

ANOIENT AND MODERN.

HYMNS OF THE GHURCH.

FROM THE LIBRARY OF

REV. LOUIS FITZ GERALD BENSON, D. D.

BEQUEATHED BY HIM TO

THE LIBRARY OF

princeton theological seminary SCC 4601

Unix prelit

Light 10- 33 44 18 60 74 90 104 127 129 137 164 176 198 244 27 264 272 276 325 340 Lader 19, 21 25? 28-31 33 34 36 47 17 370

Truck 1920 My how estimat Longo 152 394

new 56, 82, 89 103 108 301 312 320,

D alan 1 206 Ing fille 313-

To Rev. J. A. Hoyt With respects Somisville Ky Sume 20 1872, ANCIENT AND MODERN,

FOR THE USE OF ALL WHO LOVE TO SING THE PRAISES OF

GOD IN CHRIST,

IN THE FAMILY, THE SCHOOL, OR THE CHURCH;

WITH A

DISCOURSE ON MUSIC

AS A

DIVINE ORDINANCE OF WORSHIP.

BY

SAMUEL R. WILSON, D.D., PASTOR FIRST PRESEVTERIAN CHURCH, LOUISVILLE,

CINCINNATI: ROBERT CLARKE & CO., 65 West Fourth Street. 1872. Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1872, By SAMUEL R. WILSON, D.D., In the office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington.

TO THE MEMORY

Of my NOBLE AND VENERATED FATHER, who, in the Morning and Evening Worship of a HAPPY HOME, taught me to love and to sing the Songs of Zion, this Collection of the HYMNS OF THE CHURCH is affectionately INSCRIBED.

Prefatory Note.

It is not the intention in offering this collection of Hymns to the Church to supersede or interfere with the books used by the several denominations of Christians, but to supply a want felt by many Pastors in these various portions of the Church. There are a large number of Hymns, both ancient and modern, of the highest order, some of which are found in all the Hymn Books in use, but very many of which are not in any of those books. These hymns are eminently adapted both to excite and to express devotional feeling. And are suited alike to the Family Circle, the Prayer Meeting, the Sabbath School, and the Assemblies of the whole Congregation. It has been the object of the compiler of this volume to bring together some of the choicest of these hymns in a form suitable to general use. In addition, a Tune has been carefully selected as adapted to the style and sentiment of the Hymn to which it is appropriated. The aim has been to find tunes plain, substantial, and of an elevated character, and easily learned by the people. How far success has been attained in this very difficult part of the work, those who may use the Book will be able to judge. No doubt some changes for the better will be suggested by experience. But when once a Tune is found to be well suited to a Hymn, let it be always sung to that hymn. Thus, Tune and Hymn become identified with each other, and the result will be most happy in promoting good singing by the whole body of worshipers in the Church. Most certainly must this so desirable a result follow if the same hymns and tunes used in the Prayerroom and the Church shall be sung around the fireside of Home, and in the Sabbath School. Both parents and children will then learn to speak the same language of praise, and the voices in harmony go up from all in the House of God. The hope of promoting, in some degree, this desirable end, has prompted to the undertaking this work. And should any success, by the blessing of God, be granted to the labor, this will be esteemed a sufficient reward.

MUSIC

AS A

DIVINE ORDINANCE OF WORSHIP.

PSALM XXXIII: 1-3.

Rejoice in the Lord, ye Righteous: For praise is comely for the upright. Praise the Lord with harp: Sing unto Him with the psaltery, An instrument of ten strings. Sing unto Him a new song; Play skillfully with a loud noise.

THE religion of the Bible has its origin in the love of God, and in its effects makes manifest His infinite benevolence. In "bringing many sons unto glory" through Jesus Christ, God has designed to show forth His own perfections and promote the highest happiness of man. The Redeemer not only saves from death in sin, and gives shelter from "the wrath to come" to those who flee to Him for refuge, He also secures them to an inheritance incorruptible, undefiled, and that fadeth not away. He not only sets before them "many great and precious promises," but He also gives to them a present earnest and foretaste of these glorious things. He calms the restless spirit with peace, inspires the heart with hope that can not make ashamed. causes man to be joyful even in the midst of sorrow, and puts a new song into his mouth, even praise unto the God who saves. The Christian receives the oil of joy instead of mourning, and the garments of praise for the spirit of heaviness. Though he still must suffer, he rejoices; though he sighs, yet for all that he sings.

So far, then, from this holy religion having anything either in its principles, nature, or tendency to diminish the happiness of men, it is quite the contrary. Wherever it is truly received "in the love of it," it cherishes and elevates the social affections, expands the intellect, and refines the taste. It sanctifies every lawful enjoyment and ennobles every useful occupation, whilst it calls into full play all the faculties of the soul and gives ample scope for the exercise of all the powers of mind and body.

(v)

Among those faculties with which God has endowed his creature man, in the use of which he can honor God and derive enjoyment to himself, the faculty of speech takes a foremost place. And no instrument can be compared to the tongue and voice in their adaptation to show forth the praises of the Creator and minister to the delight of man himself. Indeed, the organs of the human voice combine all instruments in one, and far surpass them all. It is for this reason that David, the royal poet and sweet singer in Israel, so frequently speaks of his voice and tongue as his "GLORY." Take for example the following: Psalm xvi: 9. My GLORY rejoiceth. Ps. xxx: 12. That my GLORY may sing praise to Thee, and not be silent. Ps. lvii: 7, 8. My heart is fixed; oh God, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise. Awake up my GLORY; awake psaltery and harp. Ps. cvii: 1. Oh God, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with my GLORY.

And that, in thus speaking of the organs of speech and song, David uttered what God approved, is evident. For not only has God declared His complacency in praises offered to Him in hymned words —but He has put the highest honor upon the tongue and voice in the consecration of them to His special service in proclaiming His Truth and celebrating His worship. And then, on the other hand, no sins are more distinctly condemned than those of the tongue, and no social vices are more abhorrent to God than those which are accompanied and stimulated by the degradation of music and turning man's cLORY into shame.

In order to learn the high estimate that the God of Christianity has set upon Music and Song, and the claim He makes to their use in honoring and worshiping Him, we have but to open the Bible and read. In every part of it we find the same testimony touching the use or abuse of these admirable gifts. From the Genesis to the Apocalypse—from the first Sabbath song when "the morning stars sang together," and all the sons of God shouted for joy over the finished creation, down to the opening splendor of the Eternal Sabbath when the Sons of Glory shall break forth into singing over the perfected new Creation. Everywhere in these holy oracles the Spirit of God, by Prophet and by Apostle, has condemned the maxims and the practice of those who indulge in inconsiderate gaiety and yield to the seductive influence of licentious melody. And everywhere the voice of the same Divine Paraclete has taught the Children of Zion to make "a joyful noise unto their King," to "serve the Lord with gadness, and come before His presence with singing," to "praise the Lord with harp, to sing unto Him a new song, and play skillfully with a loud noise."

Thus the Christian is to offer unto his Redeemer God, the sacrifices of praise, even "the calves of his lips," and to aspire to the pure an J exalting pleasures of sacred harmony.

It is upon this theme I make a few observations, as one of the greatest practical importance to the whole church. And what I desire at this time to say upon this subject will relate chiefly to the ORIGIN, OBLIGATION, and EFFECTS of Sacred Harmony, or MUSIC as an Ordinance of God.

It is of this that the Psalmist is speaking in the precept of the text. For his words have more immediate respect to the music than to the song. This will appear plain from a glance at the verses as they stand at the head of this Discourse. They call upon the Righteous to "praise the LORD with HARP;" "to SING unto Him with the PSALTERY of ten strings;" to "SING unto Him a new song;" to "PLAY SKILL-FULLY, with a LOUD NOISE."

I. THE ORIGIN OF SACRED HARMONY IS FOUND IN THE CONSTITUTION OF MAN.

The organization both of his body and his mind renders Man capable of cultivating and enjoying the melody and harmony of musical numbers. The beautiful structure of the ear affords access for those harmonious sounds by which the delicate nerves are thrilled with sensations of delight. The marvelous structure of the vocal organs gives power to express the thoughts and emotions of the soul in the flowing numbers of poetry and song. And the soul finds the best expression of its deepest and strongest emotions, its saddest and its most joyous feelings, its purest and most elevated conceptions, in the cadence of words or of measured sounds. Hence, Music is a kind of universal language. All nations on the globe, however diversified in speech or manners, are alike sensible to its influence. The most rude and savage, as well as the refined and civilized, amongst men have exercised their powers to invent and to perform in this admirable art. And there are none so degraded as not in some degree to understand and relish its eloquent expressions. Whilst the higher men have risen in the scale of mental and moral improvement, the more has their capacity for the enjoyment of melody been increased, and the more have they striven to render music subservient to culture and happiness. In the tent of the shepherd, in the palace of kings, in the schools of philosophers, amidst the shock of embattled hosts, and in the peaceful worship of God, the whole current of human emotion has ever been wont to yield itself to the stirring or soothing influence of pipe and harp, of voice and song.

MUSIC AN ORDINANCE OF WORSHIP.

The exercise of the religious faculty, more than any other, draws after it all the emotions of the soul. In the contemplation of the wonders of ereative energy and the beauties of the works of God; in meditating upon the power, justice, and goodness displayed in His government of creatures, and in striving after some true eoneeption of the Divine nature, the reason is expanded, full play is given to the imagination, and the soul is roused and fired with the emotions of hope and fear, of love and adoration, toward the Great Author of nature and source of all good. And the adoration thus excited spontaneously bursts forth in poetry and song. Thus, Milton has struck upon the true source of saered harmony in depicting the devotions of the first pair:

Lowly they bow'd adoring, and began Their orisons, each morning duly paid In fit strains, pronounced or sung Unmeditated, such prompt eloquence Flowed from their lips. More tuncable than needed lute or harp To add more sweetness.

The minds of our first parents, pure and untainted by sin, were no doubt filled with rapture as they surveyed the works of their Creator amid the holy splendors of Paradise. Their joyous and enraptured emotions would naturally overflow in strains of melody. The first use of music was to hail the Sabbath morn of creation and eelebrate the praise of God who "spake and it was done," who "commanded and it stood fast." And so I may say of Music, she is the Offspring of Nature, the Daughter of Love, the Sister of Poetry, and the Handmaid of Religion.

II. THE OBLIGATION OF SACRED HARMONY, OR THE DUTY OF EMPLOYING MUSIC IN THE WORSHIP OF GOD.

This obligation is manifest, and may be enforced by a consideration of the origin of the Musical Art itself. That origin has been traced to the powers and capacities with which man has been endowed, of showing forth the praise of God his Creator in harmonious sounds, and of deriving the most refined pleasure from this religious exercise. And has God gifted us with faculties which we must not or may not use in His service? Are the ear and the tongue and the voice not to be sanctified to the praise of Him who has made them the glory of man's frame and the organs of unspeakable delight? Surely no one can assent to such a proposition unless he has already begun to say in his heart, "There is no God." The Theist and the Christian must both agree in the sentiment expressed by the sacred poet:

viii

t

MUSIC AN ORDINANCE OF WORSHIP.

> "With all my powers of heart and tongue, I'll praise my Maker in my song; Angels shall hear the notes I raise, Approve the song, and join the praise."

The testimony of history confirms the correctness of the view I have expressed. The religious faculty has found a means of culture and a vehicle of manifestation amongst all nations in measured words and tones. Music has made a part of the religious worship of the rudest tribes, whilst it has adorned and enlivened and elevated the devotions of the most civilized nations. It is a deep-rooted and universal sentiment of mankind that hymned praise ought to be offered to the Deity. Why is this? I answer, either because, it is prompted by the instinctive feelings of man's nature; or because reason has clearly announced its propriety, or because express revelation from God has enjoined it. Or it may be because of these three influences combined. In either case the obligation to worship God with song and harp is manifest and indubitable.

This duty is enforced by an authority higher than instinct, tradition, or reason-an authority to which every Christian will bow with reverent and unquestioning obedience. This authority is God speaking in the living oracle of Holy Scripture. The utterances of this oracle upon the subject we are considering are full, explicit, and abundant. Both by approved example and reiterated precept, the Spirit of God in the Word has inculcated the use of music, in all its varied forms, as a part of worship acceptable to God. This plain and direct sanction was necessary to secure this valuable art to the service of true devotion against a very plausible objection. This Art, it might be said, was indeed pure in its origin, but man has so perverted it by unhallowad abuse, as to make it no longer fit for the service of a God who abhors the polluted in sacrifice. "Sublime and celestial were the anthems of holy and innocent beings when nature had not yet languished at the sight of sin, but bloomed and glowed before them in the unsullied luster of its Eden charms. But at the presence of sin the beauty of Paradise faded; and the fall of man introduced a sad change in the music of mortals. Harmony soon shaped itself to the modulations of sorrow, learned to waft the sigh of the wretched, and poured forth the melting strains of pity and of grief. Music was no longer the sole companion of devotion. The warsong roused the courage of the hero and animated the sufferer to patience. The dirge wept at the tomb of departed friends. The pastoral cheered the watchful hours of the wandering shepherd, and soothed the solitude of the languishing swain." But the change went far beyond all this. Soon the divine art of music was degraded to the polluted purposes of folly, luxury, and vice. Poesy and song were made to serve at the altar of impure love and to speak the language and stimulate the ardor of guilty passion.

From this sad and sinful perversion of music it might have been argued that it was no longer fitting for the pure worship of a holy God. But the argument will not bear the test of sound reasoning, and the objection is sufficiently answered by the practice of the purest worshipers from the remotest times and the express command of God to honor Him with the praises of voice and of tongue.

The first glorious manifestation of the power of Jehovah in giving triumph to His chosen people over their mighty and implacable enemies was celebrated in that most ancient Te Deum laudamus, the song of Moses and Israel at the Red Sea. "Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the Lord:

> " I will sing unto the Lord, For he hath triumphed gloriously! The horse and his rider Hath he thrown into the sea. The Lord is my strength and song, And he is become my salvation! The Lord is a man of war, Jehovah is his name !"

"And Miriam, the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances. And Miriam answered them:

> "Sing ye to the Lord, For he hath triumphed gloriously! The horse and his rider Hath he thrown into the sea."

From this dark night of Egypt's doom and the morning dawn of Israel's unfading glory, music was consecrated by the people of God to its highest and noblest uses, and became forever after a principal part of the worship of Jehovah, their Redeemer. If, under the former dispensation, the Church celebrated some signal deliverance from trouble and danger, or came with devout adoration into the sanctuary, or kept holy day and solemn feast before the Lord, or gave lessons of wisdom, or with prophetic foresight declared the counsel of God concerning things to come, she never failed to call in the aid of vocal and instrumental harmony "to give energy to her instructions, expression to her joys, and life to her devotions." Listen to these stirring strains in which the Church calls upon all to unite in the chorus of her praises: "Make a joyful noise, all ye lands; serve the Lord with gladness; come before his presence with singing; enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise; for it is good to sing praises unto our God; for it is pleasant, and praise is comely. Sing unto the Lord a new song and his praise in the congregation of saints; sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving; sing praise upon the harp unto our God." "Let Israel rejoice in him that made him; let the children of Zion be joyful in their King; let them praise his name in the dance; let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp!"

And when we pass over from the former to the present dispensation, we do not find that the Church has left behind her the voice of praise. When from desolate Jerusalem she went forth to bear the glad tidings of her Redeemer's love to the Gentiles, and invite them to the feast he had prepared, she took with her her timbrel and harp and tuneful voice, that with them she might teach the nations to sing the New Song:

> "Unto him who hath loved us And washed us from our sins In his own blood; And hath made us Kings and priests unto God And his Father, To him be glory and dominion For ever and ever. Amen."

In the New Testament scriptures example and precept unite, as in the Old Testament, to inculcate the use of sacred harmony in the Church as an abiding ordinance of God and means of grace.

When Jesus made his entry into Jerusalem, six days before his crucifixion, the people met him with palms and with songs of exultation, while the children in the temple took up the chorus of praise, and sang:

"Hosanna to the Son of David ! Hosanna in the highest !"

And when it was demanded of him by the Pharisees that he should rebuke their singing, he refused, and said to them: "I tell you that if these should hold their peace the stones would immediately cry out." Our blessed Lord himself led the choir of the holy Apostles at the close of the Last Supper. "And when they had sung an hymn they went out into the Mount of Olives." Paul and Silas soothed their sufferings, and cheered the gloom of their prison at Philippi by singing praises at midnight, so loud and sweet that the prisoners heard and wondered.

It is this Apostle, whose voice first broke the dreary stillness of a Roman dungeon with the music of sacred melody, who writes to the Christians of Colosse: "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord;" and to the saints at Ephesus, "Be filled with the Spirit, speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing, and making melody in your hearts to the Lord." And to the Hebrews he writes, "By him (Jesus) therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name." And James echoes and confirms the words of Paul, "Is any merry, let him sing psalms."

Surely no one with such an array of Scripture proof before him will question the propriety or duty of praising and worshiping God with audible harmony.

But perhaps some one may ask: Is this harmony to be made by human voices alone, or may instruments be also employed in the worship of Jehovah?

At what time Instrumental Music was first introduced into the worship of the true God we have no certain knowledge. We have seen it already used in celebrating the praises of Jehovah, the Warrior King of Heaven, who had triumphed over the pride and power of the Egyptian oppressor. And from that time forward instruments of music continued to be employed, both in the public and private devotions of the sincere worshipers of God, as calculated to enkindle religious emotion, and add to the pleasures of a hearty worship.

The Prophets of Israel assisted their meditations with the skill of the musician, and gave instructions, or uttered predictions in poetic numbers to the sound of the tabret or pipe. We read of a college of prophets who prophesied "with a Psaltery, and a Tabret, and a Harp." And when Jehoshaphat came to Elisha that he might inquire of Jehovah in his distress and danger, it is recorded that Elisha said: "Bring me a Minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the Lord came upon him," and he announced the victory of the allied kings over the Moabites.

Under David, music in the worship of God reached its highest degree of perfection. As the Shepherd son of Jesse, he had already won for himself a name as the sweet singer and the skillful player.

xii

As the princely Hero of Israel, the father and founder of the most royal and enduring of all dynasties, he not only gave to the Church her inspired psalmody, but was the composer of music and the inventor of instruments with which to praise the Lord. Much of his time and labor were employed in the work of perfecting this part of the worship of God. When he brought up the Ark of the Covenant from the house of Obededom to the royal city, he selected some most skilled, and appointed them under the direction of Heman and Jeduthun, with trumpets and cymbals for those that should make a sound, and with musical instruments of God, "to give thanks to the Lord, for His mercy endureth forever." And before he was gathered to his fathers. David had completed the organization of that magnificent orchestra, unequaled by anything of a similar kind before or since, in which not less than four thousand Levites were appointed "to praise the Lord with the instruments which David had himself made." This did not belong to the original service of the tabernacle, nor make a part of the typical ordinances which were fulfilled, and thus abolished by the sacrificial death of Messiah. If typical at all, it was like the Jubilee Sabbatism, a type of the splendid worship of the New Jerusalem in her final and eternal glory, when the groans of the creature shall give place to the melody and harmony of the choir of the redeemed in the Sabbatism of the New Creation.

Instrumental music is several times mentioned in the New Testament, but nowhere, I think, with disapprobation. The words of James imply the contrary. The word which is in the English translation rendered, "let him sing psalms," is literally, "let him play upon an instrument of music." To the Christian Jews, to whom James wrote, it would at once suggest the chanting of psalms or hymns to the accompanying harmony of harp or psalter. And so in the visions of the Apocalypse, as the advancing victories of Christ and his Church are celebrated in the hearing of the Holy Seer, instruments of music accompany the voice of anthems, and swell with their dulcet chords the grand diapason of praise. "And I'looked, and lo! a Lamb stood on the Mount Zion, and with Him a hundred and forty and four thousand having His Father's name in their foreheads; and I heard the voice of harpers, harping with their harps, and they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand which were redeemed from the earth." And again: "I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire; and them that had gotten the victory over the Beast and over his image, and over his mark and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God. And they sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb."

With these Scriptural testimonies before me, I can not doubt for a moment the lawfulness, propriety, and utility of instrumental music both in the private and social worship of God. It stands with those things in which God's people have always and do still enjoy liberty. To sing with the voice is a commanded duty to the Christian; to accompany his singing with a well-tuned instrument is a privilege to be used as convenient. The Christian Church may, I think, still sing as the Holy Ghost has taught in the closing anthem of the Book of Psalms:

"Praise ye the Lord! Praise God in his sanctuary! Praise him in the firmament of his power: Praise him for his mighty acts; Praise him according to his excellent greatness! Praise him according to his excellent greatness! Praise him with the sound of the trumpet; Praise him with the sound of the trumpet; Praise him with the timbrel and dance; Praise him with the timbrel and dance; Praise him with the timbrel and dance; Praise him upon the loud cymbals; Praise him upon the high-sounding cymbals. Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord. Hallelujah! PRAISE YE THE LORD.

III. THE EFFECT OF SACRED MUSIC.

All that has been said upon the origin and obligation and use of vocal and instrumental harmony will be illustrated and confirmed by a consideration of the effects produced by each alone, or by both combined,

Such is the frame of our nature that the different tones of music excite emotions in our minds congenial with themselves. Deep and grave airs fill the mind with awe and reverence; the elevated and sprightly inspire with joy and animation; the soft and languishing soothe and melt the heart; while the mournful and plaintive generate sorrow and melancholy. Music has the power of exciting all the passions; it is friendly to every affection which gives dignity to the nature and conduces to the true happiness of man, and only then becomes dangerous to virtue when perverted from its original purity and purpose. Music softens the asperities of temper, refines and ennobles the intellect, mitigates the cares and disquietudes of life, and exercises a surprising power over the depraved passions. And these effects are often more happily produced when instrumental is joined with vocal music.

xiv

The popular conception of "the natural effects of music," says Lord Bacon, "is set forth in a lively manner by the ancients in that feigned relation of Orpheus's theatre, where all beasts and birds assembled; and, forgetting their several appetites, some of prey, some of game, some of quarrel, stood all sociably together, listening to the airs and accords of the harp: the sound whereof no sooner ceased, or was drowned by some louder noise, but every beast returned to his own nature."

There is a remarkable and striking instance of the salutary effects of instrumental music in the history of David and Saul. The mad fury of Saul was allayed and subdued, and the power of the evil demon over his mind was for the time broken under the charms of the shepherd minstrel's sweet-toned lyre.

The History of Medicine furnishes clear proofs of the beneficial effects of Music upon the nervous system, in the treatment of some forms of disease.

But the Moral effects of this Heaven-sent Art are more interesting and important, and far surpass its influence upon the mere physical nature. As an Ordinance of God, to be used in our approach to IIim in acts of devout worship, it addresses man as a rational being, and aims to carry home divine and saving truth to his heart through the medium of the senses, and by the union of sentiment and sound in agreeable cadence. The main design of sacred psalmody is to enlighten, to persuade, and to cheer. When a psalm or hymn, or spiritual song, expressing the truths of Christianity in their purity and simplicity, is rehearsed with rhythmical sounds, which correspond to the sense of the words uttered, the result will seldom fail to be a deep impression of the reality and importance and beauty of the religion of Christ. The Apostle recognizes the value of this ordinance and its effective influence, when showing the uselessness to the Church of praying or singing in an unknown or inarticulate tongue, he says : "I will pray with the spirit and I will pray with the understanding also; I will sing with the spirit and I will sing with the understanding also." And as a most valuable vehicle of conveying truth to the mind, he commends Christians to employ the voice of melody in teaching and admonishing one another. And he teaches us that the most powerful and blessed results are to be expected from the skillful and constant use of music in the churches of Christ. The experience of centuries has attested the wisdom of the Apostle. The best influences of the Holy Spirit have ever accompanied the study and use of sacred harmony in the worship of the Church Catholic. It is, indeed, the Holy Comforter who gives saving efficacy to the Word and Ordinances. And it is through the Truth that men are renewed and sanctified. But the truth is most effectually brought into contact with the soul when uttered with the living voice. And when prompted and accompanied by the inward working of the Spirit, sanctified music has a divine power to awaken the soul to a perception of the truth, and to excite, expand, revive and strengthen every holy affection. Not a few are the instances of persons who have traced their first serious impressions of gospel truth to hearing others sing a few verses of some hymn or psalm. The case of Jack the Sailor has often found its parallel. Dissatisfied in the midst of his wild and roaming life, he passes the door of an humble working-woman, and hears her singing cheerily at her work the simple refrain:

> "I'm a poor sinner, And nothing at all, But Jesus Christ Is my All in all."

The melody and the words penetrate deep into the weather-beaten seaman's heart. The Holy Spirit fixes them there, and quickens the good seed into life. And Jack, the wild sailor lad, is soon joining the chorus of that vast multitude who have learned to sing the same humble song:

I'M A POOR SINNER, AND NOTHING AT ALL, BUT JESUS CHRIST IS MY ALL IN ALL."

Another example to the same effect I take from a recent occurrence in a far different circle of life. The daughter of an English nobleman was brought to a saving knowledge of Christ. Her father, by threats, temptations to extravagance in dress, by reading, by traveling in foreign countries and to places of fashionable resort, took every means to divert her mind from things unseen and eternal. But her heart was fixed. She was determined that nothing should deprive her of her eternal portion in her Redeemer, or displace Him from the centre of her heart, or lead her to discredit her faith and joy in the profession of His glorious name.

At length her father resolved upon a final and desperate expedient by which his end he hoped should be gained. A large company of the nobility were invited to his house. It was so arranged that, during the festivities, the daughters of different noblemen, and among others, this one, were to be called upon to entertain the company with singing and music on the piano-forte of a specially light and worldly character. If she complied, she forfeited her good conscience and returned to the world; if she refused compliance, she would lose, beyond the possibility of recovery, her position in society. The ordeal was indeed fiery. Different individuals, at the call of the company, performed their parts with the greatest applause. At last the name of this daughter was called. In a moment all were in fixed and silent suspense to see how she would act. Without hesitation, and with a calm and dignified composure, she took her place at the instrument. After a moment spent in silent prayer, she ran her fingers along the keys, and then, with sweetness, elevation, and solemnity, sang—accompanying her voice with the notes of the instrument—the following stanzas:

> No room for mirth or triffing hero, For worldly hope, or worldly fear, If life 80 soon be gone; If now the Judge is at the door, And all mankind must stand beforo The inexorable throne.

No matter which my thoughts employ, A moment's misery or joy; But oh ! when both shall end, Where shall I find my destined place? Shall I my everlasting days With fiends or angels spend?

Nothing is worth a thought beneath, But how I may escape the death That never, NEVER dies! How make mine own election sure, And when I fail on earth, secure A mansion in the skies!

Jesus, vouchsafe a pitying ray; Be thou my Guide; be thou my Way To glorious happiness. Oh! write my pardon on my heart, And whenso'er I hence depart, Let me depart in peace.

The minstrel ceased. The solemnity of Eternity was upon that assembly. Without speaking, they dispersed. The father wept aloud, and, when left alone, sought the counsel and prayers of his daughter for the salvation of his soul. He at length found that salvation, and his great estate was consecrated to the Saviour.

Under the benign influence of sacred harmony, the hardened spirit is melted with penitential sorrow; the penitent believer rises upon the wings of hope from the depths of despair; the Christian soldier burns with generous ardor in the warfare with sin. The prophet connects the joy and melody of Zion when he says:

> Joy and gladness shall be found therein, Thanksgiving and the voice of melody.

The darkness of affliction is cheered and the weariness of his journeying is lightened to the Christian by those "songs in the night" which his Redeemer gives him in this "the house of his pilgrimage." Nor does the singing of the ransomed sinner cease with the parting breath of this life. It indeed only then begins in its true perfection, sweetness, and purity. The Harp and Song he has laid down beside the grave shall be taken up again with sweeter chords and more tuneful notes, when bursting the bars of the tomb he shall come forth more than a conqueror over death and the grave. In that world to come, the undimmed eye of immortal youth shall gaze with rapture upon the unsullied beauties of the new creation; the untired ear shall catch the notes of its scraphic music; the unwearied voice shall break forth into singing the Eternal Anthem.

To the general views now presented on the interesting and important subject of Music as a divine ordinance of the religion of Christ, I will add two or three suggestions bearing upon the best method of promoting the use of sacred harmony in the services of the Church.

1. Music, and especially music in the worship of God, ought to be simple and adapted to the contents of the psalm or hymn to which it is sung or played. Where this simplicity and adaptation are wanting, a vain fancy may be tickled or a corrupt taste for the moment be gratified, but no permanent impression for good can be made. "Simplicity in music," says an excellent writer, "is not at all incomnatible with that variety of modulation and expression which are necessary to its full effect. But it stands opposed to complex and fantastical compositions, to useless repetitions, drawling syncopations of several bars, long slurs, and quick bandied notes. In such tunes there can be no just regard paid to the proper emphasis. cadence, or pronunciation. And thus the proprieties of language and the graces of poetry are marred and destroyed." The Apostle Paul, with his usual good taste and felicity of illustration has set this fault in its true light. "And even things without life," says he, "giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?" Much more may it be asked when the words of a hymn or psalm are so intoned or mouthed as to destroy all distinctness, "How shall it be known what is said or sung?" No matter how excellent the words or how well adapted the tune to the sentiment they express, if good pronunciation is wanting the real design of church music is defeated, and its moral effects lost. And so, when instrumental music is combined with vocal, it should never be allowed to drown the voice of the singers so that the words of the song can not be distinctly heard. Let it then be constantly borne in mind that it is a rule of first importance in sacred harmony that they who sing, and especially they who lead the music, shall pronounce in a clear, articulate, audible manner, so that all may understand what is sung.

xviii

Those tunes called solos have sometimes the very finest effect. No one that had the pleasure of hearing the "Swedish Nightingale" -Jenny Lind-could ever forget her singing those words of believing hope, once chanted by Job amid the ashes of affliction: "I know that my Redeemer liveth." And all can recall the thrilling effect of the sad song, "Too late! Too late!" as sung in this place by one of our own sweet singers. The duet, too, especially in responsive pieces, may be used with admirable effect. Nor ought the Anthem or the Chant to be left out of the music of the Church. But those compositions which include all the four parts are in general best adapted to the worship of the Church, so that the whole congregation may join in the singing-the organ playing and the choir leading in harmony the several parts, whilst the congregation take up the melody in unison. And it is one of the great advantages of combining the choir with the congregation, that it affords the fullest opportunity of bringing into the service of the Church all those varieties of sacred song which God has approved in His worship.

I am persuaded, too, that it would be greatly promotive of good congregational singing if the Hymns and the Tunes sung in each church were so uniformly joined together, as that it should come to be that the words of the hymn and the tune attached to it being associated in the mind would mutually suggest each other.

2. It is a Christian duty to endeavor to acquire so much knowledge of music as to be able to practice it with ease and propriety in the praise of God. It is rare to find any one so destitute of ear and voice as to be quite unable to learn to sing correctly. The capacity to enjoy and execute sacred melodies is a gift of God, to be consecrated to His glory. It is not a talent to be used merely for our own personal gratification. It is a trust to be improved for His honor, in doing which we promote our own enjoyment.

But what if we suffer this noble gift to lie unimproved? Or what, if worse than this, we pervert it to improper purposes, or make use of it only for idle amusement? Will we not stand condemned with the unprofitable servant? Will we not be in danger of being banished to the world of darkness, where no voice of melody is ever heard, but only the awful discord of wailing and of remorseful woe? Let those who have hitherto thought lightly of this subject, or who have not thought of it at all, now consider it. Let them no longer slight the praises of God. Let parents see that their children are taught sacred music, and let the young improve the privilege of learning to sing in the worship of God, both in the family circle and in the sanctuary. And if any have grown too old in their negligence of this culture now to begin, then let them repent of their sinful neglect, and bring forth the fruits of repentance by encouraging and aiding others in endeavoring to improve this part of Christian worship.

And here I can not forbear calling attention to what seems to me a very serious error, and one which, so long as it is persisted in, will continue to render good singing, by congregations in public worship, utterly impossible. The error consists in having one style of songs and tunes for the children and youth at home and in the Sabbathschool, and an entirely different style, both of hymns and tunes, in the worship of the congregation. The result is somewhat the same as if the children should learn to speak one language and the men and women quite another. I do not enter into the question, whether the style of Sabbath-school music and songs now most in vogue is such as accords with correct taste. It is a question, however, that might well claim discussion. But this much will hardly be denied, that if the body of our congregations are to unite in singing the hymns sung in the church, the children and youth of Christian families must be both taught the tunes to which those hymns are sung, and also made familiar with the hymns.

3. A very large portion of the Church, it is to be feared, undervalues Music as an Ordinance of God and a Means of Grace; and of necessary consequence, treats it with indifference and neglect. Contention, strife, and complaint about organs and choirs and singers there is enough, and more than enough. But united, earnest, steady effort to help in its improvement, but very few are found disposed to make. On this point, much might be said, and not without profit. But for the present I shall only ask a few questions. Why is it that singing in private devotion is so seldom thought of by professing Christians? Why so rarely is it that worship in the family is accompanied and enlivened by the harmony of holy song? Why so much time found for worldly recreations and amusements, and none for cultivating the divine ordinance of sacred music? Why can members of the Church, both in country and city, lavish so much expenditure upon ornament and so-called accomplishments—upon the dressmaker, the music-teacher, and the dancing master—and yet have nothing, or next to nothing, to give for securing and sustaining such music in the House of God as would make it, in some measure, an honor to His glorious name and exalted worship, and render it effective in giving force and power to the preaching of the Word?

Surely no one will deny that these questions are warranted by the most notorious facts. Then put them not aside with a frown, or a jest, or indifferent forgetfulness, but ponder them thoroughly and prayerfully, and resolve that you will help to roll away this reproach (if it exist) from at least the particular church of which you may be a member; and strive to make this part of worship more attractive to the many who now pass by the assemblies of the House of God.

4. In conclusion, remember the exhortation of the Apostle: "Be not drunk with wine wherein is excess, but be filled with the Spirit, speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord." This is the Christian's best recreation. This his solace in his affliction. This the enlivener of his sadness and loneliness. This the purest and most worthy way of expressing his gratitude and joy. "Is any merry, let him sing psalms." This is primitive-this is Apostolic Christianity indeed, at least in one of its most beautiful and attractive features. Shall we ever return to it? How happy the day, if so it might be. If, instead of those scenes of midnight mirth and dissipation, where the Christian "treads unhallowed ground, and breathes an air that chills the fervor of his piety," the dwellings of God's professed people resounded with holy song and gladness, how delightful, how Heavenly! How sorrow would be assuaged, how strife would be silenced, how revelry would skulk into darkness, how vice would cease to ruin the souls of the children and blast the fair hopes of fathers and mothers! How soon our holy religion would shine forth in her beautiful bridal garments of purity and praise! The admiration even of her foes. The beauty of the nations. The delight of angels. The joy of her God!

And my heart's desire and prayer to God this day is that you, the people of my charge—this flock of God—may all so learn and love the songs of Zion now that, in the COMING GLORY, at the appearing and kingdom of our Lord Jesus, ye may, every one, be prepared to join the full Choir of the Redeemed out of every kindred and tribe and tongue, who, with the voice of a great multitude, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, shall sing: "AL-LELUJAH! FOR THE LORD GOD OMNIPOTENT REIGNETH!"

HYMNS OF THE CHURCH.

Tune-Lyons.

1 O worship the King,

All glorious above;

O gratefully sing His power and his love;

Our Shield and Defender,

The Ancient of Days,

And girded with praise.

Pavilioned in splendor,

5s & 6s or 11s. 13 Th' apostles join the glorious throng; The prophets swell th' immortal song; The martyrs' noble army raise Eternal anthems to thy praise.

> 4 From day to day, O Lord, do we Highly exalt and honor thee! Thy name we worship and adore, World without end, for evermore!

2 O tell of his might, O sing of his grace, Whose robe is the light, Whose canopy space; His chariots of wrath The thunder clouds form, And dark is his path On the wings of the storm.

3 Frail children of dust, And feeble as frail, In thee do we trust, Nor find thee to fail. Thy mercies how tender! How firm to the end! Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer and Friend.

4 O measureless Might, Ineffable Love! While angels delight To hymn thee above, Thy ransomed creation, Though feeble their lays, With true adoration, Shall sing to thy praise.

2

1

Tune-Philadelphia.

1 Thee we adore, eternal Lord! We praise thy name with one accord; Thy saints, who here thy goodness see, Through all the world do worship thee.

2 To thee aloud all angels cry, The heavens and all the powers on high; Thee, holy, holy, holy King, Lord God of hosts, they ever sing.

3 1 God is in his holy temple, All the earth keep silence here; Worship him in truth and spirit, Reverence him with godly fear; Holy, holy, Lord of hosts, our Lord, appear.

Tune-Fount.

8s, 7s & 4s.

2 God in Christ reveals his presence, Throned upon the mercy-seat; Saints, rejoice ! and sinners, tremble! Each prepare his God to meet; Lowly, lowly, Bow adoring at his feet.

3 Hail him here with songs of praises, Him with prayers of faith surround; Hearken to his glorious gospel,

While the preacher's lips expound; Blessed, blessed,

They who know the joyful sound.

4 Though the heav'n, and heav'n of heavens,

O Thou great Unsearchable!

Are too mean to comprehend thee, Thou with man art pleased to dwell; Welcome, welcome,

God with us, Immanuel. L. M. 4

Tune-Monon. S. M.

1 Stand up, and bless the Lord, Ye people of his choice;

Stand up, and bless the Lord your God With heart, and soul, and voice.

2 Though high above all praise, Above all blessing high,

Who would not fear his holy name, And laud and magnify?

 3 O for the living fire, From his own altar brought, To touch our lips, our minds inspire, And wing to heaven our thought! 	4 Thou art a sea without a shore; Awful, immense thou art: And yet thou canst contract thyself Within my narrow heart.
4 Stand up and bless the Lord, The Lord your God adore; Stand up, and bless his glorious name Henceforth for evermore.	5 O Spirit, beautiful and free, My heart could almost break At thought of all thy tenderness For us poor sinners' sake.
5 Tune-Park. 8s & 7s. 1 Crown his head with endless blessing Who, in God the Father's name, With compassions never ceasing, Converse columbian to produce	6 The love of Jesus I adore; My comfort this shall be, That when I serve my dearest Lord, That service honors thee.
Comes salvation to proclaim. Hail, ye saints, who know his favor, Who within his gates are found; Hail, ye saints, the exalted Saviour, Let his courts with praise resound.	7 Tune-Rochester. C. M. 1 Abide among us with thy grace, Lord Jesus, evermore; Nor let us ere to sin give place, Nor grieve him we adore.
 Lo, Jehovah, we adore thee; Thee our Saviour! Thee our God! From his throne his beams of glory Shine through all the world abroad. In his word his light arises, Brightest beams of truth and grace; 	 2 Abide among us with thy word, Redeemer, whom we love, Thy help and mercy here afford, And life with thee above. 2 Abide among us with the second
 Bind, O bind your sacrifices, In his courts your offerings place. 3 Jesus, thee our Saviour hailing, Thee our God in praise we own; Highest honors, never failing, 	 3 Abide among us with thy ray, O Light that lightenest all, And let thy truth preserve our way, Nor suffer us to fall. 4 Abide with us to bless us still,
Rise eternal round thy throne; Now, ye saints, his power confessing, In your grateful strains adore; For his mercy, never ceasing, Flows and flows for evermore.	O bounteous Lord of peace; Our souls with grace and power now fill Our faith and love increase. 8 Tune-Autumn. 8s & 7s.
6 Tune-Moors. C. M. 1 Fountain of love! thyself true God! Who through eternal days From Father and from Son hast flowed In uncreated ways!	 Call Jehovah thy salvation, Rest beneath the Almighty's shade, In his secret habitation Dwell, nor ever be dismayed: There no tumult can alarm thee, Thou shalt dread no hidden snare; Guile nor violence can harm thee, In eternal safeguar4 there.
 2 An undivided nature, shared With Father and with Son; A person by Thyself; with them Thy simple essence one. 3 A full, wide-flowing ocean, Thou, Of uncreated love; I tremble as within my soul I feel thy waters move. 	 2 From the sword, at noon-day wasting From the noisome pestilence, In the depth of midnight blasting, God shall be thy sure defense: Fear not thou the deadly quiver, When a thousand feel the blow; Mercy shall thy soul deliver, Though ten thousand be laid low.

2

3 Thee, though winds and waves be	From our sins his blood hath washed us, swelling,	'Tis through him our souls draw nigh
God, thine hope shall bear through all,	And thy Spirit, too, has taught us, "Abba, Father," thus to cry.
Plague shall not come near thy dwelling,	2 "Abba, Father," Lord ! we call thee,
Thee no evil shall befall :	Hallow'd name! from day to day:
He shall charge his angel-legions	'Tis thy children's right to know thee; None but children "Father" say.
Watch and ward o'er thee to keep,	This high glory we inherit,
Though thou walk in hostile regions, Though in desert wilds thou sleep.	Thy free gift, through Jesus' blood;
	God the Spirit, with our spirit,
4 Since, with pure and true affection,	Witnesseth we're sons of God.
Thou on God hast set thy love, With the wings of his protection	3 Hence, thro' all the changing seasons,
He will shield thee from above;	Trouble, sickness, sorrow, woe,
Thou shalt call on him in trouble,	Nothing changeth God's affections,
He will hearken, he will save;	Love divine shall bring us through;
Here for grief reward thee double,	Soon shall all thy blood-bought children
Crown with life beyond the grave.	Round the throne their anthems raise,
9 TaneMadison. Ss.	And, in songs of rich salvation,
1 Inspirer and Hearer of prayer,	Shout to God's eternal praise.
Thou Shepherd and Guardian of thine,	11 Tune-Olivet. 68 & 48.
My all to thy covenant care	1 Glory to God on high !
I sleeping or waking resign.	Peace upon earth and joy !
If thou art my Shield and my Sun,	Good will to man!
The night is no darkness to me;	We who his blessing prove,
And, fast as my moments roll on, They bring me but nearer to thee.	Join with the host above, Shouting his wondrous love
incy bring no but nearer to thee.	Shouting his wondrous love, Too vast to sean.
2 Thy ministering spirits descend
To watch while thy saints are asleep;	2 Mercy and truth unite,
By day and by night they attend, The heirs of salvation to keep.	This is a joyful sight,
Bright seraphs, dispatched from the	All sights above! Jesus the curse sustains, throne,	Bitter the cup he drains,
Repair to their stations assigned ;	Nothing for us remains,
And angels elect are sent down	Nothing but love l
To guard the elect of mankind.	3 Love that no tongue can teach,
3 Their worship no interval knows;	Love that no thought can reach,
Their fervor is still on the wing;	No love like this!
And while they protect my repose,	God is its blessed source,
They chant to the praise of my King. I, too, at the season ordained,	Death could not stop its course,
Their chorus for ever shall join,	Nothing can stay its force, Matchless it is !
And love and adore, without end,	Matchiess it is:
Their faithful Creator and mine.	4 Blest in this love we sing,
10 Tune-Caro. 8s & 7s.	To God our praises bring;
10	All sin forgiven!
1 "Abba, Father," we approach thee, In our Saviour's precious name;	Jesus, our Lord, to thee, Honor and majesty,
We, thy children, here assembling,	Now and for ever be,
Now thy promised blessings claim.	Here and in Heaven !

12 TunePe	rez. 8s & 7s.	4 Be this while life is mine,
1 Bright the vision tl	hat dolighted	My canticle divine,
Once the sight of J		May Jesus Christ on earth be praised
Sweet the countless to		Be this the eternal song,
To entrance the pro		Through all the ages long,
20 000000000000000000000000000000000000	r	May Jesus Christ my KING be
2 Round the Lord in-	glory seated	praised.
Cherubim and Sera		Tane-Alida. D. C. M
Filled his temple, and	l repeated	14 Tune-Alida. D. C. M
Each to each the al	ternate hymn;	1 Jesus is God! The solid earth,
- (- T - 7 - 17 - 7 - (The ocean, broad and bright,
3 " Lord, thy glory f		The countless stars, like golden dust,
Earth is with its fu		That strew the skies at night,
Unto thee be glory gi Holy, Holy, Holy I	Lord "	The wheeling storm, the flashing fire,
nory, nory, nory	Loru.	The pleasant, wholesome air,
4 Heaven is still with	a glory ringing.	The summer's sun, the winter's frost, His own creations were.
Earth takes up the		THIS OWN CLEANDES WORC.
"Holy, Holy, Holy,"		2 Jesus is God! The glorious bands
"Lord of hosts, Lord	l God most high."	Of golden angels sing
		Songs of adoring praise to him,
5 With his seraph tra		Their Maker and their King.
With his holy Chur		He was true God in Bethlehem's crib,
Thus unite we to ador		On Calvary's cross true God,
Bid we thus our an	them now;	He who in heaven eternal reigned,
6 "Lord, thy glory fi	lls the heaven.	In time on earth abode.
Earth is with its fu		3 Jesus is God! There never was
Unto thee be glory gi		A time when he was not:
Holy, Holy, Holy I	Lord."	Boundless, immortal, merciful,
		Eternally begot! [stretch
13 Tune-Dal	lston. S. P. M.	Backward our thoughts through ages
10		Onward through endless bliss;
1 When morning gil		For there are two eternities,
My heart awaking	cries,	And both alike are his!
May JESUS CHRIST b	e praised to-day;	4 Jesus is God! If on the earth
Alike at work an To Jesus I repair		This blessed faith decays,
May Jesus Christ my		More tender must our love become,
	so pranoca.	More plentiful our praise.
2 Whene'er the sweet	t church bell	We are not angels, but we may
Peals over hill and		Down in earth's corners kneel,
May Jesus Christ be		And multiply sweet acts of love,
Oh, hark to wh		And murmur what we feel.
May Christ my grea	rings, [praised.
may onlist my grea	t nigh Friest be	15 Tune-Unam. 8s, 7s & 4s
3 My tongue shall no	ever tire	1 Jesus, Lord of life and glory,
Of chanting with t		Bend from heaven thy gracious ear;
May Jesus Christ by	all be praised:	While our waiting souls adore thee,
This song of sa		Friend of helpless sinners hear:
It never seems		By thy mercy,
May Jesus Christ the	Lamb be praised.	O deliver us, good Lord.

HYMNS OF THE CHURCH.

2 From the depths of nature's blindness	3 As an island, in a river
From the hardening power of sin,	Vexed with endless rave and roar,
From all malice and unkindness,	Keeps an inner silence ever
From the pride that lurks within,	. On its consecrated shore,
By thy mercy,	Fresh with flowers and green with
O deliver us, good Lord.	grasses;
	So the poor through thee abide;
3 When temptation sorely presses,	Every outer care that presses,
In the day of Satan's power,	Deepening more the peace inside.
In our times of deep distresses,	4 When our heart is faint thou warm-
In each dark and trying hour,	est,
By thy mercy,	Justifiest our delight:
O deliver us, good Lord.	Thou our ignorance informest,
	And our wisdom shapest right.
4 When the world around is smiling,	From the heavens true peace thou send-
In the time of wealth and ease,	est
Earthly joys our hearts beguiling,	In the hour of doubt and strife;
In the day of health and peace,	Thou beginnest and thou endest
By thy mercy,	All that Christians count of life.
O deliver us, good Lord.
5 In the weary hours of sickness,	17 Tune-Webb. 78 & 68.
In the times of grief and pain,	1 We plow the fields, and scatter
When we feel our mortal weakness,	The good seed on the land,
When the creature's help is vain,	But it is fed and watered
By thy mercy,	By God's Almighty Hand;
O deliver us, good Lord.	He sends the snow in winter,
e denver us, good hord.	The warmth to swell the grain,
6 In the solemn hour of dying,	The breezes, and the sunshine,
In the awful judgment day,	And soft refreshing rain.
May our souls, on thee relying,	2 He only is the Maker
Find thee still our hope and stay:	Of all things near and far;
By thy mercy,	He paints the wayside flower,
O deliver us, good Lord.	He lights the evening star;
, .,	The winds and waves obey him,
16 Tune-Emerson. 88 & 78.	By Him the birds are fed;
	Much more to us, his children,
1 Praise be thine, most Holy Spirit,	He gives our daily bread.
Honor to thy holy name!	3 We thank thee, then, O Father,
May we love it, may we fear it, Set in everlasting fame !	For all things bright and good,
Set in everlasting fame! Honor to thee, praise and glory,	The seed-time and the harvest,
Comforter, Inspirer, Friend,	Our life, our health, our food ;
Till these troubles transitory	Accept the gifts we offer
End in glory without end.	For all thy love imparts,
21 a la Brotj interaction at	And, what thou most desirest, Our humble thankful hearts.
2 By thy hand, in secret working	Our numbre thankrut hearts.
Like a midnight of soft rain,	18 Tune-Gruner. 8s, 7s & 4s
Seeds that lay in silence lurking,	1 Glory be to God the Father,
Spring up green and grow amain,	Glory be to God the Son,
Roots, which in their dusty bosoms,	Glory be to God the Spirit,
Hid an age of golden days,	Great Jehovah, Three in One;
Stirring with a cloud of blossoms,	Glory, glory,
Clothe their bareness for thy praise.	While eternal ages run !

2 Glory be to him who loved us,	6 Christ ! to thee with God the Father,
Washed us from each spot and stain, Glory be to him who bought us,
Made us kings with him to reign;	Hymn, and ehant, and high thanks- giving,
Glory, glory,	And unwearied praises be,
To the Lamb that once was slain.	Honor, glory, all dominion,
3 Glory to the King of angels,	And eternal victory.
Glory to the Church's King,	20 Tune-Dennis. S. M.
Glory to the King of nations, Heaven and earth your praises bring:	1 The prophet gave the sign
Glory, glory,	For faithful men to read.
To the King of glory bring !	A virgin, born of David's line, Shall bear the promised seed.
4 Glory, blessing, praise eternal!
Thus the choir of angels sings;	2 Ask not how this should be, But worship and adore;
Honor, riches, power, dominion ! Thus its praise creation brings;	Like her, whom heaven's Majesty
Glory, glory,	Came down to shadow o'er.
Glory to the King of kings!	3 Meekly she bowed her head
10	To hear the gracious word,
	Mary, the pure and lowly maid,
1 Of the Father's love begotten	The favored of the Lord.
Ere the worlds began to be, He is Alpha and Omega,	4 Blessed shall be her name In all the Church on earth,
He the source, the ending he,	Through whom that wondrous mercy
Of the things that are, that have been,	came,
And that future years shall see.	The Incarnate Saviour's birth.
2 O that Birth for ever blessed!	21 Tune-Beethoven. L. M.
When the Virgin, full of grace, By the Holy Ghost conceiving,	1 What star is this, with beams so
Bare the Saviour of our race;	bright,
And the Babe, the world's Redeemer,	More beauteous than the noonday light?
First revealed his sacred face.	It shines to herald forth the King,
3 This is he whom seers in old time	And Gentiles to his cradle bring.
Chanted of with one accord; Whom the voices of the prophets	2 See now fulfilled what God decreed,
Promised in their faithful word;	"From Jacob shall a star proceed;"
Now he shines, the longexpected;	And eastern sages with amaze Upon the wondrous vision gaze.
Let creation praise its Lord !	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
4 O ye heights of Heaven adore him !	3 The guiding star above is bright, Within them shines a clearer light,
Angel-hosts his praises sing! All dominions bow before him,	Which leads them on in paths benign
And extol our God and King;	To seek the Giver of the sign.
Let no tongue on earth be silent,	4 True love can brook no dull delay;
Every voice in concert ring.	Nor toil nor dangers stop their way:
5 Thee let old men, thee let young men,	Home, kindred, fatherland, and all They leave at their Creator's call.
Thee let boys in chorus sing; Matrons, virgins, little maidens	5 O Jesus! while the star of grace
With glad voices answering;	Allures us now to seek thy face,
Let their guileless songs re-echo,	Let not our slothful hearts refuse
And the heart its praises bring.	The guidance of that light to use.

22 Tune-Gruner, with chorus from "Flints Tune," 88, 78 & 48
1 Angels from the realms of glory,	Oh! rest beside the weary road, And hear the angels sing.
Wing your flight o'er all the earth, Ye who sang creation s story,	4 For lo! the days are hast'ning on,
Now proclaim Messiah's birth, Come and worship,	By prophetbards foretold, When with the ever-circ'ling years,
Worship Christ the new-born King.	Comes round the age of gold,
2 Shepherds, in the field abiding,	When peace shall over all the earth Its ancient splendor fling,
Watching o'er your flocks by night, God with man is now residing,	And the whole world send back the song Which now the angels sing.
Yonder shines the infant-light ; Come and worship,	1
Worship Christ the new-born King.	24 Tune-Lischer. II. M.
3 Sages, leave your contemplations,	1 We'll sing in spite of scorn; Our theme is come from Heaven;
Brighter visions beam afar, Seek the great desire of nations;	To us a Child is born, To us a Son is given ;
Ye have seen his natal star; Come and worship,	The sweetest news that ever came
Worship Christ the new-born King.	We'll sing, though all the world should blame.
4 Saints, before the altar bending	2 The long expected morn
Watching long in hope and fear Suddenly the Lord descending	Has dawn'd upon the earth; The Saviour, Christ, is born,
In his temple now appears; Come and worship,	And angels sing his birth : We'll join the bright seraphic throng,
Worship Christ the new-born King.	We'll share their joys, and swell their song.
	3 Now sing of peace divine,
23 Tune-Belief. C. M. D.	Of grace to guilty man ; No wisdom, Lord, but thine
1 It came upon the midnight clear, That glorious song of old,	Could form the wondrous plan
From angels bending near the earth To touch their harps of gold:	Where peace and righteousness embrace And justice goes along with grace
" Peace to the earth, good will to men,	4 Give praise to God on high
From Heaven's all-glorious King!" The world in solemn stillness lay	With angels round his throne ; Give praise to God with joy,
To hear the angels sing.	Give praise to God alone! 'Tis meet his saints their songs should
2 Yet with the woes of sin and strife The world has suffered long;	raise
Beneath the angel-strain have rolled	And give their Saviour endless praise.
Two thousand years of wrong; And men, at war with men, hear not	25 Tune-Ellham. 7s, 8 lines.
The love-song which they bring: Oh! hush the noise, ye men of strife,	1 Songs of thankfulness and praise, Jesus, Lord, to thee we raise,
And hear the angels sing.	Manifested by the star To the sages from afar;
3 And ye, beneath life's crushing load	Branch of royal David's stem
Whose forms are bending low, Who toil along the elimbing way	In thy birth at Bethlehem ; Anthems be to thee addrest
	God in man made manifest.

 2 Manifest at Jordan's stream, Prophet, Priest, and King supreme; And at Cana wedding-guest, In thy Godhead manifest; Manifest in power divine, Changing water into wine; Anthems be to thee addrest, God in man made manifest. 3 Manifest in making whole Palsied limbs and fainting soul; Manifest in valiant fight, Quelling all the devil's might; Manifest in graeions will, Ever bringing good from ill; Anthems be to thee addrest, God in man made manifest. 	 2 Already o'er his sinless head The streams of wrath begin to flow; Already on his infant bed The taste of grief he deigns to know. 3 The lowliest poverty he bears That we may be with wealth supplied; He weeps; O precious grief and tears I Through him the world is purified. 4 An humble dress, a mean abode, A life obscure his glory hide: Proud man, behold thy lowly God, And let the sight destroy thy pride. 28 Tune_Cross and Crown. C. M.
4 Sun and moon shall darkened be, Stars shall fall, the heaven shall flee; Christ will then like lightning shine, All will see his glorious sign; All will then the trumpet hear, All will see the Judge appear; Thou by all wilt be confest, God in man made manifest.	 The heavenly child in stature grows, And, growing, learns to die; And still his early training shows His coming agony. The Son of God his glory hides With parents mean and poor; And he who made the heavens, abides In dwelling place obscure.
 26 Tune-Bartimens. 85 & 78. 1 Earth has many a noble eity; Bethlehem, thou dost all excel; Out of thee the Lord from heaven Came to rule his Israel. 2 Eastern sages at his eradle Make oblations rich and rare; See them give, in deep devotion, Gold, and frankincense, and myrrh. 	 3 Those mighty hands that rule the sky No earthly toil refuse; The Maker of the stars on high An humble trade pursues. 4 He whom the choirs of angels praise, Bearing each dread decree, His earthly parents now obeys, In deep humility.
 3 Sacred gifts of mystic meaning; Incense doth their God disclose, Gold the King of kings proclaimeth, Myrrh his sepulchre foreshows. 4 Jesus, whom the Gentiles worshiped At thy glad Epiphany, Unto Thee, with God the Father And the Spirit, glory be. 	29Tune-St. Ann's.C. M.1O Sion, open wide thy gates, Let figures disappear, A Priest and Victim, both in one, The Truth himself, is here:2No more the simple flock shall bleed; Behold, the Father's Son Himself to his own altar comes, For sinners to atone.
27 Tune-Rockingham. L. M. 1 The Word, with God the Father One Before the heavens and earth were made, Is now the Virgin's new-born Son, Upon her lowly bosom laid.	 3 Mother of hidden Deity, The lowly Virgin brings Her new-born babe, with two young doves, Her tender offerings.

8

4 The hoary Simeon sees at last His Lord so long desired, And hails, with Anna, Israel's hope, With sudden rapture fired.	2 Sunbeams scorching all the day; Chilly dew-drops nightly shed; Prowling beasts about thy way; Stones thy pillow; earth thy bed.
 30 Tune-St. Thomas. S. M. 1 The ancient law departs, And all its terrors cease : For Jesus makes with faithful hearts A covenant of peace. 2 The Light of Life divine, True Brightness undefiled, He bears for us the shame of sin, A hely spetters child 	 3 Shall not we thy sorrow share, And from earthly joys abstain, Fasting with unceasing prayer, Glad with thee to suffer pain. 4 And if Satan, vexing sore, Flesh or spirit should assail, Thou, his vanquisher before, Grant we may not faint or fail. 33 Tune-Lenoz. P.M.
 A holy spotless child. 3 His infant body now Begins our pain to feel; 3 Those precious drops of blood that flow For death the victim seal. 4 To-day the name is thine At which we bend the knee; 3 They call thee JESUS, Child Divine! Our Jesus Jeign to be. 31 Twno-Federal Street. L. M. 1 O blessed day, when first was poured The blood of our redeeming Lord! 2 Scarce entered on this life of woe, His infant blood begins to flow; 3 A foretaste of his death he feels, An earnest of his love reveals. 3 For love of us his woes begin; The Sinless suffers for our sin; The law's great Maker for our aid Obedient to the law is made. 	 3.3 The Lenot. True. 1 Lo! from the desert homes, Where he hath hid so long, The new Elias comes, In sternest wisdom strong; The voice that cries Of Christ from high, And judgment nigh From opening skies. 2 Your God e'en now doth stand At heaven's opening door, His fan is in his hand, And he will purge his floor; The wheat he claims And with him stows; The chaff he throws To quenchless flames. 3 Ye haughty mountains, bow Your sky aspiring heads; Ye valleys, hiding low, Lift up your gentle meads; Make his way plain Your King before, For evermore He comes to reign.
 4 Lord, circumcise our hearts, we pray, And take what is not thine away; Write thine own name within our hearts, Thy law upon our inmost parts.
32 Tune-Ionia. 7s, 4 lines. 1 Forty days and forty nights Thou wast fasting in the wild; Forty days and forty nights Tempted, and yet undefiled.	2 From age to age the tale declare, How with the three disciples there, Where Moses and Elias meet, The Lord holds converse high and sweet.

3 ′.	The law and prophets there have	3 Thus the work for our salvation
-	place,	He ordainèd to be done:
	to chosen witnesses of grace;	To the traitor's art opposing
	e Father's voice from out the cloud	Art yet deeper than his own ;
Pr	oclaims his only Son aloud.	Thence the remedy procuring
4	With shining face and bright array,	Whence the fatal wound begun.
	rist deigns to manifest to-day	4 Therefore, when at length the fullness
W	hat glory shall be theirs above	Of the appointed time was come,
W	ho joy in God with perfect love.	He was sent, the world's Creator,
		From the Father's heavenly home,
35	Tune-Missionary Hymn. 7s & 64.	And was found in human fashion,
1	In days of old on Sinai	Offspring of the Virgin's womb.
	The Lord Almighty came,
	In majesty of terror,	5 Lo, he lies an infant, weeping,
	In thundercloud and flame :	Where the narrow manger stands,
	On Tabor, with the glory	While the mother-maid his members
	Of sunniest light for vest,	Wraps in mean and lowly bands,
	The excellence of beauty	And the swaddling clothes is winding
	In Jesus was expressed.	Round his helpless feet and hands.
2	All light created paled there,
	And did him worship meet;	Tune-Kedesh. 8s, 7s, 6 lines.
	The sun itself adored him,	PART II.
	And bowed before his feet;	TART II.
	While Moses and Elias,	1 Now the thirty years accomplished
	Upon the holy Mount, The co-eternal glory	Which on earth he willed to see,
	Of Christ our God recount.	Born for this, he meets his passion,
		Gives himself an offepring free;
3	O holy, wondrous vision !	On the cross the Lamb is lifted, There the sacrifice to be.
	But what when, this life past,	There the sacrinee to be.
	The beauty of Mount Tabor	2 There the nails and spear he suffers,
	Shall end in Heaven at last? But what when all the glory	Vinegar, and gall, and reed;
	Of uncreated light	From his sacred body pierced
	Shall be the promised guerdon	Blood and water both proceed;
	Of them that win the fight?	Precious blood, which the creature
	0	From the stain of sin hath freed.
36	Tune-Germany. Ss, 7s, 6 lines.	0. The the fail and a share all other
00		3 Faithful cross, above all other
	PART I	One and only noble tree, None in foliage, none in blossom, sing, my tongue, the glorious battle,	None in fruit thy peer may be;
	ing the last, the dread affray;	Sweetest wood, and sweetest iron;
Ue	r the cross, the victor's trophy,	Sweetest weight is hung on thee.
Ho	ound the glad triumphal lay, w, the pains of death enduring,
	Larth's Redeemer won the day.	4 Bend, O lofty tree, thy branches,
-		Thy too rigid sinews bend;
	te, our Maker, deeply grieving	And awhile the stubborn hardness,
	That the first made Adam fell,	Which thy birth bestowed, sus-hen he ate the fruit forbidden Whose reward was death and hell,	And the limbs of heaven's high
	rked e'en then this tree the ruin	monarch of the first tree to dispel.	Gently on thine arms extend.
	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,

5 Thou alone wast counted worthy	2 O face, before whose glory
This world's ransom to sustain	The worlds shall shrink away,
That a shipwrecked race for ever	Defiled and bruised and gory,
Might a port of refuge gain With the sacred blood anointed	Thou look'st on me to day. Whence comes this livid whiteness?
Of the Lamb for sinners slain.	What hand hath quenched in night
	That eye of heavenly brightness,
37 Tune-Rock of Ages. 78, 6 lines.	That fount of living light?
1 Many woes had Christ endured,	3 The hues of health have faded
Many sore temptations met,	From that care-wrinkled cheek;
Patient and to pains inured;	These lips, forlorn and jaded,
But the sorest trial yet,	Part, but lack force to speak. The might of death hath quenchèd
Was to be sustained in thee,	Thy comeliness at length,
Gloomy, sad Gethsemane!	And from thy body wrenched
2 Came at length the dreadful night;	The sinews of its strength.
Vengeance, with its iron rod,	t The burden T and that ligth
Stood, and with collected might,	4 The burden, Lord, that lieth
Bruised the harmless lamb of God:	On thy meek head is mine; The ransom-price that buyeth
See, my soul, thy Saviour see,	The captive back is thine.
Prostrate in Gethsemane!	Oh, hither, Mediator,
3 Sins against a holy God,	In mercy turn thy face !
Sins against a hory God, Sins against his righteous laws,	On me, Sin-expiator,
Sins against his love, his blood,	Shed glances of thy grace!
Sins against his name and cause-	39 Tune-Rural Hill. 6s & 4s.
Sins immense as is the sea!
Hide me, O Gethsemane!	1 O head, so full of bruises! Brow, that its life-blood loses!
A Have's my alaim, and have alana.	Oh, great humility!
4 Here's my claim, and here alone: None a Saviour more can need;	Across his face are flying
Deeds of righteousness I've none;	The shadows of the dying :
No: not one good work to plead :	'Twas suffered all for me!
Not a glimpse of hope for me,	2 O back, by scourges plowed!
Only in Gethsemane.	O soul, by sorrow bowed
5 Hethen Sen and Hele Obest	Upon the accursed tree!
5 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, One almighty God of love,	He hears the bitter scorning:
Hymned by all the heavenly host,	'Tis night without a dawning:
In thy shining courts above:	'Twas suffered all for me!
We adore thee, gracious Three-	3 Eye, that in darkness sinketh!
Bless thee for Gethsemane.	Lip, that the red cup drinketh!
20	Hands, bound in misery!
38 Tune-Seclusion. 78 & 6s.	See, from his feet forth streameth
1 O head, blood-stained and wounded,	The fountain that redeemeth!
With grief and shame bent down !	'Twas suffered all for me!
Head, jestingly surrounded	4 And now he speaks: oh, hearken,
With plaited thorns for crown!	While clouds all nature darken!
Head, in whose light reflected The angels erst did shine,	"Lama sabacthani !'' His head is bent and droopeth !
Despisèd and rejected,	To such a death he stoopeth!
All hail, Redeemer mine !	'Twas suffered all for mel

40	Tune-Laconia. 8s & 3s.		eath thy cross abiding, or ever would I rest;
	behold the Lamb of God, On the cross !	In tl	hy dear love confiding, nd with thy presence blest.
Oh! hear	shed his precious blood On the cross. that strange expiring cry—	42		5s & 11s.
	sabaethani ?" and see the Saviour die On the eross.	1	All ye who pass by, To Jesus draw nigh; ou is it nothing that Jesus	should nners, see him lifted up On the cross. for us the bitter cup		die? Our ransom and peace, Our surety he is: e, see if there ever was sorr	ow like
The rocks (On the cross. do rend, the mountains quake, doth to its centre shake,	2	his. The Lord in the day
While Jes	On the cross.	Our	Of his anger did lay sins on the Lamb, and h them away:	e bore
The battle	v the mighty deed is done On the cross. 's fought, the victory won On the cross.		He died to atone For guilt not his own; Father afflicted for you hi Son.	is dear
"'Tis finisl	he turns his languid eyes, hed," now the conqueror cries, s his sacred head and dies On the cross.	His (For sinners like me He died on the tree; death is accepted; the sinn free; My pardon I claim;	er goes
41	Tune-Vanderender. 75 & 68.		A sinner I am, nner believing in Jesus' dear	name.
By erow O bleeding	head, surrounded n of piercing thorn! head, so wounded,		He purchased the grace That now I embrace; ather! thou knowest he died	in my
Death's pa The glov	and put to seorn ! llid hue comes o'er thee, ∇ of life decays, hosts adore thee,]	place: His death is my plea, My Advocate see,
And tren	nble as they gaze.	And	hear the blood speak that h swered for me.	ias an-
All fadir	strength and vigor ng in the strife,	43	Tune-Zebulon.	н. м.
Bereavin O agony an O love to	with cruel rigor Ig thee of life; Id dying! o sinners free! prace supplying,	Or	inself he could not save, He on the cross must die, mercy can not come To ruined sinners nigh; Christ, the Son of God, must	blood
O turn t	hy face on me.	That	sinners might from sin be f
Good Sh With thy	by bitter passion, epherd, think of me most sweet compassion, by though I be.	An	mself he could not save, For justice must be done; nd sin's full weight must fall Upon a sinless one;

 For nothing else can God accept In payment for the fearful debt. 3 Himself he could not save, For he the surety stood For all who now rely Upon his precious blood: He bore the penalty of guilt, When on the eross his blood was spilt. 4 Himself he could not save, Yet now a Saviour he; Come, sinner, to him come, 	 3 We thank thee for the grace Descending from above, That overflows our widest guilt, The eternal Father's love. 4 We thank thee for the hope, So glad, and sure, and clear; 1t holds the drooping spirit up, Till the long dawn appear. 5 We thank thee for the crown Of glory and of life; 'Tis no poor with'ring wreath of earth,
He waits to welcome thee; Believe in him, and thou shalt prove His saving power, his deathless love.	Man's prize in mortal strife. 46 Tune-Sweet Hour of Prayer. L. M. D.
4.4. Tune-Philadelphia. L. M.
 1 O come and mourn with me awhile; 1 O come ye to the Saviour's side; 0 come, together let us mourn; Jesus, our Lord, is erueified. 2 How fast his hands and feet are nailed; His failing eyes are dimmed with blood; Jesus, our Lord, is crucified. 3 Seven times he spake, seven words of love; And all three hours his silence eried For mercy on the souls of men; Jesus, our Lord, is crucified. 4 Come, let us stand beneath the cross; So may the blood from cut his side Fall gently on us drop by drop; Jesus, our Lord, is crucified. 5 A broken heart, a fount of tears Ask, and they will not be denied; Lord Jesus, may we love and weep, Sinee thou for us art crucified. 45 Tune-Ferguson. S. M 1 No blood, no altar now, The sacrifice is o'er; No flame, no smoke, ascends on high; 	 Love that exacts the sinner's debt, Yet, in exacting, sets him free. Love that condemns the sinner's sin, Yet, in condemning, pardon seals; That saves from righteous wrath, and yet, In saving, righteousness reveals. 3 Love boundless as Jehovah's self, Love holy as his righteous law, Love unsolicited, unbonght, The love proclaimed on Golgotha. This is the love that calms my heart, That soothes each conscience pang within, That pacifies my guilty dread, And frees me from the power of sin.
The Lamb is slain no more!	47 Tune-Quito. L. M. The royal banners forward go,
 We thank Thee for the blood, The blood of Christ. thy Son; The blood by which our peace is made, Our victory is won. 	The cross shines forth in mystic glow;

 2 There whilst he hung, his sacred side By soldier's spear was opened wide, To cleanse us in the precious flood Of water mingled with his blood. 3 O tree of glory, tree most fair, Ordained those holy limbs to bear, How bright in purple robe it stood, The purple of a Saviour's blood! 4 Upon its arms, like balance true, He weighed the price for sinners due, The price which none but he could pay, And spoiled the spoiler of his prey. 	The veil is rent in twain, The mercy seat is red With blood of victim slain; Why stand ye then without, in fear? The blood divine invites us near. 3 The gate is open wide, The new and living way Is clear and free and bright, With love and peace and day; Into the holiest now we come, Our present and our endless home. 4 Upon the mercy-seat The High Priest sits within; The blood is in his hand Which makes and keeps us clean;
 49 Tune-Athol or Cambridge. S. M 1 O'erwhelmed in depths of woe, Upon the tree of scorn Hangs the Redeemer of mankind, With racking anguish torn. 2 See how the nails those hands And feet, so tender, rend; See down his face, and neck, and breast His cavered bloed decourd. 	 With boldness let us now draw near, That blood has banished every fear. 5 Then to the Lamb once slain Be glory, praise, and power, Who died and lives again, Who liveth evermore; Who loved and washed us in his blood, Who made us kings and priests to God.
His sacred blood descend. 3 The sun withdraws his light;	50 Tune-Essex. 7s, 4 lines.
The mid-day heavens grow pale; The moon, the stars, the universe Their Maker's death bewail.	1 Christ has done the mighty work, Nothing left for us to do, But to enter on his toil,
	Enter on his triumph too.
4 Shall man alone be mute? Have we no griefs, no fears? Come, old and young, come, all man- kind, And bathe those feet in tears.	Enter on his triumph too. 2 He has sowed the precious seed, Nothing left for us unsown Ours it is to reap the fields, Make the harvest-joy our own.
Have we no griefs, no fears? Come, old and young, come, all man- kind,	2 He has sowed the precious seed, Nothing left for us unsown Ours it is to reap the fields,
 Have we no griefs, no fears? Come, old and young, come, all mankind, And bathe those feet in tears. 5 Come, fall before his cross, Who shed for us his blocd; Who died, the victim of pure love, 	 2 He has sowed the precious seed, Nothing left for us unsown Ours it is to reap the fields, Make the harvest-joy our own. 3 His the pardon, ours the sin,— Great the sin, the pardon great; His the good and ours the ill,

51 Tune-01	d Hundred. L. M.	4 By thy deep	expiring groan; sepulchral stone;
1 The cross stands f No hurricane of ca Can shake its heav Or lesson its high p	enly steadfastness,	By thy triump By thy power Mighty God, a To thy throne	h o'er the grave; from death to sav scended Lord, in heaven restore	d,
2 The tidings from Are still God's mes Telling, each hour, And pointing to th	sage from above, of cleansing blood,	Hear our solem	viour, hear our cr 1n litany. Tune—Lischer.	у; п. м.
His well of living j Still telling of his l His meekness, majo	love and light, esty, and might.	Speak gladn They tell me a They bid my To	not mine, O Chris ess to this heart; ll is done; 7 fear depart. whom, save thee,	it,
4 Still waves hie wealth, Laden with everlas With fruit and lead And immortality st	f divinely fair,	W F Lor	Vho cán alone or sin atone, d, shall I flee? ot mine, O Christ	-
5 Still from the ro To quench the wea Who drinketh once Who drinketh shall	e will drink again,	And purchas	ameful tree, law's full price, sed peace for me. whom, save thee,	etc.
	-Martyn. 7s, 8 lines.	Have wept n	ot mine, O Christ, ny guilt away;	,
1 Saviour, when in Low we bow the ad When, repentant, t	loring knee; to the skies	Into a blesse	is night of mine ed day. whom, save thee,	ete.
Scarce we lift our v Oh! by all thy pain Suffered once for m Bending from thy t Hear our solemn li	ns and wee han below, throne on high,	Thy blood so Can blanch my And purge a	ot mine, O Christ o freely spilt, y blackest stains tway my guilt.
2 By thy birth and By thy life of want By thy fusting and	t and tears;		whom, save thee,	еtс. Ł. Р. М.
By thy fasting and In the lonely wilde By the dread myste Of the subtle temp Jesus, look with pit Hear our solemn li	erness; erious hour ter's power; tying eye;	1 O love diving The Lord of The Father's c Bore all my	e, what hast thou life hath died for	done! r me! e;
3 By thine hour of By thine agony and By thy purple robe By thy wounds, th By thy cross thy n	d prayer; e of scorn; y crown of thorn;	The Lord, my 2 Sinners, beh The bleeding	love, was crucific old, as ye pass by g Prince of life and	d. , 1 peace,
By thy cross, thy p By thy perfect sacr Jesus, look with pit Hear our solemn li	ifice; tying eye;	And say, wa Come, feel wit	see your Saviour s ever grief like h me his blood ap love, was crucifie	his? oplied,

For his soul was never tainted With the smallest spot or stain : Twas for us he was acquainted With such depths of grief and pain.
2 Oh! what profits it with groaning Underneath his cross to stand; Oh! what profits our bemoaning His pale brow and bleeding hand! Wherefore gaze on him expiring, Railed at, pierced, and erucified, Whilst we think not of inquiring
Wherefore, and for whom, he died? 3 If no sin could be discovered In the pure and spotless Lord,
If the cruel death he suffered Is sin's just and meet reward; Then it must have been for others That the Lord on Calvary bled, And the guilt have been a brother's, Which was laid upon his head.
4 And for whom hath he contended In a strife so strange and new? And for whom to hell descended? Brothers, 'twas for me and you! Now you see that he was reaping Punishment for us alone; And we have great cause for weeping, Not for His guilt, but our own.
57 Tune-Life. 8s, 7s, & 7s. 1 All is o'er—the pain, the sorrow, Human taunts and fiendish spite; Douth should be descrided to morrow
Death shall be despoiled to-morrow Of the prey he grasps to-night; Yet once more to seal his doom, Christ must sleep within the tomb.
2 Lo, his grave! the gray rock closes O'er that virgin burial-ground; Near it breathe the garden roses : Trees functeal droop around, In whose boughs the small birds rest, And the stock dove builds her nest.
3 Close and still the cell that holds him, While in brief repose he lies; Deep the slumber that enfolds him, Veiled awhile from mortal eyes— Slumber such as needs must be After hard-won victory.

 4 Fierce and deadly was the anguish Which on yonder cross he bore: How did soul and body languish Till the toil of death was o'er! But that toil, so fierce and dread, Bruised and crushed the serpent's head. 	 3 No gloomy vault, no charnel-cell, No emblem of decay : No solemn sound of passing bell To say, "He's gone away!" But angel-whispers, soft and clear, And Jesus, risen, standing near. 4 Take flowers and strew them all
58 · Tune-Rock of Ages. 7s, 6 lines.	around The room where Jesus lay,
1 Resting from his work to-day In the tomb the Saviour lay; Still he slept,—from head to feet Shronded in the winding-sheet; Lying in the rock alone, Hidden by the sealed stone.	But softly tread; 'tis hallowed ground, And this our Sabbath day. "The Lord is risen, as he said," And thou shalt rise with him, thy Head.
2 Late at even there was seen	60 TuneHarwell. 85 & 75.
 2 Late at even block was seen? 2 Watching long the Magdalene; 2 Early, ere the break of day, 3 Sorrowful she took her way 7 of the holy garden glade, 3 Where her buried Lord was laid. 3 So with thee, till life shall end, 1 would solemn vigil spend; 2 Let me hew thee, Lord, a shrine, 1 n this rocky heart of mine, Where in pure, embalmèd cell, None but thou mayst ever dwell. 4 Myrrh and spices will I bring, True affection's offering; Close the door from sight and sound Of the busy world around; And in patient watch remain Till my Lord appear again. 	 Alleluia! alleluia! Hearts to heaven and voices raise; Sing to God a hymn of gladness: Sing to Christ a hymn of praise. He who on the cross a victim For the world's salvation bled, Jesus Christ, the King of Glory, Now is risen from the dead. Christ is risen—Christ the first-fruits Of the holy harvest-field, Which will all its full abundance At his second coming yield: Then the golden ears of harvest Will their heads before him wave, Ripened by his glorious sunshine From the furrows of the grave.
59 Tune—Hastings. C. L. M.	3 Christ is risen—we are risen: Shed upon us heavenly grace,
 A pathway opens from the tomb; The grave's a grave no more! Stoop down; look into that sweet room, Pass through the unsealed door: Linger a moment by the bed Where lay but yesterday our Head. What is ther' there to make thee fear? A folded chamber-vest, Akin to that which thou shalt wear When for thy slumber dressed; Two gentle angels standing by: How sweet a room wherein to lie. 	 Rain and dew, and gleams of glory From the brightness of thy face; That we, Lord, with hearts in heaven, Here on earth may fruitful be, And by angel hands be gathered To be ever safe with thee. 4 Alleluia! alleluia! Glory be to God on high, To the Father, and the Saviour, Who has gamed the victory: Glory to the Holy Spirit, Fount of love and sanctity. Alleluia! alleluia! To the Triune Majesty.

61 Tune-Olivet. 6s	& 4s.	And, listening to his accents,
Rise, glorious Conqueror, rise;		May hear so calm and plain
Into thy native skies,—		His own "All hail," and, hearing,
Assume thy right:		May raise the victor strain.
And where in many a fold
The clouds are backward rolled-		3 Now let the heavens be joyful,
Pass through those gates of gold,		And earth her song begin,
And reign in light!		The round world keep high triumph,
2 Victor o'er death and hell!		And all that is therein; Let all things seen and unseen
Chernbic legions swell		Their notes of gladness blend,
The radiant train :		For Christ the Lord is risen,
Praises all heaven inspire;		Our joy that hath no end.
Each angel sweeps his lyre,
And waves his wings of fire,-
Thou Lamb once slain!		63 Tune-Webb. 78 & 64
3 Enter, Incarnate God !
No feet but thine have trod		1 With laud and loud thanksgiving,
The serpent down;		Thee, Saviour, we adore,
Blow the full trumpets, blow !		The dead who now art living,
Wider yon portals throw!		And shall live evermore—
Saviour triumphant-go,		Set in the eternal city,
And take thy crown!		At God's right hand above,
4 Yet-who are those behind,		The infinite in pity, The measureless in love.
In numbers more than mind		I ne measureless in love.
Can count or say—		0 Then there the new local sectors
Clothed in immortal stoles,		2 For thee the nard and spices, And the fine linen's fold;
Illumining the poles— A galaxy of souls,		But not for thee suffices
In white array?		The ointment and the gold;
		Things nobler still and fairer,
5 And then was heard afar		O Saviour, shall be thine:
Star answering to star— Lo! these have come,		Man's heart hath off'rings rarer,
Followers of him, who gave		Sweet sound and song divine.
His life, their lives to save;
And now their palms they wave,		3 Till, wafted by devotion,
Brought safely home.		Our human voices call
62 Tune-Missionary Hymn. 7s	& 6s.	Across the crystal ocean, a 05.
1 The day of resurrection !		Unto the city golden Where God is on his throne,
Earth, tell it out abroad;		Where sweeter harps are holden,
The passover of gladness, The passover of God;		And better Hymns are known,
From death to life eternal,
From earth unto the sky,		4 And blend their measures lowly
Our Christ has brought us over,		With the eternal lay,
With hymns of victory.		The "Holy, holy, holy !"
		That rises night and day-
2 Our hearts be pure from evil,		And that great song expressing,
That we may see aright The Lord in rays eternal		While heaven's far arches ring, Salvation, glory, blessing,
Of resurrection light;		And honor to our King.
in the second second second

34 Tune—Good Tidings. S. M. D.	4 Hark, those bursts of acelamation ! Hark, those loud, triumphant chords !
1 Thou art gone up on high,	Lamb of God, our strong salvation,
To realms beyond the skies;	O, what joy the sight affords!
And round thy throne unceasingly	Crown him: Crown him: King of kings, and Lord of lords.
The songs of praise arise; But we are lingering here,	iking of kings, and hord of fords.
With sin and care oppressed;	66 Tune-Moors. C. M.
Oh may thy promised Comforter, Lord, lead us to our rest.	1 It is the voice of love divine, That strikes the list'ning ear, That soothes his mourning follower's
2 Thou art gone up on high; But thou didst first come down, Through earth's most bitter misery	grief, And wipes the falling tear ;
To pass unto thy crown; And girt with griefs and fears Our onward course must be;	2 "Because I leave this world," he cries, "Your weeping eyes o'erflow;
But only let this path of tears Lead us at last to thee.	But tho' I seek my native skies, My heart remains below.
3 Thou art gone up on high; But thou shalt come again, With all the bright ones of the sky Attendant in thy train.	 3 "MySpirit shall descend, and rest Upon each faithful head, Till I, your Lord, return to call My servants from the dead."
Lord, by thy saving power, So make us live and die, That we may stand in that dread hour At thy right hand on high.	4 He said—and lifting up his hands, Pronounced his parting prayer; When lo, a bright descending cloud Conveyed him through the air.
65 Tune-Ami. 8s, 7s, & 4s. Look, ye saints; the sight is glorious; See the man of sorrows now;	5 With solemn awe his followers viewed The splendor of the scene, While the unfolding gates of light Received the Saviour in.
From the fight returned victorious, Every knee to him shall bow; Crown him: Crown him: Crowns become the victor's brow.	6 Burning with holy zeal, they spread, Through distant lands, his word; And we, like them, with faith and joy, Expect our risen Lord
2 Crown the Saviour, angels crown	67 Tune-Yates. 85 & 78.
him; Rich the trophies Jesus brings; On the seat of power enthrone him, While the heavenly concert rings: Crown him: Crown him:	 See the Conqueror mounts in triumph, See the King in royal state Riding on the clouds his chariot To his heavenly palace gate; Hark, the choirs of angel voices
Crown the Saviour King of kings. 3 Sinners in derision crowned him,	Joyful alleluias sing, And the portals high are lifted To receive their heavenly King.
Mocking thus the Saviour's claim ; Saints and angels bend around him,	2 Who is this that comes in glory,
Own his title: praise his name: Crown him: Crown him: Spread abroad the victor's fame!	With the trump of jubilee? Lord of battles, God of armies, He has gained the victory;

To his everlasting home. 4 He has raised our human nature In the clouds to God's right hand; There we sit in heavenly places, There with him in glory stand: Jesus reigns, adored by angels; Man with God is on the throne; Mighty Lord, in thine ascension; We by faith behold our own. 3 S 4 All glory, haud, and honor To thee, Redeemer, King ! To whom the lips of children Made sweet hosannas ring. 4 The uart the King of Israel, Thou art the King of Israel, Thou David's royal Son, Who in the Lord's name comest, The King and blessèd one. 3 The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. b Became a man of griefs for me; In love, though rich, becoming poor, That I, through lim, enriched might be. 4 Though Lord of all, above, below, He went to Olivet for me; 5 & 65 . 1 The ever-blessed Son of God Went up to Calvary for me; There won the glorious victory, 3 In love the whole dark path he trod, To consecrate a way for me; Each bitter footstep marked with blood From Bethlehem to Calvary. 4 'Tis finished all; the veil is rent, The welcome sure the access free.
 He who from the grave arose, He bay acquished sin and Satan, He by death has spoiled his foes. While he lifts his hands in blessing, He is parted from his friends; While their eager eyes behold him, He upon the clouds accends; While their eager eyes behold him, He upon the clouds accends; Ic who walked with God, and pleased him, Preaching truth, and doom to come, i.e. our Encoch, is translated To his everlasting home. I he has raised our human nature In the clouds to God's right hand; There weith him in glory stand: Iseus reigns, adored by angels; Man with God is on the throne; We by faith behold our own. BS Twoe-Malterille. To the Redeemer, King 1 To thee, Redeemer, King 1 To the king of Israel, Theu David's royal Son, Who in the Lord's name comest, The King and blessèd one. The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee went, Dur praise and prayer sat. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, dored went sextended coasts: Hoo and King Method and Redeemer, Northe Redeemer, King 1 To upe heaven's extended coasts: the set of the set and the set a	He who on the cross did suffer,	PART I.
 He has vanquished sin and Satan, He by death has spoiled his foes. While he lifts his hands in blessing, He is parted from his friends; While their eager eyes behold him, He upon the clouds accends; Le who walked with God, and pleased him, Preaching truth, and doom to come; Preaching truth, and doom to come; In our Enoch, is translated To his everlasting home. I he has raised our human nature In the clouds to God's right hand; There we sit in heavenly places, There with him in glory stand: Fessus reigns, adored by angels; Man with God is on the throne; Mighty Lord, in thine ascension; We by faith behold our own. 38 Tune-Malterile. Take Lang for the King of Israel, Thou David's royal Son, Who in the Lord's name comest, The King and blessed one. The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, to thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, The class accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, The class accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, The class how and all things of class accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, The class accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, The class accept their praises; Accept the prayers we br		69 German Air, or Mendon, L. M.
 1 The Sol of God in Finghty love, an infant upon earth to be. 2 Muhie their eager eyes behold him, He upon the clouds ascends; 10 who walked with God, and pleased him, Preaching truth, and doom to come, it, or renoch, is translated To his everlasting home. 4 He has raised our human nature In the clouds to God's right hand; 11 He sol of God is Manage and angles, Man with God is on the throne; 11 He sol of God is Manage and the secension; We by faith behold our own. 38 Two-Malleville. 7s & 6s. 12 All glory, laud, and honor To thee, Redeemer, King 1 12 who in the lips of children Made sweet hosannas ring. 12 Thou art the King of Israel, Thou David's royal Son, Who in the Lord's name comest, The King and blessèd one. 3 The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. 4 The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Sort praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. 5 Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in the grayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, 1 The de all angels cry alond, Through heaven's extended coasts: Who in all good delightest, 	He has vanquished sin and Satan,
 While he lifts his hands in blessing, He is parted from his friends; While their eager eyes behold him, He upon the clouds ascends; Ile who walked with God, and pleased him, Preaching truth, and doom to come, Le. our Enoch, is translated To his everlasting home. I he has raised our human nature In the clouds to God's right hand; There we sit in heavenly places, There with him in glory stand: Iseus reigns, adored by angels; Man with God is on the throne; We by faith behold our own. 38 Tuwe-Malleville. Ts & 66. All glory, laud, and honor To thee, Redeemer, King 1 Thou David's royal Son, Who in all men, and all things Created make reply. The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, to the now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, the hall good god god god god god god god god go	He by death has spoiled his foes.
 He is parted from his friends; While their eager eyes behold him, He upon the clouds ascends; Ile who walked with God, and pleased him, Preaching truth, and doom to come, Preaching truth, and doom to come, In the clouds to God's right hand; There we sit in heavenly places, There with him in glory stand: Jesus reigns, adored by angels; Man with God is on the throne; Mighty Lord, in thine ascension; We by faitb behold our own. 38 Twwe-Malteville. The domand lessed one. All glory, haud, and honor To thee, Redeemer, King 1 Thou and the King of Israel, Thou outid's royal Son, Who in the Lord's name comest, The King and blessed one. The company of angels Are praising thee on high, Are praising thee on high, Are praising thee on high, The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, The yas ang their hymns of praise, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, And with all good delightest, An all good delightest, 	3 While he lifts his hands in blessing
 While their erger eyes behold him, He upon the clouds ascends; Ile who walked with God, and pleased him, Preaching truth, and doon to come, the, our Enoch, is translated To his everlasting home. I he has raised our human nature In the clouds to God's right hand; There with him in glory stand: Iseus reigns, adored by angels; Man with God is on the throne; Man with God is on the throne; Man with God is on the throne; We by faith behold our own. BS Tune-Malleville. The events of Children Made sweet hosannas ring. The ompany of angels Are praising these on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The eopene of the Hebrews With glands before thee went, Our praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, to thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Wo in all good delightest, The value and all stands, The all good delightest,
 He upon the clouds ascends; He who walked with God, and pleased him, Preaching truth, and doom to come, Preaching truth, and doom to come, To his everlasting home. 4 He has raised our human nature In the clouds to God's right hand; There we sit in heavenly places, Man with God is on the throne; Mighty Lord, in thine ascension; We by faith behold our own. 38 Twwe-Malleville. Ts & 6s. All glory, haud, and honot To thee, Redeemer, King 1 To whom the lips of children Made sweet hosannas ring. The uomart he King of Israel, The uomart le king of Israel, The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With plams before thee went, The people of the Hebrews With plams before thee went, The people of the Hebrews With plams before thee went, The people of the Hebrews With plams before thee went, The people of the Hebrews With gan and blession The usang their hymns of praise, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, Thou didst accept their praises; Mate in all good delightest, The we are and and deconsts: Thou didst accept their praises; Mate mate and prayers and anthems The we are an of angels and prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest,<!--</th--><th>While their eager eves behold him</th><th></th>	While their eager eves behold him
 IIIe who walked with God, and pleased him, preaching truth, and doom to come, is translated To his everlasting home. With simmers dwelt the undefiled, him, preaching truth, and doom to come, To his everlasting home. I he has raised our human nature In the clouds to God's right hand; There weit in heavenly places, There with him in glory stand: Itesus reigns, adored by angels; Man with God is on the throne; Man with God is on the throne; Mighty Lord, in thine ascension; We by faith behold our own. 38 Tune-Malleville. Ts & 66. All glory, laud, and honor To thee, Redeemer, King I Thou David's royal Son, Who in the Lord's name comest, The King and blessèd one. The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Cur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, fo thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, Thou didst accept their praises; Mush and allogod delightest, 	He upon the clouds ascends.
 him, Preaching truth, and doom to come, le, our Enoch, is translated To his everlasting home. 4 He has raised our human nature In the clouds to God's right hand; 4 He has raised our human nature In the clouds to God's right hand; 5 Here we sit in heavenly places, There with him in glory stand: Iesus reigns, adored by angels; Man with God is on the throne; Mighty Lord, in thine ascensio; We by faith behold our own. 38 Tune-Malleville. 7s $ 6 1 All glory, haud, and honor To thee, Redeemer, King 1 1 The ever-Boltssed Son of God Went up to Calvary for me; There paid my debt, there bore my load. In his own body on the tree. 2 Jesus, whose dwelling is the skies, Went down into the grave for me; There won the glorious victory, 3 In love the whole dark path he trod, To consecrate a way for me; Each bitter footstep marked with blood From Bethelem to Calvary. 4 The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Our melody we raise. 5 Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, 4 Thou dids accept their praises; Man in all good delightest, Preaching truth, and doom to come, Ite. our Enoch, is translated To his everlasting home. 4 He has raised our human nature In the clouds to God's right hand; There we sit in heavenly places, There we sit in heavenly places, Man with God is on the throne; Bighty Lord, in thine ascension; We by faith behold our own. 3 Jesus, whom angel-hosts adore, Became a man of griefs for me; In love, though rich, becoming poor, That I, thr ugh him, enriched might be. 4 Though Lord of all, above, below, He went to Olivet for me; There drank my cup of wrath and woe, When bleeding in Gethsemane. 5 Twwe-Malleville. 5 Accept the prayers we bring, Who in the good ellightest, 5 Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, 5 Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, 5 Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, 5 Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, 5 Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, 6 Thou and all edightest, 7 That all good delightest, 6 Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, 6 Thou didst accept their praises; 7 Thou didst accept their praises; 1 The we acknowledge God and Lord, Through heaven's extended coasts: 1 Hathey and the solution the region of the and by the prayers we bring, 1 The we acknowledge Coasts: 1 Thou based and the prayers we bring, 1 The we acknowledge Coasts: 1 The we acknowledge Coasts: 1 Thou based and the prayers we bring, 1 The we accept the prayers we bring, 1 The weleane a man of griefs for me;
 To his everlasting home. To his everlasting home. He has raised our human nature In the clouds to God's right hand; There we sit in heavenly places, There with him in glory stand: Issus reigns, adored by angels; Man with God is on the throne; Mighty Lord, in thine ascension; We by faith behold our own. 38 Tune-Malleville. Ts & 66: All glory, laud, and honor To thee, Redeemer, King ! To whom the lips of children Made sweet hosannas ring. Thou art the King of Israel, Thou David's royal Son, Who in the Lord's name comest, The king and blessèd one. The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before the went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before the we present. To the before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, fo thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, Thou didst accept their praises; Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord
 4 He has raised our human nature In the clouds to God's right hand; 4 The we sit in heavenly places, There with him in glory stand: 4 He has raised our human nature In the clouds to God's right hand; 5 There we sit in heavenly places, There with him in glory stand: 4 He has raised our human nature Itat I, thru ugh him, enriched might be. 4 Though Lord of All, above, below, He went to Olivet for me; 4 Though Lord of All, above, below, He went to Olivet for me; 5 There with him in glory stand: 5 Thou didts accept their praises; 6 Thou didts accept their praises; 7 Thou didts acc	He, our Enoch, is translated
 4 He has raised our human nature In the clouds to God's right hand; There we sit in heavenly places, There with him in glory stand: Issus reigns, adored by angels; Man with God is on the throne; Mighty Lord, in thine ascension; We by faith behold our own. 38 Tune-Malleville. All glory, haud, and honor To thee, Redeemer, King ! To whom the lips of children Made sweet hosannas ring. Thou art the King of Israel, Thou David's royal Son, Who in the Lord's name comest, The company of angels Are praising the on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, Co thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, Thou didst accept their praises; Thou bidst accept thei	To his everlasting home.
 In the clouds to God's right hand; In the clouds to God's right hand; There we sit in heavenly places, There we sit in heavenly places, There we sit in heavenly stand: Issue regins, adored by angels; Man with God is on the throne; Mighty Lord, in thine ascension; We by faith behold our own. 38 Tune-Malleville. 7s & 6s. All glory, haud, and honor To thee, Redeemer, King ! Fo whom the lips of children Made sweet hosannas ring. Thou art the King of Israel, Thou David's royal Son, Who in the Lord's name comest, The King and blessèd one. The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, Co thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest,
 There we sit in heavenly places, There we sit in heavenly places, Man with God is on the throne; Mighty Lord, in thine ascension; We by faith behold our own. 38 Tune-Malleville. 7s & 6s. All glory, haud, and honor To thee, Redeemer, King 1 Fo whom the lips of children Made sweet hosannas ring. Thou art the King of Israel, Thou David's royal Son, Who in the Lord's name comest, The King and blessèd one. The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, Co thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Won in all good delightest, The the form all good delightest, Thou didst accept their praises; Thou bidst accept their praises; <li< th=""><th>4 He has raised our human nature</th><th></th></li<>	4 He has raised our human nature
There with him in glory stand: Jesus reigns, adored by angels; Man with God is on the throne; Mighty Lord, in thine ascension; We by faith behold our own. 38 39 30 30 30 30 30 30 30 30 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 31 3	In the clouds to God's right hand;
Jesus reigns, adored by angels; Man with God is on the throne; Mighty Lord, in thine ascension; We by faith behold our own. 38 39 30 30 30 30 30 30 30 30 30 30 30 30 30 30 30 30 30 30 30 40 40 40 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41 41	There we sit in heavenly places,
Man with God is on the throne; Mighty Lord, in thine ascension; We by faith behold our own. 389 Tune-Malleville. To thee, Redeemer, King 1 To whom the lips of children Made sweet hosannas ring. Part II. Tune-Rolland. 1 The ever-blessed Son of God Went up to Calvary for me; There paid my debt, there bore my load, In his own body on the tree. 2 Jesus, whose dwelling is the skies, Went down into the grave for me; There overcame my enemies, There won the glorious victory, 3 In love the whole dark path he trod, To consecrate a way for me; There won the glorious victory, 3 In love the whole dark path he trod, To consecrate a way for me; There won the glorious victory, 3 In love the whole dark path he trod, To consecrate a way for me; There won the glorious victory, 3 In love the whole dark path he trod, To consecrate a way for me; There won the glorious victory, 4 The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. 5 To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, Fo thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. 5 Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, The search and all good delightest, Through heaven's extended coasts: Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord
Mighty Lord, in thine ascension; We by faith behold our own. 38 39 1 All glory, laud, and honor To thee, Redeemer, King 1 To whom the lips of children Made sweet hosannas ring. 3 Thou art the King of Israel, Thou David's royal Son, Who in the Lord's name comest, The King and blessèd one. 3 The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. 4 The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. 5 To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, To thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. 5 Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, 5 The didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, 5 Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, 5 Thou all good delightest, 5 Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, 6 The all good delightest, 5 Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, 6 The all good delightest, 5 Thou didst accept their praises; 6 The and brow their praises; 7 The accept the prayers we bring, 6 The all angels cry aloud, Through heaven's extended coasts: 1 The weight and the the praises; 1 Through heaven's extended coasts: 1 The praise and prayer and anthems
 We by faith behold our own. BS Tune-Malleville. All glory, haud, and honor To thee, Redeemer, King ! All glory, haud, and honor To thee, Redeemer, King ! To thee, Redeemer, King ! To the lips of children Made sweet hosannas ring. Thou art the King of Israel, Thou David's royal Son, Who in the Lord's name comest, The King and blessèd one. The company of angels Are praising the on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, fo thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, The weight of the states of the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, 		When bleeding in Gethsemane.
 Tune-Rolland. Tune-Rolland. Tune-Rolland. Tune-Rolland. Tune-Rolland. The ever-blessed Son of God Went up to Calvary for me; There paid my debt, there bore my load, In his own body on the tree. Jesus, whose dwelling is the skies, Went down into the grave for me; There overcame my enemies, There won the glorious victory, In love the whole dark path he trod, To consecrate a way for me; Each bitter footstep marked with blood From Bethlehem to Calvary. 'The welcome sure, the access free; Now then we leave our banishment, O Father, to return to thee! To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, to the enow high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, 		PART II.
 39 Tune-Malleville. 7s & 6s. All glory, haud, and honor To thee, Redeemer, King 1 Fo whom the lips of children Made sweet hosannas ring. a) Thou art the King of Israel, Thou David's royal Son, Who in the Lord's name comest, The King and blessèd one. b) The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. c) The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. c) To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, Fo thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. c) Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, c) The the value of the mathematical stated on mall good delightest, c) Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, c) Tame-Metrices c) Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, c) Thou didst accept their praises; c) The provide the prayers we bring, c) Thou side the prayers we bring, c) The prayer and anthematical transmission the prayers we bring, c) The prayers	we by faith behold our own.
 All glory, laud, and honot To thee, Redeemer, King ! To whom the lips of children Made sweet hosannas ring. Thou art the King of Israel, Thou David's royal Son, Who in the Lord's name comest, The King and blessèd one. The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Our praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, fo thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, Went up to Calvary for me; There paid my debt, there bore my load, In his own body on the tree. Jesus, whose dwelling is the skies, Went down into the grave for me; There overcame my enemies, There won the glorious victory, In love the whole dark path he trod, To consecrate a way for me; Each bitter footstep marked with blood From Bethlehem to Calvary. In love the whole dark path he trod, To consecrate a way for me; Each bitter footstep marked with blood From Bethlehem to Calvary. The velome sure, the access free; Now then we leave our banishment, O Father, to return to thee! The amb for sinners slain; Who art by heaven and earth adored, Worthy o'er both to reign i To thee all angels cry aloud, Through heaven's extended coasts: Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord 		1 ane—Rotana.
 The paid my debt, there bore my load, In his own body on the tree. There paid my debt, there bore my load, In his own body on the tree. In his own body on the tree. Jesus, whose dwelling is the skies, Went down into the grave for me; There overcame my enemies, To consectate a way for me; Each bitter footstep marked with blood From Bethlehem to Calvary. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Our praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, fo thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, 	68 Tune—Malleville. 7s & 6s.	1 The ever-blessed Son of God
 To thee, Redeemer, King! To whom the lips of children Made sweet hosannas ring. Thou art the King of Israel, Thou David's royal Son, Who in the Lord's name comest, The King and blessèd one. The company of angels Are praising the on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, fo thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, The the page solution of the theorems and the provided the transformation of the theorems and the provided the transformation of the theorems and prayer and anthems To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, Thou didst accept their praises; Thou didst accept their praises; Made sweet hosannas ring. Thou didst accept their praises; Thou didst accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, 	All glory bud and honor	Went up to Calvary for me;
 To whom the lips of children Made sweet hosannas ring. Thou art the King of Israel, Thou David's royal Son, Who in the Lord's name comest, The King and blessèd one. The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, fo thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, The the form the total of the theory of the set of the theory of theory of the theory of theory of the theory of theory of the theory of theory	To thee Bedeemer King!	There paid my debt, there bore my load,
 Made sweet hosannas ring. I hou art the King of Israel, Thou David's royal Son, Who in the Lord's name comest, The King and blessèd one. The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Our praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, fo thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, Jesus, whose dwelling is the skies, Went down into the grave for me; There overcame my enemies, There overcame my enemies, There won the glorious victory, In love the whole dark path he trod, To consecrate a way for me; Each bitter footstep marked with blood From Bethlehem to Calvary. 'Tis finished all; the veil is rent, The welcome sure, the access free; Now then we leave our banishment, O Father, to return to thee! Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, 	To whom the lins of children	In his own body on the tree.
 a Thou art the King of Israel, Thou David's royal Son, b Went down into the grave for me; There overcame my enemies, There won the glorious victory, 3 In love the whole dark path he trod, To consecrate a way for me; a The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. a The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. b To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, Fo thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. c Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, c Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, c Thou all good delightest, c Thou all good delightest, c Thou all good delightest, c Thou shared we the state of the prayers we bring, c Thou shared we the prayers we bring, c The the prayers we bring, c Thou shared we the prayers we bring, c The the prayer and t		9. Jogua where dwalling is the shire
 Thou did's regard Son, The King and blessèd one. The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, 	e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e
 Who in the Lord's name comest, The King and blessèd one. The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Our praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, fo thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, The King and blessèd one. I nlow the wole dark path he trod, To consecrate a way for me; Each bitter footstep marked with blood From Bethlehem to Calvary. I the welcome sure, the access free; Now then we leave our banishment, O Father, to return to thee! To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, S Thou didst accept their praises; Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord 	2 Thou art the King of Israel,
 The King and blessèd one. The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, 	Thou David's royal Son,
 The company of angels Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, To thee before the prayers. C. II. The welcome sure, the access free; Now then we leave our banishment, O Father, to return to thee! To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, To thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, C. II. 	Who in the Lord's name comest,	There won the glorious victory, and mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, To thee before the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, 	The King and blessed one.	3 In love the whole dark path he trod,
 Are praising thee on high, And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, To thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, 	The company of angels	To consecrate a way for me;
 And mortal men, and all things Created make reply. 4 The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Our praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. 5 To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, fo thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. 6 Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, 7 This Bethelem to Calvary. 4 'Tis finished all; the veil is rent, The welcome sure, the access free; Now then we leave our banishment, O Father, to return to thee! 70 Tune-Devizes. C. II. 1 Thee we acknowledge God and Lord, The Lamb for sinners slain; Who art by heaven and earth adored, Worthy o'er both to reign i 2 To thee all angels cry aloud, Through heaven's extended coasts: Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord 		Each bitter footstep marked with blood,
 Created make reply. 4 'Tis finished all; the veil is rent, The welcome sure, the access free; Now then we leave our banishment, O Father, to return to thee! 70 Tane-Devices. C. II. 70 Tane-Devices. C. II. 70 Tane-Devices. C. II. 70 Tane-Devices. C. II. 70 The Lamb for sinners slain; Who art by heaven and earth adored, Worthy o'er both to reign i 2 To the all angels cry aloud, Through heaven's extended coasts: Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord 		From Bethlehem to Calvary.
 The people of the Hebrews With palms before thee went, Our praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, To thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, The velcome sure, the access free; Now then we leave our banishment, O Father, to return to thee! The welcome sure, the access free; Now then we leave our banishment, O Father, to return to thee! The welcome sure, the access free; Now then we leave our banishment, O Father, to return to thee! The use acknowledge God and Lord, The Lamb for sinners slain; Who art by heaven and earth adored, Worthy o'er both to reign i To thee all angels cry aloud, Through heaven's extended coasts: Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord 		A Mile Calebral all a the methic work
 With palms before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, To thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, Now then we leave our banishment, O Father, to return to theel Tane—Devizes. The Lamb for sinners slain; Who art by heaven and earth adored, Worthy o'er both to reign 1 To thee all angels cry aloud, Through heaven's extended coasts: Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord 	Oreated make repry.
 With paths before thee went, Dur praise and prayer and anthems Before thee we present. To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, To thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, O Father, to return to thee! Tane—Devizes. The Lamb for sinners slain; The Lamb for sinners slain; Who art by heaven and earth adored, Worthy o'er both to reign in 2 To thee all angels cry aloud, Through heaven's extended coasts: Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord 	4 The people of the Hebrews
 To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, fo thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, They sang their hymns of praise, they sang their hymns of praise, to thee now high exalted To thee all angels cry aloud, Through heaven's extended coasts: Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord
Before thee we present.70Tune-Devizes.C. II.5 To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, Fo thee now high exalted Our melody we raise.70Tune-Devizes.C. II.1 Thee we acknowledge God and Lord, The Lamb for sinners slain; Who art by heaven and earth adored, Worthy o'er both to reign i1Thee we acknowledge God and Lord, The Lamb for sinners slain; Who art by heaven and earth adored, Worthy o'er both to reign i2 To thee all angels cry aloud, Through heaven's extended coasts: Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord2		O Father, to return to theet
 To thee before thy passion They sang their hymns of praise, To thee now high exalted Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, The tamb for sinners slain; Who art by heaven and earth adored, Worthy o'er both to reign: To thee all angels cry aloud, Through heaven's extended coasts: Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord 		70 Tune-Devices. C II
 They say over a set of praise, Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, The family for siners sharts, who is and earth adored, Who art by heaven and earth adored, Worthy o'er both to reign i To the all angels cry aloud, Through heaven's extended coasts: Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord
 They say over a set of praise, Our melody we raise. Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, The family for siners sharts, who is and earth adored, Who art by heaven and earth adored, Worthy o'er both to reign i To the all angels cry aloud, Through heaven's extended coasts: Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord 	To thee before thy passion
Our melody we raise.Worthy o'er both to reign iThou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest,2 To thee all angels cry aloud, Through heaven's extended coasts: Hail, holy, holy Lord	riey sang then nymns of praise,
 Thou didst accept their praises; Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, 2 To thee all angels cry aloud, Through heaven's extended coasts: Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord
Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord	Our melody we raise.	worthy o er both to reign i
Accept the prayers we bring, Who in all good delightest, Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord	Thou didst accept their praises:	2 To thee all angels cry aloud.
Who in all good delightest, Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord	Accept the pravers we bring,
Thou good and gracious King. Of glory and of hosts!	Who in all good delightest,
	Thou good and graeious King.

3 The prophet's goodly fellowship, In radiant garments dressed,	72 Tune-Solon. C. M.
Praise thee, thou Son of God, and reap The fullness of thy rest.	1 Once, only once, and once for all, His precious life he gave; Before the cross our spirits fall,
4 The apostles' glorious company Thy righteous praise proclaim;	And own it strong to save.
The martyred army glorify Thine everlasting name.	2 "One offering, single and complete," With lips and heart we say;
5 Throughout the world thy churches join
To call on thee, their Head,— Brightness of majesty divine, Who every power hast made!	 3 For, as the priest of Aaron's line Within the holiest stood, And sprinkled all the mercy-shrine With sacrificial blood;
 6 Among their number, Lord, we love To sing thy precious blood; Reign here, and in the worlds above, Thou holy lamb of God! 	 4 So he, who once atonement wrought, Our Priest of endless power, Presents himself for those he bought In that dark noontide hour.
71 Tune—Olivet. Cs & 4s.	73 Tune-Bartimeus. 85 & 75, single.
1 My faith looks up to thee, Thou Lamb of Calvary; Saviour divine! Now hear me while I pray; Take all my guilt away;	1 Thou art near—yes, Lord, I feel it, Thou art near where'er I move, And though sense would fain conceal it, Faith oft whispers it to Love.
O, let me from this day Be wholly thine.	2 Am I weak? Thine arm doth lead me
2 May thy rich grace impart Strength to my fainting heart,	Safe through every danger, Lord: Am I hungry? Thou dost feed me With the manna of thy Word.
My zcal inspire; As thou hast died for me, O, may my love to thee,	3 Am I thirsting? Thou wilt guide me Where refreshing waters flow;
Pure, warm, and changeless bo, A living fire.	Faint or feeble, thou'lt provide me Grace for every want I know.
3 While life's dark maze I tread, And griefs around me spread, Be thou my guide; Bid darkness turn to day,	4 Am I fearful? Thou wilt take mo Underneath thy wings, my God! Am I faithless? Thou wilt make me Bow beneath thy chastening rod.
Wipe sorrow's tears away, Nor let me ever stray	5 Am I drooping? Thou art near me,
From thee aside.	Near to bear me on my way: Am I pleading? Thou dost hear me, Hear and answer, when I pray.
4 When ends life's transient dream, When death's cold suller stream
When death's cold, sullen stream Shall o'er me roll;	74 Tune-Harwell. 85 & 75.
Blest Saviour, then in love, Fear and distress remove :	1 Alleluia, sing to Jesus, His the sceptre, his the throne;
O, bear me safe above— A ransomed soul.	Alleluia, his the triumph, His the victory alone;
A Tansomen sour.	and victory alone,

Hark, the songs of peaceful Sion	76 Tune-Zerah. C. M.
Thunder like a mighty flood; Jesus out of every nation	1 Hosanna! raise the pealing hymn
Hath redeemed us by his blood.	To David's Son and Lord;
2 Alleluia, not as orphans	Exalt the Incarnate Word.
We are left in sorrow now;
Alleluia, he is near us,	2 Hosanna! Sovereign, Prophet, Priest, How vast thy gifts, how free!
Faith believes, nor questions how : Though the eloud from sight received	Thy blood, our life; thy word, our feast;
him,	Thy name, our only plea.
When the forty days were o'er,	3 Hosanna! Master, lo! we bring
Shall our hearts forget his promise,	Our offerings to thy throne;
"I am with you ever more?"	Not gold, nor myrrh, nor earthly thing
3 Alleluia, bread of angels,	But hearts to be thine own.
Thou on earth, our food, our stay, Alleluia, here the sinful	4 Hosanna! once thy gracious ear
Flee to thee from day to day;	Approved a lisping throng; Be gracious still, and deign to hear
Intereessor, friend of sinners,	Our poor but grateful song.
Earth's Redeemer, plead for me, Where the songs of all the sinless
Sweep across the crystal sea.	5 Oh Saviour, if redeemed by thee Thy temple we behold,
4 Alleluie King stornel	Hosannas through eternity!
4 Alleluia, King eternal, Thee the Lord of lords we own ;	We'll sing to harps of gold.
Alleluia, born of Mary,	TuneFrederick. 6s & 5s or 11s.
Earth thy footstool, heaven thy throne: Thou within the veil hast entered,	1 While darkness yet hovers, The harbinger star
Robed in flesh, our great High Priest;	Peers through and discovers
Thou on earth both priest and victim	The dawn from afar.
Shown in Eucharistic feast.	To many an aching And watch-wearied eye
75 Tune-Dormance. 8s & 7s, single.	The dayspring is breaking,
1 Vor for ma for ma he sureth	Once more, from on high.
1 Yes, for me, for me he careth With a brother's tender care;	2 With lamps trimmed and burning,
Yes, with me, with me he shareth	The Church, on her way
Every burden, every fear.	To meet thy returning,
2 Yes, o'er me, o'er me he watcheth,	Goes forth and rejoices,
Ceaseless watcheth, night and day;	Exulting and free,
Yes, even me, even me he snatcheth From the perils of the way.	And sends from all voices
	Hosannas to thee.
3 Yes, for me he standeth pleading, At the mercy-seat above;	3 She casts off her sorrows,
Ever for me interceding,	To rise and to shine
Constant in untiring love.	With the lustre she borrows, O Saviour! from thine.
4 Thus I wait for his returning,	Look down, for thine honor,
Singing all the way to heaven;	O Lord ! and increase,
Such the joyful song of morning,
Such the tranquil song of even.	In mercy, upon her The blessing of peace.

 4 Her children, with trembling Await, but not fear, Till the time of assembling Before thee draws near; When, freed from all sadness And sorrow and pain, They'll meet thee in gladness And glory, again. 	 3 Long thy exiles have been pining Far from rest and home and thee; But, in heavenly vesture shining, Soon they shall thy glory see. Maranatha! Haste the glorious jubilee! 4 Fast flows on the tide of ages; Of its fullness signs appear; Tokens, by the prophet pages,
78 Tunc-Woodstock. C. M.	Seem to tell the Coming near: Alleluia !
 Bride of the Lamb, awake! awake! Why sleep for sorrow now? The hope of glory, Christ, is thine, An heir of glory thou. Thy spirit, through the lonely night, From earthly joy apart, 	Welcome, Lord and Saviour dear! 5 Waxeth cold the love of many Waxeth hot the devil's spite: Few the steadfast—hardly any Daring for the true and right. Allelnia!
Hath sighed for one that's far away— The bridegroom of thy heart.	Jesus, come in thine own might!
 3 But see, the night is waning fast, The breaking morn is near; And Jesus comes, with voice of love, Thy drooping heart to cheer. 4 He comes—for, oh ! his yearning heart 	 ⁶ Join their cry who've gone before us Longing for the final doom : Theirs and ours redemption's chorus, Come, Lord Jesus, quickly come : Alleluia ! Even so, Lord Jesus, come !
No more can bear delay— To scenes of full unmingled joy To call his Bride away.	80 Tune-Forever with the Lord. S. M. D
5 Thou, too, shalt reign—he will not wear His erown of joy alone! And earth, his royal Bride shall see Beside him on the throne.	 The Church has waited long, Her absent Lord to see; And still in loneliness she waits A friendless stranger she. Age after age has gone, Sun after sun has set, And still, in weeds of widowhood,
79 Tune-Calvary. 8s, 7s, & 4s.	She weeps a mourner yet.
 Christ is coming! let creation Bid her groans and travail cease; Let the glorious proclamation Hope restore and faith increase. Maranatha! Come, thou blessed Prince of Peace! Earth can now but tell the story Of the bitter correspondent princ. 	 2 Saint after saint on earth Has lived, and loved, and died; And as they left us one by one, We laid them side by side; We laid them down to sleep, But not in hope forlorn, We laid them but to ripen there, Till the last glorious morn.
Of thy bitter cross and pain; She shall yet behold thy glory, When thou comest back to reign. Maranatha! Let each heart repeat the strain!	3 The serpent's brood increase, The powers of hell grow bold, The conflict thickens, faith is low,

	-
How long, O Lord our God,	82 Tune-Jordan. C. M. D.
Holy and true and good, Wilt thou not judge thy suffering Church,	1 How oft the morn has cheated us, As, with unsleeping eye, We law upon our silent couch
Her sighs and tears and blood?	We lay upon our silent conch, And watched the changing sky.
4 We long to hear thy voice, To see thee face to face,	How often, as the heavy hours
To share thy crown and glory then,	Stole by with soundless haste, We've said, "Ah, now the dawn begins,
As now we share thy grace.	The weary night is past."
Should not the loving bride
The absent bridegroom mourn?	2 Hours went and came, but yet no
Should she not wear the weeds of grief Until her Lord return?	streak On eastern cloud or hill,
	We looked in vain, no sign appeared,
5 The whole creation groans	'Twas night and silence still.
And waits to hear that voice,	'Twas but the starlight, not the sun,
That shall restore her comeliness, And make her wastes rejoice.	The moonlight, not the day,
Come, Lord, and wipe away	We thought it was the dawn, but now, That dawn seems far away.
The curse, the sin, the stain,
And make this blighted world of ours	3 'Tis thus, beguiled with fond desire,
Thine own fair world again.	And sick with hope deferred,
	The watching Church, with eager ear, The well known cry has heard;
81 Tune—Falcon Street. S. M.	"He whom you look for is at hand,
1 Come, Lord, and tarry not;	Both hope and fear are done !"
Bring the long looked for day;	No, 'tis not yet,—and still she waits
Oh why these years of waiting here,	The still unrisen sun.
These ages of delay?	4 Age after age, in love and faith,
2 Come, for creation groans,	She has, with longing eye,
Impatient of thy stay,	Been watching every streak of dawn
Worn out with these long years of ill,	In yon perplexing sky.
These ages of delay.	And shall she now give up her trust, And turn her eye away,
3 Come, for thy foes are strong;	As if there were no sun for her
With taunting lips they say, "Where is the promised Advent new	No hope of light and day?
"Where is the promised Advent now, And where the dreaded day ?"	5 She will not for she knows how sure
	5 She will not, for she knows how sure The promise of her Lord;
4 Come, for the truth is weak, And error pours abroad	She will not, for she knows how true
Its subtle poison o'er the earth,—	Is the unchanging word.
An earth that hates her God.	The morn shall come; nay, he himself,
5 Come spoil the strong man's house	Brighter than morn's best ray, Shall come to bid the night depart,
5 Come, spoil the strong man's house, Bind him and cast him hence,	And bring at last the day.
Shew thou art stronger than the strong,
Thyself Omnipotence.	83 Tune-Sing Praise. 68.
6 Come, and make all things new,	1 Give ear, O earth, give ear l
Build up this ruined earth,	Depths of the mighty seal
Restore our faded Paradise,	Give ear, O man! Give ear,
Creation's second birth.	All 'neath the sun that bel

 ² The day of wrath draws near, The dreadful day of doom; The sinner's bitter day, It maketh haste to come. ³ Then shall these ancient skies Roll up and pass away; The sun shall blush, and hido Its face in dread dismay. ⁴ Alas! alas! alas! To whom, in that great day, Shall the sad sinner flee, On whom for refuge stay? ⁵ Lost, lost, forever lost! Too late! too late! he crics; Lost, lost, for ever lost! The second death he dies: 	 2 Arise, arise, good Christian, Let right to wrong succeed; Let penitential sorrow To heavenly gladness lead— To light that hath no evening, That knows nor moon nor sun, The light so new and golden, The light that is but One. 3 And when the Sole-Begotten Shall render up once more 3 And when the Sole-Begotten Shall render up once more The kingdom to the Father, Whose own it was before, Then glory yet unheard of Shall shed abroad its ray, Resolving all enigmas— An endless Sabbath day.
6 O Jesus, save and bless,	00, 15, 0 15,
O Son of God on high: Then safe in thee we live, And safe in thee we die.	1 "Come, Lord Jesus! O come quickly !" Oft has prayed the mourning Bride : "Lo !" he answers, "I come quickly !" Who my coming may abide ?
84 Tune-Rosenburg. L. M.	All who loved him,
1 Oquickly come, dread Judge of all; For, awful though thine advent be,	All who long'd to see his day. 2 "Come," he saith, "ye heirs of glory;
All shadows from the truth will fall, And falsehood die, in sight of thee.	Come, ye purchase of my blood ; Claim the kingdom now before you,
2 O quickly come, great King of all; Reign all around us, and within; Let sin no more our souls enthrall,	Rise and fill the Mount of God, Fix'd forever Where the Lamb on Sion stands."
Let pain and sorrow die with sin.
3 O quickly come, true Life of all; For death is mighty all around;	3 See 1 Ten thousand burning scraphs From their thrones as lightnings fly; "Take," they cry, " your seats above us,
On every home his shadows fall, On every heart his mark is found.	Nearest him who rules the sky l" Patient sufferers,
4 O quickly come, sure Light of all, For gloomy night broods o'er our way;	How rewarded are ye now ! 4 In full triumph see them marching
And weakly souls begin to fall With weary watching for the day.	Through the gates of massy light, While the city walls are sparkling,
85 Tune-Somervale. 78 & 68.	With meridian glory bright;
1 The world is very evil, The times are waxing late;	Oh how lovely Are the dwellings of the Lamb!
Be sober and keep vigil, The Judge is at the gate—	5 Through his passion all victorious, Now they drink immortal wine;
The judge that comes in mercy,	In Immanuel's likeness, glorious
The judge that comes in might,	As the firmament, they shine ;
To terminate the evil,	Shine forever
To diadem the right.	With the bright and morning star!

8"	Tune—Sicilian Hymn. 8s & 7s	7s. 4 Our hope and expectation, O Jesus, now appear !
1	Hark ! the cry, "Behold he cometh !" Hark ! the cry, "The Bridegroom's near !"	1 ^m Arise, thou Sun, so looked for, 1 ^s On this benighted sphere ! With hearts and hands uplifted, ese are accents falling sweetly On the ransomed sinner's ear.	We plead, O Lord, to see The day of our redemption, And ever be with thee.
	Man may disbelieve the tidings, Or in anger turn away ;	89 Tune-Shining Shore. Ss & 78.
	is foretold there shall be scoffers, Rising in the latter day.	1 The night is wearing fast away,
	But he'll come, the Lord from heaven,
Bı	Not to suffer or to die ; it to take his waiting people To their glorious rest on high.	play— The fair eternal morning. Gloomy and dark the night hath been, And long the way and dreary;
	Happy they who stand expecting Christ, the Saviour, to appear :	And sad the weeping saints are seen, And faint, and worn, and weary.
	d for those who do not love him— Those who do not wish him here.	2 Ye mourning pilgrims, dry your tears,
88	Tune—Stand up for Jesus. 78 & 68.	And hush each sigh of sorrow; The light of that bright morn appears, The long Sabbatic morrow.
	Rejoice, rejoice, believers!	Lift up your heads—behold from far A flood of splendor streaming;
	And let your lights appear; e evening is advancing,	It is the bright and morning star
1	The darker night is near.	In living lustre beaming.
11	e Bridegroom is arising, And soon will he draw nigh :	3 And see that star-like host around
\mathbf{U}_{j}	o, pray, and watch, and wrestle; At midnight comes the cry!	Of angel bands attending; Hark! hark! the trumpet's glad'ning sound
	See that your lamps are burning ; Replenish them with oil :	'Mid shouts triumphant blending. He comes! the Bridegroom promised
\mathbf{L}_{0}	ok now for your salvation,	Go forth with joy to meet him,
	The end of sin and toil. le watchers on the mountains	And raise the new and nuptial song,
	Proclaim the Bridegroom near;	In cheerful strains to greet him.
) meet him, as he cometh, With hallelujahs clear.	90 Tune-Lenox. II. M.
3	O wise and holy virgins,	1 My life's a shade, my days
	Now raise your voices higher, ll, in your jubilations,	Apace to death decline; My Lord is life, he'll raise
	Ye join the angel choir.	My dust again-e'en mine.
	te marriage feast is waiting,	Sweet truth to me,
	The gates wide open stand; p, up, ye heirs of glory:	I shall arise And with these eyes
	The Bridegroom is at hand !	My Saviour see.

 2 My peaceful grave shall keep My bones, till that sweet day; I wake from my long sleep And leave my bed of clay. Sweet truth to me, I shall arise And with these eyes My Saviour see. 	 4 Blessed Lord, behold thy promise, See, we hang upon thy word; Thou hast spoken, "I come quickly;" Thou hast spoken, we have heard. Come, Lord Jesus! Come, our own, our faithful Lord. 92 Tane-Happy Land. 65 & 48.
3 My Lord—his angels shall Their golden trumpets sound. At whose most welcome call My grave shall be unbound. Sweet truth to me, I shall arise And with these eyes My Saviour see.	 Hark! 'tis the watchman's cry! Wake, brethren, wake! Jesus, our Lord, is nigh! Wake, ctc. Sleep is for sons of night, Ye are children of the light, Yours is the glory bright! Wake, etc. Call to each waking band, Watch, brethren, watch ! [etc. Clear is our Lord's command ! Watch,
 4 I say, sometimes with tears, Ah me! I'm loth to die, Lord, silence thou these fears: My life's with thee on high. Sweet truth to me, I shall arise And with these eyes My Saviour see. 91 Tune-Minnesota. Ss, 78, & 4s. 	Be ye as men that wait Always at the master's gate, E'en tho' he tarry late! Watch, etc. 3 Hear we the Shepherd's voice, Pray, brethren, pray! Would ye his heart rejoice! Pray, etc. Sin calls for constant fear, Weakness needs the strong One near; Long as ye struggle here! Pray, etc.
 Lord, our longing hearts grow weary, Waiting for our soul's loved choice; Every hour seems sad and dreary, Till we hear thy welcome voice: Come, Lord Jesus ! Come, and bid our hearts rejoice ! Lo! thy members, Lord, oft languish 	4 Now sound the final chord, Praise, brethren, praise ! Thrice holy is our Lord ! Praise, etc. What more befits the tongues Soon to lead the angel's songs, While heaven the note prolongs- Praise, brethren, praise !
Midst the world's cold heartless throng; Some there are in very anguish, Crying, Lord, "How long? how long?" Come, Lord Jesus! Quickly raise the joyful song!	 My soul, amid this stormy world, Is like some flutter'd dove, And fain would be as swift of wing To flee to him I love. With hope deferr'd oft sick and faint,
3 Thou hast promised thou wouldst take us To thy everlasting home; Greater still, that thou wouldst make us Sit with thee upon thy throne. Come, Lord Jesus! Come, and claim us as thine own.	For then would I reply:

 4 "A child, when far away, may long For home and kindred dear; And she, that waits her absent lord, May sigh till he appear." 5 Thus would I see thee on thy throne, And ill can brook delay, Each moment listening for the voice, "Rise up, and come away!" 	 2 The vision is nearing, The Judge and the throne I The voice of the angel Proclaims "It is done." On whirl of the tempest Its ruler shall come, The blaze of his glory Flash out from its gloom; Then haste, sinner, haste, there is mercy for thee,
94 Tune-Molucca. 8s, 7s, & 4s.	And wrath is preparing,-flee, lingerer
 Lo! he comes, with clouds descending! Hark! the trump of God is blown, And, th' archangel's voice attending, Makes the high procession known; Sons of Adam! Rise and stand before your God ! 	flee! With clouds he is coming! His people shall sing, With gladness they hail him Redeemer and King. The iron rod wielding, The rod of his ire,
2 See the universe in motion,	He cometh to kindle Farth's last fatal fire!
Earth dissolving, and the ocean Vanishing in final fire; Hark! the trumpet Loud proclaims that day of ire!	Earth's last fatal fire! Then haste, sinner, haste, there is mercy for thee, And wrath is preparing,—flee, lingerer, flee!
• •	96 Tune-Woodland. 8s, 6s, or C. P. M.
 3 Lo! the last, long separation, As the cleaving clouds divide; And one dread adjudication Sends each soul to either side l Lord of mercy, How shall I that day abide? 	1 Descend, O sinner, to thy woe! Thy day of hope is done; Light shall revisit thee no more, Life with its sanguine dream is o'er, Love reaches not yon awful shore; For ever sets thy sun !
4 Oh may thine all gracious Spirit	2 Pass down to the eternal dark;
Now avert a dreadful doom, And me summon to inherit Thy eternal, blissful home. Oh, come quickly!	Yet not for rest nor sleep; Thine is the everlasting tomb, Thine the inexorable doom,
Let thy second advent come.	The moonless, mornless, sunless gloom, Where souls for ever weep
95 Tune-Munir. 6s & 5s, or 11s.	Where souls for ever weep. 3 Thy songs are at an end; thy harp
1 Time's sun is fast setting, Its twilight is nigh, Its evening is falling In cloud o'er the sky; Its shadows are stretching	Shall solace thee no more; All mirth has perish'd on thy grave, The melody that could not save Has died upon death's sullen wave That flung thee on this shore.
In ominous gloom; Its midnight approaches	4 Earth, with its waves, and woods, and
Its midnight approaches, The midnight of doom.	winds, Its stars, and suns, and streams,
Then haste, sinner, haste, there is mercy for thee,	Its joyous air and gentle skies, Fill'd with all happy melodies,
And wrath is preparing,—flee, lingerer, flee!	Has passed, or, with dark memories, Comes back in torturing dreams.

 5 No river of forgetfulness, As peets dream'd and sung, Rolls yonder to efface the past, To quench the sense of what thou wast, To soothe or end thy pain at last, Or cool thy burning tongue. 	 Above the dissonance of time, And discord of its angry words, I hear the everlasting chime, The music of unjarring chords. I bid it welcome; and my haste
6 No God is there; no Christ; for he, Whose word on earth was "Come," Hath said, "Depart:" go, lost one, go, Reap the sad harvest thou didst sow, Join yon lost angels in their woe,	To join it can not brook delay;— O song of morning, come at last, And ye who sing it, come away! 4 O song of light, and dawn, and bliss, Sound over earth, and fill these skies, Nor ever, ever, ever cease
 Their prison is thy home. 7 Depart, O sinner, to the chain l Enter the eternal cell; To all that's good, and true, and right, To all that's fond, and fair, and bright, To all of holiness and light, 	 Thy soul-entrancing melodies. 5 Glad song of this disburdened earth, Which holy voices then shall sing; Praise for Creation's second birth, And glory to creation's King !
Bid thou thy last farewell!	99 Tune-Ortonville. C. M.
97 Tune-Gauges. L. C. M. 1 No room for mirth or trifling here, For worldly hope or worldly fear, If life so soon is gone!	 Messiah! at thy glad approach, The howling winds are still: Thy praises fill the lonely waste, And breathe from every hill.
 If now the Judge is at the door, And all mankind must stand before Th' inexorable throne. 2 No matter which my thoughts em 	2 The hidden fountains at thy call, Their sacred stores unlock; Loud in the desert, sudden streams Burst living from the rock.
ploy, A moment's misery or joy; But, oh, when both shall end, Where shall I find my destined place? Shall I my everlasting days, With fiends, or angels spend?	3 The incense of the spring ascends Upon the morning gale: Red o'er the bill the roses bloom, The lilies in the vale.
 3 Nothing is worth a thought beneath, But how I may escape the death That never, never dies ! 	 4 Renewed, the earth a robe of light, A robe of beauty wears; And in new heavens a brighter sun Leads on the promised years.
How make mine own election sure, And when I fail on earth, secure A mansion in the skies.	 5 Let Israel to the Prince of Peace Their loud hosannas sing; With hallelujahs and with hymns, O Zion, hail thy King!
4 Jesus, vouchsafe a pitying ray, Be thou my guide, be thou my stay, To glorious happiness;	100 Tune-Devizes, C. M.
Oh write thy pardon on my heart, And whensoe'er I hence depart, Let me depart in peace! 98 Tune-Rolland. L. M.	 Light of the lonely pilgrim's heart, Star of the coming day ! Arise, and with thy morning beams Chase all our griefs away !
 Beyond the hills where suns go down, And brightly beckon as they go, I see the land of fair renown, The land which I so soon shall know. 	And answering island sing The praises of thy royal name,

3 Bid the whole earth, responsive now	103 Tune-Autumn 85 & 79.
To the bright world above,	1 See yon blaze of earthly splendor,
Break forth in rapturous strains of joy,	Sunlight, starlight blent in one;
In memory of thy love.	Starlight set in aretic azure,
4 Lord ! Lord, thy fair creation groans,	Sunlight from the burning zone!
The air, the earth, the sea,	Gold and silver, gems and marble,
In unison with Christian hearts,	All creation's jewelry;
And calls aloud for thee.	Earth's uncovered waste of riches,
101 Tune-Migdol. L. M.	Treasures of the ancient sea.
 Oh, what a bright and blessed world	 2 What to that for which we're waiting
This groaning earth of ours shall be,	Is this glittering earthly toy ?
When from his throne the Tempter	Heavenly glory, holy splendor, hurled,	Sum of grandeur, sum of joy. Not the gens that time can tarnish,
Shall leave it all, O Lord, to thee.	Not the hues that dim and die,
2 Come, Saviour, then, o'er all below	Not the glow that cheats the lover,
Shine brightly from thy throne above; Bid heaven and earth thy glory know, And all creation feel thy love.	 Shaded with mortality. 3 Not the light that leaves us darker; Not the gleams that come and go;
3 O blessed Lord, with longing eyes	Not the mirth whose end is madness;
That blissful hour we long to see;	Not the joy whose fruit is woe;
While every worm and leaf supplies	Not the notes that die at sunset;
Proof of the curse and calls for thee.	Not the fashion of a day;
102 Tune-Park. 85 & 75.	But the everlasting beauty, And the endless melody.
 Watehman, tell me, does the morning	 4 City of the pearl-bright portal;
Of fair Zion's glory dawn ? Have the signs that mark its coming	City of the jasper wall; City of the golden pavement;
Yet upon thy pathway shone ? Pilgrim, yes, arise, look round thee,	Seat of endless festival: City of Jehovah, Salem,
Light is breaking in the skies; Gird thy bridal robes around thee,	City of eternity, To thy bridal hall of gladness,
Morning dawns, arise, arise !	From this prison would I flee.
2 Watchman, see, the light is beaming. Brighter still upon the way;	me,
Signs through all the earth are gleam-	Fairest of what earth calls fair,
ing,	How I need thy fairer image,
Omens of the coming day	To undo the syren snare!
When the Jubal trumpet sounding,	Lest the subtle serpent-tempter
Shall awake from earth and sea,	Lure me with his radiant lie;
And the saints of God now sleeping,	As if sin were sin no longer,
Clad in immortality.	Life were no more vanity.
Of the grand Sabbatic year; All with voices loud proclaiming That the kingdom's very near:	6 Soon where earthly beauty blinds not, No excess of brilliance palls, Salem, city of the holy, We shall be within thy walls!
Pilgrim, yes, I see just yonder,	There beside yon crystal river,
Canaan's glorious heights arise,	There beneath life's wondrous tree,
Salem, too, appears in grandeur,	There with naught to cloud or sever,
Towering 'neath its sun-lit skies.	Ever with the Lamb to be.

104	Tune—Enfield.	С. М. D.		th again is Paradise ert blossoms as the r
Like some	with the jewel'd cr e new-lighted sun; purning amethyst,		Clothed in	its robes of bridal has forgot its woes	bliss, and orbs in one;—		106	Tune-Rathbun.	8s & 7s.
Where we When we sh	e city of the saints e so soon shall stan all strike these des this desert-sand.	.d,	What a What an e	world, with all its s scene, would it but earth, if all its morr fair as this "to-day	stay ; ows
With sum The slopes d	the everlasting hil mits bathed in day lown which the liv ng, take their way.	y. ing rills,	Hurries Not a voic	he streamlet, smiling calmly, brightly by se around speaks sad urmur nor a sigh.	,
Brightens Far fairer th	n! how thy distan time's saddest hue oan the fairest drea o strangely true!	ə; 🔤	Opens to Like a chi	all its gay adorning o the day's bright bl ld at early morning ed by its mother's ki	,
and p Burst fort Come, holy		eace ! !	Shall fo What an row	world when all its s r ever pass away! earth! when each " fairer than "to-day	"to-mor-
6 When sha rays	all the clouds that	veil thy	107	Tune-Oak.	Cs & 4s.
For ever 1 Why dost th	be withdrawn ? hou tarry, day of d all thy gladness da		Shall, fr Rise incor	is corruptible om the tomb, ruptible, g the gloom.
105	TuneBeethoven.	L . М.	Soon shall	this mortal frame
1 Peace! J won:	Earth's last battle	has been		om its bed of shame, Dhrist hath come.
Its days o The Prince	of conflict now are of peace ascends th has ceased from	ne throne,	When I Leaving t When t	he grave behind; hese dull eyes	10,
Each stor	world's day of to m is hushed above oy has come at las	, below,	In immor In yond	ler skies !
After six	thousand years of	woe.		hall the glorious hop rom on high;	00
3 Messiah come		King has		ll be swallowed up
Its diadeı Its rebel kir	ns are on his brow ngdoms have beco asting kingdom no	me	Then shal	l we gladly sing, here is now thy sting	ç ?

4 Grave, where thy triumph now, Thy victory? Where are thy captives now? Set free, set free! Torn from thy grasp are they, Pluck'd from thy power away, Set free, set free!	2 Beautiful heaven, where all is light, Beautiful angels, clothed in white, Beautiful strains, that never tire, Beautiful harps through all the choir! There shall I join the chorus sweet, Worshiping at the Saviour's feet.
 5 Thanks then to God our Lord, Thanks ever be ! Praises to Christ our Lord For ever be ! Who, o'er the mortal gloom, Who, o'er the hateful tomb, Gives victory ! 108 Tune-Somervale. 7s & Cs. 1 Bathed in unfallen sunlight, Itself a sun-born gem, Fair gleams the glorious city, 	 3 Beautiful crowns on every brow, Beautiful palms the conquerors show, Beautiful robes the ransom'd wear, Beautiful all who enter there ! Thither I press with eager feet; There shall my rest be long and sweet. 4 Beautiful throne for Christ, our King, Beautiful songs the angels sing, Beautiful rest, all wanderings cease, Beautiful home of perfect peace ! There shall my eyes the Saviour see: Haste to this heavenly home with me.
The new Jerusalem 1	110 Tune-Ferguson. S. M.
 2 Calm in her queenly glory, She sits, all joy and light; Pure in her bridal beauty, Her raiment festal-white ! 	 Above the starry spheres, To where he was before, Christ had gone up, the Father's gift Upon the Church to pour.
 3 Shading her golden pavement The tree of life is seen, Its fruit-rich branches waving, Celestial evergreen. 	2 At length had fully come, On mystic circle borne Of seven times seven revolving days, The Pentecostal morn:
4 Fresh from the throne of Godhead, Bright in its crystal gleam, Bursts out the living fountain, Swells on the living stream.	3 When, as the Apostles knelt At the third hour in prayer, A sudden rushing sound proclaimed That God himself was there.
 5 Stream of true life and gladness, Spring of all health and peace; No harps by thee hang silent, Nor happy voices cease. 	4 Forthwith a tongue of fire Is seen on every brow, Each heart receives the Father's light, The Word's enkindling glow;
6 River of God, I greet thee, Not now afar, but near; My soul to thy still waters Hastes in its thirstings here.	5 The Holy Ghost on all Is mightily outpoured, Who straight in divers tongues declare The wonders of the Lord.
109 Tune-Beautiful Zion. 85.
1 Beautiful Zion, built above, Beautiful city that I love, Beautiful gates of pearly white, Beautiful temple,—God its light ! He who was slain on Calvary Opens those pearly gates to me.	1 He came! he came! that mighty Breath From heaven's eternal shores: His uncreated freshness fills His bride, as she adores.

2 Earth quakes before that rushing	113 Tune-Sweet Hour of Prayer. L. M. D.
blast, Heaven echoes back the sound, And mightily the tempest wheels That upper room around.	1 We are not left to walk alone, The spirit of our God hath come, Forever with us to abide, Our Teacher, Comforter, and Guide.
3 One moment—and the Spirit hung O'er all with dread desire, Then broke upon the heads of each In cloven tongues of fire.	Thus, with his gracious presence blest, We press toward our heavenly rest; Hasting the dreary desert through, With our eternal home in view.
 4 What gifts he gave those chosen men Past ages may display; Nay, more: their vigor still inspires The weakness of to-day. 5 The Spirit came into the Church 	2 Jesus, the Father's only Son, Jesus, his own beloved One, Jesus, now seated at his side, Hath claimed us for his own, his bride. Of him and his the Spirit tells, Upon his love he sweetly dwells;
With an unfailing power; He is the living heart that beats Within her at this hour.	And, while we listen to his voice, We wonder, worship, and rejoice. 3 He teaches us the Father's grace,
 6 Speak gently, then, of Church and saints, Lest you His ways reprove. The heart, the pulses of the Church Are God's eternal love. 	Reveals to us the Saviour's face, And doth to all our hearts declare The glory it is ours to share. Our every sorrow be forgot, The joys of earth be heeded not; The Comforter is come, and we Shall soon with our Beloved be.
112 Tune—Gerar. S. M.
112 Tune—Gerar.S. M.1 The Holy Ghost is here, Where saints in prayer agree, As Jesus' parting gift he's near Each pleading company.
1 The Holy Ghost is here, Where saints in prayer agree, As Jesus' parting gift he's near	114 Tune-Monson. C. M. 1 Our blest Redeemer, ere he breathed His tender last farewell, A Guide, a Comforter, bequeathed
 The Holy Ghost is here, Where saints in prayer agree, As Jesus' parting gift he's near Each pleading company. Not far away is he, To be by prayer brought nigh, But here in present majesty, 	114 Tune-Monson. C. M. 1 Our blest Redeemer, ere he breathed His tender last farewell, A Guide, a Comforter, bequeathed Within our hearts to dwell. 2 He came in tongues of living flame, To teach, convince, subdue; All-powerful as the wind he came,
 The Holy Ghost is here, Where saints in prayer agree, As Jesus' parting gift he's near Each pleading company. Not far away is he, To be by prayer brought nigh, But here in present majesty, As in his courts on high. He dwells within our soul, An ever welcome guest; He reigns with absolute control, 	114 Tune-Monson. C. M. 1 Our blest Redeemer, ere he breathed His tender last farewell, A Guide, a Comforter, bequeathed Within our hearts to dwell. 2 He came in tongues of living flame, To teach, convince, subdue; All-powerful as the wind he came, And yet as viewless too. 3 He came a gracious, willing guest, His graces to impart, While he can find wherein to rest

 6 Spirit of purity and grace, Our weakness, pitying, see; 0h, keep our hearts thy dwelling-place, And make them worthier thee. 115 Twae-Norwich. 78. 	4 The Church below hath blessed Her own sweet day of rest, When in her spousal dress Of blood-bought righteousness, Her happy spirit can rejoice To hear her heavenly Bridegroom's voice.
1 Holy Spirit, in my breast Grant that lively faith may rest, And subdue each rebel thought To believe what thou hast taught.	1117 Tune-Vandevender. 78 & 68. 1 O day of rest and gladness-
2 When around my sinking soul Gathering waves of sorrow roll, Spirit blest, the tempest still, And with hope my bosom fill.	Of sacred joy and light! O balm of care and sadness, Most beautiful, most bright! On thee, the high and lowly, Bending before thy throne,
3 Holy Spirit, from my mind Thought and wish and will unkind, Deed and word unkind—remove, And my bosom fill with love.	 Sing "Holy, Holy, Holy," To the great Three in One. 2 On thee, at the creation, The light first hed its high .
4 Faith, and hope, and charity— Paraclete, proceed from thee; Thou, the anointing Spirit art, These thy gifts to us impart:	The light first had its birth ; On thee, for our salvation, Christ rose from depths of earth. On thee, the Lord victorious The Spirit sent from heaven, And thus on thee most glorious
5 Till our faith be lost in sight, Hope be swallowed in delight, And love return to dwell with thee Through a blest eternity !	A triple light was poured. 3 Thou art a port protected From storms that round us rise; A garden intersected
116 Tune-Claremont. II. M.	With streams of Paradise. Thou art a cooling fountain
1 God the Creator blessed The Sabbath of his rest; His six days' work had brought The universe from naught;	In life's dry, dreary sand ; From thee, like Pisgab's monntain, We view our promised land.
The heavens and earth above him stood, He saw them and pronounced them good.	4 Thou art a holy ladder Where angels go and come; Each Sunday finds us gladder, And nearer heaven, our home.
2 God the Redeemer blessed The Sabbath of his rest, When, all his suffering done.	A day of sweet refection, Thon art a day of love, A day of resurrection From earth to things above.
The cross's victory won, In Joseph's sepulchre he lay, Then rising made a holier day.	5 To-day on weary nations The heavenly manna falls;
 3 And God the Spirit blessed That Christian day of rest, When met with one accord, The servants of the Lord; To whom the Father's promise came, Like rushing wind and living flame. 	To holy convocations The silver trumpet calls; Where gospel light is glowing With pure and radiant beams, And living water flowing With soul-refreshing streams.

6 New graces ever gaining	4 Patience to watch, and wait, and
From this, our day of rest,	weep,
We reach the rest remaining	Though mercy long delay
For spirits of the blest.	Courage, our fainting souls to keep,
To Holy Ghost be praises,	And trust thee though thou slay.
To Father and to Son;	100
The Church ker voice upraises	120 Tune-Siloam. C. M.
To thee, blest Three in Onel	1 There is no sorrow, Lord, too light
110	To bring in prayer to thee;
118 Tune—Jazer. C. M.	There is no anxious care too slight
1 There is an eye that never sleeps	To wake thy sympathy.
Beneath the wing of night;	2 Thou who hast trod the thorny road
There is an ear that never shuts,	Wilt share each small distress :
When sinks the beams of light.	The love which bore the greater load
2. There is an any that never times	Will not refuse the less.
2 There is an arm that never tires, When human strength gives way;
There is a love that never fails,	121 Tune-Mendebras. 7s & Gs.
When earthly loves decay.
it her entering to tos deedigt	1 The Church's one foundation
3 That eye is fixed on scraph throngs;	Is Jesus Christ her Lord; She is his new creation
That arm upholds the sky;	By water and the word:
That ear is filled with angel songs;	From heaven he came and sought her
That love is throned on high.	To be his holy Bride,
4 But there's a power which man can	Terrer, a sec
wield	And for her life he died.
When mortal aid is vain,	9. Floot from orony notion
That eye, that arm, that love to reach,	2 Elect from every nation, Yet one o'er all the earth,
That listening ear to gain.	Her charter of salvation
5 That power is prayer, which soars on	One Lord, one faith, one birth;
high,	One holy name she blesses,
Through Jesus, to the throne;	Partakes one holy food,
And moves the hand, which moves the	And to one hope she presses
world,	With every grace endued.
To bring salvation down !	2 Though with a seenful wonder
	3 Though with a scornful wonder Men see her sore opprest,
119 Tune-China. C. M.	By schisms rent asunder,
1 God of all grace, we bring to thee	By heresies distrest,
A broken, contrite heart;	Yet saints their watch are keeping,
Give, what thine eye delights to see,	Their cry goes up, "How long?"
Truth in the inward part.	And soon the night of weeping
· · · · · · · ·	Shall be the morn of song.
2 Give deep humility; the sense	4 Mid toil, and tribulation,
Of godly sorrow give;	And tumult of her war,
A strong, desiring confidence To hear thy voice and live ;	She waits the consummation
10 hear thy voice and five,-	Of peace for evermore;
3 Faith in the only sacrifice	Till with the vision glorious
That can for sin atone;	Her longing eyes are blest,
To east our hopes, to fix our eyes	And the great Church victorious
On Christ, on Christ alone ;—	Shall be the Church at rest.

1	22 Tune-Zebulon.	П. М.	2 The cup of blessing which we bless, The heavenly bread we break,
	One sole baptismal sign, One Lord, below, above, One faith, one hope divine,		Our Saviour's blood and rightcousness, Freely with us partake.
F	One only watchword—Love com different temples though it he song ascendeth to the skies.		3 In weal or woe, in joy or eare, Thy portion shall be ours; Christians their mutual burden share, They lend their mutual powers.
	Our sacrifice is one; One Priest before the throne The slain, the risen Son, Redeemer, Lord alone:	;	4 Come with us, we will do thee good, As God to us hath done, Stand but in him, as those have stood,
A	nd sighs from contrite heart spring,	s that	Whose faith the victory won.
Οι	r chief, our choicest offering.		5 And when by turns we pass away, As star by star grows dim,
	Head of thy church beneath, The Catholic, the true, On all her members breathe;		Each shall, translated into day, Be lost and found in him.
Tł	Her broken frame renew: ien shall thy perfect will be do	ne,	125 Tune-Coventry. C. M.
W	hen Christians love and live as	one.	1 Fountain of good, to own thy love Our thankful hearts incline;
12		С. М.	What can we render, Lord, to thee, When all the worlds are thine?
In	How sweet, how heavenly is the When those that love the Lord one another's peace delight, And thus fulfill his word :—		2 But thou hast needy brethren here, Partakers of thy grace, Whose names thou wilt thyself confess Before the Father's face.
w	When each can feel his brother' And with him bear a part; hen sorrow flows from eye to e And joy from heart to heart:—		3 And in their accents of distress Thy pleading voice is heard, In them they mays't be clothed, and fed, And visited, and cheered.
	When, free from envy, scorn pride, Our wishes all above,	, and	4 Thy face with reverence and with love, eh can his brother's failings hi And show a brother's love :—	de,	We in thy poor would see; O may we minister to them, And in them, Lord, to thee.
. r	When love, in one delightful st Through every bosom flows;		126 Tune-St. Thomas. S. M.
	d union sweet, and dear esteen In every action glows.	1,	1 O praise our God to-day, His constant mercy bless, Whose love has helped us on our way,
12	4 Tune-Mour.	С. М.	And granted us success.
we We	Come in, thou blessed of the Lo Stranger nor foe art thou; 9 welcome thee with warm acco Dur Friend, our Brother now.		 2 His arm the strength imparts Our daily toil to bear; His grace alone inspires our hearts Each other's load to share.

36

/

 3 O happiest work below, Earnest of joy above, To sweeten many a cup of woe By deeds of holy love! 	2 Grant us hearts, dear Lord, to yield thee Gladly, freely of thine own; With the sunshine of thy goodness Melt our thankless hearts of stone;
 Lord, may it be our choice This blessed rule to keep, "Rejoice with them that do rejoice, And weep with them that weep." 	Till our cold and selfish natures, Warmed by thee, at length believe That more happy and more blessèd 'Tis to give than to receive.
 5 God of the widow, hear l Our work of mercy bless; God of the fatherlesss, be near, And grant us good success. 	 3 Wondrous honor hast thou given To our humblest charity, In thine own mysterious sentence, "Ye have done it unto me." Can it be, O gracious Master, Thou dost deign for alms to sue,
127 Tune-Monon. S. M.	Saying by thy poor and needy,
 We give thee but thine own, Whate'er the gift may be; All that we have is thine alone, A trust, O Lord, from thee. 	"Give as I have given to you?" 4 Yes: the sorrow and the suffering, Which on every hand we see, Channels are for tithes and offerings
 2 Oh! hearts are bruised and dead, And homes are bare and cold, And lambs, for whom the Shepherd bled, Are straying from the fold. 	Due by solemn right to thee; Right of which we may not rob thee, Debt we may not choose but pay, Lest that face of love and pity Turn from us another day.
	129 Tune-Herb. 10s.
3 To comfort and to bless, To find a balm for woe,	1 Saviour, again to thy dear name we
To tend the lone and fatherless Is saintly work below.	raise With one accord our parting hymn of praise;
4 The captive to release, To God the lost to bring, To teach the way of life and peace,	We stand to bless thee ere our worship cense, Then, lowly bowing, wait thy word of
It is a Christ-like thing.	peace.
 5 And we believe thy word, Tho' dim our faith may be; Whate'er for thine we do, O Lord, We do it unto thee. 	2 Grant us thy peace upon our home- ward way; With thee began, with thee shall end the day;
	Guard thou the lips from sin, the hearts from shame,
128 Tune—Park. 83 & 78.	That in this house have called upon
1 Lord of glory, who hast bought us	thy name.
With thy life-blood as the price, Never grudging for the lost ones	3 Grant us thy peace, Lord, thro' the coming night,
That tremendous sacrifice,
	Turn thou for us its darkness into light;
And with that hast freely given Blessings countless as the sand	From harm and danger keep thy chil- dren free,

 4 Grant us thy peace throughout our earthly life, Our balm in sorrow, and our stay in strife; Then, when thy voice shall bid our con- flict cease, Call us, O Lord, to thine eternal peace. 	Glorious Trinity, Grace, love, and might; Boundless as ocean's tide, Rolling in fullest pride, Through the world, far and wide,
130 Tune-Lisbon. S. M.	132 . Tune—I do Believe. D. C. M.
 Lord, at this closing hour, Establish every heart Upon thy word of truth and power, To keep us when we part. Peace to our brethren give; Fill all our hearts with love; In faith and patience may we live, And seek our rest above. Through changes, bright or drear, We would thy will pursue; And toil to spread thy kingdom here, Till we its glory view. To God. the only wise, In every age adored, Let glory from the church arise Through Jesus Christ our Lord. 	 The Son of Gód goes forth to war, A kingly crown to gain, His blood-red banner streams afar; Who follows in his train? Who best can drink his cup of woe, Triumphant over pain, Who patient bears his cross below He follows in his train. The martyr first, whose eagle eye, Could pierce beyond the grave, Who saw his Master in the sky, And called on him to save. Like him, with pardon on his tongue, In midst of mortal pain, He prayed for them that did the wrong— Who follows in his train ? A glorious band, the chosen few
131 Tune—America. 6s & 4s.	On whom the Spirit came, Twelve valiant saints, their hope they
1 Thou; whose almighty word Chaos and darkness heard, And took their flight, Hear us, we humbly pray, And where the gospel day Sheds not its glorious ray Let there be light !	And mocked the cross and flame. They met the tyrant's brandished steel, The lion's gory mane, They bowed their necks, the death to feel— Who follows in their train?
 2 Thou, who didst come to bring On thy redeeming wing Healing and sight, Health to the sick in mind Sight to the inly blind, Oh, now to all mankind Let there be light! 3 Spirit of truth and love, 	 4 A noble army, men and boys, The matron and the maid, Around the Saviour's throne rejoice, In robes of light arrayed. They climb'd the steep ascent of heaven Through peril, toil, and pain; O God, to us may grace be given To follow in their train.
Life-giving, holy Dove, Speed forth thy flight;	133 Tune-Lexington. 75 & 65.
Move on the waters' face, Spreading the beams of grace, And in earth's darkest place Let there be light!	1 The Shepherd now was smitten; The wolf was ravening near, The scattered flock he threatened, But knew not whose they were.

 2 In zealous fury seeking To bind and crucify, A sudden voice withheld him, A loud and startling cry : 3 "Saul! Saul! why blindly daring To persecute thy Lord?" 3 Tis Jesus whom thou hatest, Rebel not at my word." 4 Then forth in prayer he stretcheth Those hands prepared to slay; * What wouldst thou with thy servant? My Lord and Saviour, say." 5 Christ's foe becomes his soldier, The wolf destroys no more, A sheep within the sheepfold, He enters by the door. 	 135 Tune—Stand up for Jesus. 7s & 6s. 1 Stand up !—stand up for Jesus l Ye soldiers of the cross; 1 Lift high his royal banner, It must not suffer loss: From vict'ry unto vict'ry His army shall he lead, Till every foe is vanquished, And Christ is Lord indeed. 2 Stand up !—stand up for Jesus ! The trumpet call obey; Forth to the mighty conflict, In this his glorious day: "Ye that are men now serve him," Against unnumbered foes; Your courage rise with danger, And strength to strength oppose.
 134 Tune-Unam. 85, 75, & 45. 1 'Gainst what foeman art thou rushing, Saul, what madness drives thee on ? Innoeents in fury crushing, Children of the sinless One: O, how shortly Shall he make his vengeance known ! 2 See the Lord, from heaven descending, Smites him, blinds him, lays him low; See the persecutor bending Humbly, meekly to the blow: See him rising, Friend to Christ, no longer foe. 	 3 Stand up !stand up for Jesus! Stand in his strength alone; The arm of flesh will fail you Ye dare not trust your own: Put on the gospel armor, And, watching unto prayer, Where duty calls or danger, Be never wanting there! 4 Stand up !stand up for Jesus ! The strife will not be long; This day the noise of battle, The next the victor's song: To him that overcometh A crown of life shall be; He with the King of Glory Shall reign eternally !
 Breathing slaughter, chains preparing, O, how fierce his anger burned; Frembling now, and lost his daring, Meek obedience he has learned; The destroyer, Now into a lamb is turned. 4 Christ, thy power is man's salvation, Hardest hearts thou mak'st thine own. He who wrought such desolation, That thy name might be o'erthrown, Now converted, Thro' the world that name makes known. 	 Sounds the trumpet from afar ! Soldiers of the holy war, Rise; for you, your Captain waits; Rise, the foe is at the gates. Arm ! the conflict has begun; Fight! the battle must be won; Lift the banner to the sky, Wave its blazing folds on high. Banner of the blessed tree,— Round its glory gather ye!

Life with death, and death with life Closes now in deadly strife; Help us with thy shield and sword, King and Captain, mighty Lord ! 3 King of glory thou alone ! King of kings, thy name we own ! With thy banner overhead, Not ten thousand foes we dread. More than conquerors even now, With the war-sweat on our brow, Onward o'er the well-marked road, March we as the host of God.	 4 Toil on, faint not, keep watch and pray; Be wise the erring soul to win; Go forth into the world's highway, Compel the wanderer to come in. 5 Toil on, and in thy toil rejoice; For toil comes rest, for exile home; Soon shalt thou hear the bridegroom's voice, The midnight peal, "behold I come !" 139 Tane-Bavaria. 8s & 7s.
137 TuneEvan. C. M.	1 "Call them in "-the poor, the wretched,
 God's glory is a wondrous thing, Most strange in all its ways, And, of all things on earth, least like What men agree to praise. Thrice blest is he to whom is given 	Sin-stained wanderers from the fold; Peace and pardon freely offer; Can you weigh their worth with gold? "Call them in "—the weak, the weary, Laden with the doom of sin; Bid them come and rest in Jesus; We in weiting "freely them in "
The instinct that can tell That God is on the field, when he Is most invisible !	He is waiting—" call them in." 2 " Call them in "—the Jew, the Gen- tile;
3 Workman of God! oh, lose not heart, But learn what God is like; And in the darkest battle-field Thou shalt know where to strike.	Bid the stranger to the feast : "Call them in "—the rich, the noble, From the highest to the least. Forth the Father runs to meet them, He hath all their sorrows seen ;
4 And blest is he who can divine Where real right doth lie,	Robe, and ring, and royal sandals Wait the lost ones—" call them in."
And dares to take the side that seems Wrong, to man's blindfold eye!	3 "Call them in "-the broken hearted, Cowering 'neath the brand of shame;
138 Tunc-Anvern. L. M.	Speak love's message low and tender, 'Twas for sinners Jesus came.
1 Go labor on; spend, and be spent,— Thy joy to do the Father's will; It is the way the Master went, Should not the servant tread it still?	See, the shadows lengthen round us, Soon the day-dawn will begin; Can you leave them lost and lonely? Christ is coming—" call them in."
2 Go labor on ; 'tis not for naught ; Thy earthly loss is heavenly gain ;	140 Tune-Little Marlborough. S. M.
Men heed thee, love thee, praise thee not; The Master praises,—what are men?	1 How solemn are the words, And yet to faith how plain, Which Jesus uttered while on earth— "Ye must be born again."
3 Go labor on, while it is day, The world's dark night is hastening on; Speed, speed thy work, east sloth away:	For so hath God decreed :
It is not thus that souls are won.	'Tis life poor sinners need.

 3 "Ye must be born again !" And life in Christ must have: In vain the soul elsewhere may go— 'Tis he alone can save. 	3 Bless their teachers, grant to each All our great employment needs; Show us rightly how to teach Not by word alone, but deed.
 4 "Ye must be born again !" Or never enter heaven; 'Tis only blood-washed ones are there— The ransomed and forgiven. 	 4 Make us faithful to the end, While our duties we fulfill; And the promised blessing send, Like the dew on Hermon's hill.
141 Tune—Lisbon. S. M. 1 Father of mercies, hear, On us look kindly down; S. M. 0ur humble labors deign to cheer, And with thy favor crown. S. M. 2 In wouthful hearts the seed	143TuneLenox.H. M.1Again we meet, O Lord, Again we fill this place,To hear thy holy word And ask thy promised grace;To thank thee for the gifts we share, The children of thy love and eare.
 In youthful hearts the seed Of sacred truth we sow; Now, Lord, the blessing that we need, Richly do thou bestow. That seed will buried lie, Till thou the increase give; Yet, then, although it seem to die, It shall revive and live. 	 ² Grant us the listening ear, The understanding heart, The mind and will sincere, To choose the better part,— To take the learner's lowly seat, And gather wisdom at thy feet. ³ Through this, and every day,
4 O Sun of Righteousness, Shine in each youthful heart; Thine influence on their souls impress, And grace divine impart.	Teach us thy paths to tread; Nor let our feet astray By Satan's wiles be led; But keep us in the narrow road,— The way to glory and to God.
5 Then, though the sower weep, Ere long with thankful voice, Both they who sow and they who reap, Together shall rejoice.	144 Tune-Park Street. L. M. 1 Assembled in our school once more, O Lord, thy blessing we implore; We meet to read and sing and pray; Be with us, then, through this thy day.
6 Thou dost the seed prepare, And make it spring when sown; And if a hundred-fold it bear, The praise is all thine own.	2 Our fervent prayer to thee ascends, For parents, teachers, foes, and friends; And when we in thy house appear, Help us to worship in thy fear.
142 Tune-Pleyel's Hymn. 78. 1 God of union, God of love, With thy sanctifying power, 78. From the realms of light above, Bless us in this solemn hour.	3 When we on earth shall meet no more, May we above to glory soar, And praise thee in more lofty strains, Where one eternal Sabbath reigns.
2 Bless our tender charge; impart What shall most to thus incline:	145 Tune-Laban. S. M. 1 How serious is the charge, To train the in further indicated and the series of the series

What shall most to thee incline; O, reclaim each wandering heart, Seal them ! Seal them ever thine. To train the infant mind! 'Tis God alone must give the heart To such a work inclined.

2

	1
 May we, in Christian bonds, The Christian name adorn By active deeds for public good, Nor mind the sinner's scorn. While wicked men unite Our youth to lead aside, 'Tis ours to show them wisdom's path, In wisdom's path to guide. Dependent, Lord, on thee, Our humble means to bless, We gladly join our hearts and hands And look for large success. 	 Cleanse our hearts from sinful folly In the stream thy love supplied, Mingled stream of blood and water, Flowing from thy wounded side; And to heavenly pastures lead us Where thine own still waters glide. Let thy holy word instruct us; Fill our minds with heavenly light; Let thy love and grace constrain us To approve whate'er is right, Take thine easy yoke, and wear it, And so prove thy burden light.
	148 Tune-Bethel. 8s & 7s.
146 Tune-Outside the Gate. 7s & 6s.	1 Little children, Jesus calls you,
1 The author of salvation, The Saviour, meek and mild, Once took a lowly station,— Became a little child;	Listen to his blessed voice; Sinners try in vain to shun it, Christians hail it and rejoice. Come, then, children, join to sing Glory to our Saviour-King.
In infancy a stranger,	2 Little children, come to Jesus;
How mean was his abode, His cradle was a manger, Himself the Son of God.	See him still inviting stand : Hark! he bids you leave destruction, Calls you to the better land.
2 His earthly parents found him	Come, then, etc.
Submissive day by day;	3 Little children, look to Jesus,
So meek to all around him,	Look to Jesus, look and live;
So ready to obey ; No stain of sin or folly	Jesus suffer'd death to save you, Freest pardon he will give.
Could ever cloud his brow;	Come, then, etc.
His heart, so pure and holy,
With love would ever glow.	149 Tune-We are Coming. Es & Gs.
3 And when his foes assail'd him,	1 We are coming, blessed Saviour,
He sought but to forgive; When to the cross they nailed him,	We hear thy gentle voice; We would be thine forever,
He died that they might live.	And in thy love rejoice.
This bright example shows us	Chorus.
What duties to fulfill; Oh, let it now arouse us	We are coming, we are coming,
To learn and do his will.	We are coming, blessed Saviour,
	We are coming, we are coming,
147 Tune-Bavaria. 83 & 78.	We hear thy gentle voice.
1 Gracious Saviour, gentle Shepherd, Little ones are dear to thee; Gathered with thine arms, and carried	2 We are coming, blessed Saviour, To meet that happy band, And sing with them forever, And in thy presence stand.
In thy bosom may we have	U 1

Sweetly, fondly, safely tended, From all want and danger free.

We are coming, etc. To meet that happy band.

3 We are coming, blessed Saviour,	152 Tune-Be Kind to thy Father. 11s & 8s.
To crown thee as our King,	1 Be kind to thy father; for when thou
And then with angels ever	wast young
His praises we will sing.	Who loved thee so fondly as he?
We are coming, etc.	He caught the first accents that fell
To crown thee as our King.	from thy tongue,
C C	And join'd in thy innocent glee.
150 Tune-Essex. 75, 6 lines.	Be kind to thy father, for now he is old,
	His locks intermingled with gray;
1 Jesus bids me seek his face;	His footsteps are feeble,—once fearless
Lord, I come to ask thy grace;	and bold:
May thy Spirit from above,	Thy father is passing away.
Teach me to obey and love. Unto thee I fain would go,	2 Be kind to thy mother; for, lol on her
All I want thou canst bestow.	brow and a want thou can't bestow.	May traces of sorrow be seen;
2 Thou wilt e'en a child receive,	Oh, well mayst thou cherish and com-
Thou wilt all my sins forgive:	fort her now,
Oh, dissolve this heart of stone,	For loving and kind she hath been.
Make me thine, and thine alone:	Remember thy mother; for thee will
Sin is present with me still;	she pray As long as God giveth her breath:
Disobedient is my will.	With accents of kindness, then, cheer
3 Sinful thoughts too oft prevail,	her lone way,
Vain desires my heart assail;	E'en to the dark valley of death.
Oh, my Saviour, make me whole,
Form anew my inmost soul;	3 Be kind to thy brother: his heart will
Kindly guard me every day,	have dearth
Be my everlasting stay.	If the smiles of thy joy be withdrawn;
	The flowers of feeling will fade at the birth
151 Tune-Balerma. C. M.	If love and affection be gone.
	Be kind to thy brother, wherever you
1 Remember thy Creator now,	are;
In these thy youthful days;	The love of a brother shall be
He will accept thine earliest vow,	An ornament purer and richer by far
And listen to thy praise.	Than pearls from the depth of the
2 Remember thy Creator now,	sea.
Seek him while he is near;	4 Be kind to thy sister; not many may
For evil days will come, when thou	know
Shalt find no comfort here.	The depth of true sisterly love;
	The wealth of the ocean lies fathoms
3 Remember thy Creator now,	below
His willing servant be:	The surface that sparkles above.
bow,	Thy kindness shall bring to thee many
He will remember thee.	sweet hours, And blessings thy pathway shall erown,
4 Almighty God, our hearts incline	Affection shall weave thee a garland of
Thy heavenly voice to hear:	flowers
Let all our future days be thine,	More precious than wealth or re-
Devoted to thy fear.	nown.

.

ы.

6s.

15	B TuneSunshine.	6s & 5s.	4 When we all are safely anchor'd,
1 T	ittle drops of water,		We will shout our journey o'er, We will walk about the eity
	ittle grains of sand,		And will sing for evermore.
	ke the mighty ocean,
	nd the beauteous land;		All the storms, etc.
			155 Tune-Beautiful River. P. M
	nd the little moments,		1 Shall we gather at the river, lumble though they be,		Where bright angel feet have trod:
	ke the mighty ages		With its crystal tide forever
U	f eternity.		Flowing by the throne of God?
3 S	o our little errors		CHOBUS.
L	ead the soul away		Yes, we'll gather at the river,
Fro	m the paths of virtue		The beautiful, the beautiful river-
0	ft in sin to stray.		Gather with the saints at the river
_			That flows by the throne of God.
	ittle deeds of kindness,
	ittle words of love,		2 On the margin of the river,
	ke our earth an Eden,		Washing up its silver spray,
г	ike the heaven above.		We will walk and worship ever,
5 T.	ittle seeds of mercy,		All the happy, golden day. Yes, we'll gather, etc.
	own by youthful hands,		res, we il gather, etc.
	w to bless the nations		3 When we reach the shining river,
	ar in heathen lands.		Lay we every burden down;
			Grace our spirits will deliver,
12	A		And provide a robe and crown.
154	1 Tune-Home beyond the Tide.	Р. М.	Yes, we'll gather, etc.
1 V	Ve are out on an ocean sailin	g:	4 Soon we'll reach the shining river, omeward bound we smoothl		Soon our pilgrimage will cease :
	are out on an ocean, sailing		Soon our happy hearts will quiver
т	o a home beyond the tide.		With the melody of peace.
	Guerra		Yes, we'll gather, etc.
	CHORUS.		156 Tune-Webb. 78 & 68
	the storms will soon be over		1 When his salvation bringing, en we'll anchor in the harbor are out on an ocean, sailing		To Zion Jesus came,
	o a home beyond the tide.		The children all stood singing
-	o a nomo soj ona tre tract		Hosanna to his name.
2 N	lillions now are safely lande	d	Nor did their zeal offend him;
	ver on the golden shore;		But as he rode along,
	lions more are on their journ		He let them still attend him,
Ŷ	et there's room for millions	more.	And smiled to hear their song.
	All the storms, etc.		2 And since the Lord retaineth
	,,		His love for children still,
3 C	ome on board, oh, ship for g	ory,	Though now as King he reigneth
B	e in haste, make up your mi	nd,	On Zion's heavenly hill,
	our vessel's weighing ancho	or,	We'll flock around his banner,
A	and you may be left behind.		Who sits upon the throne,
	All the storms, etc.		And cry aloud, "Hosanna To David's royal Son."
	and the storms, etc.		1 10 David S royar Don.

3 For should we fail proclaiming	2 In flowing robes of spotless white,
Our great Redeemer's praise;	See every one arrayed,
The stones, our silence shaming,	Dwelling in everlasting light,
Might well, hosannas raise.	And joys that can not fade:
But shall we only render	Singing-Glory, glory,
The tribute of our words? No; while our hearts are tender,	Glory be to God on high.
They too shall be the Lord's.	3 What brought them to that world above,
157 Tune-Sweet Story. P. M.	That heaven so bright and fair,
1 I think when I read that sweet story of old,	Where all is peace, and joy, and love,— How came those children there?
When Jesus was here among men,	Singing-Glory, glory,
How he called little children as lambs to his fold,	Glory be to God on high. 4 Because the Saviour shed his blood
I should like to have been with them	To wash away their sin,
then.	Bathed in that pure and precious flood,
2 I wish that his hands had been placed	Behold them white and clean:
on my head,	Singing-Glory, glory,
That his arm had been thrown around me,	Glory be to God on high.
And that I might have seen his kind	159 Tune-Lisbon. S. M.
look, when he said,	100 I wite 1300 kt. 5. mt.
"Let the little ones come unto me."	1 Lord Jesus, God and Man,
3 Yet still to his footstool in prayer I	For love of men a child, may go,	The very God, yet born on earth
And ask for a share in his love;	Sinless and undefiled.
And if I thus earnestly seek him below,	2 Lord Jesus, God and Man,
I shall see him and hear him above,	In this our festal day
4 In that beautiful place he is gone to	To thee for precious gifts of grace prepare,	Thy ransomed people pray.
For all who are washed and forgiven;
And many dear children are gathering	3 We pray for childlike hearts,
"For of such is the kingdom of	For gentle holy love,
"For of such is the kingdom of heaven."	As angels do above.
	U U
5 I long for the joys of that glorious time	4 We pray for simple faith,
	For hope that never faints,
The sweetest, and brightest, and best, When the dear little children of every	For true communion evermore
clime,	With all thy blessed saints.
Shall crowd to his arms and be blest.	5 On Grianda anound us have 5 On friends around us here O let thy blessing fall;
158 Tune-Children in Heaven. P. M.	We pray for grace to love them well,
1 Around the throne of God in heaven	But thee beyond them all.
Thousands of children stand,
Children whose sins are all forgiven,	6 O joy to live for thee!
A holy, happy band :	O joy in thee to die !
Singing—Glory, glory, Glory be to God on high.	O very joy of joys to see Thy face eternally.

160 Tunc—Anvern. L. M.	4 Soon in the golden city
1 O, day by day, each Christian child	Your happy feet shall stray,
Has much to do, without, within;	And through the dazzling mansions
A death to die for Jesus' sake,	Rejoice in endless day;
A weary war to wage with sin.	O Christ, prepare thy children
i would will be wage with sim	With that triumphant throng
2 When deep within our swelling	To pass the burnished portals, hearts	And sing th' eternal song.
The thoughts of pride and anger rise,	162 Tune-Shining Shore. Ss & Tr.
When bitter words are on our tongues
And tears of passion in our eyes;	1 There is no name so sweet on earth,
	No name so sweet in heaven,
3 Then we may stay the angry blow,	The name, before his wondrous birth,
Then we may check the hasty word,	To Christ, the Saviour given.
Give gentle answers back again,	REFRAIN.
And fight a battle for our Lord.	We love to sing around our King,
4 With smiles of peace, and looks of love,	And hail him blessed Jesus:
Light in our dwellings we may make,	For there's no word ear ever heard
Bid kind good humor brighten there,	So dear, so sweet as Jesus.
And do all still for Jesus' sake.	2 His human name they did proclaim,
	When Abram's son they sealed him,
5 There's not a child so small and weak	The name that still, by God's good will,
But has his little cross to take,	Deliverer revealed him.
His little work of love and praise
That he may do for Jesus' sake.	3 And when he hung upon the tree,
101	They wrote his name above him,
161 Tune-Missionary Hymn. 7s & 6s.	That all might see the reason we
1 Come, sing with holy gladness,	For evermore must love him.
High alleluias sing,	4 So now upon his Father's throne,
Uplift your loud hosannas	Almighty to release us,
To Jesus, Lord and King;	From sin and pains, he gladly reigns,
Sing, boys, in joyful chorus	The Prince and Saviour Jesus.
Your hymn of praise to-day,	163 Tune-Woodland. C. M.
And sing, ye gentle maidens,	163 Tune-Woodland. C. M.
Your sweet responsive lay.	1 Now condescend, Almighty King!
o 1001	To bless our little throng;
2 'Tis good for boys and maidens	And kindly listen while we sing
Sweet hymns to Christ to sing,	Our pleasant evening song.
'Tis meet that children's voices
Should praise the children's King; For Jesus is salvation,	2 Brothers and sisters, hand in hand,
And glory, grace, and rest;	Our lips together move;
To babe and boy and maiden	O smile upon this little band,
The one Redeemer blest.	Unite our hearts in love.
	3 We come to own the power divine
3 O boys, be strong in Jesus,	That watches o'er our days;
To toil for him is gain,	For this our feeble voices join,
And Jesus wrought with Joseph,	To God we give the praise.
With chisel, saw, and plane;
O maidens, live for Jesus,	4 May we in safety sleep to-night,
Who was a maiden s son ;	From every danger free;
Be patient, pure, and gentle,	For, Lord, the darkness and the light
And perfect grace begun.	Are both alike to thee.

5 And when the rising sun displays His cheerful beams abroad: Then shall our grateful morning lays	O, by thy love divine, Lead them, my God, to theel Safely to theel
Declare the love of God. 164 TuneCalvary's Mountain. 6s & 5s.	2 What though my faith is dim,
	Wavering and weak ? Yet still I come to thee,
1 Now the day is over,	Thy grace to seek :
Night is drawing nigh,	Daily to plead with thee!
Shadows of the evening	Lead them, my God, to thee!
Steal across the sky.	Safely to thee !
Now the darkness gathers, Stars begin to peep,	2. When south have haided and fair
Birds, and beasts, and flowers	3 When earth looks bright and fair,
Soon will be asleep.	Festive and gay, Let no delusive snare
· · · · ·	Lure them astray:
2 Jesus, give the weary	But from temptation's power
Calm and sweet repose,	Lead them, my God, to thee!
With thy tenderest blessing	Safely to thee !
May our eyelids close. Grant to little children
Visions bright of thee;	4 Lead them, my God, to thee,
Guard the sailors tossing	Lead them to thee ! Though 'twere my dying breath,
On the deep blue sea.	I'd cry to thee,
1	With yearning agony,
3 Comfort every sufferer,	Lead them, my God, to thee,
Watching late in pain;	Lead them to thee l
Those who plan some evil From their sin restrain
From their sin restrain. Through the long night watches	167 Tune-I want to be an Angel. 7s & 6s.
May thine angels spread	1 Rest, for the little sleeper;
Their white wings above me,	Joy, for the ransomed soul;
Watching round my bed.	Peace, for the lonely weeper-
	Dark though the waters roll.
165 Tune-Kentucky. S. M.	, i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i
1 Thou God of sovereign grace,	2 Weep for the little sleeper, Weep, it will ease the heart;
In mercy now appear,	Though the dull pain be deeper
We long to see thy smiling face,	Than with the world to part.
And feel that thou art near.
2 Our children take to-day,	3 Hath the dear Saviour found him,
O Shepherd of thy flock ;	Laid him upon his breast,
And wash their stains of guilt away	Folded his arms around him, Hushed him to endless rest?
Beside the smitten rock.	induced fifth to endless rest:
3 Thy saving health impart,	4 Grieve not with hopeless sorrow;
O Comforter divine;	Jesus has felt your pain,
Now make these children pure in heart,	He did thy lamb but borrow;
Make them entirely thine.	He'll bring him back again.
166 Tune-Oak. 6s & 4s.	168 Tane-China. C. M.
1 Lead them, my God, to thee,	1 God hath bereav'd me of my child;
Lead them to thee;	His hand in this I've view'd;
E'en these dear babes of mine	It is the Lord, shall I complain?
Thou givest me:	"He doth what seems him good !"

 2 'Twas God who gave my child to me, Th' appointed time he stood; It is the Lord, I plainly see, He doth what seems him good l 	 Baptized into the Father's name, We'd walk as sons of God; Baptized in Thine, with joy we claim The merits of thy blood.
 3 Yet nature feels—but ah, he's gone— For him my tears have flow'd; It is the Lord, his hand I own, He doth what seems him good. 	4 Baptized into the Holy Ghost, We'd prove his mighty power; And making thee our only boast, Obey thee hour by hour.
4 Support my sinking spirit up	171 Tune-Duke Street. L. M.
Under this heavy load; It is the Lord, and he is just, He doth what seems him good.	1 God of that glorions gift of grace By which thy people seek thy face, When in thy presence we appear With faith we humbly venture near.
 5 It is on thee my hope is stay'd, I know thou art my God; It is the Lord, his hand I'll bless, He doth what seems him good. 	2 Confiding in thy truth alone, Here, on the steps of Jesus' throne, We lay the treasure thon hast given, To be received and reared for heaven.
 6 Uphold me, Lord, by grace divine, And cleanse me with thy blood; I now resign my all to thee, Since all things work for good. 	3 Lent to us for a season, we Lend ^{him} _{her} for ever, Lord, to thee! Assured that, if to thee ^{he} _{she} live, We gain in what we seem to give.
169 Tune-Wilmot. 7s.	4 Large and abundant blessings shed,
1 Heavenly Father! may thy love Beam upon us from above; Let this infant find a place In thy covenant of grace.	Warm as these prayers, upon his head 1 And on his soul the dews of grace, Fresh as these drops upon his face. 172 Tune-Mendebras. 7s & 6s.
2 Son of God! be with us here; Listen to our humble prayer; Let thy blood on Calvary spilt, Cleanse this child from nature's guilt.	 O bread to pilgrims given; O food that angels eat; O manna sent from heaven, For heaven-born natures meet I Give us, for thee long pining,
3 Holy Ghost! to thee we ery:	To eat till richly filled;
Thou this infant sanctify; Thine almighty power display;	Till, earth's delights resigning, Our every wish is stilled l
Seal him to redemption's day.	2 O water, life bestowing,
170	From out the Saviour's heart
	A fountain purely flowing, A fount of love thou art!
2 O Lord, whilst we confess the worth	Oh, let us, freely tasting,
Of this, the outward seal, Teach us the truths herein set forth, Our very own to feel.	Our burning thirst assuage 1 Thy sweetness, never wasting, Avails from age to age.
2 Death to the world we here avow,	3 Jesus, this feast receiving,
Death to each fleshly lust;	We thee unseen adore;
Newness of life our partian name
Newness of life our portion now, A risen Lord our trust.	Thy faithful word, believing, We take, and doubt no more.

Give us, thou true and loving, On earth to live in thee; Then, death the veil removing, Thy glorious face to see !	 2 Let us, with zeal like theirs inspired, Strive in the Christian race; And freed from every weight of sin, Their holy footsteps trace.
173 Tune—Rockbridge. L.M. 1 By Christ redeemed, in Christ restored,	3 Behold a witness nobler still, Who trod affliction's path; Jesus, the author, finisher, Rewarder of our faith.
 We keep the memory adored, And show the death of our dear Lord Until he come, until he come. 2 His fearful drops of agony, His life-blood shed for us, we see; 	 4 He for the joy before him set, And moved by pitying love, Endured the cross, despised the shame, And now he reigns above.
 The wine shall tell the mystery Until he come, until he come. 3 Until the trump of God be heard, Until the ancient graves be stirred, 	5 Thither, forgetting things behind, Press we to God's right hand; There, with the Saviour and his saints, Triumphantly to stand.
And with the great commanding word, The Lord shall comc, the Lord shall come.	110 Tune-Outside the Gate. 18 & 08.
 4 Ob, blessed hope! with this elate, Let not our hearts be desolate, But, strong in faith, in patience wait Until he come, until he come. 	 O Jesus, thou art standing Outside the fast-closed door, In lowly patience waiting, To pass the threshold o'er : Shame on us, Christian brethren, His name and sign who bear,
174 Tune-Boylston. S. M.
 A charge to keep I have, A God to glorify; A never-dying soul to save, And fit it for the sky : 	2 O Jesus, thou art knocking: And lo! that hand is scarred, And thorns thy brow encircle, And tears thy face have marred:
 2 To serve the present age, My calling to fulfiil,— 0 may it all my powers engage To do my Master's will. 	O love that passeth knowledge So patiently to wait! Oh sin that hath no equal So fast to bar the gate!
3 Arm me with jealous care, As in thy sight to live; And O, thy servant, Lord, prepare A strict account to give.	 3 O Jesus, thou art pleading In accents meek and low, " I died for you, my children, And will ye treat me so?"
4 Help me to watch and pray, And on thyself rely,— Assured, if I my trust betray, I shall for ever die.	O Lord, with shame and sorrow We open now the door: Dear Saviour, enter, enter, And leave us never more.
175 Tune-Peterboro. C. M.	177 Tune-Scioto. S. M.
 Lo, what a cloud of witnesses Encompass us around; Men once like us with suffering tried, But now with glory crowned. 	 Oh what, if we are Christ's, Is earthly shame or loss ? Bright shall the crown of glory be When we have borne the cross.

2 Keen was the trial once,	Over the plains of sweet Canaan we
Bitter the eup of woe,	roam,
When martyred saints, baptized in blood,	Joyfully, joyfully, safely at home.
Christ's sufferings shared below.	179 Tune-Shining Shore. 88 & 78. Peculiar.
3 Bright is their glory now, Boundless their joy above, Where on the bosom of their God They rest in perfect love.	 My days are gliding swiftly by, And I, a pilgrim stranger, Would not detain them as they fly, These hours of toil and dauger.
 4 Lord, may that grace be ours, Like them in faith to bear All that of sorrow, grief, or pain May be our portion here. 	2 We'll gird our loins, my brethren dear, Our heavenly home discerning; Our absent Lord has left us word, Let every lamp be burning.
178 Tune-Joyfully. 10s.	3 Should coming days be cold and dark, We need not cease our singing;
1 Joyfully, joyfully, onward we move, Bound to the land of bright spirits	That perfect rest naught can molest, Where golden harps are ringing.
above; Jesus, our Saviour, in mercy says, Come, Joyfully, joyfully, haste to your home. Soon will our pilgrimage end here be-	4 Let sorrow's rudest tempest blow, Each chord on earth to sever; Our King says, "Come," and there's our home, low, Soon to the presence of God we shall go;	For ever, O for ever! Chorus.
Then, if to Jesus our hearts have been given, Joyfully, joyfully, rest we in heaven.	For O, we stand, on Jordan's strand, Our friends are passing over, And just before, the shining shore, We may almost discover.
2 Teachers and scholars have passed on before,	180 Tune-Wilmot. 78.
Waiting, they watch us, approaching the shore, Singing to cheer us, while passing along, Joyfully, joyfully, haste to your home. Sounds of sweet music there ravish the	1 Oft in danger, oft in woe, Onward, Christians, onward go; Bear the toil, maintain the strife, Strengthened with the bread of life.
ear, Harps of the blesséd, your strains we shall hear, Filling with harmony heaven's high	Let not fear your course impede,
dome,	Great your strength, if great your need.
 Joyfully, joyfully, Jesus, we come. 3 Death with his arrow may soon lay us low, Safe in our Saviour, we feel not the 	Christian soldiers, onward go!
blow, Jesus has broken the bars of the tomb,	181 Tune-Golden Hill. S. M.
Josfully, joyfully, we will go home. Bright will the morn of eternity dawn, Death shall be conquered, his sceptre be gone,	1 For man the Saviour shed His all-atoning blood,

2 Ashamed who now can be To own the crucified? Nay, rather be our glory this, To die for him who died.	3 'Tis the same story still, Of sin and weariness, Of grace and love still flowing down To pardon and to bless.
3 So felt thy martyr, Lord; By thy right hand sustained, He waged for thee the battle's strife, And threatened death disdained.	4 'Tis the old sorrow still, The briar and the thorn ; And 'tis the same old solace yet,— The hope of coming morn.
 4 Alone, he stood unmoved, Amid his eruel foes, 0 wondrous was the might that then Above his torturers rose ! 	5 No wider is the gate, No broader is the way, No smoother is the ancient path, That leads to light and day.
 5 Lord, give us grace to bear Like him our cross of shame, To do and suffer what thou wilt, ' For love of thy dear name. 	184 Tune-Siberia. 8s, 7s, & 4s. 1 In the floods of tribulation,
182 TuneLisbon. S. M.	While the billows o'er me roll, Jesus whispers consolation, And supports my fainting soul :
1 An exile for the faith Of his incarnate Lord, Beyond the stars, beyond all space,	Sweet affliction, That brings Jesus to my soul.
His soul in vision soared.	2 Here, in darkest dispensations, Doth my faithful Lord appear,
 John saw in glory him Who liveth, and was dead, There Judah's Lion and the Lamb That for our ransom bled : 	With his richest consolations, To reanimate and cheer : Sweet affliction, Thus to bring my Saviour near.
3 There of the kingdom learnt The mysteries sublime;	3 In the sacred page recorded, Thus his word securely stands;
How, sown in martyrs' blood, the faith Should spread from clime to clime.	"Fear not, I'm in trouble near thee, Naught shall pluck thee from my
4 Lord, give us grace, like him, In thee to live and die,	hands." Sweet affliction, Every word my love demands.
To spurn the fleeting things of earth, And seek for joys on high.	4 All I meet I find assist me
183 Tune-Granby. S. M.	In my path to heav'nly joy, Where, though trials now attend me,
1 Far down the ages now,	Trials never more annoy. Sweet affliction,
Her journey well-nigh done,	Every promise gives me joy.
The pilgrim Church pursues her way, In haste to reach the crown.	5 Wearing there a weight of glory,
In masse to reach the crown.	Still the path I'll ne'er forget,
2 The story of the past	But, exulting, cry, it led me
Comes up before her view; How well it seems to suit her still,	To my blessed Saviour's feet: Sweet affliction,
Old, and yet over new.	Which has brought me to his feet.

-

		1
185	Tune—Joyfully.	10s.	3 To raging flames consigned;
1 Joyfu	ully singing, now onward	we	To ruthless beasts a prey; Their sacred flesh by savage hoo	ks
1	nove,		Torn piece by piece away, for the land of bright sp above;	Dirits	4 In view of wretched death,
	the Saviour, invites us to co	ome;	Unmoved they still endure;
Joyfull	y, joyfully, hasten we home	э.	Unmoved continue, in the grace ill our pilgrimage end here	e be-	Of endless life secure.
	ow; the presence of Christ we	shall	187 Tune-Calvary's Mountain.	Cs & 58.
	go;		1 Saviour, blessèd Saviour,
	ince our hearts have to	Jesus	Listen whilst we sing,
	been given, ly, joyfully, rest we in heave	en.	Hearts and voices raising Praises to our King:
o o j - a	y , j		All we have to offer,
2 Voie	e of archangel, and trump	et of	All we hope to be,
	God,	410.0	Body, soul, and spirit, All we yield to thee.
	ly summon the quick and dead;	tne
	in his glory shall Jesus ap	pear,	2 Nearer, ever nearer, Christ, we draw to thee,
· ·	d in clouds shall we meet	him	Deep in adoration, in air. gs all over, and sorrows all g	rone	Bending low the knee:
	n his presence eternally one		Thou for our redemption,
Like h	im, and with him for ever t	o be,	Cam'st on earth to die; Thou, that we might follow,
Joyful	ly, joyfully, welcome the da	ıy.	Hast gone up on high.
3 Crow	vns may encircle our ra	diant	3 Great and ever greater brow,		Are thy mercies here,
	we'll cast them before him	1 and	True and everlasting Are the glories there, bow; of the harpers shall gladde	n the
1	throne,		Toil, or care is known, to tell He is worthy alone:		Where the angel-legions Circle round thy throne.
	s in chorus their anthem raise,	Shan
	o give him all honor and pr
	every creature around and a		Shedding all its gladness
Soyiui	ly, joyfully, rests in his love	6.	O'er our work that's done;
1 86	Tune-Athol.	S. M.	Time will soon be over, Toil and sorrow past,
		D 1 1 1 1	May we, blessed Saviour,
	we the martyrs blest,		Find a rest at last.
	ir blood for Jesus poured, ve their glorious victories,		5 Onward, ever onward,
	l infinite reward.		Journeying o'er the road
2 Tree	ding the world beneath		Worn by saints before us, iding the world beneath, rning the body's pain,		Journeying on to God; Leaving all behind us, brief	May we hasten on,
	space,		Backward never looking-
Eter	rnal joys to gain.		Till the prize is won.

52

*

.

 6 Bliss, all bliss excelling, When the ransomed soul, Earthly toils forgetting, Finds its promised goal; Where in joys unheard of Saints with angels sing, Never weary raising Praises to their King: 	 5 No more a lily among thorns; Weary, and faint, and few, But countless as the stars of heav'n, Or as the early dew. 6 Then entering the eternal halls, In robes of victory, That mighty multitude shall keep The joyous jubilee.
188 Tune — Deliverance . 88, 78, & 48.	190 Tune-Upton. L. M.
 Zion stands with hills surrounded— Zion, kept by power divine: All her foes shall be confounded, Though the world in arms combine: Happy Zion, What a forcer dot is thing 	1 Fear not the foe, thou flock of God, Fear not the sword, the spear, the rod, He fights in vain who fights with thee; Soon shalt thou see his armies flee.
 What a favored lot is thine. 2 Every human tie may perish; Friend to friend unfaithful prove; Mothers cease their own to cherish; Heaven and earth at last remove; 	 2 Come, eheer thee to the toil and fight; 'Tis God, thy God, defends the right; His sword shall scatter every foe, His shield shall ward off every blow.
But no changes Can attend Jehovah's love. 3 In the furnace God may prove thee, Thence to bring thee forth more bright, But an power sees to love thee:	 3 His is the battle, his the power, His is the triumph in that hour; So round thy brow the wreath shall twine; So shall the victory be thine.
But can never cease to love thee; Thou art precious in his sight: God is with thec— God, thine everlasting light.	4 Not long the sigh, the toil, the sweat, Not long the fight-day's wasting heat; Slack not thy weapon in the fight; Courage! for God defends the right.
189 Tune-Woodside. C. M.	191 Tune-Bartimeus. Ss & 7s.
 A little flock; so calls he thee, Who bought thee with his blood; A little flock.—disowned by men, But owned and loved of God. A little flock!. So calls he theat 	 In the cross of Christ I glory, Tow'ring o'er the wrecks of time; All the light of sacred story Gathers round its head sublime.
2 A little flock! So calls he thee; Church of the first-born, hear! Be not ashamed to own the name; It is no name of fear.	2 When the woes of life o'ertake me, Hopes deceive, and fears annoy, Never shall the cross forsake me; Lo! it glows with peace and joy.
 3 A little flock ! 'Tis well, 'tis well; Such be her lot and name; Thro' ages past it has been so, And now 'tis still the same. 1 Det the which Sheehend 	3 When the sun of bliss is beaming Light and love upon my way, From the cross the radiance streaming Adds new lustre to the day.
4 But the chief Shepherd comes at length; Her feeble days are o'er, No more a handful in the earth, A little flock no more.	4 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure, By the cross are sanctified; Peace is there, that knows no measuro, Joys that through all time abide.

192	Tune-Utica.	7s & 6s.	Gates of hell can never 'Gainst that Church prevail;
	s now new anthems raise e the song of gladness;	;	We have Christ's own promise, And that can not fail.
God hir	nself to joy and praise		A Onemand than we wear
	s the martyr's sadness : the day that won their cro	own.	4 Onward, then, ye people, Join our happy throng,
Open	ed heaven's bright portal,		Blend with ours your voices,
	laid the mortal down		In the triumph song;
10 pt	it on th' immortal.		Glory, laud, and honor, Unto Christ the King, r flinched they from the f	lame,	This through countless ages
	the torture never; le foeman's sharpest aim,		Men and angels sing.
	's best endeavor :		194 Tune-Rothwell. L. M.
	faith they saw the land		1 Ye servants of our glorious King,
	ed in all its glory, triumphant now they star	nđ	To him your thankful praises bring;
	the victor's story.		And tell the deeds that grace has done, The triumphs by his martyrs won.
	nd follow, Christian men		2 Since they were faithful to the last, through toil and sorrow: he night of fear, and then		Their holy struggles now are past;
O, the	e glorious morrow !	-,	The bitterness of death is o'er,
	ill venture on the strife?		And theirs is bliss for evermore.
	who first begin it; ill grasp the land of life?		3 The flame did scorch, the knife lay
	iors, up and win it!		bare,
			And cruel beasts their members tear; No powers of earth, no powers of hell, 193	Tune—Calvary's Mountain.	6s & 5s.	The souls that loved their Lord could quell.
	rd, Christian soldiers,		1. O. C. view I was a supervised by hing as to war, ie cross of Jesus		4 O Saviour! may our portion be With those who gave themselves to g on before.		thee,
	he royal Master		Through all eternity to sing
	s against the foe, d into battle,		All praise to thee, the martyrs' King.
	is banners go.		195 Tune-Bernard. 78 & 68.
	e sign of triumph		1 Behold a royal Bridegroom
	's host doth flee; n, Christian soldiers,		Hath called me for his bride l I joyfully make ready vietory.		And hasten to his side.
	oundations quiver		He is a royal Bridegroom,
	e shout of praise; s, lift your voices,		But I am very poor l Of low estate he chose me
Loud	your anthems raise.		To show his love the more.
	ns and thrones may peris	h	2 First in my tears I washed me-
	doms rise and wane,	,	They could not make me clean :
	Church of Jesus		A fountain then he showed me,
Const	ant will remain;		Strange until then unseen!

54

Oh, love! oh, grace, that showed it! Revealed its cleansing power!	197 Tune-Silver Street. S. I	u.
How could I choose but hasten To meet him from that hour.	1 A sea of glass I saw, Mingled with fire it seemed;
3 And still with feeble footsteps, And turning oft astray,	Upon it stood the conquerors, The host of the redeemed.
I go to meet the Bridegroom, Though stumbling by the way.	2 They had the harps of God, And a new song they sung; The song of Moses and the Lamb
I soil my royal garments With earth where'er I fall;	I heard from every tongue.
I break and mar my ornaments, But he will know them all.	3 Right, great, and marvelous, Lord God of might, they ery,
4 Close, close, dear Guide, and lead me, I can not go aright!	Thy works are; just and true thy way Thou King of saints most high.	rs,
Through all that doth beset me, Keep, keep me close in sight!	4 Who shall not fear thee, Lord, And thee, Jehovah, own ?
"Tis but a little longer; Methinks the end I see; Oh! matchless love and mercy,	Who shall not glorify thy name, The only holy One?
The Bridegroom waits for me.	5 All nations now shall come, And to thee homage yield;
196 TuneRolland. L. M.	For all thy righteous judgments, Lor Are now at last revealed.	d,
1 Awake, Jerusalem, rejoice! Thy night is glimmering into noon. Zion, arise! lift up thy voice;	198 Tune—Harwell. &s & '	73.
 Thy sorrows shall be ended soon. Sounds the deep vesper-bell of time. Through earth's last tempest slowly borne. 	 Hark! the sound of holy voices Chanting, at the crystal sea, Alleluia, alleluia, Alleluia, Lord, to thee:
For thee it is the matin chime, And to thy sons the note of morn.	Multitude, which none can number, Like the stars in glory stands, Clothed in white apparel, holding
3 Arise, put on thy robe of white; Deck thee with beauty; let each gem	Palms of victory in their hands.
Sparkle its fairest to the light; Put on thy crown, Jerusalem !	2 Patriarch, and holy prophet, Who prepared the way of Christ, King, apostle, saint, confessor,
4 Thy widowhood is over now; Strip off thy weeds; in bridal gold	Martyr, and evangelist, Saintly maiden, godly matron,
And orient pearls thy glory shew, More regal than in days of old.	Widows who have watched to praye Joined in holy concert, singing	er,
5 Upon thee now the bridegroom pours The fullness of an unquench'd love;	To the Lord of all, are there. 3 They have come from tribulation,
He leads thee where the endless stores Of his own gladness thou shalt prove.	And have washed their robes blood,	in
6 He comes, with his own hand to press Each wrinkle from thy careworn brow;	Washed them in the blood of Jesus; Tried they were and firm they stoo. Mocked, imprisoned, stoned, tormente Saver acunder, ship with every	d; ed,
'Tis joy, and song, and mirth, and bliss, All hallel and hosanna now.	Sawn asunder, slain with sword, They have conquered death and Sata By the might of Christ the Lord.	n,

4 Marching with thy cross their banner They have triumphod following thee	Out above the harvest sheaves,
They have triumphed following thee, Thee, the captain of salvation,	They are going, ever going, Thick and fast, like falling leaves.
Thee, their Saviour, and their King;
Love and peace they taste for ever,	3 All along the mighty ages,
And all truth and knowledge see	All adown the solemn time, They have taken up their homeward
In the beatific vision	March, to that serener clime,
Of the blessed Trinity.	Where the watching, waiting angels
100 // 17 1 0 6 6 6	Lead them from the shadow dim
199 Tune—Happy Land. 6s & 4s.	To the brightness of his presence,
1 There is a happy land,	Who has called them unto him.
Far, far away, Where saints in glory stand	4 They are going, only going,
Where saints in glory stand, Bright, bright as day;	Out of pain and into bliss-
O, how they sweetly sing,	Out of sad and sinful weakness
Worthy is our Saviour King !	Into perfect holiness.
Loud let his praises ring,	Snowy brows, no care shall shade them; Bright eyes, tears shall never dim;
Praise, praise for aye.	Rosy lips, no time shall fade them :
2 Come to that happy land,-	Jesus called them unto him.
Come, come away;	5 Little hearts for ever stainless,
Why will ye doubting stand,	Little hands as pure as they,
Why still delay?	Little feet by angels guided,
O, we shall happy be,	Never in forbidden way.
When from sin and sorrow free; Lord, we shall live with thee,	They are going, ever going,
Blest, blest for aye.	Leaving many a lonely spot;
	But 'tis Jesus who has called them— Suffer, and forbid them not.
3 Bright in that happy land,	Surfer, and record them need
Beams every eye;	201 Tune-Rest for the Weary. 8s, 7s, & 5s.
Kept by a Father's hand, Love ean not die;	1 In the Christian's home in glory
O, then to glory run,	There remains a land of rest,
Be a crown and kingdom won;	There my Saviour's gone before me,
And bright, above the sun,	To fulfill my soul's request.
We reign for aye.	There is rest for the weary, There is rest for you,
	On the other side of Jordan,
200 Tune—Let Me Go. Ss & 7s.	In the sweet fields of Eden,
1 They are going, only going,	Where the tree of life is blooming,
Jesus called them long ago;	There is rest for you.
All the wintry time they're passing,	2 He is fitting up my mansion,
Softly as the falling snow. When the violets in the spring-time	Which eternally shall stand ;
Catch the azure of the sky,	For my stay shall not be transient In that holy, happy land.
They are carried out to slumber	There is rest, etc.
Sweetly, where the violets lie.
2 They are going, only going,	3 Paiu and sickness ne'er shall enter, Grief nor woe my lot shall share,
When with summer earth is dressed,	But in that celestial centre
In their cold hand holding roses	I a crown of life shall wear.
Folded to each silent breast;	There is rest, etc.

 $\mathbf{56}$

 4 Sing, oh, sing, ye heirs of glory; Shout your triumphs as you go; Zion's gates will open for you, You will find an entrance through. There is rest, etc. 	 Soon, soon, and for ever, we'll see as we're seen, And learn the deep meaning of things that have been. 4 When fightings without us, and fears
202 Tune — Evan . C. M.	from within,
 A soldier's course, from battles won To new-commencing strife; A pilgrim's, restless as the sun; Behold the Christian's life. 	Shall weary no more in the warfare of sin, Where tears, and where fears, and where death shall be—never, There Christians with Christ shall be Prepared the trumpet's call to greet, Soldier of Jesus, stand ! Pilgrim of Christ, with ready feet, Await thy Lord's command. 	soon—and for ever! 5 Soon, soon, and for ever, the work shall be done, The warfare accomplished, the victory
 3 Seek, soldier! pilgrim ! seek thine home Revealed in sacred lore; The land whence pilgrims never roam, Where soldiers war no more. 	won: Soon, soon, and for ever, the soldier lay down His sword for a harp, his cross for a
 4 Where founts of life their treasures yield In streams that never cease; Where everlasting mountains shield Vales of eternal peace. 	crown. 6 Then droop not in sorrow, despond not in fear, A glorious to-morrow is brightening and near;
5 Where they who meet shall never part; Where grace achieves its plan; And God, uniting every heart, Dwells face to face with man!	When blessed reward of each faithful endeavor, All Christians with Christ shall be- soon, and for ever!
203 Tune-Frederick. 11s.	204 Tune-Bethany. 65 & 45.
1 "Soon, soon, and for ever!" Such promise our trust,	1 Haste, my dull soul, arise, Cast off thy care, Press to the opened skies,
Though ashes to ashes, and dust unto dust;	Mighty in prayer;
Soon, soon, and for ever, our union shall be	Jesus has gone before, Count all thy troubles o'er,
Made perfect, our glorious Redeemer, in thee.	He who thy burden bore, Jesus is there.
2 When the sins and the sorrows of time shall be o'er;	2 Soul, for the marriage feast Robe and prepare,
Its pangs and its partings remembered no more;	Y2 7 7 1 1
When life can not fail, and when death	a • . • . •
can not sever, And Christians with Christ shall be— soon, and for ever !	Bride of the Lamb, thy charms, Oh, let us wear !
3 Soon, soon, and for ever, the break- ing of day	3 Heaven's bliss is perfect, pure, Glory is there;
Shall drive all the night-clouds of sor- row away	Heaven's bliss is ever sure, Thou art its heir.

What makes its joy complete? What makes its hymn so sweet? There our best Friend we meet-Jesus is there. PART I. 205Tune-Brown. C. M. 1 Oh Mother dear, Jerusalem, great, When shall I come to thee? When shall my sorrows have an end, Thy joys when shall I see? 2 Oh! happy harbor of the saints; Oh! sweet and pleasant soil; In thee no sorrows can be found, No grief, no care, no toil. 3 In thee no sickness may be seen, No hurt, no ache, no sore; There is no death, no hateful sight-There's life for evermore. 4 No dampish mist is seen in thee, No cold, nor darksome night : There every soul shines as the sun, There God himself gives light. 5 There lust and lucre can not dwell, There envy bears no sway; There is no hunger, heat, nor cold, But pleasure every way. PART II. Tune-Jazer. C. M. 1 Jerusalem ! Jerusalem! God grant that I may see sound Thy endless joys, and of the same Partaker aye to be. 2 Thy walls are made of precious stones, Thy bulwarks diamond square, Thy gates are of right orient pearl, Exceeding rich and rare.

3 Thy turrets and thy pinnacles, With earbuncles do shine,

With jasper and with crysolite, Surpassing clear and fine.

4 Thy houses are of ivory. Thy windows crystal elear,

Thy streets are made of beaten gold-Oh God, that I were there.

PART III.

Tune-Henry.

C. M.

1 Ah, my sweet home, Jerusalem ! Would God I were in thee,

Would God my woes were at an end, Thy joys that I might see.

2 Thy saints are crowned with glory

They see God face to face,

They triumph still, they still rejoice, Most happy is their case.

3 Our sweet is mixed with bitter gall, Our pleasure is but pain,

Our joys scarce last the looking on, Our sorrows still remain.

4 But there they live in such delight, Such pleasure and such play,

As that to them a thousand years Doth seem as yesterday.

PART IV.

Tune-Jordan. C. M. D.

1 Jerusalem, thrice happy seat! Of God our King most high!

O sacred city, queen and wife

Of Christ, eternally.

Thy gardens and thy gallant walks Continually are green;

There grow such sweet and pleasant flowers

As nowhere else are seen.

2 Quite through thy streets, with silver

The flood of life doth flow,

Upon whose banks, on every side, The wood of life doth grow.

There trees for evermore bear fruit; There nard and balm abound;

- What tongue can tell or heart conceive The sweets that there are found.
- 3 There stand the saints with harp in hand,

There angels aye do sing,

The music of that happy choir In every street doth ring.

Oh Mother dear, Jerusalem ! I would thy joys behold !

- And sing the glories of the Lamb, With palm and harp of gold.

208	Tune Webb.	78 & Cs.		у
	of fadeless splendor that fear no thorn,	I	sweet name, My guilty fears banished, with boldnes I came	ss
	shall dwell as child as exiles mourn;	lren,	To drink at the fountain, so copiou	15
The peace of	f all the faithful,		and free; Jehovah, my Saviour, is all things t	to
Inviolate, ur			me.
Divinest, s	sweetest, best.		4 Jehovah, the Lord, is my treasure an boast,	d
And shall	that is for heaven, be for the earth;		Jehovah, my Saviour,—I ne'er can l lost;	96
	hat re-echoes il song and mirth;		In thee I shall conquer by flood and b	y breathing spices, lise on high;		field, Jehovah myanchor, Jehovah myshield	1.
Grace beauti	ified to glory, minstrelsy.		5 E'en treading the valley, the shado of death,	w
3 There not	hing can be feeble,		This watchword shall rally my falte	re can ever mourn, ng is divided,		ing breath; For, while from life's fever my Go	od
There not	hing can be torn.		sets me free, Jehovah, my Saviour, my death son	1gr
'Tis peacel	, and scandal, less peace below;		shall be.	0
	s, strifeless, ageless, of Zion know.		208 Tune-Horton. 73, 4 line	s.
4 Oh happy,	, holy portion,		1 Depth of mercy, can there be
4 Oh happy, Refection	, holy portion, for the blest, of true beauty,		1 Depth of mercy, can there be Mercy still, O Lord, in thee?
4 Oh happy, Refection True vision of Sweet cure	for the blest, of true beauty, e of all distrest!		1 Depth of mercy, can there be
4 Oh happy, Refection True vision of Sweet cure Strive, man, Toil, man,	for the blest, of true beauty, e of all distrest! to win that glory; , to gain that light;		1 Depth of mercy, can there be Mercy still, O Lord, in thee? Canst thou still thy wrath forbear, And the chief of sinners spare? 2 We have long withstood thy grace;	i
4 Oh happy, Refection True vision of Sweet cure Strive, man, Toil, man, Send hope b	for the blest, of true beauty, e of all distrest! to win that glory;		 Depth of mercy, can there be Mercy still, O Lord, in thee ? Canst thou still thy wrath forbear, And the chief of sinners spare ? We have long withstood thy grace; Long provoked thee to thy face; Would not hear thy gracious calls;
4 Oh happy, Refection True vision of Sweet cure Strive, man, Toil, man, Send hope b	for the blest, of true beauty, e of all distrest! to win that glory; , to gain that light; efore to grasp it,	11s.	 Depth of mercy, can there be Mercy still, O Lord, in thee? Canst thou still thy wrath forbear, And the chief of sinners spare? We have long withstood thy grace; Long provoked thee to thy face; Would not hear thy gracious calls; Grieved thee by a thousand falls.
4 Oh happy, Refection True vision of Sweet cure Strive, man, Toil, man, Send hope b 'Till hope	for the blest, of true beauty, e of all distrest! to win that glory; , to gain that light; efore to grasp it, be lost in sight. Tane-Perine.		 Depth of mercy, can there be Mercy still, O Lord, in thee ? Canst thou still thy wrath forbear, And the chief of sinners spare ? We have long withstood thy grace; Long provoked thee to thy face; Would not hear thy gracious calls; Grieved thee by a thousand falls. Jesus, answer from above : Is not all thy nature love?
 4 Oh happy, Refection True vision of Sweet cure Strive, man, Toil, man, Send hope b 'Till hope 207 1 I once was God, 	for the blest, of true beauty, e of all distrest! to win that glory; to gain that light; efore to grasp it, be lost in sight. Tane-Perine. s a stranger to grace	and to	 Depth of mercy, can there be Mercy still, O Lord, in thee ? Canst thou still thy wrath forbear, And the chief of sinners spare ? We have long withstood thy grace; Long provoked thee to thy face; Would not hear thy gracious calls; Grieved thee by a thousand falls. Jesus, answer from above : Is not all thy nature love ? Wilt thou not our crimes forget ? 	i
4 Oh happy, Refection True vision of Sweet cure Strive, man, Toil, man, Send hope b 'Till hope 207 1 I once was God, I knew not r load;	for the blest, of true beauty, e of all distrest ! to win that glory; , to gain that light; efore to grasp it, be lost in sight. Tune—Perine. s a stranger to grace my danger, and felt	and to	 Depth of mercy, can there be Mercy still, O Lord, in thee? Canst thou still thy wrath forbear, And the chief of sinners spare? We have long withstood thy grace; Long provoked thee to thy face; Would not hear thy gracious calls; Grieved thee by a thousand falls. Jesus, answer from above: Is not all thy nature love? Wilt thou not our crimes forget? Lo, we fall before thy feet. 	i
 4 Oh happy, Refection True vision of Sweet cure Strive, man, Toil, man, Send hope b 'Till hope 207 1 I once was God, I knew not r load; Though frie Christ 	for the blest, of true beauty, e of all distrest! to win that glory; to gain that light; efore to grasp it, be lost in sight. Tane-Perine. s a stranger to grace my danger, and felt ends spoke in rapt to on the tree,	and to not my sure of	 Depth of mercy, can there be Mercy still, O Lord, in thee ? Canst thou still thy wrath forbear, And the chief of sinners spare ? We have long withstood thy grace; Long provoked thee to thy face; Would not hear thy gracious calls; Grieved thee by a thousand falls. Jesus, answer from above : Is not all thy nature love? Wilt thou not our crimes forget? Lo, we fall before thy feet. Lord, incline us to repent 1 Help us now our fall lament; 	i
 4 Oh happy, Refection True vision of Sweet cure Strive, man, Toil, man, Send hope b 'Till hope 207 1 I once was God, I knew not r load; Though frie Christ 	for the blest, of true beauty, e of all distrest! to win that glory; , to gain that light; efore to grasp it, be lost in sight. Tune-Perine. s a stranger to grace my danger, and felt ends spoke in rapt , on the tree, 7 Saviour, seemed 1	and to not my sure of	 Depth of mercy, can there be Mercy still, O Lord, in thee ? Canst thou still thy wrath forbear, And the chief of sinners spare ? We have long withstood thy grace; Long provoked thee to thy face; Would not hear thy gracious calls; Grieved thee by a thousand falls. Jesus, answer from above : Is not all thy nature love? Wilt thou not our crimes forget? Lo, we fall before thy feet. Lord, incline us to repent 1 Help us now our fall lament; 	i
 4 Oh happy, Refection True vision of Sweet cure Strive, man, Toil, man, Send hope b 'Till hope 207 1 I once was God, I knew not r load; Though frie Christ Jehovah, my to me. 2 When free 	for the blest, of true beauty, e of all distrest! to win that glory; , to gain that light; efore to grasp it, be lost in sight. Tune-Perine. s a stranger to grace my danger, and felt ends spoke in rapt , on the tree, 7 Saviour, seemed 1	and to not my ure of nothing	 Depth of mercy, can there be Mercy still, O Lord, in thee? Canst thou still thy wrath forbear, And the chief of sinners spare? We have long withstood thy grace; Long provoked thee to thy face; Would not hear thy gracious calls; Grieved thee by a thousand falls. Jesus, answer from above: Is not all thy nature love? Wilt thou not our crimes forget? Lo, we fall before thy feet. Lord, incline us to repent 1 Help us now our fall lament; Deeply our revolt deplore; Weep, believe, and sin no more.
 4 Oh happy, Refection True vision of Sweet cure Strive, man, Toil, man, Send hope b 'Till hope 207 1 I once was God, I knew not r load; Though frie Christ Jehovah, my to me. 2 When free from content 	for the blest, of true beauty, e of all distrest ! to win that glory ; , to gain that light; efore to grasp it, be lost in sight. Tune—Perine. s a stranger to grace my danger, and felt ends spoke in rapt ; on the tree, y Saviour, seemed r e grace awoke me b on high, ears shook me—I true	e and to not my ure of nothing by light	 Depth of mercy, can there be Mercy still, O Lord, in thee? Canst thou still thy wrath forbear, And the chief of sinners spare? We have long withstood thy grace; Long provoked thee to thy face; Would not hear thy gracious calls; Grieved thee by a thousand falls. Jesus, answer from above: Is not all thy nature love? Wilt thou not our crimes forget? Lo, we fall before thy feet. Lord, incline us to repent I Help us now our fall lament; Deeply our revolt deplore; Weep, believe, and sin no more. 209 Tune-Manty. S. E I A sinful man am I,
 4 Oh happy, Refection True vision of Sweet cure Strive, man, Toil, man, Send hope by 'Till hope 2007 1 I once was God, I knew not r load; Though frie Christ Jehovah, my to me. 2 When free from content Thon legal fi to die No refuge, m 	for the blest, of true beauty, e of all distrest! to win that glory; to gain that light; efore to grasp it, be lost in sight. Tane-Perine. s a stranger to grace my danger, and felt ends spoke in rapt to on the tree, y Saviour, seemed n e grace awoke me b on high, ears shook me—I tre;	e and to not my ure of nothing ny light embled d I see,	 Depth of mercy, can there be Mercy still, O Lord, in thee? Canst thou still thy wrath forbear, And the chief of sinners spare? We have long withstood thy grace; Long provoked thee to thy face; Would not hear thy gracious calls; Grieved thee by a thousand falls. Jesus, answer from above: Is not all thy nature love? Wilt thou not our crimes forget? Lo, we fall before thy feet. Lord, incline us to repent 1 Help us now our fall lament; Deeply our revolt deplore; Weep, believe, and sin no more. 209 Tune-Manly. B. E I A sinful man am I, Therefore I come to thee; To thee the holy and the just,

.

2 Wert thou not holy, Lord,	4 And thou hast struggled with it,
Why should I come to thee?	Lord!
It is thy holiness that makes	Even to the limit of thy strength,
Thee, Lord, so meet for me.	While hours, whose minutes were as
3 Wert thou not gracious, Lord,	years,
I must in dread depart;	Slowly fulfilled their weary length.
It is the riches of thy grace That win and draw my heart.	5 Sin and the Father's anger, they Have made thy lower nature faint; All, save the love within thy heart,
4 Wert thou not righteous, Lord, I dare not come to thee;	Seemed for the moment to be spent.
It is a righteous pardon, Lord,	212 TuneRolland. L. M.
Alone that suiteth me.	1 My God! my God! and can it be
210 Tune-Remember Me. C. M.	That I should sin so lightly now, And think no more of evil thoughts
1 Jesus, thou art the sinner's Friend; As such I look to thee;	Than of the wind that waves the bough?
Now in the fullness of thy love,	2 I sin-and heaven and earth go
O Lord, remember me.	round
2 Remember thy pure word of grace-	As if no dreadful deed were done,
Remember Calvary;	As if God's blood had never flowed
Remember all thy dying groans,	To hinder sin, or to atone !
And, then, remember me.	3 I walk the earth with lightsome step, Smile at the sunshine, breathe the
 3 Thou wondrous Advocate with God,	air,
I yield myself to thee; While thou art sitting on thy throne,	Do my own will, nor ever heed
Dear Lord, remember me.	Gethsemane and thy sad prayer!
4 Lord, I am guilty—I am vile,	4 Oh, by the pains of thy pure love,
But thy salvation's free ;	Grant me the gift of holy fear;
Then, in thine all-abounding grace,	And give me of thy bloody sweat
Dear Lord, remember me.	To wash my guilty conscience clear.
211 Tune-Rockbridge. L. M.	213 Tune-Just as I am. Ss & Gs.
1 O soul of Jesus! siek to death! Thy blood and prayer together plead My sins have bowed thee to the ground As the storm bows the feeble reed.	1 Just as I am—without one plea, But that thy blood was shed for me,
2 Thy spirit weighs the sins of men;	2 Just as I am—and waiting not,
Thy science fathoms all their guilt;	To rid my soul of one dark blot,
Thou sickenest heavily at thy heart,	To thee whose blood can cleanse each
Through opening pores thy blood is	spot,
spilt.	O Lamb of God, I come !
3 And thou hast shuddered at each act	3 Just as I am—though tossed about,
And shrunk with an astonished fear	With many a conflict, many a doubt,
As if thou couldst not bear to see	Fightings within, and fears without—
The loathsomeness of sin so near.	O Lamb of God, I come !

4 Just as I am—poor, wretched, blind: Sight, riches, healing of the mind, Yea, all I need, in thee to find, O Lamb of God, I come!	4 Come hither, bring thy boding fears, Thy aching beart, thy bursting tears; 'Tis mercy's voice salutes thine ears: O trembling sinner, come!
5 Just as I am—thou wilt receive, Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve, And now thy promise I believe, O Lamb of God, I come!	5 The Spirit and the Bride say "Come!" Let all who hear re-echo "Come!" Who faints, who thirsts, who will, may come:
6 Just as I am—thy love unknown Has broken every barrier down; Now to be thine, yea, thine alone, O Lamb of God, I come!	The Saviour bids thee come l 216 Tune-Flint's Tune. 85, 78, & 48.
214 Tune-Remember Me. C. M. 1 O Lord, turn not thy face from me, Who lie in woeful state, Lamenting all my sinful life	 Come, oh come, thou King of glory, Take us from our prison-house; Purge and heal the wounded conscience, Perfect pardon'seal to us. Hallelujah, King of glory, visit us!
Before thy mercy-gate. 2 A gate that opens wide to those That do lament their sin; Shut not that gate against me, Lord, But let me enter in.	 2 In iniquity conceived, Born in sin, estranged from thee; Ours has been a life of bondage;— Thou hast bought and made us free. Hallelujah,
 3 And call me not to strict account, How I have sojourned here; For then my guilty conscience knows How vile I shall appear. 	Let us chant our jubilee ! 3 Give us, of thy fullness give us, Fountain of all holiness ! Give us, Lord, the purgèd conscience, Resting calmly on thy grace.
4 Mercy, good Lord, mercy I ask; This is my humble prayer; For mercy, Lord, is all my suit, O let thy mercy spare.	Hallelujah, In thyself us truly bless. 4 Cure in us the love of sinning; Every weakness from us take;
21.5 Tune-Just as I Am. 88 & 68.	This world's iron yoke of evil Break, O King of glory, break. Hallelujah,
1 Just as thou art, without one trace Of love, or joy, or inward grace, Or meetness for the heav'nly place, O guilty sinner, come !	Like thyself, us, Saviour, make. 5 Sloth and pride and darkness banish; Us with light and meekness fill.
2 Burdened with guilt, wouldst thou be bless'd?	Pureness give, and love, the fairest, Brightest of the graces still.
Trust not the world; it gives no rest: Christ gives relief to hearts oppress'd: O weary sinner, come!	Hallelujah, Reign thou in our heart and will. 6 King of glory, let us love thee, Love thee with a child-like heart;
3 Come, leave thy burden at the cross; Count all thy gains but worldly dross;	Thine it is alone to give us Love that never shall depart.
His grace o'erpays all earthly loss : O needy sinner, come!	Hallelujah, Thou our King and Saviour art.

217 Tunc-Stephens. C. M.	219 Tune-I Want to be an Angel. 75 & 68.
1 Great God, when I approach thy throne,	The spotless Lamb of God;
And all thy glory see; This is my stay, and this alone,	He bears them all and frees us From the accursed load.
That Jesus died for me.	I bring my guilt to Jesus, To wash my crimson stains
 2 How can a soul condemned to die, Escape the just decree ? Helpless and full of sin am I, But Jesus died for me. 	White in his blood most precious, Till not a spot remains.
3 Burdened with sin's oppressive chain,	2 I lay my wants on Jesus; All fullness dwells in him:
O how ean I get free?	He heals all my discases, He doth my soul redeem.
No peace can all my efforts gain, But Jesus died for me.	I lay my griefs on Jesus,
4 My anxious heart no joy could cheer,	My burdens and my cares; He from them all releases,
On life's tempestuous sea; Did not this truth relieve my fear, That Jesus died for me.	He all my sorrows shares. 3 I rest my soul on Jesus,
5 And Lord, when I behold thy face,	This weary soul of mine; His right hand me embraces,
This must be all my plea; Save me by thy almighty grace,	I on his breast recline.
For Jesus died for me.	I love the name of Jesus, Immanuel, Christ, the Lord :
218 Tune-Varina. C. M. D.	Like fragrance on the breezes, His name abroad is poured.
1 I heard the voice of Jesus say, Come unto me and rest;	4 I long to be like Jesus,
Lay down, thou weary one, lay down	Meek, loving, lowly, mild. I long to be like Jesus,
Thy head upon my breast. I came to Jesus as I was,	The Father's holy child.
Weary, and worn, and sad, I found in him a resting-place,	I long to be with Jesus, Amid the heavenly throng,
And he has made me glad.	To sing with saints his praises, To learn the angels' song.
2 I heard the voice of Jesus say, Behold, I freely give
The living water, —thirsty one, Stoop down, and drink, and live.	220 Tune—German Hymn. 7s, 4 lines.
I came to Jesus and I drank	1 Soar we now where Christ has led, Following our exalted Head:
Of that life-giving stream; My thirst was quench'd, my soul re-	Made like him, like him we rise;
vived, And now I live in him.	Ours the cross, the grave, the skies.
3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,	2 Risen with him, we upward move, Still we seek the things above,
I am this dark world's light, Look unto me, thy morn shall rise,	Still adore and kiss the Son, Seated on his Father's throne.
And all thy day be bright. I looked to Jesus, and I found	3 Dead to sin while here below,
In him, my Star, my Sun,	Alive in Christ we onward go;
And in that light of life I'll walk, Till traveling days are done.	Heaven our aim and loved abode, Hid our life with Christ in God.

4 Hid, till Christ our life appear, Glorious in his members here Joined to him; we then shall shine All immortal, all divine!	The terrors of law and of God, With me can have nothing to do; My Saviour's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.
221 Tune-Happy Day. L. M.	2 The work which his goodness began,
 O, happy day, that fixed my choice On thee, my Saviour and my God ! Well may this glowing heart rejoice, And tell its raptures all abroad. Happy day, happy day, When Jesus washed my sins away: He taught me how to watch and pray, And live rejoicing every day: Happy day, happy day, When Jesus washed my sins away. O happy bond, that seals my vows To him who merits all my love: Let cheerful anthems fill his house, While to that sacred shrine I move. Happy day, happy day, etc. 	 2 The work which his goodness began, The arm of his strength will com- plete; His promise is yea and amen, And never was forfeited yet: Things future, nor things that are now, Not all things below or above, Can make him his purpose forego, Or sever my soul from his love. 3 My name from the palms of his hands, Eternity will not erase; Impressed on his heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace: Yes—I to the end shall endure, As sure as the earnest is given; More happy, but not more secure, The glorified spirits in heaven.
3 'Tis done, the great transaction's	223 Tune-De Fleury. 83.
done: I am my Lord's, and he is mine: He drew me, and I followed on, Charmed to confess the voice divine. Happy day, happy day, etc. 4 Now rest, my long-divided heart! Fixed on this blissful centre, rest; With ashes who would grudge to part,	 My gracious Redeemer I love, His praises aloud I'll proclaim, And join with the armies above, To shout his adorable name: To gaze on his glories divine, Shall be my eternal employ; To see them incessantly shine, My boundless, ineffable joy.
When called on angels' bread to feast. Happy day, happy day, etc.	2 He freely redeemed, with his blood, My soul from the confines of hell, To live on the smiles of my God, And in his sweet presence to dwell;
5 High heaven that heard the solemn vow, That vow renewed shall daily hear;
Till in life's latest hour I bow, And bless in death a bond so dear.	My Jesus, my Saviour, my King. 3 Ye palaces, sceptres, and crowns,
Happy day, happy day, etc.	Your pride with disdain I survey; Your pomps are but shadows and
222 Tune-De Fleury. 8s.	sounds,
 A debtor to mercy alone, Of covenant mercy I sing; Nor fear, with thy righteousness on, My person and offerings to bring: 	And pass in a moment away; The crown that my Saviour bestows, Yon permanent sun shall outshine; My joy everlastingly flows— My God, my Redeemer, is mine.

22	24	Tune-Evan.	С. М.	2 Ah, grace! into unlikeliest hearts
1	Of all the g Thou giver	ifts thy love besto of all good !	ws,	It is thy boast to come; The glory of thy light to find In darkest spots a home.
		self a richer know edeemer's blood.	8	3 Thy choice, O God of goodness! then
2	Faith, too, through		blood,	I lovingly adore; Oh, give me grace to keep thy grace, And grace to long for more!
El	se, sweetly	ame love we gain as it suits our case l been in vain.		227 Tune—Philadelphia. L. M.
22	25	Tune—Avon.	С. М.	Just as thou art—how wondrous fair, Lord Jesus, all thy members are ! A life divine to them is given—ery simple thing, le understood ;		A long inheritance in heaven.
It	frees the sting,	soul from death's n the blood.	dread	2 Just as I was. I came to thee, An heir of wrath and misery; Just as thou art, before the throne, I stand in righteousness thine own.
It	Nor on the takes its flig	on the things aro things within; ght to scenes above spheres of sin.		3 Just as thou art—how wondrous free: Loosed by the sorrows of the tree: Jesus! the curse, the wrath were thine, To give thy saints this life divine.
In	It is a simpl what the G	what we feel or se le trust and of love has sai "The Just."	_	4 Just as thou art—nor doubt, nor fear, Can with thy spotlessness appear; O timeless love! as thee, I'm seen The "righteousness of God in him."
It	Is faith's de never deals	is, and that alone lightful plea; with sinful self, s self, in me.	,	5 Just as thou art—thou Lamb divine! Life, light, and holiness are thine : Thyself their endless source I see, And they the life of God in me.
[t]	By God, in 1 tells me I a:	am counted dead nis own word; m born again y risen Lord.		6 Just as thou art—O blissful ray That turned my darkness into day l That woke me from my death of sin, To know my perfectness in him.
]	From all un	then I am free righteousness;		228 Tune-Greely. S. M. D.
	he is just, th He is my rig	ien I am just: ghteousness.		1 With Christ we died to sin, Lay buried in his tomb;
22	26	Tune—Manoah.	С. М.	But, quicken'd now with him, "our life," We stand beyond our doom!
	My God, ho			Our God, in wondrous love, Hath raised us who were dead;
		o hast discerning l that gift to me!		And, "in the heavenlies, made us sit In Christ." our living "Head."

 For us he now appears "Within the vail" above; "Accepted" and "complete in him," We triumph in his love. In Christ we now are made "The righteousness of God;" As heaven-born men, and heirs with him, We follow where he trod. Rejected and despised, 	 O happy day! when first thy love Began our grateful hearts to move, And, gazing on thy wondrous cross, We saw all else as worthless dross. O happy day! when we no more Shall grieve thee whom our souls adore; When sorrows, conflicts, fears shall cease, And all our trials end in peace. O heave day! when we shall end
He bore the "open shame;" As fellow-sufferers, journeying home, We glory in his name. Soon will the Bridegroom come, His Bride from earth to call;	4 O happy day! when we shall see And fix our longing eyes on thee— On thee, our light, our life, our love, Our all below, our heaven above!
We, glorified with him, shall reign, Till God be all in all.	231 Tune-Christmas. C. M.
	1 My tongue shall spread the Saviour's fame,
229 Tune-Deliverance. 83, 78, & 4s. 1 Sovereign grace! o'cr sin abounding; Ransomed souls the tidings swell;	Whose grace I daily prove; For since my soul has known his name, His banner has been—Love.
'Tis a deep that knows no sounding, Who its length or breadth can tell? On its glories Let my soul for ever dwell!	 2 When walking in the paths of sin, I far from him would rove, By sweet constraint he drew me in, And waved his banner—Love.
2 What from Christ his saints can sever, Bound by everlasting bands? Once in him, in him forever, Thus the eternal covenant stands; None shall pluck them	 He spread the banquet, made me cat, Bid all my fears remove; Yea, o'er my guilty rebel head He placed his banner—Love.
 From the strength of Jesus' hands. 3 Heirs of God, joint heirs with Jesus, Long ere time its course begun; To his name eternal praises, 	 4 When, weary of his rich repast, I've sought, alas! to rove, He has recalled his faithless guest, And showed his banner—Love.
Oh, what wonders love hath done ! One with Jesus;	232 Tune-Woodland. C. M.
 By Eternal Union one. 4 On such love, my soul, still ponder, Love so great, so rich, so free; Say, while lost in holy wonder, Why, O Lord, such love to me? 	 All that I was,—my sin, my guilt, My death, was all my own; All that I am, I owe to thee, My gracious God alone.
Hallelujah ! Grace shall reign eternally.	2 The evil of my former state Was mine and only mine; The good in which I now rejoice Is thine and only thine.
230 Tune—Happy Day. L. M.
1 O happy day! when first we felt Our souls with sweet contrition melt, And saw our sins, of crimson guilt, All cleansed by blood on Calvary spilt.	3 The darkness of my former state, The bondage all was mine; Fhe light of life in which I walk, The liberty is thine.

 5 All that I am, even here on earth, All that I hope to be, When Jesus comes and glory dawns, I owe it, Lord, to thee. 233 Tane-German Air. L. M. 1 Complete in thee, no work of mine May take, dear Lord, the place of thine; And I am now complete in thee. 2 Complete in thee—no more shall sin. Thy grace has conquered, reign within Thy voice will bid the tempter flee, And I shall stand complete in thee. 3 Complete in thee—each want supplied, Market the empter flee, And I shall stand complete in thee. 3 Complete in thee—each want supplied, Since thou my portion, Lord, wilt be, I ask no more—complete in thee. 4 Complete in thee, forever blest, Of all thy fullness, Lord, possessed, Thy praise, throughout eternity, Thy love I'll sing—complete in thee. 234 Tane-Ware. L. M. 1 Can it be right for me to go On in this dark, uncertain way? 2 Is this the way to treat the God Who bidsme love and trust him mow? 1 St this the way to treat the God Who bidsme loves and three, if all the while I do not know Whether that grace has smiled on me? 4 How can it be my joy to dwell On the rich power of Jesus' blood, If all the while I can not tell That it has sealed my peace with God? 4 How can it be my joy to dwell On the rich power of Jesus' blood, If all the while I can not tell That it has sealed my peace with God? 	4 Thy grace first made me feel my sin; It taught me to believe; Then, in believing, peace I found, And now I live, I live.	5 How can I be like Christ below— How like my Lord, in witness shine, Unless with conscious joy I know His Father and his God as mine?
 I owe it, Lord, to thee. 233 Tune-German Air. 1 Complete in thee, no work of mine, May take, dear Lord, the place of thine; Thy blood has pardon bought for me, And I am now complete in thee. 2 Complete in thee—no more shall sin, Thy grace has conquered, reign within; Thy voice will bid the temptor flee, And I shall stand complete in thee. 3 Complete in thee—each want supplied, And no good thing to me denied, Since thou my portion, Lord, will be, I ask no more—complete in thee. 4 Complete in thee, forever blest, Of all thy fullness, Lord, possessed, Thy prise, throughout eternity, Thy love I'll sing—complete in thee. 234 Tune-Ware. 1 Can it he right for me to go On in this dark, uncertain way? 2 Is this the way to treat the God Who bids me love and trust him now? 2 Is this the way to treat the God Who bids me love and trust him now? 3 How can I forth to sinners go, And tell of grace so rich and free, If all the while I do not know Whether that grace has smiled on me? 4 How can it be my joy to dwell On the rich power of Jesus' blood, If all the while I can not tell That it has sealed my peace with 4 How can it be my joy to dwell On the rich power of Jesus' blood, If all the while I can not tell That it has sealed my peace with 	All that I hope to be,	235 Tune-Oak. 63 & 43.
 1 Complete in thee, no work of mine, Thy blood has pardon bought for me, And I am now complete in thee. 2 Complete in thee—no more shall sin, Thy voice will bid the tempter flee, And I shall stand complete in thee. 3 Complete in thee—each want supplied, And no good thing to me denied, Since thou my portion, Lord, wilt be, I ask no more—complete in thee. 4 Complete in thee, forever blest, Of all thy fullness, Lord, possessed, Thy praise, throughout eternity, Thy love I'll sing—complete in thee. 2 Can it be right for me to go On in this dark, uncertain way? 2 Is this the way to treat the God Who bids me love and trust him now? Is this the way to me there below? 3 How can I forth to sinners go, And tell of grace so rich and free, If all the while I do not know Whether that grace has smiled on me? 4 How can it be my joy to dwell On the rich power of Jesus' blood, If all the while I can not tell That it has sealed my peace with the start is that it has sealed my peace with the start is the search may frace has sample of the start is the search may frace has sample of the start is the search may frace has sample of the start is the search may frace has sample of the start is the search may frace has sample of the start is that the search may frace has sample of the start is that the the start frace has sample of the start is the search of the start is the start of the start is the start of the start is the start is the start is that the start is the start of the start is the start is the start of the start is the start of the start is the start is the start of the start is the start is the start of the start is the sta
 May take, dear Lord, the place of thine; Thy blood has pardon bought for me, And I am now complete in thee. 2 Complete in thee—no more shall sin, Thy yoice will bid the tempter flee, And I shall stand complete in thee. 3 Complete in thee—each want supplied, And no good thing to me denied, Since thou my portion, Lord, wilt be, I ask no more—complete in thee. 4 Complete in thee, forever blest, Of all thy fullness, Lord, possessed, Thy praise, throughout eternity, Thy love I'll sing—complete in thee. 234 Tame—Ware. I Can it be right for me to go On in this dark, uncertain way? Say "I believe," and yet not know Whether my sins are put away? 2 Is this the way to treat the God Who bids me love and trust him now? Is this the way to use the word Given to guide me here below? 3 How can I forth to sinners go, And tell of grace so rich and free, If all the while I do not know Whether that grace has smiled on me? 4 How can it be my joy to dwell On the rich power of Jesus' blood, If all the while I can not tell That it has sealed my peace withing the sy, song mode, to thee, Nearer to thee. 236 Tame—I Do Beliere. C. M. 	233 Tune-German Air. L. M.	That raiseth me;
 2 Complete in thee—no more shall sin, Thy yoice will bid the tempter flee, And I shall stand complete in thee. 3 Complete in thee—each want supplied, And no good thing to me denied, Since thou my portion, Lord, will be, I ask no more—complete in thee. 4 Complete in thee, forever blest, Of all thy fullness, Lord, possessed, Thy praise, throughout eternity, Thy love I'll sing—complete in thee. 3 There let my way appear Steps unto heaven; 3 There let my way appear Steps unto heaven; 3 There let my way appear Steps unto heaven; 3 In mercy given; Angels to beekon me Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee. 3 There let my way appear Steps unto heaven; 3 In mercy given; Angels to beekon me Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee. 4 Then with my waking thoughts Bright with thy praise; 3 Out of my stony griefs Bethel I'll raise; 3 So by my woes to be Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee. 4 Thew can i forth to sinners go, And tell of graces or ich and free, If all the while I do not know Whether that grace has smiled on me? 4 How can it be my joy to dwell On the rich power of Jesus' blood, If all the while I can not tell That, it has sealed my peace with 	May take, dear Lord, the place of thine; Thy blood has pardon bought for me,	Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee.
 3 Complete in thee—each want supplied, And no good thing to me denied, Since thou my portion, Lord, will be, I ask no more—complete in thee. 4 Complete in thee, forever blest, Of all thy fullness, Lord, possessed, Thy praise, throughout eternity, Thy love I'll sing—complete in thee. 234 Tane—Ware. I Can it be right for me to go On in this dark, uncertain way? Say "I believe," and yet not know Whether my sins are put away? I st his the way to treat the God Who bids me love and trust him now? Is this the way to use the word Given to guide me here below? How can I forth to sinners go, And tell of grace so rich and free, If all the while I do not know Whether that grace has smiled on me? Weater i to believe; thy power I own, If all the while I can not tell That it has sealed my peace with 	Thy grace has conquered, reign within; Thy voice will bid the tempter flee,	The sun gone down, Darkness be over me, My rest a stone ;
 And no good thing to me denied, Since thou my portion, Lord, wilt be, I ask no more—complete in thee. 4 Complete in thee, forever blest, Of all thy fullness, Lord, possessed, Thy praise, throughout eternity, Thy love I'll sing—complete in thee. 234 Tane-Ware. I Can it be right for me to go On in this dark, uncertain way? Say "I believe," and yet not know Whether my sins are put away? I s this the way to treat the God Who bids me love and trust him now? Is this the way to nse the word Given to guide me here below? How can I forth to sinners go, And tell of grace so rich and free, If all the while I do not know Whether that grace has smiled on me? 4 How can it be my joy to dwell On the rich power of Jesus' blood, If all the while I can not tell That it has sealed my peace with 	3 Complete in thee-each want sup-	Nearer, my God, to thee,
 Of all thy fullness, Lord, possessed, Thy praise, throughout eternity, Thy love I'll sing—complete in thee. 234 Tune—Ware. I. M. 1 Can it be right for me to go On in this dark, uncertain way? Say "I believe," and yet not know Whether my sins are put away? 2 Is this the way to treat the God Who bids me love and trust him nov? Is this the way to use the word Given to guide me here below? 3 How can I forth to sinners go, And tell of grace so rich and free, If all the while I do not know Whether that grace has smilled on me? 4 How can it be my joy to dwell On the rich power of Jesus' blood, If all the while I can not tell That it has sealed my peace with Angels to beckon me Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee. 5 Or if on joyful wing, Cleaving the sky, Sun, moon, and stars forgot, Upward I fly; 5 Still, all my song shall be, Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee. 236 Tune—I Do Believe. 1 Lord, I believe; thy power I own, Thy word I would obey; 1 word I would obey; 	Since thou my portion, Lord, wilt be,	Steps unto heaven;
 1 Can it be right for me to go On in this dark, uncertain way? 2 Say "I believe," and yet not know Whether my sins are put away? 2 Is this the way to treat the God Who bids me love and trust him now? 2 Is this the way to treat the God Who bids me love and trust him now? 3 How can I forth to sinners go, And tell of grace so rich and free, If all the while I do not know Whether that grace has smiled on me? 4 How can it be my joy to dwell On the rich power of Jesus' blood, If all the while I can not tell That it has sealed my peace with Bright with thy praise, Out of my stony griefs Bethel I'll raise; Bright with thy praise, Out of my stony griefs Bethel Yll raise; Bright with thy praise, Out of my stony griefs Bright with thy praise, Out of my stony griefs Bethel Yll raise; Bright with thy praise, Out of my stony griefs Bethel Yll raise; So by my woes to be Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee. 236 Tune-I Do Beliere, C. M. 1 Lord, I believe; thy power I own, Thy word I would obey; I wander comfortless and lone, 	Of all thy fullness, Lord, possessed, Thy praise, throughout eternity,	Angels to beekon me Nearer, my God, to thee,
 1 Can it be right for me to go On in this dark, uncertain way? Say "I believe," and yet not know Whether my sins are put away? 2 Is this the way to treat the God Who bids me love and trust him now? 2 Is this the way to use the word Given to guide me here below? 3 How can I forth to sinners go, And tell of grace so rich and free, If all the while I do not know Whether that grace has smiled on me? 4 How can it be my joy to dwell On the rich power of Jesus' blood, If all the while I can not tell That it has sealed my peace with 0 to of my stony griefs Bethel I'll raise; So by my woes to be Nearer, my God, to theo, Nearer to thee. 5 Or if on joyful wing, Cleaving the sky, Sun, moon, and stars forgot, Upward I fly; Still, all my song shall be, Nearer to thee. 236 Tame-I Do Beliere, C. M. 1 Lord, I believe; thy power I own, Thy word I would obey; 1 wonder comfortless and lone, 	234 Tune-Ware. L. M.
 2 Is this the way to treat the God Who bids me love and trust him now? 2 Is this the way to use the word Given to guide me here below? 3 How can I forth to sinners go, And tell of grace so rich and free, If all the while I do not know Whether that grace has smiled on me? 4 How can it be my joy to dwell On the rich power of Jesus' blood, If all the while I can not tell That it has sealed my peace with Nearer to thee. Sor if on joyful wing, Cleaving the sky, Sun, moon, and stars forgot, Upward I fly; Still, all my song shall be, Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee. 236 Tane-I Do Beliere, C. M. 1 Lord, I believe; thy power I own, Thy word I would obey; I wander comfortless and lone, 	On in this dark, uncertain way? Say "I believe," and yet not know	Out of my stony griefs Bethel I'll raise; So by my woos to be
 Is this the way to use the word Given to guide me here below? 3 How can I forth to sinners go, And tell of grace so rich and free, If all the while I do not know Whether that grace has smiled on me? 4 How can it be my joy to dwell On the rich power of Jesus' blood, If all the while I can not tell That it has sealed my peace with 	Who bids me love and trust him now?	Nearer to thee.
 And tell of grace so rich and free, If all the while I do not know Whether that grace has smiled on me? 4 How can it be my joy to dwell On the rich power of Jesus' blood, If all the while I can not tell That it has sealed my peace with Still, all my song shall be, Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee. 236 Tane-I Do Believe, C. II. The word I would obey; I wander comfortless and lone,		Cleaving the sky, Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
4 How can it be my joy to dwell On the rich power of Jesus' blood, If all the while I can not tell That it has sealed my peace with I wander comfortless and lone,	And tell of grace so rich and free, If all the while I do not know Whether that grace has smiled on	Still, all my song shall be, Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee
On the rich power of Jesus' blood, If all the while I can not tell That it has sealed my peace with I wander comfortless and lone,		236 Tune-I Do Believe, C. M.
	On the rich power of Jesus' blood, If all the while I can not tell That it has sealed my peace with	Thy word I would obey; I wander comfortless and lone,

66

 2 Lord, I believe; but gloomy fears Sometimes bedim my sight; I look to thee with prayers and tears, And cry for strength and light. 	 Let all your lamps be bright, And trim the golden flame; Gird up your loins, as in his sight, For awful is his name.
 Lord, I believe; but oft, I know, My faith is cold and weak; My weakness strengthen, and bestow The confidence I seek ! 	3 Watch !'tis your Lord's command; And while we speak, he's near; Mark every signal of his hand, And ready all appear.
 4 Yes! I believe; and only thou Canst give my soul relief: Lord, to thy truth my spirit bow; "Help thou mine unbelief!" 	 4 O, happy servant he, In such a posture found ! He shall his Lord with rapture seo, And be with honor crowned.
237 Tune-Cross and Crown, or Maitland. C.M.	239 Tune-Anvern. L. M.
 Must Jesus bear the cross alone, And all the world go free ? No, there's a cross for every one,— And there's a cross for me. 	 He liveth long who liveth well! All other life is short and vain; He liveth longest who can tell Of living most for heavenly gain.
 2 How happy are the saints above, Who once went sorrowing here; For now they taste unmingled love And joy without a tear. 	 2 He liveth long who liveth well! All else is being flung away; He liveth longest who can tell Of true things truly done each day.
3 The consecrated cross I'll bear, Till death shall set me free; And then go home my crown to wear,— For there's a crown for me!	3 Be what thou seemest; live thy creed; Hold up to earth the torch divine; Be what thou prayest to be made; Let the great Master's steps be thine.
4 Upon the crystal pavement, down At Jesus' piercèd fect, Joyful I'll cast my golden crown, And his dear name repeat.	 4 Fill up each hour with what will last; Buy up the moments as they go; The life above, when this is past, Is the ripe fruit of life below. 5 Sow love, and taste its fruitage pure;
 5 And palms shall wave, and harps shall ring, Beneath beaven's arches high; The Lord that lives, the ransomed sing, 	Sow peace, and reap its harvest bright; Sow sunbeams on the rock and moor, And find a harvest-home of light.
That lives no more to die ! 6 O precious cross! O glorious crown !	240 Tune-Woodstock. C. M.
O resurrection day! Ye angels, from his throne come down, And bear my soul away!	 Our life seems like an idle play, And various as the wind; We laugh and sport our hours away, Nor think of woes behind.
238 Tune-Gerar. S. M. 1 Ye servants of the Lord, Each in his office wait; With joy obey his heavenly word,	2 See the fair cheek of beauty fade, Frail glory of an hour; And blooming youth, with sickening head,
And watch before his gate.	Droops like the dying flower.

3 Our pleasures, like the morning sun, Diffuse a flattering light; But gloomy elouds obscure their noon, And soon they sink in night.	When busiest in thy work;
4 Wealth, pomp, and honor we behold With an admiring eye; Like summer insects, drest in gold, That fluttter, shine, and die.	4 The way is narrow, often dark, With lights and shadows strewn; I wander oft, and think it thine, When walking in my own.
5 One little moment can destroy Our vast laborious schemes; Then rise my soul and soar away From these deceitful dreams.	5 Yet pleasant is the work for thee, And pleasant is the way; But, Lord, the world is dark, and I Am prone to go astray.
 6 Up where eternal beauties bloom, And pleasures all divine; Where wealth, that never ean consume, And endless glories, shine. 	6 Oh send me light to do thy work! More light, more wisdom give! Then shall I work thy work indeed, While on thine earth I live.
241 Tune-Ward. L. M.	243 Tune-Manoah. C. M.
 Let all who name his blessèd name, Who onee for sinners shed his blood, Depart from sin, and count it shame To live like those who know not God. What kind of persons should they be, Whose names appear enroll'd above ? The people whom the Lord makes free, To whom he manifests his love. What kind of persons should they be ? How blameless should their life appear, Who hope the Lord in heaven to see, And dwell with him for ever there. With hopes so blessèd and so bright, Of heaven they well may think and talk; And, being children of the light, As children of the light should walk. 	 Loud was the wind, and wild the tide; The ship her course delayed; The Lord eame to their help, and eried, "'Tis I: be not afraid!" Who walks the waves in wondrous guise, By nature's laws unstaid ? "'Tis I," a well-known voice replies, "'Tis I: be not afraid !" Thus when the storm of life is high, Come, Saviour, to my aid ! Come, when no other help is nigh, And say, "Be not afraid." Speak, and my griefs no more are heard; Speak, and my fears are laid; Speak, and my soul shall bless the word, "'Tis I: be not afraid."
242 Tune-Henry. C. M.	244 Tune-Crawford. 85 & 78.
 Lord, give me light to do thy work; For only, Lord, from thee Can come the light, by which these eyes The way to work can see. In plainest things I daily err, When walking in the light The wisdom of this world affords, However fair and bright. 	 I One by one the sands are flowing, One by one the moments fall; Some are coming, some are going, Do not strive to grasp them all. One by one thy duties wait thee, Let thy whole strength go to each; Let no future dreams chate thee, Learn thou first what these can teach.

. 68

 2 One by one, bright gifts from heaven, Joys are sent thee here below; Take them readily when given, Ready, too, to let them go. One by one thy griefs shall meet thee, Do not fear an arméd band; One will fade as others greet thee Shadows passing through the land. 	 2 I need thee, precious Jesus, I need a friend like thee, A friend to soothe and pity, A friend to care for me: I need the heart of Jesus To feel each anxious care, To tell my every trial, And all my sorrows share.
 3 Do not look at life's long sorrow; See how small each moment's pain; God will help thee for to-morrow, So each day begin again. Every hour that fleets so slowly, Has its task to do or bear; Luminous the crown, and holy, If thou set each gem with care. 	 3 I need thee, precious Jesus, I need thee, day by day, To fill me with thy fullness, To lead me on my way; I need thy Holy Spirit To teach me what I am, To show me more of Jesus, To point me to the Lamb.
4 Do not linger with regretting, Or for passing hours despond, Nor, thy daily toil forgetting, Look too engerly beyond. Hours are golden links, God's token, Reaching heaven; but, one by one, Take them, lest the chain be broken, Ere thy pilgrimage be done.	4 I need thee, precious Jesus, And hope to see thee soon Encireled with the rainbow, And seated on thy throne; There, with thy blood-bought children, My joy shall ever be, To sing thy praises, Jesus, To gaze, my Lord, on thee.
245 Tune-Dunlap's Creek. C. M.	247 Tune-Melody. C. M.
 As pants the hart for cooling stream When heated in the chase, So longs my soul, O God, for thee, And thy refreshing grace. 	l Jesus, thou art my righteousness, For all my sins were thine; Thy death hath bought of God my peace, Thy life hath made him mine.
 2 For thee, my God, the living God, My thirsty soul doth pine: O when shall I behold thy face, Thou majesty divine? 	 2 Spotless and just in thee I am; I know my sins forgiven; I taste salvation in thy name, And antedate my heaven.
3 Why restless, why cast down, my soul? Hope still, and thou shalt sing The praise of him who is thy God, Thy health's eternal spring.	 3 For ever here my rest shall be, Close to thy bleeding side; This all my hope, and all my plea, For me the Saviour died. 243 Tune-Manoah. C. M.
246 Tune-Malleville. 75 & 6s.
 246 Tune-Malleville. 78 & 68. 1 I need thee, precious Jesus, For I am very poor; A stranger and a pilgrim, I have no earthly store I need the love of Jesus To eheer me on my way, To guide my doubting footsteps, To be my strength and stay. 	 Oppress'd with noonday's scorching heat, To yonder cross I flee, Beneath its shelter take my seat; No shade like this for me! Beneath that cross clear waters burst, A fountain sparkling free; And there I quench my desert thirst; No spring like this for me!

3 A stranger here, I pitch my tent Beneath this spreading tree; Here shall my pilgrim life be spent; No home like this for me!	5 A heaven of grace and peace, Of pardon and of joy; Lord, wouldst thou have me let thee pass, And all that heaven go by!
4 For burdened ones a resting-place, Beside that cross I see; Here I cast of my weariness; No rest like this for me!	251 Tune-Olmutz. S. M. 1 Not what these hands have done
 249 TuneForever with the Lord. S. M. D. 1 I hear the words of love, I gaze upon the blood, 	Can save this guilty soul; Not what this toiling flesh has borne Can make my spirit whole.
I see the mighty sacrifice, And I have peace with God.	2 Not what I feel or do Can give me peace with God; Not all my prayers, and sighs, and tears,
 2 'Tis everlasting peace! Sure as Jehovah's name, 'Tis stable as his steadfast throne, For evermore the same. 	Can bear my awful load. 3 Thy work alone, O Christ, Can ease this weight of sin;
3 The clouds may go and come, And storms may sweep my sky, This blood-sealed friendship changes not,	 Thy blood alone, O Lamb of God, Can give me peace within. 4 Thy love to me, O God,
The cross is ever nigh. 4 My love is ofttimes low,	Not mine, O Lord, to thee, Can rid me of this dark unrest, And set my spirit free.
My joy still ebbs and flows, But peace with him remains the same, No change Jehovah knows.	5 I praise the God of grace; I trust his truth and might; He calls me his, I call him mine,
250 Tune-Olmutz. S. M. 1 "Who touched me?" dost thou ask, Lord, I confess, 'twas I— "Some one hath touched me;" yes, O Lord, Trembling, I own 'twas I1	My God, my joy, my light. 6 'Tis he who saveth me, And freely pardon gives; I love because he loveth me, I live because he lives.
 2 I came, Lord, and I touched, For sore I needed thee; Forth from thee straight the virtue came,— Lord, thou hast healéd me. 	From fair Damascus came, Fir'd with the hopes of sure relief,
3 And wouldst thou frown on me? Dost thou the boon repent? Why, then, Lord, didst thou pass so near, As if to me just sent?	By great Elisha's fame 2 The holy prophet stood Attentive to his strain, And bid him wash in Jordan's flood, And instantly be clean.
 4 Thou, Lord, wert passing by: I knew all heaven was there; Λ heaven of healing and of love Thou didst within thee bear. 	3 The means of cure appear'd So humbling to his pride, With high disdain the warrior heard, And sternly thus replied:

4 "To wash in Jordan's flood,	3 Your sins did pierce his bleeding
I can't approve as meet,	heart,
When Pharpar's streams are known to	Till death had done its dreadful part:
lave	Yet his dear love still burns to thee;
My own Damascus' feet.	Come, trembling sinner, come and see.
5 "What business have I here,	4 His blood will cleanse the foulest
Far from my native place?	stain,
Could not I wash in water there,	And make the filthy leper clean;
And there receive the grace?"	His fountain open stands for thee;
Ŭ	Come, guilty sinner, come and see.
6 Thus men neglect the use
Of means which God makes known,	255 Tune-Luther's Hymn. L. M.
And in their room would introduce Inventions of their own.	1 He speaks! The gracious words I hear;
253 Tune-Wells. L. M.	Gently he bids me now draw near;
	He calls me, and I know his tone,
1 Hark! 'tis the Saviour's voice I hear,	'Tis love that speaks, and love alone.
Come, trembling soul, dispel thy fear,
He saith, and who his word can doubt,	2 No more, earth's siren song has
He will in no wise cast you out!	charms
	To lure me to the siren's arms;
2 Doth Satan fill you with dismay,	Saviour, thou callest, and 1 come,
And tell you, Christ will cast away;	Thy cross my guide, my star, my
It is a truth, why should you doubt?	home.
He will in no wise cast you out!	3 Thou art my all, above, below;
2 Doth sin annear hefere your ries	Let every earthly idol go;
3 Doth sin appear before your view,	My God and Lord, to thee I come,
Of scarlet or of crimson hue?	My treasure and my song alone.
If black as hell, why should you doubt?	my treasure and my song alone.
He will in no wise cast you out!	4 Oh, speak again, oh, speak each hour,
4 The Publican and dying Thief	Speak in Almighty love and power;
Applied to Christ, and found relief;	Speak to this faithless, trustless heart,
Nor need you entertain a doubt;	Bid doubt and unbelief depart.
He will in no wise cast you out !
,	256 TuneJesus Paid it All. 75 & 55.
5 Approach your God, make no delay,
He waits to welcome you to-day;	1 Nothing, either great or small,
His mercy try, no longer doubt;	Remains for me to do;
He will in no wise cast you out!	Jesus died, and paid it all;-
	Yes, all the debt I owe.
254 Tune-Hebron. L. M.
	CHORUS.
1 Jesus, dear name, how sweet it	Jesus paid it all,
soundsl	All the debt I owe,
Replete with balm for all my wounds!	Jesus died and paid it all,
His word declares his grace is free;	Yes, all the debt I owe.
Come, needy sinner, come and see.
9. He left the chining counts a lit	2 When he from his lofty throne,
2 He left the shining courts on high,	Stoop'd down to do and die,
Came to our world to bleed and die:	Everything was fully done;
Jesus, the God, hung on the tree:	'Tis finished, was his cry.
Come, thoughtless sinner, come and see.	Jesus paid it all, etc.

 3 Weary, working, plodding one, Oh, wherefore toil you so? Cease your doing—all was done; Yes, ages long ago. Jesus paid it all, etc. 4 Till to Jesus' work you eling, Alone by simple faith, "Doing" is a deadly thing, Your "doing" ends in death. Jesus paid it all, etc. 5 Cast your deadly "doing" down, Down all at Jesus' feet; Stand in him, in him alone, All glorious and complete. Jesus paid it all, etc. 	 3 That bond I still will keep, Although it canceled be; It tells me what I owe to Him Who paid the debt for me. 4 I look on it and smile, I look again and weep; This record of His love to me Forever will I keep. 5 A bond it is no more; But it shall ever tell, That all I owed was fully paid By my Emmanuel. 259 Tune-Shining Shore. 85 & 75.
OFF	1 I've found a Friend; oh, such a Friend!
 257 Tune-Jesus Paid it All. 7s & 5s. 1 I've east my deadly doing down, Down at Jesus' feet; I stand in him, in him alone, Glorious and complete. 	He loved me ere I knew him; He drew me with the chords of love, And thus he bound me to him. And round my heart still closely twine Those ties which naught can sever, For I am his, and he is mine,
CHORUS. Jesus paid it all,	For ever and for ever.
All the debt I owe, And something either great or small, From love to him I'll do.	 2 I've found a Friend; oh, such a Friend! He bled, he died to save me; And not alone the gift of life,
 Now, to Jesus' work I'll eling, By a simple faith; Doing was a "deadly" thing, It would have been my death. Jesus paid it all, etc. 	But his own self he gave me. Naught that I have my own I call, I hold it for the Giver: My heart, my strength, my life, my all, Are his, and his for ever.
 3 Legal works I've given o'er, Jesus is my all; Sins that tasted sweet before Upon my senses pall. Jesus paid it all, etc. 	 3 I've found a Friend; oh, such a Friend! All power to him is given, To guard me on my onward course, And bring me safe to heaven. Th' eternal glories gleam afar,
258 Tune-St. Thomas. S. M. 1 He gave me back the bond, It was a heavy debt; And es he grave the amiled and said	To nerve my faint endeavor: So now to watch, to work, to war, And then to rest for ever!
And as he gave, he smiled and said, "Thou wilt not me forget."	260 Tune-St. Martin's. C. N.
2 He gave me back the bond, The seal was torn away;	1 The sinner who, by precious faith, Has felt his sins forgiv'n, Is from that memory pass'd from death

"Think thou of me alway."

 2 Ten thousand snares surround his feet, Not one shall hold him fast; Whatever dangers he may meet, He'll reach his home at last. 	5 Never be afraid to die for Jesus; He the life, the truth, the way, Gently in his arms of love will bear you To the realms of endless day.
 Not as the world the Saviour gives, He's an unchanging friend; Whom once he loves, he never leaves, But loves him to the end. Else Satan night full vict'ry boast; The church might wholly fall; If one believer may be lost, Then, surely, so may all. But Christ in every age has prov'd 	 262 Twe-Brace. C. M. 1 The highest and the holiest place Guards not the heart from sin; The Church, that safest seems without, May harbor foes within. 2 Thus in the small and chosen band, Beloved above the rest,— One fell from his apostleship, A traitor-soul unblest.
 His cov'nant sure and true; If this foundation be remov'd, What shall the righteous do? 6 But being pledg'd to carry on, To its perfection full, 	3 Righteous, O Lord, are all thy ways; Long as the worlds endure, From focs without and focs within Thy Church shall stand secure.
That work of grace he has begun, The saints shall never fall. 261 Tune-Never be Afraid. 10s & 7s.	4 The soul that sinneth, it shall die; But thy plans never fail: Thy word of grace no less shall stand, Thy truth no less prevail.
 Never be afraid to speak for Jesus, Think how much a word can do; Never be afraid to own your Saviour, He who loves and cares for you. CHORUS. 	263 Tune-Dwight. S. M. 1 The first sad hours of shame One promise bright bestow: The woman's Seed shall rise at length, And bruise the deadly foe.
Never be afraid, never be afraid, Never, never, never; Jesus is your loving Saviour, Therefore never be afraid.	 Where sin abounded once, Grace shall abound much more; Woman, the first to fall and sin, The great Redeemer bore.
 2 Never be afraid to work for Jesus, In his vineyard day by day; Labor with a kind and willing spirit, He will all your toil repay. 	3 Happy the favored womb, Happy the sacred breast, Where lay awhile the Lord of Life, And where his lips were prest.
3 Never be afraid to bear for Jesus Keen reproaches when they fall; Patiently endure your every trial, Jesus meekly bore them all.	4 But doubly blest are they Who hear and keep his will; In them by faith is Jesus formed, And dwells within them still.
 4 Never be afraid to live for Jesus; Since you on his care depend, Safely shall you pass through every trial; He will bring you to the end. 	 5 And still the gracious words To each believer sound: "Hail, highly favored! with the Lord Thou hast acceptance found."

264 Tune —Stella. C. M. D.	5 "The time is short." this democratic
	5 "The time is short;" this day may be The very last assigned to thee:
1 The roseate hues of early dawn,	So speak that shouldst thou ne'er speak
The brightness of the day,	more,
The crimson of the sunset sky, How fast they fade away!	Thou may'st not this day's words
Oh, for the pearly gates of heaven!	deplore.
Oh, for the golden floor !
Oh, for the Sun of Righteousness,	266 Tune—Angry Words. 83 & 78.
That setteth nevermore l
	1 Angry words are lightly spoken
2 The highest hopes we cherish here,	In a rash and thoughtless hour;
How fast they tire and faint!	Brightest links of life are broken
How many a spot defiles the robe	By their deep, insidious power.
That wraps an earthly saint!	Hearts inspired by warmest feeling, Ne'er before by anger stirr'd,
Oh, for a heart that never sins !	Oft are reut, past human feeling,
Oh, for a soul made white!	By a single angry word.
Oh, for a voice to praise our King, Nor weary day nor night!
ivor weary day nor inght.	2 Poison-drops of care and sorrow,
3 Here faith is ours and heavenly hope,	Bitter poison-drops, are they,
And grace to lead us higher;	Weaving for the coming morrow
But there are perfectness and peace	Saddest memories of to-day.
Beyond our best desire.	Angry words,-oh, let them never
Oh, by thy love and anguish, Lord I	From the tongue unbridled slip!
Oh, by thy life laid down!	May the heart's best impulse ever
Oh, that we fall not from thy grace,	Check them ere they soil the lip l
Nor cast away our crown.
	3 Love is much too pure and holy,
265 Tune—German Air. L. M.	Friendship is too sacred far, For a moment's reckless folly
1 Guard well thy lips; none, none can	Thus to desolate and mar.
know	Angry words are lightly spoken,
What evils from the tongue may flow;	Bitterest thoughts are rashly stirr'd,
What guilt, what grief may be incur-	Brightest links of life are broken red, Pr and incontional heaty word	By a single angry word.
By one incautious, hasty word.
2 "Condemn not, judge not;" not to man	267 Tune-Ionia. 78, 4 lines.
Is given his brother's faults to scan;	1 Jesus, Lord, we look to thee;
One task is thine, and one alone,	Let us in thy name agree;
To search out and subdue thine own.	Make us of one heart and mind-
	Courteous, pitiful, and kind.
3 Indulge no murmurings; O restrain
Those lips so ready to complain;	2 Let us for each other care;
And if they can be numbered, count	Each the other's burden bear;
Of one day's mercies the amount.	To thy Church a pattern give; Show how true believers live.
4 Set God before thee; every word
Thy lips pronounce by him is heard;	3 Free from anger and from pride,
O couldst thou realize this thought,	Let us thus in God abide;
	All the depths of love express-taught!	All the heights of holiness.

74

4 Let us then with joy remove To the family above; On the wings of angels fly; Show how true believers die.	2 Blest star! where'er his lustre shines, He all the soul with grace refines; And makes each happy saint declare, He is the bright, the morning star.
 268 Tune-Retreat. L.M. 1 New every morning is the love Our wakening and uprising prove; Through sleep and darkness safely brought, Restored to life, and power, and thought. 2 New mercies, each returning day, Hover around us while we pray; New perils past, new sins forgiven, New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven. 3 If on our daily course our mind Be set to hallow all we find, New treasures still, of countless price, God will provide for sacrifice. 4 The trivial round the common tack 	 Life, peace, and joy, attending shine; Death, hell, and sin, before him flee: The bright, the morning star is He. 4 Great star! in whom salvation dwells, His beam the thickest cloud dispels; The grossest darkness flies afar, Before this bright, this morning star. 5 Most glorious star! be thou our guide, Nor from our souls thy splendor hide; Let nothing thy sweet beams debar, Thou only bright and morning star. 6 Eternal star! our songs shall rise, When we shall meet thee in the skies; And, in eternal anthems, there
4 The trivial round, the common task, Will furnish all we need to ask, Room to deny ourselves, a road To bring us daily nearer God.	Praise thee, the bright, the morning star. 271 Tune-Balerma. C. M.
269 Tune-Lisbon. S.M. 1 We lift our hearts to thee, Thou Day-star from on high! The sun itself is but thy shade, Yet cheers both earth and sky.	1 Attend, O Lord, my daily toil, With blessings from above; Grant that my soul may watchful be, And full of faith and love.
2 O let thy rising beams Dispel the shades of night; And let the glories of thy love Come like the morning light.	 2 In all my many pleasant tasks, Let me united find, With careful Martha's busy hand, Sweet Mary's docile mind.
 How beauteous nature now! How dark and sad before!— With joy we view the pleasing day, And nature's God adore. 	 3 Amid the various scenes of life, In matters great and small, Oh, let me ne'er indulge in pride! Nor angry words let fall.
4 May we this life improve, To mourn for errors past; And live this short revolving day As if it were our last.	4 May I with willing, cheerful heart, My brother's burden share, And never bring reproach upon The holy name I bear.
270 Tune-Rothwell. L. M.	272 Tune - Retreat. L. M.
1 In glory bright the Saviour reigns, And endless grandeur there sustains; We view his beams, and from afar Hail him the bright, the morning star.	1 At even e'er the sun was set, The sick, O Lord, around thee lay; Oh, in what divers pains they met! Oh, with what joy they went away!

 Once more 'tis eventide, and we Oppressed with various ills draw near: What if thy form we can not see? We know and feel that thou art here. O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel; For some are sick, and some are sad, And some have never loved thee well, And some have lost the love they had. And some have found the world is vain, Yet from the world they break not free; And some have friends who give them pain, Yet have not sought a friend in thee. 	 And bid its angry tumult cease, And give, for wild confusion, peace; O hear us when we cry to thee For those in peril on the sea. 4 O Trinity of love and power, Our brethren shield in danger's hour; From rock and tempest, fire and foe, Protect them wheresoe'er they go; Thus evermore shall rise to thee Glad hymns of praise from land and sea.
ret have not sought a menu in thee.	274 Tune-Protection. 11s.
 5 And none, O Lord, have perfect rest, For none are wholly free from sin; And they, who fain would serve thee best, Are conscious most of wrong within. 6 O Saviour Christ, thou too art man; Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried; Thy kind but searching glance can sean The very wourds that shame would hide. 7 Thy touch has still its ancient power; No word from thee can fruitless fall; Hear in this solemn evening hour, And in thy mercy heal us all. 	 The Lord is my Shepherd, no want shall I know; I feed in green pastures, safe-folded I rest; He leadeth my soul where the still waters flow, Restores me when wandering, re- deems when opprest. Through the valley and shadow of death though I stray, Since thou art my guardian no evil I fear; Thy rod shall defend me, thy staff be my stay; No harm can befall, with my Com- forter near.
273 Tune-Enon's Isle. L. M., 6 lines.	3 In the midst of affliction my table is
 273 Tune-Enon's Isle. L. M., 6 lines. 1 Eternal Father, strong to save, Whose arm bath bound the restless wave, Who bid'st the mighty ocean deep Its own appointed limits keep; O hear us when we cry to thee For those in peril on the sea. 2 O Christ, whose voice the waters 	 spread: With blessings unmeasured my cup runneth o'er; With perfume and oil, thou anointest my head; Oh, what shall I ask of thy providence more? 4 Let goodness and mercy, my bounti- ful God,
And hushed their raging at thy word, Who walkedst on the foaming deep, And calm amidst its rage didst sleep; O hear us when we cry to thee For those in peril on the sea.	 Still follow my steps, till I meet thee above: I seek, by the path which my fore- fathers trod Through the land of their sojourn, thy kingdom of love.

275 Tune-Medfield. C. M.	2 But not this fleshly robe alone Shall link us, Lord, to thee,
 Fill thou my life, O Lord, my God, In every part with praise; That my whole being may proclaim 	Not always in the tear and groan Shall the dear kindred be.
Thy being and thy ways. 2 Praise in the common things of life, Its goings out and in, Praise in each duty and each deed, However small and mean.	3 Our earthly garments thou hast worn, And we thy robes shall wear, Our mortal burdens thou hast borne, And we thy bliss may bear.
3 Praise in the common words I speak, Life's common looks and tones, In intercourse at hearth or board With my beloved ones.	 4 O mighty grace, our life to live, To make our earth divine! O mighty grace, thy heaven to give, And lift our life to thine!
4 Not in the temple-crowd alone, Where holy voices chime,But in the silent paths of earth, The quiet rooms of time.	5 O strange the gifts, and marvelous, By thee received and given, Thou tookest woe and grief from us, And we receive thy heaven l
5 Fill every part of me with praise; Let all my being speak Of thee and of thy love, O Lord, Poor though I be, and weak.	277 Tune-Forever with the Lord. S. M. D. 1 "Forever with the Lord !"
PART I.	Amen! so let it be! Life from the dead is in that word,
276 Tune-Brown. C. M.	And immortality!
 O, mean may seem this house of clay— Yet 'twas the Lord's abode; Our feet may mourn this thorny way, Yet here Emmanuel trod. This fleshly robe the Lord did wear, This watch the Lord did keep, These burdens sore the Lord did bear, These tears the Lord did weep. This world the Master overcame, This death the Lord did die; O vanquished world! O glorious shame! O hallowed agony! O vale of tears, no longer sad, Wherein the Lord did dwell ! O holy robe of flesh, that clad Our own Emmanuel! PART II. Tune-Peniel. C. M. 	 Here, in the body pent, Absent from him I roam, Yet nightly pitch my moving tent, A day's march nearer home! My Father's house on high, Home of my soul! how near At times to faith's far-seeing eye, Thy golden gates appear. Yet clouds will intervene, And my bright prospect flies; Like Noah's dove, I flit between Rough seas and stormy skies. Anon the clouds depart, The winds and waters cease; While sweetly o'er my gladden'd heart Expands the bow of peace.
1 Our very frailty brings us near Unto the Lord of howyon:	6 Then, then I feel, that he,
Unto the Lord of heaven; To every grief, to every tear, Such glory strange is given.	Remembered or forgot, My Lord, is never far from me, Though I perceive him not!

 1 Asleep in Jesus! blessed sleep, From which none ever wakes to weep; A calm and undisturbed repose, Unbroken by the last of foes. 2 Asleep in Jesus! Oh! how sweet To be for such a slumber meet; With holy confidence to sing, That death hath lost its venomed sting. 3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest, Whose waking is supremely blest; No fear, no woe, shall dim that hour, 	 5 Rest from an labor now. 5 Rest for the fevered brain, Rest for the throbbing eye; 7 Thro' these parched lips of thine no more Shall pass the moan or sigh. 6 Soon shall the trump of God Give out the welcome sound, That shakes these silent chamber-walls
Which manifests the Saviour's power. 279 Tune-Rest. L. M 1 Dear is the spot where Christians sleep, And sweet the strains their spirit	281 Tune-Laban. S. M. 1 A few more suns shall set
 And sweet the strains their spirits pour; Oh why should we in anguish weep ?— They are not lost, but gone before. 2 Secure from every mortal care, By sin and sorrow vexed no more, 	 And we shall be where suns are not, A far serener clime. 2 A few more storms shall beat On this wild rocky shore; And we shall be where tempests cease
 Eternal happiness they share Who are not lost, but gone before. 3 To Zion's peaceful courts above, In faith triumphant may we soar, Embracing, in the arms of love, 	 And surges swell no more. 3 A few more struggles here, A few more partings o'er, A few more toils, a few more tears, And we shall weep no more.
 The friends not lost, but gone before 4 To Jordan's bank whene'er we come And hear the swelling waters roar, Jesus, convey us safely home, To friends not lost, but gone before. 	4 A few more Sabbaths here
280 Tune-Shawmut. S. M 1 Lie down, frail body, here, Earth has no fairer bed, No gentler pillow to afford; Come, rest thy home-sick head.	 5 Then, O my Lord, prepare My soul for that sweet day; O wash me in thy precious blood, And take my sins away. 282 Tune-Rockbridge. L. M.
 2 Thro' these well-guarded gates No foe can entrance gain; No sickness wastes, nor once intrudes The memory of pain. 	 Shine on, sweet sun, and let my day Grow brighter, as the gentle hours, Moving in silent love, draw up The incense of the noonday flowers.
3 The tossings of the night, The frettings of the day,All end, and, like a cloud of dawn, Melt from thy skies away.	2 I need not fear the awful night That prophet-pens foretell as near; For me there is no cloud nor gloom, My firmament is fair and clear.

 3 It may be that the wrath may burst, And nations drink the cup of ill; I need not tremble at the storm, My summer shall be summer still. 	2 To breathe, and wake and sleep, To smile, to sigh, to grieve; To move in idleness through earth, This, this is not to live!
4 Like the fair stars my peace shall be; My life is hid with Christ in God, My anchor is within the vail, And there my soul hath her abode.	3 Make haste, O man, to do Whatever must be done; Thou hast no time to lose in sloth, Thy day will soon be gone.
283 Tune-Yates. 85 & 75. 1 Shall this life of mine be wasted? Shall this vinovard lie untilled?	4 Up then with speed, and work; Fling ease and self away; This is no time for thee to sleep, Up, watch and work and pray!
Shall this vineyard lie untilled ? Shall true joy pass by untasted, And this soul remain untilled ? Shall this heart still spend its treasures On the things that fade and die ? Shall it court the hollow pleasures Of heuriddeine until ?	5 Make haste, O man, to live, Thy time is almost o'er; Oh sleep not, dream not, but arise, The Judge is at the door.
Of bewildering vanity?	285 Tune-Stella. C. M. D.
 2 Shall these eyes of mine still wander; Or, no longer turned afar, Fix a firmer gaze and fonder On the bright and morning star? Shall these feet of mine, delaying, Still in ways of sin be found, Braving snares, and madly straying On the world's bewitching ground? 3 No, I was not born to trifle Life away in dreams or sin! No, I must not, dare not stifle Longings such as these within ! Swiftly moving, upward, onward, Let my soul in faith be borne; Calmly gazing, skyward, sunward, Let my eye unshrinking turn ! 	 O streams of earthly love and joy, On whose green banks we dwell, Gleaming in beauty to the eye, Ye promise fair and well! Ye lure us, and we venture in, Cheated by sun and smiles; Ye tempt us, and we brave your depths, Won by your winning wiles. Too deep and strong for us!—We glide Down your deceiving wave; Like men, by siren song beguiled On to a siren grave.
 4 Where the cross, God's love revealing, Sets the fettered spirit free, Where it sheds its wondrous healing, There, my soul, thy rest shall be. Then no longer idly dreaming Shall I fling my years away; But, each precious hour redeeming, Wait for the eternal day ! 	 4 O world! with all thy smiles and loves, With all thy song and wine, What mockery of human hearts, What treachery is thine ! 5 Thou woundest, but thou canst not heal, Thy words are warbled lies; Thy hand contains the poisoned cup,
234 Tune-Scioto. S. M.	And he who drinks it dies.
 Make haste, O man, to live, For thou so soon must die; Time hurries past thee like the breeze; How swift its moments fly. 	 6 O world ! there's fever in thy touch, And frenzy in thine eye; To lose and shun thee is to live, To win thee is to die!

2	86	Tune-Avon.	С. М.	287		Tune—Shaw	mut.	S. M.
T	A point, we	ime, we know not a know not where, ne destiny of men, despair.	when,	He s Above	sleeps th him th	a Christl ne christle e eternal e fiery de	cloud,	. ,
	That crosses he hidden bo	ine, by us unseen, s every path; oundary between nee and his wrath.		The He wa	re, boun its the t		lon-chain, his doom
It	To die as if does not qu	t limit is to die, by stealth; ench the beaming glow of health.	eye,	Hov O grie	v dark, (f that n	0 christle	grow old,
4 Tl	The conscie The spirits l hat which is	nce may be still at light and gay; pleasing still may e thrust away.		Wh For th	at wakii lee no st		hou know wning gla
5 U	But on that Indelibly, a nseen by ma	forehead God has	set,	Shal O day The	l be the of wrat lost sou	l's funera	eall; eath, and p all	oain,
6	And yet tl below, Like Eden,	he doomed man' may have bloomed bes not, will not kn	1;	Ere O Chr	thy last ist, the :	soul, awa sleep beg sleeper's the bands	gin ! slumbers l	oreak, he is doomed.	.o.w,	288	2	Sune-Wood	land.	C. M.
H	And every f e lives, he di	ne feels, that all is fear is calmed : ies, he wakes in he bomed, but damned	ell,	Eacl The Sa	deep, h wave tviour 'v	a watery	rom his s
Be	By which ou yond which	this mysterious bo ur path is crossed; ,God himself hath o goes is lost?	í í	His Woe t	mansion o the tra	of despa	o strayed	ade
w	How long w here does h	y we go on in sin? rill God forbear? ope end, and where s of despair?		Suel And fi	arm, 5 strengt endish 1	th can he	roken fro ll supply ; ficrce alar ow eye.
	Ye that from hile it is cal	from the skics is a n God depart, lled To-day, repen- n not your heart.		He l And, 1	neard th	glance, so lose accen at Messia weanèd	h's feet,	sweet;

80

5 Oh! Oh!	madder than that raving man! deafer than the sea!	291 Tune-Timna.	8s.
How le	ong the time since Christ began all in vain on thee?	1 We speak of the mercy of God,
		So boundless, so rich, and so free! But what will it profit my soul,
289	Tune-Lyte. 6s & 5s, or 11s.	Unless 'tis relied on by me?
1 Oh,	turn ye! oh, turn ye!	2 We speak of salvation and love,
For	why will you die,	The Father in Jesus made known;
	God, in great mercy,	But if I would live unto God,
	oming so nigh ?	By faith I must make it my own.
	lesus invites you;
	Spirit says, come; ather is waiting	3 We speak of the Saviour's dear nan velcome you home.	By which God can sinners receive;)
		Yet still I am lost and undone, Unless in that name I believe.
2 How	v vain the delusion,	Chiess in that hame I beneve.
	t while you delay	4 We mark of the blood of the Lon	ah
Your	heart may grow better	4 We speak of the blood of the Lan Which frees from pollution and si staying away.	But its virtues by me must be prove wretched, come, starving,	Or I shall be ever unclean.	'
	e, happy to be, streams of salvation flowing so free.	5 We speak of the glory to come,
		Of the heaven so bright and so fai	r;
3 Oh,	how can we leave you;	But unless I in Jesus believe,
	y will you not come?	I shall not, I can not be there.
	esus entreats you,
	bids you come home;
	rn ye! oh, turn ye! why will ye die,	292 Tune-Laconia. 8s &	38.
	God, in great mercy,
	oming so nigh?	1 We're traveling home to heav	7en
	0 0	above:
290	Tune-Shirland. S. M.	Will you go? L To sing the Saviour's dying love:
200		Will you go?
1 The	Spirit, in our hearts,	Millions have reach'd that blest about	le,
Is w	hispering, "Sinner, come!"	Anointed kings and priests to God,
The b	oride, the Church of Christ, pro-
To	claims all his children, "Come!"	Will you go?
10.	an ms emiliten, come i
2 Let	him that heareth, say	2 We're going to walk the plains	of all about him, "Come!"	Will you go?
	im that thirsts for righteousness,	Far, far from death and curse and nig	ht:
	Christ, the fountain, come!	Will you go?
		The crown of life we then shall wea
	, whosoever will,	The conqueror's palm we then sh	iall
	et him quickly come,	bear,
	reely drink the stream of life; Jesus bids him come.	And all the joys of heaven we'll sha Will you go?	re:
115	o cous onds min come.	i i i you go i

And thou shalt my salvation see !" Will you go?	 3 Our God in pity lingers still, And wilt thou thus his love requite? Renounce, at length, thy stubborn will; Thou wouldst be saved—why not to-night? 4 The world has nothing left to give— It has no new, no pure delight; Oh! try the life which Christians live: Thou wouldst be saved—why not
4 Oh, could I hear some sinner say, "I will go." Oh, could I hear him humbly pray, "Make me go." And all his old companions tell, "I will not go with you to hell: I long with Jesus Christ to dwell; Let me go."	to-night? 5 Our blessed Lord refuses none Who would to him their souls unite; Then be the work of grace begun! Thou wouldst be saved—why not to-night? 295 Tune-Arno. Cs & 4s.
 3 We take up the armor Our captain hath given, The sword and the breastp'ate, The helmet of heaven. 4 In faith thus defying The foe and the sin, 	 To-day the Saviour calls: Ye wanderers, come! ye benighted souls, Why longer roam? To-day the Saviour calls; For refuge fly: The storm of vengeance falls, Ruin is nigh. To-day the Saviour calls: Oh, listen now! Within these sacred walls To Jesus bow. The Spirit calls to-day: Yield to his power; Oh, grieve him not away! 'Tis mercy's hour.
We fight our life's battle; We fight and we win.	296 Tune-Bartimeus. 83 & 75. 1 "Mercy, O thou son of David!"
 294 Tune-Warrington. L. M. 1 Oh ! do not let the word depart, And elose thine eyes against the light; Poor sinner, harden not thy heart; Thou wouldst be saved-why not to-night? 2 To-morrow's sun may never rise To bless thy long-deluded sight; This is the time. Oh, then, be wise ! Thou wouldst be saved-why not to-night! 	 Thus blind Bartimeus prayed— "Others by thy word are savèd, Now to me afford thine aid." 2 Many, for his crying, chid him, But he called the louder still— Till the gracious Saviour bid him "Come, and ask me what you will." 3 Money was not what he wanted, Though by begging used to live;

4 "Lord, remove this grievous blind-	298 Tune-Stockwell. 85 & 75.
ness, Let mine eyes behold the day!" Straight he saw, and won by kindness, Followed Jesus in the way.	 Souls of men, why will ye scatter Like a crowd of frightened sheep? Foolish hearts! why will ye wander From a love so true and deep?
 5 Now, methinks I hear him praising, Publishing to all around, "Friends, is not my case amazing ? What a Saviour I have found ! 	2 Was there ever kindest Shepherd Half so gentle, half so sweet, As the Saviour, who would have us Come and gather round his feet?
6 "Oh! that all the blind but knew him And would be advised by me, Surely they would hasten to him, He would cause them all to see."	 3 He is God: his love looks mighty, But is mightier than it seems! 'Tis our Father; and his fondness Goes far out beyond our dreams.
297 Tune-Ava. Cs & 4s.	4 For the love of God is broader Than the measures of man's mind;
1 Child of sin and sorrow,	And the heart of the Eternal
Filled with dismay, Wait not for to-morrow,	Is most wonderously kind.
Yield thee to-day. Heaven bids thee come	299 Tune-Azmon. C. M.
While yet there's room,
Child of sin and sorrow	1 Come, sinner, to the Gospel feast;
Hear and obey.	O, come without delay; For there is room in Jesus' breast
2 Child of sin and sorrow,	For all who will obey.
Why wilt thou die?
Come while thou canst borrow	2 There's room in God's eternal love
Help from on high.	To save thy precious soul;
Grieve not that love Which from above,	Room in the Spirit's grace above To heal and make thee whole.
Child of sin and sorrow,	To hear and make thee whole.
Would bring thee nigh.	3 There's room within the Church, re-
3 Child of sin and sorrow,	deemed
Where wilt thou flee	With blood of Christ divine;
Through that long to-morrow,	Room in the white-robed throng con- vened,
Eternity ?	For that dear soul of thine.
Exiled from home, Where wilt thou roam?
Child of sin and sorrow,	4 There's room in heaven among the
Where wilt thou flee?	choir;
	And harps and crowns of gold,
4 Child of sin and sorrow,	And glorious palms of victory there, And joys that ne'er were told.
Lift up thine eye, Heirship thou canst borrow
In worlds on high!	5 There's room around thy Father's
To that high home,	board
Through Christ alone—	For thee and thousands more:
Child of sin and sorrow, Swift homeward fly!	Oh, come and welcome to the Lord! Yes, come this very hour.
	,

300 Tune-Eaton. L. M., 6 lines.	2 Soon night comes on with thisk'ning
1 Around Bethesda's healing wave,	2 Soon night comes on with thick'ning shade,
Waiting to hear the rustling wing	The tempest hovers o'er thy head,
Which spoke the angel nigh, who gave	The winds their fury pour: The lightnings rend the earth and skies,
Its virtue to that holy spring, With patience and with hope endued,	The thunders roar, the flames arise;
Were seen the gathered multitude.	What terrors fill that hour.
2 Bethesda's pool has lost its power!	3 That warning voice, O sinner, hear,
No angel, by his glad descent,	Whose accents linger on thine ear;
Dispenses that diviner dower Which with its healing waters went;	Thy footsteps now retrace;
But he, whose word surpassed its wave,	Renounce thy sins and be forgiv'n, Believe, become an heir of heav'n,
Is still omnipotent to save.	And sing redeeming grace.
3 Saviour! thy love is still the same	5 55
As when that healing word was spoke;	303 Tune-Dundee. C. M.
Still in thine all redeeming name	1 In streets and openings of the gates
Dwells power to burst the strongest	Where pours the busy crowd; yoke! O, be that power, that love, displayed,	Thus heavenly wisdom lifts her voice
Help those whom thou alone canst aid!	And cries to men aloud.
301 Tune —Ae. L. M. D.	2 How long, ye scorners of the truth,
1 Health of the weak, to make them	Scornful will ye remain ?
strong !	How long shall fools their folly love, And hear my words in vain?
Refuge of sinners, and their song !	And near my words in vain :
Comfort of each afflicted breast! Haven of hope in realms of rest!	3 The time will come, when humbled
Lord of the patriarchs gone before!	low
Light of the prophets' learned lore! Deign from thy throne to look on me,	In sorrow's evil day, Your voice, by anguish, shall be taught,
And hear my lowly litany.	But taught too late to pray.
2 Lead me, O Spirit, to the Son,
To taste and feel what he has done;	4 When, like the whirlwind o'er the deep,
To lay me low before his cross, And reekon all besides as dross;	Comes desolation's blast:
To speak, and think, and will, and	Pray'rs then extorted will be vain;
move,	The hour of merey past.
And love, as thou wouldst have me love:	304 Tune-Edwards. C. M.
O, look upon this bended knee,
And hear my heart's own litany!	1 Ho! ye that thirst, approach the spring
302 Tune-Ganges. L. C. M	Where living waters flow;
1 That warning voice, O sinner hear!	Free to that sacred fountain all Without a price may go.
And while salvation lingers near, The heav'nly call obey;	Without a price may go.
Flee from destruction's downward	2 How long to streams of false delight path.	Will ve in crowds repair?
Flee from the threat'ning storm o wrath	How long your strength and substance
That rises o'er thy way.	On trifles light as air?

3 Seek ye the Lord, while yet his ear Is open to your call;	307 Tune-Middleton. 85 & 75.
While offered mercy still is near Before his footstool fall.	1 There is plentiful redemption In the blood that has been shed; There is joy for all the members
 4 Let sinners quit their evil ways, * Their evil thoughts forego; And God, when they to him return, Returning grace will show. 	In the sorrows of the head. 'Tis not all we owe to Jesus; It is something more than all; Greater good because of evil, Larger mercy through the fall.
	Darger mercy through the fail.
305 Tune-Salvation, or Resolution. C. M. D.	2 Pining souls! come nearer Jesus; And oh! come not doubting thus,
1 Ungrateful sinner! whence this scorn	But with faith that trusts more bravely His large tenderness for ns.
Of God's long-suffering grace? And whence this madness, that in- sults The Almighty to his face?	If our love were but more simple We should take him at his word; And our lives would be all sunshine In the sweetness of the Lord!
Dost thou not know, self-blinded man,	In the sweetness of the Lord :
His goodness is design'd To wake repentance in thy soul, And melt thy harden'd mind?	308 Tune-Lexington. 7s & 6s.
 2 And wilt thou rather choose to meet Th' Almighty as thy foe, And treasure up his wrath in store Against the day of woe? Soon shall that fatal day approach That must thy sentence seal, And righteous judgments, now un- known, 	 How lost was my condition Till Jesus made me whole! There is but one physician Can cure a sin-sick soul. Next door to death he found me, And snatched me from the grave, To tell to all around me His wondrous power to save.
In awful pomp reveal!	2 The worst of all diseases
306 Tune—Mount Vernon, 8s & 7s.	Is light compared with sin; On every part it seizes, But rages most within;
 There's a wideness in God's mercy Like the wideness of the sea; There's a kindness in his justice Which is more than liberty. 	'Tis palsy, plague, and fever, And madness all combined; And none but a believer The least relief can find.
2 There is no place where earth's sor- rows Are more felt than up in heaven;	I thought a cure to gain;
There is no place where earth's fail-	But this proved more distressing, And added to my pain.
ings Have such kindly judgment given.	Some said that nothing ailed me, Some gave me up for lost; Thus every refuge failed me
3 There is welcome for the sinner,	Thus every refuge failed me, And all my hopes were crossed.
And more graces for the good; There is mercy with the Saviour; There is healing in his blood.	4 At length, this great physician— How matchless is his grace !

.

Accepted my petition,	310 Tune-Joyfully. 103.
And undertook my case; First gave me sight to view him-	1 Trustingly, trustingly, Jesus to thee
For sin my sight had sealed—	Come I;—Lord, graciously, come thou to me!
Then bade me look unto him; I looked, and I was healed.	Then shall I joyfully, walk here with thee:
5 A dying, risen Jesus,	Ohl then, Lord, lovingly, come thou to me.
Seen by the eye of faith, At once from danger frees us,	Ah! mine iniquity, crimson has been;
And saves the soul from death.	Infinite! infinite! sin upon sin!
Come, then, to this physician; His help he'll freely give;	Sin of not loving thee—Oh, hateful sin! Sin of not trusting thee—infinite sin!
He makes no hard condition;
'Tis only—look and live!	2 Sin hath gone over me, like a dark sea-
	"Lord thou hast died for me"-this is
309 Tune—Oak. 6s & 4s.	my plea, So not despairingly, come I to thee;
1 Now I have found a friend, Jesus is mine;	So not distrustingly, bend I the knee;
His love shall never end,	Peacefully, peacefully, walk I with
Jesus is mine ;	thee; Jesus, my Lord, thou art all, all to me;
Though earthly joys decrease, Though human friendships cease,	Peace thou hast left us, so rich and so
Now I have lasting peace;	free, Ever to dwell with us—so let it be!
Jesus is mine!
2 Though I grow poor and old,	3 Happily, happily, pass I along, Eager to work for thee, earnest and
Jesus is mine; He will my faith uphold,	strong;
Jesus is mine;	Life is for service true—life is for song; Life is for battle too—right against
He shall my wants supply, His precious blood is nigh,	wrong.
Naught can my hope destroy,	Hopefully, hopefully, onward I go;
Jesus is mine !	Cheerfully, cheerfully, meet I the foe; Crowns are awaiting me, joys overflow;
3 When earth shall pass away,	Glory prepared for me-forward I go!
Jesus is mine;	311 Tune-Fountain. C. M.
In the great judgment day, Jesus is mine.
Oh! what a glorious thing	1 Think well how Jesus trusts himself Unto our childish love,
Then to behold my king, On tuneful harp to sing,	As though by his free ways with us
Jesus is mine!	Our earnestness to prove.
4 Farewell, mortality!	2 He gives himself as Mary's babe
Jesus is mine;	To sinners' trembling arms, And veils his everlasting light
Welcome, eternity l Jesus is mine.	In childhood's feeble charms.
He my redemption is,	3 His sacred name a common word
Wisdom and righteousness,	On earth he loves to hear;
Life, light, and holiness, Jesus is mine !	There is no majesty in him Which love may not come near.

 4 The light of love is round his feet His paths are never dim; And he comes nigh to us, when we Dare not come nigh to him. 5 His love of us may teach us how To love him in return; Love can not help but grow more free The more its transports burn. 	 Whence comes this blessing of the soul, This silent joy which can not fade? This glory, tranquil, holy, bright, Pervading sorrow's deepest shade ? The peace of God, the peace of God It shines as clear 'mid cloud and storm
312 Tune-Romaine. 75 & 68.	As in the calmest summer day, 'Mid chill as in the sunlight warm.
 I saw the cross of Jesus When burdened with my sin; I sought the cross of Jesus To give me peace within: I brought my soul to Jesus; He cleans'd it in his blood; And in the cross of Jesus I found my peace with God. I love the cross of Jesus— 	 4 Oh peace of God! earth hath no power To shed thine unction o'er the heart; Its smile can never bring it here Its frown ne'er bids its light depart. 5 Calm peace of God, in holy trust, In love and faith thy presence dwells
It tells me what I am; A vile and guilty creature, Saved only through the Lamb.	In patient suffering and toil Where mercy's gentle tear-drop swells.
No righteousness, no merit, No beauty can I plead; Yet in the cross I glory, My title there I read. 3 I clasp the cross of Jesus In every trying hour,	6 Sweet peace! Oh let thy heavenly ray Shed its calm radiance o'er my road Its kindly light shall cheer me on— Guide to the endless peace of God.
My sure and certain refuge,	314 Tune-Reo. C. M.
My never-failing tower. In every fear and conflict, I more than conqueror am; Living I'm safe, or dying, Through Christ the risen Lamb.	 O faith! thou workest miracles Upon the hearts of men, Choosing thy home in those same hearts We know not how nor when.
4 Sweet is the cross of Jesus! There let my weary heart Still rest in peace and safety Till life itself depart. And then in strains of glory I'll sing thy wondrous power,	 2 How many hearts thou might'st have had More innocent than mine; How many souls more worthy far Of that sweet touch of thine!
Where sin can never enter, And death is known no more. 313 Tune-Beethoven. L. M.	3 How can they live, how will they die, How bear the cross of grief,Who have not got the light of faith,
1 Oh peace of God, sweet peace of God,	The courage of belief? 4 The crowd of cares, the weightiest cross,
Where spread those pure and downy wings To shelter him whom God doth love?	Seem burdens small and light, And earth looks little and so low, When faith shines full and bright.

315	Tune—Colchester.	с. м. 31	7 Tur	e-Mount Pisgah.	С. М.
Wha Each b	Saviour, Jesus! dearest l it art thou not to me? iour brings joys before un i day new liberty!	hknown. An	With deepe	O thou living G st, tenderest fear thee with trembinitial tears.	rs, '
O he Jesus, 1	ght in darkness, joy in gr aven begun on earth! my love! my treasure! tell what thou art worth	who Fo	Almighty a r thou hast	love thee too, O s thou art, stooped to ask o this poor heart.
So v Love t	wonderful! that thou a let ile a heart as mine hee with such poor love a make so free with thine	as this,	No mother ars and for With me, th	father loves like half so mild bears, as thou ha by sinful child. his worse than	st done
4 But Thy On, on	is there limit to thee, lov flight where wilt thou st , my Lord is sweeter far ay than yesterday.	e?] ay? An	heart In pity deig d make it l
Burr Till all	n, burn, O love! with heart, i fiercely night and day, i the dross of earthly lov irned, and burned away.	es Au	Iow strong tracts And draws d sickens if	Tune—Mear. the thought of the heart from e to f passing show ting mirth !	arth,
That b That o How fi 2 Whi On the But no How se	Tune—Rapture. did not once so trouble n etter I did not love thee But now I feel and know nly when we love we find or our hearts remain behi Tho love they should bes le I had little care to cal e, and scarcely prayed at I seemed enough to pray w I only think with shar eldom to thy glorious nar My lips their offerings p	ne, 1 ind 3 (constrained) itow. 1 itow. 1	Co shun the e thought heart Co more sul Oh! utter b Down in yo d see how f All temptin The perfect t is not har thou wert s	ugh to save our eternal fires; of God will r olime desires. ut the name of 6 ur heart of hear from the world a g light departs. way is hard to f d to love; ick for want of v wouldst thou n	ouse the God ts, t once desh; God,
To see And gi That d	oing is this knowledge or what yet remains undon With this our pride repro- ive us grace, a growing s ay by day we may do m And may esteem it less.	e; ess: 1 7 tore, 4 ore, Ist	The thought Around me	e-Brattle Street. t of God, above, and within, than health or with or kin.

It is a thought which ever makes Life's sweetest smiles from tears; It is a daybreak to our hopes, A sunset to our fears.	6 Order, and multitude, and light, In beauteous showers outstreamed; And realms of newly-fashioned space With radiant angels beamed.
 2 One, while it bids the tears to flow, Then wipes them from the eyes, Most often fills our souls with joy, And always sanctifies. Within a thought so great, our souls Little and modest grow, And, by its vastness awed, we learn The art of walking slow. 3 The wild flower on the grassy ground Scarce bends its pliant form, 	 321 Tune-Enfield. C. M. D. 1 Let heaven arise, let earth appear, Said the Almighty Lord; The heavens arose, the earth appeared At his creating word. Thick darkness rested on the deep: God said, "Let there be light;" The light shone forth with smiling ray, And scatter'd ancient night. 2 He bade the clouds ascend on high;
When overhead th' autumnal wood Is thundering in the storm. So is it with our humbled souls, Down in the thought of God, Searce conscious, in their sober pace, Of the wild storms abroad.	 The clouds ascend, and bear A wat'ry treasure to the sky, And float upon the air. The liquid element below Was gathered by his hand; The rolling seas together flow, And leave the solid land. 3 With herbs, and plants, and fruitful
 320 Tane-Laight Street. C. M. 1 In pulses deep of three-fold love, Self-hushed and self-possessed, The mighty, unbeginning God Had lived in silent rest. 	The new form'd globe he crown'd, Ere there was rain to bless the soil, Or sun to warm the ground. Then high in heaven's resplendent arch
 2 No ties were on his bliss, for He Had neither end nor cause; For his own glory 'twas enough That he was what he was! 	He placed two orbs of light; He set the sun to rule the day, The moon to rule the night. 4 Next from the deep, th' Almighty King
3 He stirred, and yet we know not how Nor wherefore he should move; In our poor human words, it was An overflow of love.	Did vital beings frame; Fowls of the air of every wing, And fish of every name. To all the various brutal tribes He gave their wondrous birth; At once the lion and the worm
4 It was the first outspoken word That broke that peace sublime; An outflow of eternal love Into the lap of time.	Sprang from the teeming earth. 5 Then chief o'er all his works below At last was Adam made; His Maker's image blessed his soul, And glory crown'd his head.
5 He stirred, and beauty all at once Forth from his being broke; Spirit and strength, and living life, Created things awoke.	Fair in the Almighty Maker's eye The whole creation stood : He viewed the fabric he had rais'd— "Behold, 'twas very good !'

32	2 Tune-Avon.	С. М.	324	Tune-Emerson.	8s & 7s
Or	here's not a tint that pa r decks the lily fair, streaks the humblest blows, ut God has placed it the	flower that	Earth is v Unto thee b Holy, hol Heaven is st	vith its fullness st e glory given, y, holy Lord !" ill with anthems	ored; ringing:
I And	here's not a star whos light lumes the distant earth l cheers the solemn gloc ut goodness gave it birt	om of night,	 Holy, holy Lord o high! 2 Ever thus 	es up the angels' , holy," singing, f hosts, the L " in God's high pr let our tongues u	ord most
U An	here's not a cloud whos till pon the parching clod, d clothe with verdure v hat is not sent by God.		While our t And our l With his se With his Thus unite	houghts his great ove his gifts excil raph train before holy church belov we to adore him, us our anthems fl	ness raises, te. him, w,
	There's not a place in round, n ocean deep, or air, lere skill and wisdom an for God is everywhere.		3 "Lord, th Earth is Unto thee b Holy, hol	ny glory fills the with its fullness s be glory given, y, holy Lord!	heaven; tored;
۲ The	round, beneath, below, Vherever space extends are heaven displays it love, and power with goodnes	s boundless	We adop 'Holy, ho	lorious name conf t the angels' cry, ly, holy '—blessir Lord our God m	ıg
32	9 Tuna Domanaa	9a & 7a		Tune-Louvan.
1 C A Blia	Tune-Dornance. tod is love; his mercy b all the path in which we se he grants, and woe he tod is light, and God is	rightens e move! e lightens;	own No music But still the	n thou art! Our e thou couldst stoc e Son's expiring g in the Father's ea	op to hear; groan
Bu	Nance and change are Vorlds decay and ages of t his mercy waneth nev tod is light, and God is	move; er;	dyed With cu hue;	e thou art ! Our urses, red with n stretched his ha	murderer's
I Fre	Ven the hour that darka Iis unchanging goodnes om the cloud his bright eth; Hod is light, and God is	s proves; ness stream-	view	that pierced then ng thou art! W
4 I T Ev	Ie our earthly cares ent Vith his comforts from erywhere his glory shin dod is light, and God is	wineth above: eth;	The thu move But he is by	u must clasp th

4 How kind thou art! Thou didst not not choose To joy in him forever so;	2 He gives in gladsome bowers to dwell, Or clothes in sorrow's shroud ;
But that embrace thou wouldst not lose For vengeance, didst for love forego!	His hand has form'd the light, bis hand Hath form'd the dark'ning cloud.
5 High God, and pure, and strong, and kind ! The low, the foul, the feeble, spare !	3 Why should a living man complain Beneath the chastening rod? Our sins afflict us; and the cross
The brightness in his face we find— Behold our darkness only there !	Must bring us back to God. 4 Oh sons of men! with anxious care Your bearts and ways applorat
326 Tune-New Cambridge. C. M.	Your hearts and ways explore; Return from evil paths to God,
1 Oh God I thy power is wonderful,	Return-and sin no more!
Thy glory passing bright; Thy wisdom, with its deep on deep,	328 Tune—Naomi. C. M.
A rapture to the sight.	1 Father! thy power is merciful
	To us poor worms below,
2 Thy holiness the gladdest thing	Not bound by justice, but because Thyself hath willed it so.
Creation can behold; Thy tenderness so meek, it wins	Ligoti hada amod it so.
The guilty to be bold.	2 The fallen creature hath no rights,
C ·	No voice in thy decrees;
3 From thee were drawn those worlds of Life	Yet while thy glory owns no claims, Thy love makes promises.
The Saviour's heart and soul; And, undiminished still, thy waves	3 O fearful thought! one act of sin
Of calmest glory roll.	Within itself contains
- · ·	The power of endless hate of God, And everlasting pains!
4 All things that have been, all that are, All things that can be dreamed;	4 What can I do but trust thee, Lord,
All possible creations—made,	For thou art God alone? My soul is safer in thy hands,
Kept faithful, or redeemed.	Father! than in my own.
5 All these may draw upon thy power,	329 Tune-Woodstock. C. M.
Thy mercy may command, And still outflows thy silent sea,	1 I worship thee, sweet Will of God!
Immutable and grand.	And all thy ways adore,
0	And every day I live, I secm
6 Oh, little heart of mine ! shall pain	To love thee more and more.
Or sorrow make thee moan,	2 When obstacles and trials seem
When all this God is all for thee, A Father all thine own ?	Like prison walls to be,
	I do the little I can do,
327 Tune-Harmony Grove. C. M.	And leave the rest to thee.
	3 And when it seems no chance of
1 Amidst the mighty, where is he Who swith and it is done?	change,
Who saith, and it is done? Each varying scene of changeful life	From grief can set me free, Hope finds its strength in helplessness.
Is from the Lord alone.	And gaily waits on thee.

4 Man's weakness waiting upon God, Its end can never miss, For men on earth no work can do More angel-like than this.	 3 Muse on his justice, downcast soul; Muse, and take better heart; Back with thine armor to the field, And bravely do thy part.
5 He always wins who sides with God, To him no chance is lost; God's will is sweetest to him, when It triumphs at his cost.	To doubt would be disloyalty, To falter would be sin.
	332 Tune-Zerah. C. M.
330 Tune-Monson. C. M. 1 I wish to have no wishes left, But to leave all to thee;	 Calm, on the listening ear of night, Come heaven's melodious strains, Where wild Judea stretches far Her silver-mantled plains.
And yet I wish that thou shouldst will Things that I wish should be.2 And these two wills I feel within, When on we death I muscl.	2 Celestial choirs, from courts above, Shed sacred glories there, And angels, with their glittering lyres,
When on my death I muse; But, Lord! I have a death to die, And not a death to choose.	Make music on the air. 3 The answering hills of Palestine Send back the glad reply,
 But thou wilt not disdain to hear What those few wishes arc, Which I abandon to thy love, And to thy wiser care. 	 And greet, from all their holy heights, The day-spring from on high. 4 O'er the blue depths of Galilee There comes a holier calm;
 4 All graces I would crave to have Calmly absorbed in one— A perfect sorrow for my sins, Sins borne by Christ alone. 	 And Sharon waves, in solemn praise, Her silent groves of palm. 5 "Glory to God!" the sounding skies Loud with their anthems ring—
5 I would the light of reason, Lord! Up to the last might shine, That my own hands might hold my	"Peace to the earth, good will to men, From heaven's eternal King."
soul Until it passed to thine.	The Saviour now is born l And bright on Bethlehem's joyous plains
6 And yet, O Lord, whate'er thy will, For this my death deerce, Assured I am, when I depart,	Breaks the first Advent morn. 333 Tune-Gruner. 8s, 7s, & 4s.
My soul shall rest with theo.	1 Listen to the gospel, telling How the Lord was crucified;
 331 Tune-Dunlap's Creck. C. M. 1 Ah! God is other than we think; His ways are far above, 	How upon the cross he suffered, When he bowed his head and died, All for sinners!
Far beyond reason's height, and reached Only by child-like love.	Come, then, to his bleeding side. 2 Listen to the gospel calling! Hear, O sinner, and obey!
2 He hides himself so wondrously, As though there were no God;	Come to Jesus, he will save you, Now, no longer stay away;
If is least seen when all the powers Of ill are most abroad.	He invites you; Sinner, then, make no delay.

3 Listen to the gospel pleading,	336 Tune-Jesus Wept. 88, 78, & 78.
Hasten, sinner, to arise; Come and cast yourself on Jesus, He to none his love denies; Trust him freely, Wait no longer; now be wise.	 Jesus wept! those tears are over, But his heart is still the same; Kinsman, Friend, and Elder Brother, Is his everlasting name. Saviour, who can love like thee?
 4 Listen to the gospel, blessing All who trust the Saviour's love; And to those who now obey him, Bringing pardon from above; Careless sinner, Will you still refuse to love ? 	 Gracious one of Bethany ! 2 When the pangs of trial seize us, When the waves of sorrow roll, I will lay my head on Jesus— Pillow of the troubled soul. Truly, none can feel like thee, Warning and of Bethany !
 5 Listen to the gospel warning; All who stay away must die; Come, then, while all things are ready, Mercy calls you from on high; Come and welcome, Hear, oh hear, the Saviour cry l 	 Weeping one of Bethany ! 3 Jesus wept, and still in glory He can mark each mourner's tear— Living to retrace the story Of the hearts he solaced here. Lord, when I am called to die, Let me think of Bethany !
 334 Tune-Edmeston. C. M. 1 A pilgrim thro' this lonely world The blessed Saviour passed; A mourner all his life was he, A dying lamb at last. 	4 Jesus wept! that tear of sorrow Is a legacy of love; Yesterday, to-day, to-morrow, He the same shall ever prove. Thou art all in all to me, Living one of Bethany l
 2 That tender heart which felt for all, For us its life-blood gave; It found on earth no resting place, Save only in the grave! 335 Tane-Aspiration, C. M. 	337 Tune-Upton. L. M. 1 Our Lord is risen from the dead, Our Jesus is gone up on high; The powers of hell are captive led, Dragged to the portals of the sky.
 335 Tane—Aspiration. C. M. 1 Oh, my dear Saviour, when thy cares, Thy toils for me I read, My eyes run o'er with grateful tears, And I bow down my head. 	 2 There his triumphal chariot waits, And angels chant the solemn lay: Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates ! Ye everlasting doors, give way !
 2 Thy suffering life I can not trace, Or read thy sacred word; But I'm o'ercome with thankfulness To thee, my gracious Lord. 	3 Loose all your bars of massy light, And wide unfold the radiant scene ! He claims those mansions as his right— Receive the King of glory in !
 3 What am I, Lord, that thou so much Shouldst love and value me? Vile dust I am, yet thou for such Didst bear thy misery. 	4 Who is the King of glory—who? The Lord, who all his foes o'ercame; The world, sin, death, and hell o'er- threw, And Jesus is the conqueror's name.

 And angels chant the solemn lay: Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates! Ye everlasting doors, give way! 6 Who is the King of glory—who? The Lord, of boundless might possessed, The King of saints and angels, too—Lord over all, forever blest. 	 2 Far over sea and land, Go, at your Lord's command; Bear ye his name; Bear it to every shore, Regions unknown explore, Enter at every door; Silence is shame. 3 Speed on the wings of love: Jesus, who reigns above, Bids us to fly; They who his message bear
	 Should neither doubt nor fear; He will their friend appear, He will be nigh. 4 When on the mighty deep, He will their spirits keep, Stayed on his word; When in a foreign land, No other friend at hand, Jesus will by them stand— Jesus, their Lord.
 2 Floods of everlasting light Freely flash before him; Myriads, with supreme delight, Instantly adore him; Trumpets loud resound his fame; Lutes of lucid gold proclaim All the music of his name; Heaven resounding with the theme. 3 Hark! the thrilling symphonies Seem, methinks, to seize us; Join we too the holy lays— Jesus, Jesus, Jesus! Sweetest sound in scraph's song, Sweetest note on mortal tongue, Sweetest earol ever sung— Jesus! Jesus!—flow along. 	 340 Tane-Ware. L. M. 1 Fling out the banner ! let it float Skyward and seaward, high and wide: The sun, that lights its shining folds. The eross, on which the Saviour died. 2 Fling out the banner ! angels bend, In anxious silence o'er the sign; And vainly seek to comprehend The wonder of the love divine. 3 Fling out the banner ! heathen lands Shall see, from far, the glorious sight, And nations, crowding to be born, Baptize their spirits in its light. 4 Fling ont the banner ! sin-sick souls, That sink and perish in the strife, Shall touch in faith its radiant hem, And spring immortal into life.
 339 Twne-New Haven. 6s & 4s. 1 Sound, sound the truth abroad ! Bear ye the word of God Through the wide world; Tell what our Lord has done, Tell how the day is won, Tell from his lofty throno Satan is hurled. 	 5 Fling out the banner! let it float Skyward and seaward, high and wide; Our glory, only in the cross; Our only hope, the Crucified. 6 Fling out the banner! wide and high, Seaward and skyward, let it shine; Nor skill, nor might, nor merit, ours; We conquer only in that sign.

3	41 Tune-Asmon. C	С. М.	343 Tune-New Haven 6s & 4s.
	Jesus is God! oh, could I now But compass land and sea, o teach and tell this single truth, How happy I should be!		1 Let us awake our joys; Strike up with cheerful voice, Each creature sing: Angels, begin the song; Mortals, the strain prolong,
	Jesus is God! alas! they say On earth the numbers grow, Vho his divinity blaspheme, To their unfailing woe.		In accents sweet and strong, "Jesus is King." 2 Proclaim abroad his name; Tell of his matchless fame l
_	And yet, what is the single end Of this life's mortal span, xcept to glorify the God Who for our sakes was Man?		What wonders done; Above, beneath, around, Let all the earth resound, Till heaven's high areh rebound, "Victory is won."
J	Oh, had I but an angel's voice, I would proclaim so loud— esus, the good, the beautiful, Is everlasting God!		3 He vanquished sin and hell, And our last foe will quell; Mourners, rejoice; His dying love adore: Praise him now raised in power; Praise him for evermore With inorful voice.
3	42 Tune—Siloam. C	с. м.	4 All hail the glorious day
	Thou God, whose thoughts brightest light, Whose love runs always clear, o whose kind wisdom sinning soul: Amidst their sins are dear.
	Sweeten all proud and bitter hear With charity like thine,	ts	344 Tune—Melody, or Chelmsford. C. M.
	ll self shall be the only spot On earth, which does not shine.		1 A trusting heart, a yearning eye, Can win their way above; If mountains can be moved by faith,
	Thou art the unapproached, wh height	ose	Is there less power in love?
W	Enables thee to stoop, 'hose holiness bends undefiled To handle hearts that droop.		2 How little of that road, my soul! How little hast thou gone ! Take heart, and let the thought of God Allure thee further on.
Is	How thou canst think so well of Yet be the God thou art, darkness to my intellect, But sunshine to my heart.	us,	3 The freedom from all willful sin, The Christian's daily task,— Oh, these are graces far below What longing love would ask!
м	Yet habits linger in the soul- More grace, O Lord! more grace ore sweetness from thy loving her
	More sunshine from thy face !	1	How was it dealt to thee?

345 Tune-Maitland, or Cross and Crown. C. M.	4 But dry your tears, and tune your songs,
1 How shalt thou bear the cross that now So dread a weight appears? Keep quietly to God, and think	The Saviour lives again; Not all the bolts and bars of death The conqueror could detain.
Upon the eternal years.	347 Tune-Stella. O. M. D.
2 Thy self-upbraiding is a snare, Though meekness it appears; More humbling is it far, for thee To face the eternal years.	1 Thou art my hiding place, O Lord, In thee I fix my trust, Encouraged by thy holy word, A feeble child of dust.
3 Brave quiet is the thing for thee, Chiding thy scrupulous fears; Learn to be real, from the thought Of the eternal years.	I have no argument beside, I urge no other plea; And 'tis enough—the Saviour died, The Saviour died for me.
4 Be patient, suffer like a child, Nor be ashamed of tears; Kiss the sweet cross, and in thy heart Sing of th' eternal years.	 2 When storms of flerce temptation beat, And furious foes assail, My refuge is the mercy seat, My hope within the vail.
 5 Death will have rainbows round it seen Through calm contrition's tears; If tranquil hope but trims her lamp At the eternal years. 	11 10 0 1 1 10
6 He practices all virtue well Who his own cross reveres, And lives in the familiar thought Of the eternal years!	 3 And when thy awful voice commands This body to decay, And life, in its last lingering sands, Is ebbing fast away—
346 Tune-New Cambridge. O. M.	Then, though it be in accents weak My voice shall call on thee, And ask for strength in death to
 Ye humble souls, that seek the Lord, Chase all your fears away; And bow with reverence down, to see The place where Jesus lay. 	speak— " My Saviour died for me."
2 Thus low the Lord of life was	348 Tune-Uxbridge. L. M.
brought— Such wonders love can do! Thus cold in death that bosom lay, Which throbbed and bled for you.	 With tearful eyes I look around, Life seems a dark and stormy sea; Yet, 'midst the gloom, I hear a sound, A heavenly whisper, "Come to me."
 3 If ye have wept at yonder cross, And still your sorrows rise, Stoop down and view the vanquished grave, Then wipe your weeping eyes. 	2 It tells me of a place of rest— It tells me where my soul may flee; O! to the weary, faint, oppress'd, How sweet the bidding, "Come to me!"

 When nature shudders, loth to part From all I love, enjoy, and see; When a faint chill steals o'er my heart, A sweet voice utters, "Come to me." 	Make me for thy rest more ready, As thy path is longer trod; Keep me in thy friendship steady, Till thou call me home, my God!
 4 Come, for all else must fail and die; Earth is no resting place for thee; Heavenward direct thy weeping eye, I am thy portion, "Come to me." 5 O, voice of mercy! voice of love! In conflict, grief, and agony, Support me, cheer me from above! And gently whisper, "Come to me." 	351 Tune—Protection. 11s. 1 Though faint, yet pursuing, we go on our way; The Lord is our leader, his word is our stay; Though suffering, and sorrow, and trial be near, The Lord is our refuge, and whom can we fear?
 349 Tune-Christmas. O. M. 1 While others crowd the house of mirth, And haunt the gaudy show, Let such as would with wisdom dwell, Frequent the house of woe! 2 Better to weep with those who weep, And share the afflicted's smart, Than mix with crowds in giddy joys That cheat and wound the heart! 3 The wise in heart revisit oft Grief's dark sequester'd cell; The thoughtless still with levity And mirth delight to dwell. 4 When virtuous sorrow dims the eye, And tears bedew the face, 	 He raiseth the fallen, he cheereth the faint; The weak and oppressed, he will hear their complaint; The way may be weary, and thorny the road, But how can we falter? our help is in God. And to his green pastures our footsteps he leads; His flock in the desert, how kindly he feeds! The lambs in his bosom he tenderly bears, And brings back the wanderers all safe from the snares. Though clouds may surround us, our
1 Oh how kindly hast thou led me,	God is our light; Though storms rage around us, our God is our might; So faint, yet pursuing, still onward we come; The Lord is our leader, and heaven is
 Heavenly Father, day by day! Found my dwelling, clothed and fed me, Furnished friends to cheer my way! Didst thou bless me, didst thou chasten, With thy smile, or with thy rod, 'Twas that still my step might hasten Homeward, heavenward, to my God. 2 Oh, how slowly have I often Followed where thy hand would draw! 	our home. 352 Tune-Brown. O. M. 1 Angels, where'er we go, attend Our steps, whate'er betide, With watchful care their charge de- fend, And evil turn aside. 2 Myriads of bright cherubic bands, Sent by the King of kings,
How thy kindness failed to soften ! How thy chastening failed to awe!	Rejoice to bear us in their hands, And shade us with their wings.

3 Jehovah's charioteers surround; The ministerial choir	354 Tune-Harwell. 85 & 78.
Encamp, where'er his heirs are found, And form our wall of fire.	1 Harp, awake! tell out the story Of our love, and joy, and praise; Lute, awake! awake our glory!
4 Ten thousand offices unseen For us they gladly do,	Join a thankful song to raise! Join we, brethren, faithful-hearted, Lift the solemn voice again
Deliver in the furnace keen, And safe escort us through.	O'er another year departed Of our threescore years and ten.
5 But thronging round, with busiest love	2 Lol a theme for deepest sadness, In ourselves with sin defiled;
They guard the dying breast,	Lo! a theme for holiest gladness,
The lurking fiend far off remove, And sing our souls to rest.	In our Saviour reconciled ! In the dust we bend before thee,
	Lord of sinless hosts above;
6 And when our spirits we resign,	Yet in lowliest joy adore thee,
On outstretched wings they bear, And lodge us in the arms Divine,	God of mercy, grace, and love!
And leave us ever there.	3 Gracious Father! thou hast length- en'd, And heat bleat our montal snap
	And hast blest our mortal span, And in our weak hearts hast strength-
353 Tune-Romaine. 7s & 6s.	en'd
1 As flows the papid niver	What thy grace alone began !
1 As flows the rapid river, With channel broad and free,	Still, when danger shall betide us, Be thy warning whisper heard;
Its waters rippling ever,	Keep us at thy feet, and guide us
And hastening to the sea;	By thy Spirit and thy word l
So life is onward flowing, And days of offered peace,
And man is swiftly going	4 Let thy favor and thy blessing Crown the year we now begin;
Where calls of mercy cease.	Let us all, thy strength possessing, Grow in grace, and vanquish sin.
2 As moons are ever waning, As hastes the sun away,	Storms are round us, hearts are quail- ing,
As stormy winds, complaining,	Signs in heaven, and earth, and sea:
Bring on the wintry day;	But, when heaven and earth are fail-
So fast the night comes o'er us-	ng, Saviour! we will trust in thee!
The darkness of the grave; The death is just before us;
God takes the life he gave.	077
, i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i	355 Tune—Smyrna . 88 & 78
3 Say, hath thy heart its treasure	1 Tell me not, in mournful numbers,
Laid up in worlds above?	Life is but an empty dream;
And is it all thy pleasure Thy God to praise and love?	For the soul is dead that slumbers, And things are not what they seem.
Beware lest death's dark river	Life is real! life is carnest!
Its billows o'er thee roll,	And the grave is not its goal;
And thou lament forever	Dust thou art, to dust returnest,
The ruin of thy soul.	Was not spoken of the soul!

.

 Not enjoyment, and not sorrow, Is our destined end and way; But to act, that each to-morrow Find us further than to-day. Lives of true men all remind us We can make our lives sublime, And, departing, leave behind us Footprints on the sands of time. 	 3 Dear voices and dear faces missed, Sweet households overthrown; And what is left—oft sad to see, As th' thought of what is gone. 4 But all by thee is sanctified— This rupture with the past; For thus we die before our deaths, And so die well at last.
 3 Footprints which perhaps another, Sailing o'cr life's solemn main, A forlorn and shipwreeked brother Seeing, shall take heart again. Let us, then, be up and doing, With a heart for any fate; Still achieving, still pursuing, Learn to labor and to wait. 	358 Tune-Chimes. C. M. 1 To fear is harder than to weep; To watch, than to endure; The hardest of all griefs to bear Is grief that is not sure.
356 Tune-Naomi. C. M 1 O Lord! I live always in pain,	 2 To look a sorrow in the face False magnitude imparts; All sorrows look immensely large Unto our little hearts.
My life's sad under-song; Pain in itself not hard to bear, But hard to bear so long.	3 Least griefs are more than we can bear, Each worse than those before;
 2 Little, sometimes, weighs more than much, When it has no relief; A joyless life is worse to bear 	Our own griefs always greater griefs Than those our fathers bore. 4 The griefs we have to bear alone
 Than one of active grief. 3 And yet, O Lord! a suffering life One grand ascent may dare; 	The griefs that we can share, Our single griefs, our crowded griefs, Which are the worst to bear?
Penance, not self-imposed, can make The whole of life a prayer.	5 Dear Lord! in all our loncliest pains Thou hast the largest share; And that which is unbearable,
4 All murmurs, lie inside thy will, Which are to thee addressed; To suffer for thee is our work, To think of thee, our rest.	6 Alas! we have so little grace.
357 Tune-Howard. C. M.	With love so little burn, That the hardest of our works for God Is to comfort those who mourn.
 Years fly, O Lord! and every year More desolate I grow; My world of friends thins round me fast, Love after love lies low. There are fresh gaps around the hearth, 	Sent the gracious Comforter;
Old places left unfilled, And young lives quenched before the old,	2 Holy Ghost, eternal God,

3 Never will he thence depart,	2 I can not pray; yet, Lord! thou
Inmate of an humble heart;	knowest
Carrying on his work within,	The pain it is to me
Striving till he cast out sin.	To have my vainly struggling thoughts
	Thus torn away from thee.
4 There he helps our feeble moans,
Deepens our imperfect groans;	3 Yet thou art oft most present, Lord!
	In weak distracted prayer;
Intercedes in silence there,
Breathes the unutterable prayer.	A sinner out of heart with self
	Most often finds thee there.
360 Tune-Olmutz. S. M.	4 For prayer that humbles, sets the soul
1 Come to the house of prayer,	From all illusions free,
	And teaches it how utterly,
Oh, thou afflicted ! come;	Down Towall it has so where t
The God of peace shall meet thee	Dear Lord: it hangs on theet there;
He makes that house his home.	5 My Saviour! why should 1 complain,
	And why fear aught but sin?
	Distractions are but outward things;
2 Come to the house of praise,	Thy peace dwells far within.
Ye who are happy now;	I Hy peace dwens far within.
In sweet accord your voices raise,
In kindred homage bow.	6 These surface troubles come and go,
In Kindred Bonnage bow.	Like rufflings of the sea;
	The deeper depth is out of reach
3 Ye aged, hither come,	To all, my God, but thee.
For you have felt his love;	10 mil mj 0.00, 000 0.000
Soon shall your trembling tongues be dumb,	362 Tune-Rockingham. C. M.
Your lips forget to move.
Tour ups renget to move.	1 Here cares and angry passions cease,
	For saints together meet
4 Ye young, before his throne	To spend an hour of prayer and peace
Come, bow; your voices raise;	At their Redeemer's feet.
Let not your hearts his praise disown
Who gives the power to praise.	2 No sculptured wonders meet the who gives the power to praise.
	sight,
5 Thou, whose benignant eye	Nor pictured saints appear,
In mercy looks on all-	Nor storied window's gorgeous light,
Who seest the tear of misery,	For God himself is here.
And hearest the mourner's call-
And nearest the mourner's can-	3 And here are comrades in the war
	With Satan and with sin,
6 Up to thy dwelling place	Who now in God's own favor share,
Bear our frail spirits on,	And soon their heaven will win.
Till they outstrip time's tardy pace,	And soon then heaven will will
And heaven on earth be won.	4 Glory to God ! who deigns to bless
The nearest on caren of wom.
	This consecrated day,
0.01	Unfolds his wondrous promises
361 Tune-Downs. C. M.	And makes it sweet to pray.
	Truce mando to bullot to proj.
1 Ah, dearest Lord! I can not pray;	5 Glory to God ! who deigns to hear
1 Ah, dearest Lord! I can not pray; My fancy is not free;	5 Glory to God ! who deigns to hear The humblest sigh we raise,
	5 Glory to God ! who deigns to hear The humblest sigh we raise, And answers every heartfelt prayer,
My fancy is not free;	5 Glory to God ! who deigns to hear The humblest sigh we raise,

3	63 Tune-Woodside. C. M.	2 Long hath the night of sorrow
\mathbf{F}	Far from the world, O Lord, I flee, From strife and tumult far; rom scenes where Satan wages still His most successful war.	reign'd, The dawn shall bring us light; God shall appear, and we shall rise With gladners, at his sight. Our hearts, if God we seek to know, Shall know him, and rejoice;
	The calm retreat, the silent shade, With prayer and praise agree; nd seem by thy sweet bounty made For those who follow thee.	His coming, like the dawn shall be- Like morning songs his voice.
	There, if thy Spirit touch the soul, And grace her mean abode, with what peace, and joy, and love, She communes with her God!	3 As dew upon the tender herb, Diffusing fragrance round; As showers that usher in the spring, And cheer the thirsty ground, So shall his presence bless our souls, And shed a joyous light; That hallow'd morn shall chase away
N	There, like the nightingale she pours Her solitary lays; or asks a witness of her song, Nor thirsts for human praise.	The sorrows of the night. 366 Tune-Salvation. C. M. D.
3	64 Tune-Dennis. S. M.	1 Attend and mark the solemn fast
1 T1 2	Behold the throne of grace l The promise calls me near ; here Jesus shows a smiling face, And waits to answer prayer. That rich atoning blood,	Which to the Lord is dear; Disdain the false unhallowed mask Which vain dissemblers wear. Do I delight in sorrow's dress ? Saith he who reigns above; The hanging head and rueful look, Will they attract my love ?
Pı	Which sprinkled round I see, ovides for those who come to God, An all-prevailing plea.	2 Let such as feel oppression's load Thy tender pity share; And let the helpless, homeless poor,
Te	Beyond our utmost wants, His love and power can bless: o praying souls he always grants More than they can express.	Be thy peculiar care. Go, bid the hungry orphan be With thy abundance blest ; Invite the wand'rer to thy gate, And spread the couch of rest.
1 О Н	65 Tune-Salvation, or Resolution. C. M. D. Come, let us to the Lord, our God, With contrite hearts return; ur God is gracious, nor will leave The desolate to mourn. is voice commands the tempest forth, And stills the stormy wave; nd though his arm be strong to smite, 'Tis also strong to save.	 3 Let him who pines with piercing cold By thee be warmed and clad; Be thine the blissful task to make The downcast mourner glad. Then bright as morning, shall come forth, In peace and joy thy days; And glory from the Lord above Shall shine on all thy ways.

ų

367 Tune-Athens. C. M. D.	3 Not a brief glance I beg, a passing
1 They talked of Jesus, as they went;	word, But as thou dwell'st with thy disciples,
And Jesus, all unknown, Did at their side himself present	Lord, Familian condessending notiont free
With sweetness all his own.	Familiar, condescending, patient, free, Come, not to sojourn, but abide, with
Swift, as he op'd the sacred word	me.
His glory they discern'd;
Their hearts within them burn'd.	4 Come, for I need thee, as the King or kings;
2 He would have left them, but that	My shield, my sun, with healing in thy wings, they With prayers his love assailed:	Tears for all woes, a heart for every
"Depart not yet! a little stay!"	plea,
They press'd him, and prevail'd.	Come, friend of sinners, thus abide
And Jesus was reveal'd, as there	with me.
He bless'd and brake the bread;	5 Thou on my head in early youth
But, while they mark'd his heavenly air	didst smile,
The matchless guest had fled.	And though rebellious and perverse
3 And thus, at times, as Christians talk	mean while,
Of Jesus and his word,	Thou hast not left me, oft as I left thee;
He joins two friends amidst their walk,	On to the close, O Lord, abide with me.
And makes, unseen, a third.
And oh! how sweet the converse flows,	6 I need thy presence every passing
Their holy theme how dear, How warm with love each bosom glows,	hour; What but thy grace can foil the
If Jesus be but near.	tempter's power?
II GOSUS DO DUE HOUR.	Who, like thyself, my guide and stay
4 And they that woo his visits sweet,	can be?
And will not let him go;	Through cloud and sunshine, O abide
Oft while his broken bread they eat,	with me.
His soul-felt presence know; His gather'd friends he loves to meet
And fill with joy their faith,	369 Tune-Remember Me. C. M.
When they with melting hearts repeat	1 O thou from whom all goodness flows,
The memory of his death.	I lift my heart to thee;
368 Tune-Abide with Me. 10s.	In all my sorrows, conflicts, woes,
1 Abide with me! Fast falls the even-	Dear Lord, remember me.
tide,	2 When on my sad and burdened heart
The darkness thickens; Lord, with me	My sins lie heavily,
abide:	My pardon speak, new peace impart,
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,	In love remember me.
Help of the helpless, O abide with me!
2 Swift to its alose abbs out life's little	And ills I can not flee,
2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;	For good remember me.
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass	rot good remember me.
away:	4 If for thy sake, upon my name
Change and decay in all around I see;	Shame and reproach shall be,
	I'll hail reproach, and welcome shame,
me.	If thou remember me.

ITVMNS OF THE OUIDOU

	Ind ononon. Top
 5 When worn with pain, disease, an grief, This feeble body see; 6 Grant patience, rest, and kind relief; And, Lord, remember me. 6 When, in the solemn hour of death, I wait thy just decree, Be this the prayer of my last breath- Dear Lord, remember me. 370 Tune-Harmony Grove. C. M 1 Now that the sun is gleaming brigh Implore we, bending low, That he, the uncreated light, May guide us as we go. 	Let me love for love repay thee— Thou, whose soul for sinners smarted, Healer of the broken-hearted ! I. 4 On my heart each stripe be written,
 No sintul word, or deed of wrong, Nor thoughts that idly rove, But simple truth, be on our tongue, And in our hearts be love. And while the hours in order flow, O Christ, securely fence Our gates beleagured by the foe, The gate of every sense. And grant that to thine honor, Lord Our daily toil may tend: That we begin it at thy word, And in thy favor end. 	 373 Tune-Medifeld. C. M. The bird let loose in eastern skies, Returning fondly home, Ne'er stoops to earth her wing, nor flies Where idler warblers roam. But high she shoots through air and light, Above all low delay, Where nothing earthly bounds her flight, Nor shadow dims her way.
 371 Tune-Mount Pisgah. C. M. 1 Shine on our souls, eternal God, With rays of beauty shine! Oh let thy favor crown our days, And all their round be thine. 2 Did we not raise our hands to thee, Our hands might toil in vain; 	 3 So grant, me, Lord, from every snare Of sinful passion free, Aloft through faith's serence air To hold my course to thee. 4 No sin to cloud, no lure to stay My soul, as home she springs; Thy sunshine on her joyful way, Thy freedom in her wings.

Our hands Small joy success itself could give, If thou thy love restrain.

3 With thee let every week begin, With thee each day be spent; For thee each fleeting hour improv'd,

Since each by thee is lent.

372

Tune-Esthemoah. 7s, 4 lines.

1 Gracious Jesus, Lord most dear, Guilty though I am, give ear; Show thine own sweet clemency; Spurn me not, though vile I be.

374 Tune-Norwich. 7s. 4 lines.

1 Day by day the manna fell: O to learn this lesson well! Still by constant mercy fed, Give me, Lord, my daily bread.

2 "Day by day," the promise reads, Daily strength for daily needs; Cast foreboding fears away, Take the manna of to-day.

3 Lord! my times are in thy hand: All my sanguine hopes have planned, To thy wisdom I resign, And would make thy purpose mine.	2 He rose for them for whom he died, That, like to him, they may Rise when he comes, in glory great, That ne'er shall fade away.
4 Thou my daily task shalt give; Day by day to thee I live; So shall added years fulfill, Not my own, my Father's will.	3 This is the day the Spirit came With us on earth to stay— A comforter, to fill our hearts With joys that ne'er decay.
375 Tune-Ward. L. M.
 Dear is the hallowed morn to me. When Sabbath bells awake the day, And, by their sacred minstrelsy, Call me from earthly cares away. 	4 His comforts are the earnest suro Of that same heavenly rest Which Jesus entered on, when ho Was made forever blest.
2 Oft when the world, with iron hands, Has bound me in its six days' chain, This bursts them, like the strong man's	378 Tune-Ionia. 78, 4 lines.
bands, And lets my spirit loose again.	1 For the mercies of the day, For this rest upon our way, Thanks to thee alone be given,
3 Go, man of pleasure, strike thy lyre, Of broken Sabbaths sing the charms;	Lord of earth, and King of beaven.
Ours be the prophet's car of fire That bears us to a Father's arms.	2 Let these earthly Sabbaths prove Foretastes of our joys above;
376 Tune—Greenville. 85 & 75.	While their steps thy children bend To the rest which knows no end.
1 Lo! it dawns, the Sabbath morning
Streams with radiance all divine;	3 From thy house when we return,
Sanctity thy courts adorning, Beautiful with grace they shine.	Let our hearts within us burn;
Holiness becomes thy dwelling,	Then, at evening, we may say,
Peerless sovereign of the sky,	"We have walked with God to-day."
Princely palaces excelling,
Pomp of earthly majesty.	379 Tune-Shirland. S. M
2 Rise, my soul, the day is breaking,
Gladdened nature drinks the light;	1 Sing to the Lord, our might
From the sleep of darkness waking,	With holy fervor sing; Let hearts and instruments unite,
Put off all the clouds of night.	To praise our heavenly King.
Take the rest this day is bringing, Rest of all our earthly days,
Enter thou his gates with singing,	2 This is his holy house,
Tread the hallowed floor with praise.
9)7/P/ ///	When he accepts the humble vows
377 Tune—Peterboro, C. M.	That we sincerely pay.
1 This is the day the first ripe sheaf Before the Lord was waved,	3 The Sabbath to our sires
And Christ, first fruits of them that slept,	In mercy first was given ; The church her Sabbath still requires
	In mercy first was given;

280 Tune-Dedham. C. M.	4 No lingering look, nor parting sigh, Our future meeting knows;
 Planted in Christ, the living vine, This day with one accord, Ourselves, with humble faith and joy, We yield to thee, O Lord. 	There friendship beams from every eye, And love immortal glows. O sacred hope! O blissful hope! Which Jesus' grace has given— The hope, when days and years are past,
2 Joined in one body may we be: One inward life partake:	We all shall meet in heaver.
One be our heart; one heavenly hope In every bosom wake.	382 Tune—St. Ann's. C. M.
3 In prayer, in effort, tears, and toils, One wisdom be our guide; Taught by one Spirit from above, In thee may we abide.	1 How hard it seems to work for God, To rise and take his part Upon this battle-field of earth And not, sometimes, lose heart!
 4 Then, when among the saints in light Our joyful spirits shine, Shall anthems of immortal praise, O Lamb of God, be thine. 	2 Ill masters good; good seems to change To ill, with greatest ease; And worst of all, the good with good Seems at cross-purposes.
 381 Tune-Varina. C. M. D. 1 Oh, sweetest, dearest tiel that binds Our glowing hearts in one; Oh, sacred hope! that tunes our minds To harmony divine. The blesséd hope, the blissful hope, Which Jesus' grace has given- The hope, when days and years are past. We all shall meet in heaven. 2 What though the northern wintry blast Shall howl around our cot; What though beneath an eastern sun 	 And doubts will come, if God hath kept His promises to men. 4 The look, the fashion, of God's ways Love's life-long study are; She can be bold, and guess, and act When Reason would not dare. 5 God's justice is a bed where we
Be cast our distant lot; Yet still we share the blissful hope	383 Tune-Sicilian Hymn. 8s & 7s.
Which Jesus' grace has given — The hope, when days and years are past We all shall meet in heaven.	1 Onward, Christian, tho' the region Where thou art be drear and lone, God hath set a guardian legion Very near thee—press thou on.
 3 From eastern shores, from northern lands, From western hill and plain, From southern climes, the brother- bands May hope to meet again. It is the hope, the blissful hope, Which Jesus' grace has given— The hope, when life and time are o'er, We all shall meet in heaven. 	2 Listen, Christian, their hosanna Rolleth o'er thee—"God is love,"

 4 By thy trustful, calm endeavor- Guiding, cheering, like the sun. Earth-bound hearts thou shalt deliver; Oh, for their sake, press thou on ! 5 Be this world the wiser, stronger, For thy life of pain and peace; While it needs thee, oh no longer, Descriptions of the subscription. 	 3 For not like kingdoms of the world The Holy Church of God! Though earthquake shocks are rocking her, And tempests are abroad; 4 Unshaken as eternal hills, Immovable she stands— A mountain that shall fill the earth,
Pray thou for thy quick release.	A fane unbuilt by hands.
 6 Pray thou, Christian, daily, rather That thou be a faithful son; By the prayer of Jesus—"Father, Not my will, but thine, be done!" 384 Tune—Stockwell. &s & 7s. 1 Check grow pale, but heart be vigor- 	386 Tune-Louvan. L. M. 1 The perfect world, by Adam trod, Was the first temple built to God; His fiat laid the corner-stone, And heaved its pillars one by one. 2 He hung its starry roof on high— The broad, illimitable sky;
ous;	He spread its pavement, green and
Body fail, but soul have peace; Welcome, pain! thou searcher rigor-	bright, And curtained it with morning light.
ous,
 Slay me, but my faith increase. 2 Sin, o'er sense so softly stealing; Doubt, that would my strength im- 	3 The mountains in their places stood, The sea—the sky—and "all was good;" And when its first few praises rang, The "morning stars together sang."
pair; Hence at once from life and feeling- Now my cross I gladly bear. ; Up, my soul! with clear sedateness	4 Lord, 'tis not ours to make the sea, And earth, and sky, a house for thee; But in thy sight our off'ring stands— An humbler temple, "made with hands."
Read heaven's law, writ bright and broad, Up! a sacrifice to greatness, Truth, and goodness—up to God!	5 We can not bid the morning star To sing how bright thy glories are; But, Lord, if thou wilt meet us here, Thy praise shall be the Christian's tear.
4 Up to labor! from thee shaking
Off the bonds of sloth, be grave! Give thyself to prayer and waking;	387 Tune-Duke Street. L. M.
Toil some fainting heart to save!	1 Faith, Hope, and Charity, these three, Yet is the greatest Charity; Father of lights, these gifts impart
385 Tune-Jazer. C. M.
 O where are kings and empires now Of old that went and came? But Holy Church is praying yet, A thousand years the same. 	2 Faith, that in prayer can never fail, Hope, that o'er doubting must prevail, And Charity, whose name above Is God's own name, for God is love.
 Mark ye her holy battlements, And her foundations strong; And hear within, the solemn voice, And her unending song. 	3 The morning star is lost in light, Faith vanishes at perfect sight, The rainbow passes with the storm, And Hope with sorrow's fading form.

|

4 But Charity, screne, sublime, Beyond the reach of death and time, Like the blue sky's all-bounding space,	2 Soft descend the dews of heaven; Bright the rays celestial shine; Precious fruits will thus be given,
Holds heaven and earth in its embrace.	Through the influence all divine.
388 Tune-Alida. C. M. D.	3 Sow thy seed; be never weary; Let no fears thy soul annoy;
1 Though perfect eloquence adorned My sweet persuading tongue, Though I could speak in higher strains Than ever angels sung;	Be the prospect ne'er so dreary, Thou shalt reap the fruits of joy.
Though prophecy my soul inspired,	390 Tune-Hastings. C. L. M.
And made all myst'ries plain; Yet were I void of Christian love, These gifts were all in vain.	1 Oh be not faithless! with the morn, Scatter abroad thy grain; At noontide—faint not thou forlorn;
2 Nay, though my faith with boundless pow'r E'en mountains could remove,	At evening—sow again! Blessed are they, whate'er betide, Who thus all waters sow beside.
I still am nothing, if I'm void Of holy, heavenly love.	2 Thou knowest not which seed shall
Although with lib'ral hand I gave My goods the poor to feed, Nay, gave my body to the flames—	grow, Or which may die or live ; In faith, and hope, and patience, sow !
Still fruitless were the deed. 3 Love suffers long; love envies not;	The increase God shall give,— According to his gracious will, As best his purpose may fulfill.
True love is ever kind; She never boasteth of herself,
Nor proudly lifts the mind. Love harbors not suspicious thoughts,	391 Tune-Luton. L. M.
Is patient to the bad; Griev'd when she hears of sins and crimes,	1 O what stupendous mercy shines Around the majesty of heaven ! Rebels he deigns to call his sons—
And in the truth is glad.	Their souls renewed, their sin sfor- given.
4 Love beareth much, much she be- lieves,	2 Go, imitate the grace divine-
And still she hopes the best; Love meekly suffers many a wrong, Though sore with hardship pressed.	The grace that blazes like a sun; Hold forth your fair, though feeble light,
Love still shall hold an endless reign, In earth and heaven above, When tongues shall cease, and pro-	Through all your lives let mercy run.
phets fail, And every gift but Love!	3 Upon your bounty's willing wings Swift let the great salvation fly; The hungry feed, the naked clothe;
389 Tune-Dormance. 88 & 78.	To pain and sickness help apply.
 He that goeth forth with weeping, Bearing precious seed in love, Never tiring, never sleeping, Findeth mercy here above. 	4 Pity the weeping widow's wee, And be her counselor and stay; Adopt the fatherless, and smooth To useful, happy life, his way.

5 When all is done, renounce your deeds, Renounce self-righteousness with scorn: Thus will you glorify your God, And thus the Christian name adorn.	4 If done beneath thy laws E'en servile labors shine; Hallowed is toil, if this the cause, The meanest work, divine.
And thus the Onristian name adorn.	394 Tune-Asmon. C. M.
 392 Tune-Downs. C. M. 1 Hark how Christ's sweet and tender care Complies with our weak minds; Whate'er our state and tempers are, Still some fit work he finds. 2 They that are merry let them sing, And let the sad hearts pray; Let those still ply their cheerful wing, And these their sober way. 3 So mounts the early chirping lark Still upward to the skies; So sits the lone dove in the dark Sighing out moans and cries. 4 And yet the lark, and yet the dove, Both sing through several parts; And so should we, howe'er we move, 	 Speak gently—it is better far To rule by love than fear; Speak gently—let no harsh word mar The good we may do here. Speak gently to the young—for they Will have enough to bear; Pass through this life as best they may, 'Tis full of anxious care: Speak gently to the aged one, Grieve not the careworn heart; The sands of life are nearly run, Let them in peace depart. Speak gently to the erring ones— They must have toiled in vain; Perchance unkindness made them so; O, win them back again ! Speak gently—'tis a little thing, Dropped in the heart's deep well;
 With light or heavy hearts. 5 Or rather both should both assay, And their cross-notes unite; Both grief and joy should sing and pray, Since both our hopes incite. 	 The good, the joy, that it may bring, Eternity shall tell. 395 Tane-St. Ann's. C. M. 1 Yes, they have caught the way of God, To whom self lies displayed
393 Tune—Gerar. S. M.	In such clear vision as to cast O'er others' faults a shade.
1 Teach me, my God and King, Thy will in all to see; And what I do in any thing, To do it as for thee!	 2 A bright horizon out at sea Obscures the distant ships; Rough hearts look smooth and beautiful In charity's celipse.
2 To scorn the senses' sway, While still to thee I tend; In all I do, be thou the way, In all, be thou the end.	3 Then mercy, Lord ! more mercy still ! Make me all light within, Self-hating, and compassionate, And mild to others' sin.
3 All may of thee partake; Nothing so small can be But draws, when acted for thy sake Greatness and worth from thee.	4 I need thy mercy for my sin; But then with this I need,— Thy mercy's likeness in my soul For others' sins to bleed.

 5 'Tis not enough to weep my sins; 'Tis but one step to heaven; When I am kind to others, then I know myself forgiven. 6 All bitterness is from ourselves, All sweetness is from thee; Sweet God! forevermore be thou Fountain and fire in me. 	 2 Go, where the friendless stranger lies; To perish is his doom; Snatch from the grave his closing eyes, And bring his blessing home. 3 Thus what our heavenly Father gave Shall we as freely give; Thus copy Him who lived to save, And died that we might live.
396 Tune-Coventry. C. M.
 Scorn not the slightest word or deed, Nor deem it void of power; There's fruit in each wind-wafted seed, That waits its natal hour. 	 With my substance I will honor My Redeemer and my Lord;
 2 A whispered word may touch the heart, And call it back to life; A look of love bid sin depart, 	Were ten thousand worlds my manor, All were nothing to his word; Hallelujah ! Now we offer to the Lord.
 And still unholy strifé. 3 No act falls fruitless, none can tell How vast its powers may be, Nor what results infolded dwell Within it silently. 	2 While the heralds of salvation His abounding grace proclaim, Let his saints of every station Gladly join to spread his fame: Hallelujah! Gifts we offer to his name.
 397 Tune-Monson. C. M. 1 Make channels for the streams of love, Where they may broadly run; And love has overflowing streams, To fill them every one. 2 But if at any time we cease Such channels to provide, The very founts of love for us Will soon be parched and dried. 	 3 May his kingdom be promoted; May the world the Saviour know; Be to him these gifts devoted, For to him my all I owe: Hallelujah ! Run, ye heralds, to and fro. 4 Praise the Saviour, all ye nations; Praise him, all ye hosts above; Shout with joyful acclamations His divine, victorious love: Hallelujah ! By this gift our love we'll prove
 3 For we must share, if we would keep That blessing from above; Ceasing to give, we cease to have: Such is the law of love. 	400 Tune-Bavaria. 8s & 7s. 1 Bring the tithes into the storehouse; Let there be a bounteous store; Then I'll noun you out a blocking
 398 Tune-Dunlap's Creek. C. M. 1 Go to the pillow of disease, Where night gives no repose, And on the cheek where sickness preys Bid health to plant the rose. 	Till ye have no room for more. Prove me now, ye doubting children, Let your faith attest my word;

 2 Stand no longer idly waiting; Prayer unproved hath little power; Vain yonr longing, without effort, To advance the promised hour. Bring your offerings to the altar; Tithes of money, work, and prayer; Yea, with earnest consecration, Give yourselves to service there. 	 3 Thy bright example I pursue, To thee in all things rise; And all I think, or speak, or do, Is but one sacrifice. 4 Careless, through outward cares I go, From all distraction free; My hands are but engaged below, My heart is still with thee.
Open wide the heavenly windows.	5 Oh! when wilt thou, my life, appear! How gladly would I cry— "'Tis done, the work thou gav'st me here, 'Tis finished, Lord!" and fly.
	403 Tune-Ae, L. M. D.
 401 Tune—Lacy. C. M. 1 She loved her Saviour, and to him Her costliest present brought; To crown his head, or grace his name, No gift too rare she thought. 2 So let the Saviour be adored, And not the poor despised, Give to the hungry from your board; But all, give all to Christ. 3 Go, clothe the naked, lead the blind, Give to the weary rest; For sorrow's children comfort find, And help for all distress'd;— 	 A poor wayfaring man of grief Hath often crossed me on my way, Who sued so humbly for relief, That I could never answer nay. I had no power to ask his name, Whither he went, or whence he came; Yet there was something in his eye That won my love, I knew not why. Once when my scanty meal was spread, He entered; not a word he spake; Just perishing for want of bread— I gave him all; he blessed and brake, And ate—but gave me part again: Mine was an angel's portion then l And while I fed with eager haste, The crust was manna to my taste l
4 But give to Christ alone thy heart, Thy faith, thy love supreme; Then for his sake thine alms impart, And so give all to him.	3 I spied him where a fountain burst Clear from the rock; his strength was gone; The heedless water mocked his thirst: He heard it, saw it hurrying on.
4.02 Tane-Mornington. C. M. 1 Son of the Carpenter ! receive This humble work of mine, Worth to my meanest labor give,	I ran and raised the sufferer up; Thrice from the stream he drained my cup, Dipped, and returned it running o'er; I drank, and never thirsted more!
By joining it to thine. 2 Servant of all, to toil for man Thou wouldst not, Lord, refuse; Thy majesty did not disdain To be employed for us.	 4 In prison I saw him next, condemned To meet a traitor's doom at morn; The tide of lying tongues I stemmed, And honored him 'mid shame and scorn.

My friendship's utmost zeal to try, He ask'd if I for him would die? The flesh was weak, my blood ran chill, But the free spirit cricd, "I will!" 5 Then, in a moment, to my view,	2 Yet clouds will intervene, And all my prospect flies; Like Noah's dove, I flit between Rough seas and stormy skies. Anon the clouds depart, The wind, and watere cases
The stranger started from disguise; The tokens in his hands I knew— My Saviour stood before my eyes! He spake, and my poor name he named:	The winds and waters cease; While sweetly o'er my gladdened heart Expands the bow of peace.
"Of me thou hast not been ashamed; These deeds shall thy memorial be; Fear not, thou didst it unto me!"	3 I hear at morn and even, At noon and midnight hour, The choral harmonies of heaven Earth's Babel-tongues o'erpower.
404 Tune-Happy Zion. 88, 78, & 48.	Then, then I feel that he- Remembered or forgot-
1 Saviour, haste: our souls are waiting For the long expected day, When, new heavens and earth creating, Thou shalt banish grief away; All the sorrow	The Lord is never far from me, Though I perceive him not.
Caused by sin and Satan's sway.	406 Tune-Boonton. C. L. M.
2 Haste, oh hasten thine appearing, Take thy mourning people home; 'Tis this hope our spirits cheering, While we in the desert roam, Makes thy people Strangers here till thou dost come.	 Since o'er thy footstool here below Such radiant gems are strewn, Oh what magnificence must glow, Great God, about thy throne! So brilliant here these drops of light— There the full ocean rolls, how bright!
 Lord, how long shall the creation Groan and travail sore in pain, Waiting for its sure salvation When thou shalt in glory reign, And like Eden This sad earth shall bloom again ? 	 2 If night's blue curtain of the sky— With thousand stars in wrought, Hung like a royal canopy With glittering diamonds fraught Be, Lord, thy temple's outer veil, What splendor at the shrine must
4 Reign, oh reign, almighty Saviour, Heaven and earth in one unite; Make it known, that in thy favor There alone is life and light;	dwell! 3 The dazzling sun at noonday hour— Forth from his flaming vase
When we see thee We shall have supreme delight.	Flinging o'er earth the golden shower Till vale and mountain blaze— But shows, O Lord, one beam of thine;
405 Tune-Ain. S. M. D.	What, then, the day where thou dost shine!
1 My Father's house on high! Home of my soul! how near,
At times, to faith's foreseeing eye Thy golden gates appear!	4 Oh how shall these dim eyes endure That noon of living rays!
Ah! then my spirit faints	Or how our spirits so impure,
To reach the land I love, The bright inheritance of saints,	Upon thy glory gaze! Anoint, O Lord, anoint our sight,
Jerusalem above.	And fit us for that world of light.

×

407	Tune—Claremont.	н. м.	408	Tune-Fvarts.	7s & 6s.
The court of The Heave Of spotless O happ Whe My O	ace, sweet place ald of God most high, n of heavens—the majesty! y place! n shall I be, dod, with thee thy face?	throne	With n Beneath t Sink ha I know n What s What rad	em, the Golden, hilk and honey bles hy contemplation .rp and voice oppre ot, O 1 know not, ocial joys are there ianey of glory, ight beyond compa	est.
Nor moon l Oh, no! the The Lamb O happ Whe My O	y day shines there by silent night; see needless are; himself's the light hy place! n shall I be, God, with thee, thy face?	•	Conjubi And brig And all The Princ The day The pastu	and, those halls of lant with song, ht with many an ar the martyr throng ce is ever in them, ylight is screne l res of the blessed sked in glorious she	ngel, ; !
Judged her. There ange And lowly O happ Whe My (Tells my Lord, my e unfit to live; ls to him sing, homage give. y place! n shall I be, God, with thee, thy face?	King,	And the The song The sho And they, Have co Forever a	s the throne of Dav ere, from care relea of them that trium out of them that fer who, with their le onquered in the figh nd forever 1 in robes of white	sed, uph, ast ! ade r , nt,
There from The prophe Their long'd O happ Whe My O	archs of old their travels cease ts there behold d-for Prince of Pea y place! n shall I be, dod, with thee, thy face?	100.	Is Lord He, Judah He, Lan Oh fields t Oh state	ere the Sole-Begott in regal state— i's mystic Lion, ab immaculate. that know no sorroo that fears no strif ely bowers! Oh lan	w! el
I might wit The harpers Harping on O happ Whe My C	b's apostles ther h joy behold, s I might hear harps of gold. y place ! n shall I be, dod, with thee, thy face ?		409 1 For theo Mine ey For very 1 Thy hap	m and home of life Tune-Ecarts. e, O dear, dear Cou es their vigils keep love beholding opy name, they wee	7s & 6s. ntry ! p;
Pitch'd for A short-leas Heaven's st O happ Whe My O	at a sorry tent, a few frail days, s'd tenement; ill my hope, my pi y place! n shall I be, Jod, with thee, thy face?	raise.	Is uncti And medi And lov 2 With ja Thy stree The sardiu	on of thy glory on to the breast, cine in sickness, re, and life, and res uspers glow thy bul ects with emeralds is and the topaz in thee their rays;	lwarks,

112

.

2 Oh none can tell thy bulwarks,
How gloriously they rise l Oh none can tell thy capitals
Of beautiful devise!
Thy loveliness oppresses All human thought and heart;
And none, O peace, O Zion,
Can sing thee as thou art!
3 New mansion of new people,
Whom God's own love and light
Promote, increase, make holy, Identify, unite!
The Lamb is all thy splendor,
Thou eity of the Lord ! [His land and benediction
Is the glorious decachord !
4 Oh holy placed have noted
4 Oh holy, placid harp-notcs Of that eternal hymn!
Oh sacred, sweet refection,
And peace of seraphim! Oh thirst, forever ardent,
Yet evermore content!
Oh true, peculiar vision Of God omnipotent!
-
5 Oh! sweet and blessed country,
Shall I ever see thy face? Oh! sweet and blessed country,
Shall I ever win thy grace?
1 ask not for my merit, I seek not to deny,
My merit is destruction,
A child of wrath was I.
6 Jerusalem, exulting
I hope thee, wish thee, sing thee,
And love thee evermorc.
Exult, O dust and ashes; The Lord shall be thy part;
His only, his forever,
Thou shalt be, and thou art!
Holy, holy, holy! Thee,
One Jehovah evermore,
Father, Son, and Spirit, we, Dust and ashes, would adore:
Lightly by the world esteemed,
From that world by thee redeemed, Sing we here, with glad accord, [Holy, holy, holy Lord! Amen.

INDEX OF SUBJECTS

GOD-FATHER, SON, AND HOLY GHOST.-Hymns, CHURCH-WORK.-Hymns 138, 139, 143, 153, 1-18, 212, 317, 320, 324, 343. 385, 390, 391, 392, 394, 393-399. PERFECTIONS OF .- 11 ymns 137, 268, 273, 321, ALMS DEEDS .--- Hymns 137, 400-404. 322, 323, 325, 329, 331, 407. -158, 160, 163, 165-167, 171, 187, 199, 200. JESUS CHRIST-PERSON AND WORK .- Hymns 19-109. MARTYRS OF .- Hymns, 175, 182, 186, 192. TRUE GOD .- Hymns 14, 15, 21, 27, 35, 70, TRIUMPH AND GLORY .- Hymns 51, 80, 103-105, 108, 109, 132-134, 183, 188, 189, 190, 159, 342. 193, 195-198, 344, 384, 386, 409, 411. FIRST ADVENT .- Hymns 20, 22, 24, 33, 69, 263, 332. CHRISTIAN-COMPLETE IN CHRIST.-Hymns BIRTH AND LIFE .- 11 ymns 25, 26, 28, 32, 34, 50, 53, 163, 172, 173, 181, 207, 209, 213, 36, Parts I. and II. 40, 63, 159, 162, 218, 219, 222, 228, 229, 230, 232, 233, 337. 246-249, 251, 256, 257, 259, 260, 265, 274, 300, 307-309, 348. SUFFERINGS AND PASSION .- Hymns 37-39, 41-44, 46-50, 52, 54, 55, 72, 128, 211, GRACES.-Hymns 71, 125, 161, 191, 221, 223, 225, 226, 228, 234, 236, 250, 254, 258, 325. 310, 312-317, 329, 330, 336, 368, 373, 379, BURIAL AND RESURRECTION .- Hymns 45, 388, 389, 395. 56-60, 62, 64, 65, 68, 338. TRIALS .- Hymns 93, 120, 168, 180, 184, 202, ASCENSION AND ADMINISTRATION OF HIS 214, 235, 237, 244, 245, 262, 346, 349, 352, GOVERNMENT AS PROPHET, PRIEST, AND 357, 359, 363, 372, 375. KING.-Hymns 51, 53, 61, 65, 67, 74, 75, 132, 134, 172, 248, 270, 311, 339. SERVICE.--Hymns 129, 135, 137, 174, 193, 194, 231, 238, 241, 242, 261, 265, 275, 293, SECOND ADVENT TO JUDGMENT AND GLORY .--345, 374, 383, 384, 390, 398. 11ymns 76-89, 91, 92, 94, 95, 97, 99, 100, 102, 105, 405. EXPECTATION .- Hymns 79, 82, 85, 88, 89, 98, 103, 107, 178, 185, 201, 203, 205, 206, CHURCH-PENTECOST, HOLY SPIRIT GIVEN .-220, 264, 277, 278, 281, 282, 406-408, 410. Hymns 16, 110-115, 290, 360. INVITATION AND WARNING .- Hymns 66, UNITY.-Hymns 121-123, 177, 381, 382. 96, 97, 124, 140, 176, 207, 208, 210, 213, ORDINANCES - SABEATH. - Hymns 116, 117, 215, 227, 243, 252, 253, 265, 288, 288, 126, 376, 377, 378, 380. 289, 291, 292, 294-299, 301-307, 347 PREACHING THE WORD .- 11ymns 40, 131. LIFE-VALUE AND BREVITY OF .- Hymns 90, 95, 231, 261, 334, 340, 341, 390, 391. 97, 179, 204, 239, 240, 244, 283, 284, 354-PRAYER .- Hymns 52, 73, 118, 130, 141, 264, 356, 358. 267, 269, 271, 272, 282, 361, 363-367, 392. MISCELLANEOUS .- Hymns 101, 106, 136, 164, BAPTISM.-Hymns 119, 165, 169, 170, 171. 220, 224, 262, 266, 276, 279, 280, 285, LORD'S SUPPER .- Hymns 45, 46, 49, 50, 54, 287, 291, 293, 306, 311, 324, 350, 351, 79, 89, 172, 173, 232, 219, 309, 358, 368. 353, 368, 371, 387, 393, 394.

INDEX OF TUNES.

TUNE.	L. M.	BOOK.
Admah (L. M., 6 lines) Ae (L. M. D.)		Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Anvern
Beethoven		Shawm.
Duke Street		Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Eaton (6 lines)		No. Trada C III
Enon's Isle (6'lines) Federal Street
German Air, or Mendon
Happy Day		New Lute of Zion.
Hebron		Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Louvan
Luther's Hymn
Luton
Old Hundred
Park Street		66 66
Philadelphia		Sacred Choir.
Quito		Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Rest
Retreat Rockbridge
Rockingham		66 68
Rolland		66 68
Rosenberg		Shawm.
Rothwell		Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Sweet Hour of Prayer (L. M. D.)	• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •	Sunday-School Hosanna.
Tallis Hymn Upton	•••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••	" " " " "
Uxbridge		46 66
Ward.		66 66
Ware		66 66
Wells		66 86
	C. M.
Asmon		Proshyterian Psalmodist
Aspiration

A $21011	resolution composition
Aspiration	Christian Hymnal.
Avon, or Martyrdom	Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Balerma
Brace	Sacred Choir.
Brown	Presbyteriau Psalmodist.
Chimes	66 66
China	66 66
Chelmsford, or Melody
Christmas.
Colchester
Coventry
Alida (C. M. D.)
Athens (C. M. D.)
Belief (C. M. D.)	temple choir,
Brattle S*reet (C. M. D.)
Cross and Crown, or Maitland
Dedham	Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Devizes	66 66

INDEX OF TUNES.

TUNE.	C. M Continued.	BO	ок.
Downs		Presbyterian	Psalmodist.
Dundee		Č 6 6	6.6
Dunlap's Creek		6.6	66
Edmoston		6.6	6.6
			66
Enfield (C. M. D.)		66	66
Evan		Shawm.
Fountain		Presbyterian
Harmony Grove	•••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••	Christian Hy	mnal.
Henry		Snawm,	Destant 11.4
Jordan (C. M. D.)	•••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••	1 1050 j terran ((46 6.
			66
	1		ol Hosanna.
Manoah		Temple Choir	or Greatorex.
Martyrdom, or Avon		Presbyterian
Mear		۲،۲	6.6
Medfield		Shawm.
			Psalmodist.
			66
	•••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••
			Psalmodist.
			**
			66
			Zion
Salvation, or Resolution (C. M	I. D.)	South rn Hai	mony
Siloam.		Presbyterian	Psalmodist.
Solon		Funk's Collec	tion.
St. Ann's		Presbyterian	Psalmodist.
	••••••••••••••••••••		6 G
			Psalmodist.
	•••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••
	•••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••	Presbyterian	Psalmodist.
Zerab

S. M

S. M
Ain, or Lonsdale (S. M. D.)	Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Athol, or Cambridge	- 66 - 66 - E
Bithynia	Temple Choir.
Boylston	Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Dennis	66 66
Dwight	66 66
Fergnson
Forever with the Lord (S. M. D.).	Now Lute of Zion
Gerar
	riesoyterian reatmodist.
Golden Hill.	17 C T 1 1
Good Tidings (S. M. D.)	marp of Judan.
Granby	Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Greely (S. M. D.)
Kentucky
Laban	66 66
Lisbon	66 66
Little Marlborough	66 66
Manly.	Jubilee.
Monon Olmutz.
Scioto
Shawmut.
bha whi u transmission and the second s	resbyterian i saimouist.

INDEX OF TUNES.

TUNE. S. M.—Continued. Shirland. Silver Street	BOOK. Presbyterian Psalmodist. " " "
Ganges Rapture
C. L. M. Hastings	Christian Hymnal. New Lute of Zion.
Sing Praise	Shawm.
68 & 4s. America	44
Ava
New Haven	Sunday-School Hosanna.
Calvary's Mountain	New Lute of Zion. Sunday-School Hosanna.
78, 4 LINES. Horton	Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Ionia	66 66
Norwich Pleyel's, or German Hymn	66 66
Wilmot.	66 8£
7s, 6 lines. Sabbath	Sunday-School Hosanna. Presbyterian Psalmodist.
7s, 8 LINES.	Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Ethan
Martyn
75 & 58. 78 & 68.	Songs of Praise.
Bernard For Control Evarts. Evarts. Evarts. Evarts. Lexington. Malleville. Malleville. Malleville. Mendebras Missionary Hymn. Outside the Gate. Romaine. Rural Hill. Seclusion . Seclusion . Somervale. Stand Up for Jesus. Utica. Vandevender Webb	Carmina Sacra. Sunday-School Hosanna, Presbyterian Psalmodist, Shawm. Carmina Sacra. Presbyterian Psalmodist, Songs of Gladness. Presbyterian Psalmodist. Jubilee. Harp of Judah. New Lute of Zion. Harp of Judah. Jubilee. Teunple Choir.

78, 68, & 78. Merdin (Burst ye Emerald Gates)..... New Lute of Zion.

INDEX TO TUNES

TUNE. Beautiful Zion	85.	BOOK. Songs of Praise.
De Fleury, or Green Fields Madison.		Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Timna (4 lines)

88 & 38.

Laconia, or Will you Go...... Jubilee.

8s & 6s (C. P. M.)

Woodland (by repeating the third strain)	New Lute of Zion.
Just as I Am.	Harp of Judah.
We are Coming

8s & 7s, SINGLE.

Bartimeus	Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Dorrnance
Nount Vernon	Jubilee.
Perez	Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Rathburn
Sicilian Hymn
Stockwell

8s & 7s, 6 LINES.

Germany	Sacred Choir.
Kedesh	Shawm.

8s & 7s, DOUBLE.

Angry Words	Silver Spray,
Autumn.	Shawm.
Bavaria	Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Bethel	Sunday-School Hosanna.
Caro
Crawford	Harp of Judah.
Emerson
Fount, or Good Shepherd	Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Greenville
Harwell (8s & 7s, or 8s, 7s, & 7s)	Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Home beyond the Tide	Sunday-School Hosanna.
Let me Go
Middleton
Park
Shining Shore
Smyrna
Yates

8s, 7s, & 4s.

A mi	New Lute of Zion.
Calvary	Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Deliverance
Farland	56 66
Gruner
Happy Zion	New Lute of Zion.
Minnesota.
Mollucca	New Lute of Zion.
Siberia	American Tune Book.
Unam

5s & 11s.

Holborn...... New Lute of Zion.

10s.

Joyfully, joyfully	New Lute of Zion.
Herb	Shawm.

10s & 7s.

Never be Afraid Golden Censer.

INDEX TO TUNES.

TUNE. Frederick	11s.	BOOK. Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Goshen, or Hinton Lyons.		** ** **
Lyte		New Lute of Zion.
Munir Perine	• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •	Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Protection (old)		Funk's Collection.
Be Kind to thy Father	Ils & 8s.	Sunday-School Hosanna.
	11s & 9s.
Sweet Story of Old	•••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••	••
Admah	L. P. M.	Presbyterian Psalmodist.
Dalston	S. P. M.
Children in Heaven
Beautiful River	•••••	. Songs of Praise.
Burnham	н. м.	Presbytarian Psalmodist
Claremont
Lenox Lischer Zebulon

INDEX OF HYMNS.

HYMN
Abba Father we approach thee 10	Calm on the ear of listening night	332
	Can it be right for me to go 2
Abide with us fast falls the 369	Check grow pale, but heart be vigorous 3	385
Above the starry spheres 110
A charge to keep I have 174	Christ has done the mighty work	59
A debtor to mercy alone 222	Christ is coming, let creation.	79
A few more suns shall set 281	Come in thou blessed of the Lord	124
Again we meet O Lord
Ah dearest Lord I can not pray
Ah God is other than we think 331	Come Lord Josus O come quickly	86
Ah my sweet home Jerusalem (P. III.) 205	Come O come they King of glory	216
A little flock so calls he thee
	Come sinner to the gospel feast
	Come to the house of prayer 3
	Complete in thee, no work of mine 2
All is o'er, the pain, the sorrow	Crown his head with endless blessing	Ð
All that I was, my sin 232
All ye who pass by 42	Day by day the manna fell 3	375
Amidst the mighty where is he 327
An exile for the faith 182	Dear is the spot where Christians sleep 2
Angels from the realms of glory 22	Depth of mercy, can there be 2	208
Angels where'er we go attend 353	Descend O sinner to thy woe	96
Angry words are lightly spoken 266	Done is the work that saves	49
A pathway opens from the tomb 59
A pathway opens from the tomb	Earth has many a noble city	26
A poor wayfaring man of grief 404	Eternal Father, strong to save 2
Around Bethesda's healing wave	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
Around the throne of God in heaven 158	Faith is a very simple thing 2	225
A sea of glass I saw 197
A sinful man am I 209
Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep 278	Far from the world, O Lord I flee	tea
A soldier's course from battles won 202
As flows the rapid river
As pants the hart for cooling streams 245
Assembled in our school once more 144
At even e'er the sun was set	Fling out the banner, let it float
Attend and mark the solemn fast	Forever with the Lord	121
		01
Attend O Lord my daily toil		01
A trusting heart, a yearning eye	For thee, 0 dear, dear country	10
Awake Jerusalem rejoice 196	For the mercies of the day
Dethed in metallen annlight 100	Forty days and forty nights	52
Bathed in unfallen sunlight 108	Fountain of good, to own thy love 19
Beautiful Zion built above 109	Fountain of love thyself true God	8
Behold a royal Bridegroom 195
Behold, behold the Lamb of God 40	Gainst what foeman art thou rushing 1	31
Behold the throne of grace	Give ear, O earth, give ear	83
Be kind to thy father 152	Glory be to God the Father	18
Beyond the hills where suns go down	Glory to God on high	11
Bride of the Lamb awake 78	God's glory is a wondrous thing 1:	37
Bright the vision that delighted 12	God hath bereaved me of my child 10	68
Bring the tithes into the storehouse 401	God is in his holy temple	3
Burst ye emerald gates 339	God is love his mercy brightens 39	23
By Christ redeemed, by Christ restored 173	God of all grace we bring to thee 11	19
	God of that glorious gift of grace 17	71
Call Jehovah thy salvation 8	God of union, God of love 14	42
Call them in, the noor, the wretched 139	God the Creator blessed	16

н	YMN	1	YMN
Go labor on, spend and be spent	138	Jesus thon art the sinner's friend	014.
Gracious Jesus, Lord most dear	373	Joyfully, joyfully, onward we move. Joyfully singing, now onward. Just as 1 am, without one plea. Just as thou art, how wondrous fair. Just as thou art without one trace.	170
Gracions Saviour ventle Shepherd	147	Joyfully singing now onward	110
Granted is the Saviour's praver	360	Just as I am without one the	100
Great God, when Lauproach thy throne	217	Just as they art how word	210
Guand well the line	905	Just as thon art, now wondrous fair	227
Guard went my npo	200	oust as those art without one trace	215
Hark now Onrist's sweet and tender care	000	Lead them my God to thee	166
Hark the cry, behold he cometh	100	Let all who name llis name	241
Hark the sound of holy voices	198	Let heaven arise, let earth appear	321
Hark 'tis the Saviour's voice	253	Let us awake our joys	344
Hark 'tis the watchman's cry	92	Let us awage our joys. Let us now new anthems raise. Light of the lonely pilgrim's heart. Lie down frail body here. Listen to the gospel telling	192
Harp awake, tell out the story	355	Light of the lonely pilgrim's heart	100
Haste, my dull soul	204	Lie down frail body here	280
Health of the weak to make	301	Listen to the gospel telling	334
Heavenly Father may thy love	169	Little children, Jesus calls you	148
He came, he came	111	Little drops of water	153
Heavenly Father may thy love	258	Lo from the desert homes	- 33
He liveth long who liveth well	239	Lo He comes, with clouds descending	94
He speaks; the gracious words	255	Look ye saints the sight is glorious	65
He that goeth forth with weeping	390	Lord at this closing hour	130
Himself he could not save	43	Lord give me light to do my work	242
Holy Spirit in my breast	115	Lord I believe, thy power I own	236
Hosanna raise the pealing hymn	76	Lord Jesus, God and Man	159
How hard it seems to work for God	383.	Lord of glory, who hast hought us	128
How high thou art, our songs	325	Lord, our longing hearts grow weary	91
How lost was my condition	308	Lord thy glory fills the heaven	224
How oft the morn has cheated us	82	Lo what a cloud of witnesses	175
How serious is the charge	145	Lord was the wind and wild	9.19
How shalt thou bear the cross	316	Bolid was the whild and while means the	240
How sole mn are the words	140	Make channels for the stream of love	200
How strong the thought of God	010	Make challes for the stream of love	004
How sweet how heat aly	100
How sweet, how heavenly Ho ye that thirst approach	120	Many woes had Christ endured	000
no ye that thirst approach	004	Mercy, O thou Son of David.	296
T from these O these Radius O all	0.7.77	Messiah at thy glad approach	2919
I fear thee O thou living God		Must Jesus bear the cross alone	237
I heard the voice of Jesus say	218	My days are gliding swiftly by	179
I hear the words of love	249	My faith looks up to thee	71
I lay my sins on Jesus	219	My Father's house on high	406
I need thee precious Jesus	246	My God, my God and can it be My gracious Redeemer 1 love	212
In days of old on Sinai In glory bright the Saviour reigns	35	My gracious Redeemer 1 love	223
In glory bright the Saviour reigns	270	My life's a shade, my days	90
In pulses deep of threefold love		My Saviour, Jesus, dearest love	315
Inspirer and hearer of prayer	9	My soul amid this stormy world	93
In streets and openings of the gates		My topgne shall spread the	23I
In the Christian's home in glory	201	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
In the cross of Christ I glory	191	Nearer my God to thee
In the floods of tribulation		Never be afraid to speak for Jesus	261
I once was a stranger to grace		New every morning is the love	268
I saw the cross of Jesus	312	No blood, no altar now	45
It came upon the midnight clear	23	No not the love without the blood	46
It came upon the midnight clear It is the voice of love divine	66	No room for mirth or trifling here	97
I think when I read that sweet story	157	Nothing either great or small	256
I wish to have no wishes left	330	Not what these hands have done	251
I worship thee sweet will of God	329	Now condescend Almighty King Now I have found a friend	163
I've cast my deadly doing down I've found a friend, O such a friend	257	Now I have found a friend	309
I've found a friend, O such a friend	259	Now that the sun is gleaming	371
	1	Now the day is over	164
Jerusalem, Jerusalem (P. II.)	205	Now the day is over Now the thirty years accomplished (P. II.)	36
Jerusalem the Glorious	411
Jerusalem the Golden	409	O'erwhelmed in depths of woe	48
Jerusalem thrice happy seat (P. IV.)	205	O'erwhelmed in depths of woe Of all the gifts thy love bestows	224
Jesus bids me seek his face	150	Of the Father's love begotten Oft in danger, oft in woe	19
Jesus, dear name, how sweet it sounds	254	Oft in danger, oft in woe	180
Jesus is God. O could I now	342	O be not faithless	391
Jesus is God, the solid earth	14	O blessed day when first was poured	31
Jesus, Lord of life and glory	15	O blessed day when first was ponred O bread to pilgrims given	172
Jesus Lord we look to thee	267	O come and mourn with me	44
Jesus thou art my Righteousness,	247	O day by day each Christian child	160

HYI	MN	1 ਸ	YM:
0 day of rest and gladness	17	Sing to the Lord our might	38
U do not let the Word depart	294	Sing we the martyrs hlest	18
O faith then workest miracles	1.15	Since o'er thy footstool hare	40
O gift of gifts, O grace of faith	2011	Soar we now where Christ has led	- 201
O Cod the news is wonderful	220	Songs of thankfulness and praise.
O dod, thy power is wouderful	1020	Songs of thankingess and praise.	40
O happy day that nx d my choice 2	521	Son of the Carpenter receive	40
U happy day when hist we felt 2	230	Soon, soon and torever	20.
U nead, blood-stained and wounded	00	Soon this corruptible	10
O head so full of bruises	39	Souls of men why will ye scatter	293
O home of fadeless spiendor 2	206	Sound, sound the truth abroad	34
O how kindly hast thou led me 3	351	Sounds the trumpet from afar	13
O Jesus, thou art standing 1		Sovereign grace o'er sin abounding
O Lord, I live always in pain 3	357	Speak gently it is better far	39
O Lord, turn not thy face from me 2	214	Stand up and bless the Lord
O Lord, while we confess the worth 1	70	Stand up and bless the Lord	13
O Love Divine what heat they done	5.1	Sweet place, sweet place	10
O Love Divine, what hast thou done O Love of God, how strong and true	E E	oweet place, sweet place	400
O hove of God, now strong and true	00	The set was a set of the set of the set	00
O mean may seem this house of clay 2	270	Teach me my God and King
O Mother dear, Jerusalem (P. I.) 2		Tell me not in mournful numbers	350
O my dear Saviour 8	336	That city with the jeweled crest	10
O peace of God, sweet peace 3	313	That city with the jeweled crest That warning voice O Sinner hear	-30
O praise our God to-day 1	126	The ancient law departs	- 30
O quickly come dread Judge	84	The author of salvation	14
	41	The bird let loose in Eastern skies	37
O Sion, open wide thy gates			- 8
O soul of Jesus sick to death 2	211	The Church's one foundation	12
O streams of earthly pleasure	85	The cross stands firm no blast of time	5
O streams of earthly pleasure	28.2	The day of Bucarpaction	0
O then from when all goodness	270	The first of the unit of the unit	03
O thou from whom all goodness 3	100	The first sad hours of shame	20
O turn ye, O turn ye 2	89	The neavenly child in stature grows	_23
0 what a bright and blessed 1		The heavenly child in stature grows The highest and the holiest place	26
O what if we are Christ's 1		The Holy Ghost is here	-11:
O what stupendous mercy 3		The Lord is my Shepherd no want	27:
O where are Kings and Empires now	886	The night is wearing fast away	- 89
0 wondrous type, 0 vision fair	34	The perfect world by Adam trod	38
O worship the King, all glorious	1	The prophet gave the sign	20
Once, only once, and once for all	72	The roseate hues of early dawn	26
One by one the sands are flowing 2		The royal banners forward go	4
One sole baptismal sign 1	99	The Shepherd now was smitten	19
Onward Christian soldiers 1	93	The sinner who by precious faith,
Onward Christian though		The Son of God goes forth to war	194
	101	The Son of God in wights have	133
Oppressed with noonday's scorching	10	The Son of God in mighty love The Spirit in our hearts	69
Our blest Redeemer ere he breathed 1	14	The Spirit in our hearts	290
Our life seems like an idle play 2	40	The thought of God above below	319
Our Lord is risen from 3	38	The winds were howling o'er the deep	-28i
		The Word with God the Father One	27
Peace Earth's last battle has been 1	05	The world is very evil	- 8
Planted in Christ the living vine	81	Thee we acknowledge God and Lord	-70
	16	Thee we adore eternal Lord	6
raise be thine most hory opinit	101	There's a wideness in God's mercy.	300
	- 1	There is a happy land	100
Rejoice, rejoice believers	001	There is an eye that never steeps	110
Remember thy Creator now 1	011	There is a time, we know not wheu	110
Rest for the little sleeper 16	11-1	There is no pupple of survet	280
		There is no name so sweet	105
	100	There is no sorrow Lord too light	120
		There's not a tint that paints	322
	~ []	There is plentiful redemption	307
Saviour again to thy dear name 12	29	They are going, only going	200
Saviour blessed Saviour 18	87	There is plentiful redemption They are going, only going. They talked of Jesus as they went	368
Saviour come thy saints are waiting	19	THINK Well now Jesus trusts nimseit	311
Saviour haste our souls are waiting 40)5[This did not once so trouble me	316
Saviour when in dust to thee	52^{14}	This is the day the first ripe sheaf	378
Scorn not the slightest word,	97	Though faint yet pursuing	359
		Though perfect eloquence adorned	2002
See yon blaze of earthly splendor	25 1	Thop art gong up on high	009
Shall this life of mine be wasted	20 1	Thow art my hiding place	04
Shall this life of mine be wasted	10	Thou art my norm grace	348
Shali we gather at the river	JO I	Thou art near yes Lord I teel it	73
She loved her Saviour and to Him 40	12	Inon God of sovereign grace	165
Shine on our souls	2	rhou God whose thoughts are	343
Shine on sweet sun and let my day	52 [Thou whose almighty word	131
sing my tongue the glorious battle (P. I.) 3	3617	Thy works not mine O Christ	53

HYMN	HYMN
Time's sun is fast setting	When his salvation bringing
To-day the Saviour calls 295	When Syria's leprous chief
To fear is harder than to weep 359	Wherefore weep we over Jesus
Trustingly, trustingly Jesus to thee 310	While the darkness yet hovers
	While others crowd the house of mirth 350
Ungrateful sinners whence this 305	Who touch'd me, dost thou ask 250
•	With Christ we died to sin 228
Watchman tell me does the 102	With laud and loud thanksgiving
We are coming blessed Saviour 149	With my substance I will honor
We are not left to walk alone 113	With tearful eye I look around 349
We are out on an ocean sailing 154	Wrapped in a Christless shroud 287
We give thee but thine own 127
We leave now behind us 293	Years fly, O Lord and every ear 358
We lift our hearts to thee 269	Ye humble souls that seek 347
We plough the fields and scatter 17	Ye servants of our glorious King 194
We'll sing in spite of scorn 24	Ye servants of the Lord 238
We're traveling home to heaven 292	Yes for me for me he careth 75
	Yes they have caught the way 396
What a world with all its sorrows 106
What star is this with beams so bright 21	Zion stands with hills surrounded 188