

East Hampd. 24th of 30th 1753
Rev. and dear Brother, our Friend and Brother

Mr. Curran is now at my House, and came here with a View to proceed on his Way to the Presbytery's Committee appointed to dismiss and recommmend him; — but I am fully persuaded (for some Reasons) that he had best proceed no farther at present. — I will take the Liberty to think that it will <sup>not</sup> be best for him to have a Dismission at all. If he should, or should only have a Recommendation, by all means I should think this best done, at our stated Meeting, the next Wednesday in Oct.

I have a Thousand Things I want to converse with you upon, and long for a personal Interview; but the Lord only know when this will be, or whether ever. — The Lord is yet with us here, our things are comfortable. — over yours in the Love of Love, J. B. Hall.
