

Oxford. Saturday Sept 2nd

Dear Brother,

We arrived safe yesterday evening, and found the little girls all very well.

Charles, was "very good" appearing to be much delighted with the ride, and is quite lively this morning. Sister is quite well. I have not yet made my appearance, but intend commencing my "espionage" this morning.

Eliza seems appeased by my much disappointment that you did not return with us.

My respects to the friends in Louisiana (if they inquire).

Your Brother
Alexander.
