeffment, except only fuch Duties as it may be expedient to continue to levy or impose, for the Regulation of Commerce; the net Produce ot the Duties laft mentioned, to be carried to the Account of fuch Province or Colony respectively."

The Congress took the faid Resolution into Confideration, and are thereupon of Opinion,

That the Colonies of America are entitled to the fole and exclufive Privilege of giving and granting their own Money : that this involves a Right of deliberating whether they will make any Gift for

what Purpofes it shall be made, and what shall be its amount; and that it is a high Breach of this Privilege for any Body of Men, extraneous to their Constitutions, to preferibe the Purpofes for which Money shall be levied on them, to take to themselves the Authority of judging of their Conditions, Circumstances and Situations, and of determining the Amount of the Contribution to be levied.

That as the Colonies poffefs a Right of appropriating their Gifts, fo are they entitled at all Times to enquire into their Application, to fee that they be not wafted among the Venal and Corrupt for the Purpofe of undermining the civil Rights of the Givers, nor yet be diverted to the Support of ftanding Armies, inconfiftent with their Freedom and fubverfive of their Quiet. To propofe therefore, as this Refolution does, that the Monies given by the Colonies fhall be fubject to the Difpofal of Parliament alone, is to propofe that they fhall relinquift this Right of Enquiry, and put it in the Power of others to render their Gifts ruinous, in Proportion as they are liberal.

That this Privilege of giving or of withholding our Monies, is an important Barrier against the undue Exertion of Prerogative, which, if left altogether without controul, may be exercised to our great Oppression; and all History show efficacious is its Intercession for Redress of Grievances and Re-establishment of Rights, and how Improvident it would be to part with so powerful a Mediator.

We are of Opinion that the Proposition contained in this Refolution is unreafonable and infidious : Unreafonable, becaufe, if we declare we accede to it, we declare without Refervation, we will purchafe the Favour of Parliament, not knowing at the fame Time at what Price they will pleafe to effimate their Favour; it is Infidious, becaufe, individual Colonies, having bid and bidden again, till they find the Avidity of the Seller too great for all their Powers to fatisfy; are then to return into Opposition, divided from their Sifter Colonies whom the Minister will have previously detached by a Grant of easier Terms, or by an artful Procrastination of a definitive Anfwer.

That the Sufpenfion of the Exercife of their pretended Power of Taxation being expressly made commenfurate with the continuance of our Gifts, thefe must be perpendent to make that fo. Whereas no Experience has shewn that a Gift of perpetual Revenue fecures a perpetual Return of Duty or of kind Disposition. On the Contrary, the Parliament itself, wifely attentive to this Observation, are in the established Practice of granting their Supplies from Year to Year only.

Defirous and determined as we are to confider, in the most difpaffionate View, every feeming Advance towards a Reconciliation made by the Britifh Parliament, let our Brethren of Britain reflect what what would have been the Sacrifice to Men of free Spirits had even fair Terms been proffered, as thefe infidious Propofals were with circumftances of Infult and Defiance. A Proposition to give our Money, accompanied with large Fleets and Armies, feems addrefied to our Fears rather than to our Freedom. With what Patience would Britons have received Articles of Treaty from any Power on Earth when borne on the Point of a Bayonet by military Plenipotentiaries?

We think the Attempt unneceffary to raife upon us by Force or by Threats our proportional Contributions to the common Defence, when all know, and themfelves acknowledge, we have fully contributed, whenever called upon to do fo in the Character of Freemen.

We are of Opinion it is not just that the Colonies should be required to oblige themselves to other Contributions, while Great-Britain posselves a Monopoly of their Trade. This of itself lays them under heavy Contribution. To demand, therefore, additional Aids in the Form of a Tax, is to demand the double of their equal Proportion, if we are to contribute equally with the other Parts of the Empire, let us equally with them enjoy free Commerce with the whole World. But while the Reftrictions on our Trade fruct to us the Refources of Wealth, is it just we should bear all other Burthens equally with those to whom every Refource is open?

We conceive that the Britif Parliament has no Right to intermeddle with our Provisions for the Support of civil Government, or Administration of Justice. The Provisions we have made are fuch as pleafe ourfelves, and are agreeable to our own Circumftances: They answer the fubstantial Purposes of Government and of Justice, and other Purposes than these should not be answered. We do not mean that our People shall be burthened with oppreffive Taxes, to provide Sinecures for the Idle or the Wicked, under Colour of providing for a civil Lift. While Parliament pursue their Plan of civil Government within their own Jurisdiction, we also hope to pursue ours without Molestation.

We are of opinion the Proposition is altogether unfatisfactory, because it imports only a fuspension of the Mode, not a renunciation of the pretended Right to Tax us: because too it does not propose to repeal the feveral Acts of Parliament passed for the Purposes of restraining the Trade, and altering the Form of Government of one of our Colonies; extending the Boundaries and changing the Government of Quebec; enlarging the Jurifdiction of the Courts of Admiralty and Vice-Admiralty; taking from us the Rights of Trial by a Jury of the Vicinage, in Cases affecting both Life and Property; transporting us into other Countries to be tried for criminal Offences; exempting by mock-trial the Murderers of Colonists from Punishment; and quartering Soldiers on us in times of profound Peace. Nor do they renounce the Power of fufpending our own Legiflatures, and for legiflating for us themfelves in all cafes whatfoever. On the contrary, to fhew they mean to difcontinuance of Injury, they pafs Acts, at the very time of holding out this Proposition, for restraining the Commerce and Fisheries of the Provinces of New-England, and for interdicting the Trade of other Colonies with all foreign Nations, and with each other. This proves unequivocally they mean not to relinquish the Exercise of indiferiminate Legislation over us.

Upon the whole, this Proposition feems to have been held up to the World, to deceive it into a belief that there was nothing in difpute between us but the Mode of levying Taxes; and that the Parliament having now been fo good as to give up this, the Colonies are unreafonable if not perfectly fatisfied : Whereas, in truth, our Adverfaries still claim a right of demanding ad libitum, and of taxing us themfelves to the full amount of their demand, if we do comply with it. This leaves us without any thing we can call Property. But, what is of more importance, and what in this Propofal they keep out of fight, as if no fuch point was now in contest between us, they claim a right to alter our Charters and eftablish Laws, and leave us without any fecurity for our Lives or Liberties. The Proposition feems also to have been calculated more particularly to lull into fatal Security our well-affected Fellow-Subjects on the other fide the Water, till time fhould be given for the Operation of those Arms, which a British Minister pronounced would inftantaneoufly reduce the " cowardly" Sons of America to unreferved fubmiffion. But when the World reflects, how inadequate to Justice are these vaunted Terms ; when it attends to the rapid and bold fucceffion of injuries, which, during a courfe of eleven years, have been aimed at these Colonies; when it reviews the pacific and respectful Expostulations, which, during that whole time, were the fole Arms we opposed to them; when it observes that our Complaints were either not heard at all, or were answered with new and accumulated Injuries; when it recollects that the Minifter himfelf on an early occasion declared, " that he would never treat with America, till he had brought her to his Feet," and that an avowed Partifan of Ministry has more lately denounced against us the dreadful Sentence " delenda eft Carthago," that this was done in Prefence of a British Senate, and being unreproved by them, must be taken to be their own Sentiment, (especially as the Purpose has already in part been carried into Execution, by their Treatment of Boston and burning of Charlestown;) when it confiders the great Armaments with which they have invaded us, and the Circumftances of Cruelty with which thefe have commenced and profecuted Hoftilities; when thefe Things, we fay, are laid together and attentively confidered, can the World be deceived into an Opinion that we are unreasonable, or can it hefitate tate to believe with us, that nothing but our own Exertions may defeat the ministerial Sentence of Death or abject Submission.

ON MOTION MADE, RESOLVED, That Mr. Langdon, Mr. J. Adams, Mr. Hopkins, Mr. Deane, Mr. Clinton, Mr. Grane, Doctor Franklin, Mr. Rodney, Mr. Johnfon, Mr. Henry, Mr. Herwes, Mr. Gadfden, and Mr. Hall, be a Commitee in the Recefs of Congrefs, to make Enquiry in all the Colonies after Virgin Lead and Leaden Ore, and the beft Methods of collecting, Imelting, and refining it.

RESOLVED, That the above named Gentlemen be a Committee, in the Receis of the Congress, to enquire into the cheapest and eafieft Methods of making Salt in these Colonies.

The commanders of the fhips of the thirteen united colonies, are to take care that divine fervice be performed twice a day on board, aud a fermon preached on Sundays, unlefs bad weather or other extraordinary accidents prevent.

If any fhall be heard to fwear, curfe or blafpheme the name of God, the commander is flrictly enjoined to punifh them for every offence, by caufing them to wear a wooden collar, or fome other fhameful badge of diffinction for fo long time as he shall judge proper. If he be a commissioned officer, he shall forfeit one shilling for each offence, and a warrant or inferior officer fix pence. The commander is never by his own authority to difcharge a commiftion or warrant officer, nor to punifh or firike him, but he may fufpend or confine them, and when he comes in the way of a commander in chief apply to him for holding a court-martial.

The officer who commands by accident of the captain or commanders abfence (unlefs he be abfent for a time by leave) fhall not order any correction, but confinement, and upon the captains return on board, he shall then give an account of his reasons for fo doing.

vice, taking care that the men be punctually paid for the fame. The like power is given to captains of fingle fhips in cafes of abfolute neceffity.

If there should be a want of pork, the captain is to order three pounds of beef to be iffued to the men in lieu of two pounds of pork.

The Congress refumed the confideration of the report of the committee on proclamations, which being debated by paragraphs, was agreed to as follows:

We the delegates of the thirteen United Colonies in North-America, have taken into our most ferious confideration, a proclamation iffued from the court of St. James's on the twenty-third day of August last. The name of Majesty is used to give it a fanction and influence; and, on that account, it becomes a matter of importance to wipe off, in the name of the people of thefe United Colonies, the afperfions which it is calculated to throw upon our caufe; and to prevent, as far as poffible, the undeferved punishments, which it is deligned to prepare for our friends. We are accufed of " forgetting the allegiance which we owe to the power that has protected and fuftained us." Why all this ambiguity and obscurity in what ought to be fo plain and obvious, as that he who runs may read it ? What allegiance is it that we forget ? Allegiance to parliament? We never owed-we never owned it. Allegiance to our king ? Our words have ever avowed it, our conduct has ever been confistent with it. We condemn, and with arms in our hands,-a refource which freemen will never part with,-we oppose the claim and exercise of unconstitutional powers, to which neither the crown or parliament were ever entitled. By the British conftitution, our best inheritance, rights, as well as duties, defcend upon us: We cannot violate the latter by defending the former: we should act in diametrical opposition to both, if we permitted the claims of the British parliament to be established, and the measures purfued in confequence of those claims to be carried into execution among us. Our fagacious anceftors provided mounds mounds against the innundation of tyranny and lawless power on. one fide, as well as against that of faction and licentiousness on the other. On which fide has the breach been made? Is it objected against us by the most inveterate and the most uncandid of our enemies, that we have opposed any of the just prerogatives of the crown, or any legal exertion of those prerogatives ? Why then are we accufed of forgetting our allegiance ? we have performed our duty : We have relifted in those cases, in which the right to refift is ftipulated as expresly on our part, as the right to govern is, in other cafes, stipulated on the part of the crown. The breach of allegiance is removed from our refiftance as far as tyranny is removed from legal government. It is alledged, that " we have proceeded to an open and avowed rebellion.". In what does this rebellion confift. It is thus defcribed-" Arraying ourfelves in hoftile manner to withftand the execution of the law, and traiteroufly preparing, ordering, and levying war against the king." We know of no laws binding on us, but fuch as have been transmitted to us by our anceftors, and fuch as have been confented to by ourfelves or our reprefentatives elected for that purpofe. What laws, ftampt with these characters, have we withstood ? We have indeed defended them; and we will rifque every thing, do every thing, and fuffer every thing in their defence. To fupport our laws, and our liberties established by our laws, we have prepared, ordered, and levied war. But is this traiteroufly, or against the king? We view him as the conftitution reprefents him. That tells us he can do no wrong. The cruel and illegal attacks, which we oppofe, have no foundation in the royal authority. We will not, on our part, lofe the diffinction between the king and his ministers : happy would it have been for some former princes, had it always been preferved on the part of the crown.

Befides all this we obferve, on this part of the proclamation, that " rebellion" is a term undefined and unknown in the law; it might have been expected that a proclamation, which by the British conflitution has no other operation than merely that of enforcing what is already law, would have had a known legal bafis to have rested upon. A correspondence between the inhabitants of Great-Britain and their brethren in America, produced, in better times, much fatisfaction to individuals, and much advantage to the public. By what criterion shall one, who is unwilling to break off this correspondence, and is, at the fame time, anxious not to expofe himfelf to the dreadful confequences threatened in this proclamation-by what criterion shall he regulate his conduct ? He is admonifhed not to carry on correspondence with the perfons now in rebellion in the colonies. How shall he afcertain ' who are in rebellion, and who are not.' He confults the law to learn the nature of the fuppofed crime: the law is filent upon the fubject. This, in a country where it has been often faid, and formerly with juftice, juffice, that the government is by law and not by men, might render him perfectly eafy. But proclamations have been fometimes dangerous engines in the hands of those in power; information is commanded to be given to one of the fecretaries of flate of all per-fons " who fhall be found carrying on correspondence with the perfons in rebellion, in order to bring to condign punishment the authors, perpetrators, or abettors, of fuch dangerous defigns." Let us fuppofe, for a moment, that fome perfons in the colonies are in rebellion, and that those who carry on correspondence with them, might learn by fome rule, which Britons are bound to know, how to difcriminate them, does it follow that all correspondence with them deferves to be punished. It might have been intended to apprize them of their danger, and to reclaim them from their crimes. By what law does a correspondence with a criminal transfer or communicate his guilt? We know that those who aid and adhere to the king's enemies, and those who correspond with them in order to enable them to carry their defigns into effect, are criminal in the eye of the law. But the law goes no farther. Can proclamations, according to the principles of reason and juftice, and the conftitution, go farther than the law?

But, perhaps, the principles of reafon and juffice, and the conflitution will not prevail: experience fuggefts to us the doubt. If they fhould not, we muft refort to arguments drawn from a very different fource. We therefore, in the name of the people of thefe United Colonies, and by authority, according to the pureft maxims of reprefentation, derived from them, declare, that whatever punifiment fhall be inflicted upon any perfons in the power of our enemies for favouring, aiding, or abetting the caufe of American liberty, fhall be retaliated in the fame kind and the fame degree upon thofe in our power, who have favoured, aided, or abetted, or fhall favour, aid, or abet the fyftem of minifterial opprefilon. The effential difference between our caufe and that of our enemies, might juffify a feverer punifiment : the law of retaliation will unqueftionably warrant one equally fevere.

We mean not, however, by this declaration, to occafion or to multiply punifhments: our fole view is to prevent them. In this unhappy and unnatural controverfy, in which Britons fight againft Britons, and the defcendants of Britons, let the calamities immediately incident to a civil war fuffice. We hope additions will not from wantonnefs be made to them on one fide: "we fhall regret the neceffity, if laid under the neceffity, of making them on the other.
