

The Princeton Theological Seminary Bulletin

VOLUME II

AUGUST 1908

NUMBER 2

Necrological Report

Published by
The Princeton Theological Seminary

NECROLOGICAL REPORT

PRESENTED TO THE

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

OF

PRINCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

AT ITS ANNUAL MEETING

MAY 5th, 1908.

BY THE SECRETARY.

1873, to July, 1874, and the churches of Prairie and Richmond, Mo., as stated supply from May, 1875, to December, 1876. In 1886 he became professor of Moral Philosophy in Washington and Lee University, and continued to discharge the duties of this chair until his death, which occurred April 14, 1907, after a few days' illness, in Lexington, Mo., in the 70th year of his age. He was buried at Lexington, Mo. He received the degree of D.D. from Westminster College, Mo., in 1883, and that of LL.D. from Central University, Ky., in 1891. Dr. Quarles served Westminster College as a canvassing financial agent on two occasions. From January, 1874, to May, 1877, he was deputy county clerk of Lafayette County, Mo. He published a number of pamphlets and articles in the religious press, together with many sermons in the daily and weekly papers.

He was married Oct. 11, 1859, in Eldon, Mo., to Caroline Wallace Field, who survives him.

SAMUEL BAYARD DOD,

Son of Albert Baldwin and Caroline (Bayard) Dod, was born Dec. 3, 1838, in Princeton, N. J. He made a public confession of his faith in the First Presbyterian Church of Princeton at the age of sixteen. His preparatory studies were pursued in the Edgehill School in Princeton, under Doctors Thomas and William Cattell, and he graduated from Princeton University in 1857. He then spent a year and a half in study at the University of Berlin, Germany. Entering the Seminary at Princeton in 1858, he took the full three years' course there, graduating in 1861. He was licensed by the Presbytery of New Brunswick, Oct. 2, 1860, and ordained by the Presbytery of Hudson (O. S.) in June, 1862, being at the same time installed pastor of the church at Monticello, N. Y. This relation was dissolved in 1864. His only other pastorate was that of the church in Wilkesbarre, Pa., from 1864 until Sept. 27, 1868, when he resigned to take charge of the estate of the late E. A.

Stevens. As a trustee of that estate he had the oversight of the founding and the direction of the Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken, N. J. He resided in Hoboken from 1868 to 1885, and in East Orange, N. J., for some years after that date. He later took up his residence in South Orange, where he died April 19, 1907, of heart disease, in the 69th year of his age. Mr. Dod was buried in Rosedale Cemetery, Orange, N. J. Mr. Dod was a trustee of Princeton University from 1882 until his death; he was president of the Board of Trustees of Stevens Institute at Hoboken from 1868 until his death; he was also a member of the Board of Managers of the Geological Survey of New Jersey, president of the Board of Trustees of the First Presbyterian Church of South Orange, and held many other positions of trust. He was the organizer of the Hudson Trust Company, President of the First National Bank of Hoboken, of the Hoboken Land Improvement Company, and at various times was president of the Hudson Street Railway Company and the Hoboken Ferry. He travelled much and was interested in art and music. In conjunction with his sister, Mrs. Stevens, he endowed the chair of Mathematics in Princeton University in honor of his father. He published a memorial sermon on Joseph Henry, and three books, Stubble or Wheat, 1888; A Highland Chronicle, 1892; A Hillside Parish, 1893, besides many contributions to the magazines.

He was twice married: (1) Oct. 22, 1862, in Princeton, N. J., to Isabella W. Green, who died Dec. 17, 1883; (2) March 31, 1885, in Hoboken, N. J., to Eleanor Wall, who with one son and two daughters by his first marriage survives him.

CHARLES DUNLAP,

Son of William and Sarah (Nevius) Dunlap, was born Dec. 13, 1832, in Northville, Mich. He made a public confession of his faith in the Presbyterian church at Northville, at the age of twenty-three. His preparatory studies were pursued